Rev. H. F. Powell and Audrey Green were married at her home in Cerro Gordo on Nov. 2, 1909. Their acquaintanceship began at an Epworth League Convention, and she brought to her new life in the parsonage the powers of a womanly character devoted to all the interests of our church. Their pastorates were, successively, at Weedman, Gifford, Seymour, and Cisco. In each of these places she met the difficult and exacting requirements of the relations of the parsonage home with grace and tact, and her radiant personality won the esteem and affection of the church and community. Funeral services were held at our church at Cisco on Tuesday afternoon, May 15, 1917, in charge of Joseph C. Nate, District Superintendent, assisted by F. B. Madden, of Jacksonville, a former Superintendent of the Champaign District, W. S. Phillips of Cerro Gordo, R. H. Schuett of Champaign, A. N. Simmons of Bellflower, and Wilbert Dowson of Bement. The church edifice was crowded to overflowing with the friends who came to pay their tribute of respect to the memory of Mrs. Powell, and even the church yard roundabout was filled with friends who could not gain admission to the edifice. A large number of ministers of Champaign and neighboring Districts were in attendance, and every former pastorale of Brother and Sister Powell was represented. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. The interment was at Cerro Gordo.

Besides her husband, Sister Powell is survived by their little son, Robert, aged three. She is also survived by her two brothers, Karl W. Green of Santa Fe, N. Mex., and Capt. Roy K. Green of the United States Army, and her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wimmer of Cerro Gordo. The calling of such a character from home and church is another of those providences of life and death which it is not given us here and now to understand, but some day we shall know—"when the morning breaketh and the shadows flee away."

SHERMAN A. ROSS.

Sherman Andrew Ross was born near Muncie, Ind., May 1, 1865. His death, the result of an accident, occurred at his home near Yorktown, Ind., August 30, 1916.

S. A. Ross was admitted to the North Indiana Conference in the spring of 1887. During his career as a minister for some twenty-five years, he held various charges in Indiana, in Kansas, in Rhode Island, in Wisconsin, and in Illinois. His last regular charge was at Saybrook, Ill. At the time of his death he was a field secretary for the Anti-Saloon League of Indiana, though he still maintained official relations with the Illinois Conference. During his period of service for the Anti-Saloon League—three years—he traveled a total of 22,176 miles, delivered 164 addresses, spoke personally to thousands of temperance people in all parts of the state, and raised $12,650 for the cause of temperance.

The funeral address was delivered by Rev. E. S. Shumaker, Superintendent of the Indiana League; and the state League force attended the service and acted as pallbearers.

S. A. Ross is survived by a wife and a son.

MRS. JOHN C. SARGENT.

Mrs. Belinda Sargent, widow of Rev. John C. Sargent, was born in Morgan County, Ill., near Jacksonville, June 14, 1828. She was the daughter of James and Eleanor Thompson Holliday, who were highly respected pioneers, coming from England in 1821.

Her marriage to John Collins Sargent took place May 28, 1848. In 1854 her husband became a member of the Illinois Annual Conference, and they shared together the life of the itinerant of that period. During the Civil War Brother Sargent was Chaplain of the 91st Ill. Infantry, leaving to the mother the care of her little family.

When a young girl, attending a camp meeting led by Peter Cartwright, she was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. Another great preacher to whom she listened was Peter Akers.

Mrs. Sargent possessed many fine qualities. She and her husband sang together, to the delight of many. Her amiable and cheerful disposition endeared her to all who knew her. She passed away March 20, 1917. Funeral services were conducted at her home by William S. Phillips. Interment was made in the beautiful Diamond Grove Cemetery at Jacksonville.

MRS. WILLIAM FLETCHER SHORT.

From life to life eternal Mrs. Sarah Laning Short passed the bounds of time on October 16, 1916, from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Julian Sturtevant Wadsworth, in Fitchburg, Mass.

Mrs. Short was the wife of the late Dr. W. F. Short, who was a member of this Illinois Conference for fifty-four years preceding his death on August 30, 1909. Through all these years she was identified with her husband's ministerial and educational work. Friendly and cordial in feeling, she delighted in extending hospitality, and wherever her home might be she was a gracious hostess. In the grace of her home-making for family, friends and pupils, she found her chief happiness. Mrs. Short was a constant reader and especially fond of poetry, with which her memory was richly stored. Most of all she enjoyed conversation with her friends, when her keen sense of humor and ready response made her companionship a mutual pleasure.

Sarah Laning was born in Zanesville, Ohio, May 9, 1833, the daughter of Hannah and Jacob Holcomb Laning. While a child she moved with her parents to Petersburg, Ill., where she was married on August 23, 1854, to Rev. W. F. Short, and went with him to Cape Girardeau, Mo., where he was principal of a seminary for girls. There she shared his work as a teacher in the school. Returning to Illinois before the outbreak of the Civil war, Dr. Short resumed his membership in Illinois Conference, and within its bounds passed the remainder of his life.

While under the annual appointment of the Conference Dr. and Mrs. Short had an unusual experience in ministerial life in that nearly all their years of service were spent in Jacksonville; first in the pastorate of Grace church, which appointment was made in 1868; then as presiding elder of the Jacksonville district; from 1875 until 1893 they together carried the responsibilities of Illinois Woman's College and kept the school in operation and free from debt when other academies and colleges for girls were forced out of existence through the new sentiment that was developing in favor of co-education. The years from 1893 to 1897, spent in the Illinois School for the Blind, while Dr. Short was superintendent, were full of appeal to Mrs. Short's motherly sympathy and wisdom, and many are the young people and children who there received from her the tender, helpful counsel that will be cherished through life.

Surviving Mrs. Short are three daughters, Mrs. Edward C. Lambert, Jacksonville, Ill.; Mrs. John Duke Waller, Oak Park, Ill.; Mrs. Julian S. Wadsworth, Fitchburg, Mass. There are also six granddaughters, one grandson, four great-grandsons and three great-granddaughters.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Lambert in Jacksonville, Ill., on October 20, conducted by Dr. F. B. Madden, pastor of Grace church, Dr. F. A. McCarty, superintendent of Jacksonville district, and President J. R. Harker of Illinois Woman's College. The singing of the hymns by a double quartette of young ladies from the college seemed a tribute especially fitting for her who had given so many of her best years to the students in the college. The interment was made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

MRS. PETER SLAGLE.

Cordelia Bean, beloved wife of the late Rev. Peter Slagle, was born May 31, 1839, near Winchester, Ill., where she spent the early years of her life on her father's farm. She was married March 7, 1862, to Peter Slagle, who commenced his labors three years later as a minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the Illinois Annual Conference. For thirty-five years without a break he received his appointments from the bishop, serving twenty-three different charges throughout the central part of the state. He died suddenly at West Point in 1900, shortly after removing there from Clayton, where he held the pastorate for three years and where he was buried.

Mrs. Slagle was the mother of five children, one, a daughter, dying in 1873. The others are Edward R. Slagle and Mrs. Nellie F. Harnly, of Chicago; Robert E. Slagle, and Mrs. Anna McBratney, of Weiser, and Boise, Idaho. There are four grandchildren living. After the death of her husband Mrs. Slagle made her home alternately with her two daughters, spending the last two years with the daughter in Chicago. During this period her health failed rapidly and she had become almost totally blind when death ended her sufferings in peaceful sleep on February 17, 1917, having attained the ripe age of 78 years. She was laid at rest beside her husband in the family lot at Clayton. Through the long years Mrs. Slagle fulfilled all the duties of a pastor's wife with patient and sacrificial devotion, the while keeping an ideal home and an open house for the church. She was a loving mother and to the end a trusting and devout follower of her Master.

CHARLES E. TAYLOR.

Rev. Charles E. Taylor was born February 16, 1873, in West Elkton, Ohio. When a small boy, his parents, who were Quakers, started west. After two years' stay in Indiana, they pushed on to Lincoln, Kans., which they reached in the summer of 1885. Here they made their home until their son Charles was ready for high school. Then the family moved to Lawrence, Kans. After graduating from the city schools, he entered Kansas University, receiving his A. B. in 1901. This same year he united with the Kansas Conference, and continued as pastor, at Tonganoxie, where he had served as a supply while a student in the university. In the fall of 1901 he entered Boston School of Theology, receiving his S. T. B. in 1904. Returning to Kansas after graduation, he was stationed at Effingham. In 1906 he was appointed to Nortonville, from which charge he was transferred to the Illinois Conference and stationed at Villa Grove. His three years' ministry at this place was blessed by a gracious revival. Then a two years' pastorate at Marshall, and in 1913 he was appointed to Camp Point, where he continued his active work until January 28, 1917, when he was stricken with a severe pain in his head. On January 31, he took his bed, and after remaining unconscious for five days went to the heavenly homeland. The cause of his death was a brain disorder.

Rev. Taylor was especially fitted for the work of the ministry by education and devotion, being by nature a student. Yet his love for books never chilled his love for men. He was reserved and dignified, courteous and sympathetic, a Christian gentleman, interested in the uplift of all whom he served, a consecrated man.

Brother Taylor was married in Lawrence, Kans., September 1, 1903, to Miss Mary Esther Owens, who had been a classmate in the high school and at the university. Thus for thirteen years Mrs. Taylor has proven herself a helpmate, indeed, sharing the joys and sacrifices of a minister's life. Besides his wife, Rev. Taylor is survived by three children, Beulah, Esther, and George. One brother, William, of Indiana, and one sister, Mrs. Anna Harding, of Lawrence, Kans., also remain.

Brother Taylor was President of the Quincy District Epworth League, also a member of the Conference Board of Education, and one of the Board of Conference Examiners. To all of these causes he gave much time and thought.

His funeral was conducted by District Superintendent A. S. Flanigan, assisted by several of his brethren from the Methodist Church, in Camp Point, where he had preached faithfully the good news for nearly five years. The interment was at Lawrence, Kans., and a brief service was conducted there by Dr. Wolf, Superintendent of the Topeka District, who had known Brother Taylor on his first charge. Thus he was laid to rest by the side of his father, who early taught him the ways of God.

RESOLUTIONS.

MEMBERS IN DETACHED SERVICE.

Be It Resolved, That each member of the Conference who shall be appointed to service other than that of Pastor or District Superintendent shall furnish the Secretary of the Conference the name of the position held, and the amount of salary or income received from said position.

A. M. Wells.

COURTESY.

We thank God and congratulate ourselves in review of the very favorable auspices of this 94th annual session of the Illinois Conference. The weather has been ideal and our welcome to these twin cities most pleasing and cordial.

We express our appreciation of the painstaking preparations by local pastors and Committee on Program and Entertainment. We are under lasting obligations for the kindness shown us in the homes and for other courtesies designed to make us comfortable and our visit a happy one.

We thank the other denominations for the use of their churches so far as needed by our committees. The opening of their pulpits to our preachers has been indeed most fraternal.

We felicitate the Conference on this first full presidency of our residential Bishop Thomas Nicholson, LL. D. His administration has been marked by brotherliness, promptness and efficiency. His morning devotional expositions and addresses have touched our hearts and helped our faith. His Sunday ministry brought us a great and timely message and a blessed inspiration.

We have been honored by the helpful visits of General Church Officials. Particularly have we been blessed by the Evangelistic lectures of Dean L. J. Birney of Boston School of Theology. They won our admiration and gratitude.

We acknowledge further the "Bonny Briar Bush" lecture of Dr. W. R. Wedderspoon of Chicago. It was a great treat and did us much good. The same is true of "The Story of His Bible Class," by Dr. Otho Bartholow of New York.

We have been highly favored and pleased with the splendid pipe organ program furnished the Conference by the efficient organist, Mrs. James H. Green.

For special accommodations to our Treasurer and Assistants we thank the First National Bank. The Chamber of Commerce has also shown us special kindness and recognition.

We have appreciated the hospitality shown by President James of the State University and by Rev. and Mrs. Fowler of the Cunningham Children's Home.

The local press has furnished full and respectful reports of our proceedings.

We would not be unmindful of any service rendered by citizens or business firms on behalf of our pleasure or welfare.

To all our hosts we express our thanks; and upon them all we invoke the choicest blessing of our Heavenly Father for all the coming years.

G. F. Oliver, Chairman.

C. F. McKown, Secretary.

PATRIOTIC SERVICE.

Resolved—

(1) That we put ourselves as a Conference squarely and unreservedly back of the plan for the patriotic service in behalf of our army camps as suggested by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

(2) That we observe the first Sunday in October upon which we shall take an offering for that purpose.

(3) That in the interest of making it a success the districts be organized for the effort.

(4) That a Conference Committee of five be named for co-operating with the districts with similar committees from other Conferences of the state on behalf of this cause.

CONFERENCE RULES.

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock, noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the Conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the Conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and, if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1) when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided, (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but, on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by _____ members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than _____, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The District Superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the Conference in advance of the Conference Session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"22. Vacancies in the Conference Board of Trustees, the Conference Board of Stewards and the Conference Deaconess Board shall be filled by election of the Conference on nomination by the District Superintendents.

"23. All requests for special appointment shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

"24. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"25. The Statistical Secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the Conference Session immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"26. Each pastor in effective work shall contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent of his annual salary each year to a fund known as Secretarial Expense Fund, such fund to be applied as necessity requires to the purpose of securing expert accountants, or stenographers, or assistants to the Conference in any way.

"27. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"28. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the Conference."

TENTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF THE ILLINOIS CONFERENCE.

Held at the Congregational Church in Champaign, Illinois,
September 7 and 8, 1917.

Association called to order by Prof. Francis M. Austin, of Bloomington, President of the Association.

Devotional exercises conducted by Emma A. Jerman, of Franklin, Illinois, Congregation joined in singing "O, Happy Day."

Prayer by President Kemp, of Illinois Wesleyan. Scripture Lesson from the 16th Chapter of Book of Matthew. A most inspiring and helpful message was furnished by the leader, which was followed by a general testimony to which hearty response was given.

Address of Welcome was given by S. A. Murdock, of Champaign, and response was given by G. S. Tarbox, of Arcola, Illinois.

The Chair announced the appointment of Hon. George H. Wilson, of Quincy, Edward Imboden, of Decatur, and James Landis, of Bement, to constitute the Committee on Resolutions, and announced the appointment also of Judge H. R. Snavelly, of Marshall, Oscar S. Wilder, of Bloomington, and Benjamin F. Huff, of Cerro Gordo, as Committee on Nominations.

A roll call of lay delegates and persons elected to represent their Charges at this association showed the following to be present: Bloomington District, Oscar S. Wilder, Francis M. Austin, J. U. Surface, Leslie G. Owen. Champaign District, S. A. Murdock, S. P. Beers, Ida Martin, Mrs. Eubanks, John Kissack, and representatives from Sidney and Weedman. Danville District, Judge Isaac A. Love, J. J. Duncan, Jennie Houk, Myrtle T. Howard. Decatur District, Ed. Imboden, Lloyd Snerley, J. W. Hanver, B. F. Huff, J. T. Haslam, John Sheller, W. L. Patterson, and representatives from Hillsboro, St. Paul's, Decatur, Sanner Chapel, and Nokomis; representatives were also present from Georgetown and Homer, in the Danville District. Jacksonville District, J. R. Harker, C. C. Grimmett, J. T. Robertson. Mattoon District, G. S. Tarbox and wife, James B. Edgar, Judge H. R. Snavelly. Quincy District, D. Dunham, J. B. Thomas, Eva Fields, Hon. George H. Wilson, and representatives from Barry, Milton, and Mt. Sterling. Springfield District, Ira Blackstock, of Springfield, and A. B. Carswell, of New City. Joseph R. Harker, President of Illinois Woman's College,

Jacksonville, Theodore Kemp, President of Illinois Wesleyan, Eva C. Frields, of Chaddock Boys' School, Tempa Asher, of the Baby Fold Normal, and Joseph W. VanCleve, D. D., of Evanston, Secretary of Commission on Finance, were introduced by the Chair and spoke in behalf of their work. The following Vice-Presidents were present and read their reports: J. T. Haslam, Decatur District; C. C. Grimmett, Jacksonville District; C. W. Groves, Champaign District; Benjamin F. Kagey read brief report for Danville District, and Judge H. R. Snively read a brief report for Mattoon District. These two Districts were without Vice-Presidents the past year. The following Vice-Presidents were unable to be present and their reports were read by the Secretary; Robert Means Saybrook, Vice-President of Bloomington District, Joseph Smith, Springfield District, and C. W. Caughlin, Quincy District. The reports showed that the following charges had contributed the annual dues asked and were entitled to be placed on Roll of Honor: Bloomington District, Bloomington First Church, Bloomington Grace, Beason, Mason City, LeRoy, Waynesville, Hartsburg, Lincoln, Mt. Pulaski, Heyworth, Weldon, Ebenezer, Delavan and McLean; Champaign District, Bement, Champaign, DeLand, Champaign Circuit, Monticello, Philo, Paxton, Sidney, Urbana; Danville District, Danville First Church, Homer, Potomac, Tuscola, Villa Grove; Decatur District, Argenta, Arthur, Assumption, Bethany, Butler, Blue Mound, Cadwell, Cerro Gordo, Decatur First, Decatur Grace, Elwin, Illiopolis, Lakewood, LaPlace, Lake City, Latham, Macon, Maroa, Millersville, Moweaqua, Mt. Zion, Niantic, Nokomis, Oconee, Pana, Hillsboro, Sanner Chapel, Stonington; Jacksonville District, Ashland, Bath, Fairview, Beardstown, Carrollton, Greenfield Circuit, Chesterfield, Concord, Franklin, Franklin Circuit, Greenfield, Jacksonville Brooklyn, Jacksonville Centenary, Jacksonville Grace, Lynnville, Palmyra, Oakford, Rockbridge, Virginia, Waverly, Waverly Circuit, White Hall, Riggs-ton; Mattoon District, Arcola, Casey, Charleston Circuit, Findley Circuit, Hindsboro, Kansas, Lerna, Marshall, Neoga, Oakland, Westfield, Windsor Circuit; Quincy District, Augusta, Barry, Columbus, Detroit, Mt. Sterling, Payson, Pittsfield, Plymouth, New Canton, Rockport, Quincy Vermont Street; Springfield District, Auburn, Buffalo, New City, Dawson, Girard, Loami, Pawnee, Springfield First Church. Hon. Leslie G. Owen, of LeRoy, was introduced and spoke briefly on the subject, Our Present Duty. At the conclusion of this address Miss June Patterson, of LeRoy, was introduced and sang, in a most pleasing manner, "Don't You Hear the Bells Ring-ing for You."

Dr. Kemp pronounced the Benediction. The Association now adjourned.

Saturday morning 9 o'clock, in absence of James W. Breckon, C. C. Grimmett, of Palmyra, conducted the Devotional Exercises.

Dr. Smith delivered the following address on "Prohibition and the War":

Some fundamental principles need to be enunciated and emphasized in the very beginning of this discussion. The liquor question is a race problem, because alcohol is a race poison. The highest medical and scientific authorities are now a unit in the declaration that alcohol is neither a medicine nor a food. So this question has a very vital relation to the world war. Mr. Lincoln used to say of this nation and African slavery, "A house divided against itself cannot stand." But rum slavery is worse than African slavery, and so the same rule must apply. It is the acme of wickedness, the climax of iniquity, the mother of abominations, and the sum of villainies. So some one has called saloons the "breathing holes of hell," and it is a good name for them, for there the fumes of hell are densest. Thus the liquor traffic must be exterminated. No milder method will suffice. It has been demonstrated times without telling to be the only adequate remedy. Everything else has been tried, and miserably failed. But, wherever prohibition has had anything like a fair trial, it has been a pronounced success. It is no longer an experiment. It is more necessary during this war than at any other time in our history. So Ella H. McRae sings:

"The time was ripe, and, with one fearless stroke,
God's man, great Lincoln, slavery's fetters broke,
And set four million free.
Again the time grows ripe. God's man must ready be,
To measure to the need of this enslaved land,
And wrest the red lash from the rum power's hand,
And set a nation free."

Among the first duties in preparedness is to abolish the traffic in intoxicants. Russia discovered that in the early history of the war. England made the greatest mistake of the war in not doing the same thing. We shall make the greatest mistake of all if we do not profit by their experience. "Safety first" means sobriety first, for nothing interferes with safety like the liquor traffic. Congress took one good step in prohibiting the use of food stuffs for making distilled spirits. But twice as much is wasted in the manufacture of malt liquors. Why not go all the way, and cut it all out? Why save at the spigot, and lose at the bung? Why cut off the dog's tail and leave his head on? Cut off the tail just behind the ears. Before the war the rummies tried to make the farmer believe their trade was necessary to furnish a market for their products. A boozier making an address in Indiana where Dan Voorhees, the "tall sycamore of the Wabash," was present, asked, "What would you farmers do for a market for your grain if you shut up the breweries and distilleries?" Voorhees said, "I'll tell you what we'll do with it; we'll raise more hogs and less hell." Now the rummies have gone to the other extreme, and claim that the amount of grain they use is a negligible quantity. But the liquor bunch is in a hole. They demanded the elimination of the prohibition clause in the food control bill so far as wine and beer are concerned, and accompanied their demand by a threat that, if it was not done, they would filibuster all summer, if necessary, and defeat the passage of the entire bill. So they have gotten themselves in bad with the administration. On the other hand, we made the concession President Wilson, as the Commander-in-Chief of the army and navy, asked for, and we are in favor of the administration. But we promised only a temporary cessation of hostilities. We are now in a position to ask for what we want when Congress assembles in regular session in December, and get it. The liquor traffic must go. The saloon can no more be reformed than an addled egg can be reformed. The only good saloon is no saloon at all. The only regulation we stand for is absolute annihilation. The only terms we shall accept are those of Gen. Grant at Shiloh, "Unconditional Surrender." The Anti-Saloon League is just pulverizing the traffic. A Hebrew statesman 3000 years ago, after about fifty-seven varieties of experience, said, "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." It is especially true of the sin of the liquor traffic.

As a war measure, the battle is now on along civic and economic lines. It is the costliest curse that can afflict any people. Prohibition is the only adequate offset to the war tax. It costs many times as much to take care of its awful results as all the revenue amounts to. Last year the liquor money in this country would have built nearly 200 battleships at a cost of ten millions of dollars apiece. Yet they keep 96½ per cent of that, and pay back the miserable pittance of 3½ per cent. It hardly begins to pay the costs, and the taxpayers do the rest. Gov. Stubbs said the prohibition law in Kansas was "the greatest business asset the state ever had." Then he added, "The absolute prohibition of the liquor traffic is the greatest economic measure on earth." That should doom the traffic, both as a war and a peace measure. The Kansas tax rate is only a fraction of what it is in Illinois, and they do not owe one dollar of state indebtedness.

But more important even than that is the moral and manful side of this question. That was really settled long ago, but it has a special application during this war. We must have all that will make for manhood and efficiency. A young man at Pleasant Plains told me he did not object to going to the war, but he did insist that when he got there he should not be compelled to associate with boozers. More, parents have a right to demand that their sons shall be protected. And Uncle Sam should insist that none of our supplies shipped to the allies shall be used for making strong drink. Our objective from the first has been National Constitutional prohibition. But if we get it as a war measure, in a statutory way, the traffic will go to stay away forever. We'll never let up till the last distillery and the last brewery, and the last saloon shall be trampled out of existence under the feet of an indignant people, and an aroused public sentiment that shall be all but omnipotent.

When the Civil War broke out, we did not know at first what we were fighting for. We thought we were fighting for the preservation of the Union. But we were not. We were really fighting for the freedom of the slave. And, from the time that Lincoln's immortal Emancipation Proclamation went into effect, we never lost an important battle. God was in it. So at first the nations across the sea did not know what they were fighting for. By and by they found they were fighting for world-liberty. That includes the ultimate extinction of the liquor traffic. God is in that as much as he was in the formation of the Levitical economy, and that is the reason we have entered the great war. God brings good out of evil. He makes even the wrath of men to praise him. We are not fighting the German people. But our war is against the war lords, with their spirit of intolerable autocracy, their unspeakable barbarities, and their outrageous military despotisms. When the world is safe for a sane and sober democracy, the German people themselves will be the recipients of the greatest blessings. That is the good time coming, of which Sarah K. Bolton sings:

"It is coming, it is coming, and men's thoughts are growing deeper,
They are giving of their millions as they never gave before;
They are learning a new gospel, man must be his brother's keeper,
And right, not might, shall triumph, and the selfish rule no more."

Benjamin F. Kagey read his reports as Secretary and Treasurer, which were approved and he was given the thanks of the Association for the manner in which he had handled the business of his office. Balance on hand in treasury was reported to be $150.50. On motion of Judge H. R. Snavelly, the Secretary was authorized to expend the following year what he considered necessary for the office, including letter heads and postage. On motion of Leslie G. Owen, the Treasurer was authorized to give to Treasurer of Congregational Church a free will offering of ten dollars as an expression of our appreciation for courtesies extended. On motion of Leslie G. Owen, Secretary was authorized to have Minutes printed with Conference Minutes same as last year. The Committee on Resolutions presented their report, which was unanimously adopted.

The resolutions introduced heartily endorsed the actions of President of the United States Woodrow Wilson and Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois, in their patriotic and loyal attitude taken for the defense of our flag and country, and pledged them our hearty support; also commended the boys who had enlisted in the service of our country and promised our prayers and aid; pledged our support for the annihilation of liquor traffic, including beer and wine as well as whisky, and demanded that support should be given to those candidates who stood for National Prohibition; endorsed the new financial plan of the Discipline of 1916; endorsed the action of General Conference in admitting laymen as members of Annual Conference; thanked Bishop Nicholson, Dr. Smith, President James, the Officers of the Association, the Officers of the Congregational Church, and the good people of Champaign and Urbana, and all who had in any manner contributed to the success of The Illinois Conference and Laymen's Association. The Committee on Nomination presented the following report, which, on motion of Judge H. R. Snively, was approved and adopted, and the following declared to be elected as Officers of the Association for the ensuing year: President, Benjamin F. Kagey, Tuscola, Illinois; Secretary and Treasurer, C. C. Grimmett, Palmyra, Illinois; Vice-Presidents, Bloomington District, J. U. Surface, Mason City, Illinois; Champaign District, S. A. Murdock, Champaign, Illinois; Danville District, Myrtle T. Howard, Villa Grove, Illinois; Decatur District, J. T. Haslam, Moweaqua, Illinois; Jacksonville District, A. C. Metcalf, Jacksonville, Illinois; Mattoon District, E. N. Heron, Shelbyville, Illinois; Quincy District, C. W. Caughlin, Pittsfield, Illinois; Springfield District, Ira Blackstock, Springfield, Illinois; Gospel Team Committee, E. C. Coon, Leslie Owen, C. W. Meneley, Bert Cole, F. M. Austin, James W. Breckon, Oscar Wilder.

The Officers present were introduced to the Association. Judge H. R. Snively, Prof. Francis M. Austin, and Emma Jerman were appointed members of Executive Committee.

Round Table conducted by B. F. Huff, of Cerro Gordo, proved to be very interesting and instructive. The leader suggested topics that related to all phases of church work and had made special and careful preparation for the subject. A lively discussion followed, which was appreciated and enjoyed by all present.

On motion of Benjamin F. Kagey, the new Treasurer was authorized to pay all claims due and not presented at this date.

After brief remarks by the retiring President and the new President of the Association, Dr. J. W. Van Cleve pronounced the Benediction and the Association adjourned.

(See Proposition.)

On motion of Dr. Antrim in behalf of the District Superintendents a committee consisting of J. W. VanCleve, F. A. McCarty, Chris Galeener, A. S. Chapman and M. G. Coleman was appointed to consider the proposition and report to this conference.

Publication of Conference Minutes—A. M. Wells presented a resolution specifying the limitation of time for receiving material for publication in the Conference Minutes, and the limitation of time for publishing the same. On his motion the same was adopted. (See Resolution.)

Leave of Absence—Walter Mitchell asked for a leave of absence that he might return home to conduct a funeral, and the same was granted.

Question Fourteen, Resumed—"Was the Character of Each Preacher Passed?" The names of the effective Elders of the Springfield and Quincy Districts were called, their characters were passed, and they reported their collections. The names of those in detached service were called and their characters were passed.

The names of those in the retired relation were called and on motion of David F. Nelson their characters were passed, and they were continued in the relations as recommended by the committee on Conference Relations.

Messages of Sympathy—On motion of D. F. Nelson the secretary was instructed to send a message of sympathy to Henry R. Kasiske, and a similar action was taken in the case of T. W. Greer on motion of Chris Galeener owing to the illness of these brethren.

On motion of C. F. Buker the conference appointed W. H. Wilder and N. M. Rigg to convey a message of sympathy to T. R. Petri, who is ill in the hospital.

Centenary Movement—H. W. McPherson presented a report of the committee on the Centenary Movement, and on his motion the same was adopted. (See Resolutions.)

Conference Claimants and Preachers' Aid—J. C. Brown presented a report of the committee on Conference Claimants' and Preachers' Aid and on his motion the same was adopted. (See report.)

The Halifax Offering—C. F. Buker presented the recommendation of the committee on offerings for the Halifax sufferers and asked the District Superintendents to request each pastor to take an offering for the cause.

Apportionment for Conference Claimants—On motion of J. W.

VanCleve the conference appointed a committee of seven to prepare a statement as to the apportionment to be raised for the support of Conference Claimants and report on Monday.

Triers of Appeals—W. D. Fairchild placed in nomination the names of the Triers of Appeals as follows: A. C. Piersel, A. H. Flagg, Chris Galeener, S. H. Whitlock, and J. W. Crane. As alternates the names of C. A. Caseley and W. A. Smith, and on motion of Bro. Fairchild the same were elected.

Adjourned—On motion of J. C. Nate the conference stood adjourned.

FIFTH DAY, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 23, 1918.

Love Feast—The annual Conference Love Feast was conducted by S. H. Whitlock at 9:30 o'clock. The public services of Conference Sunday were held in the Vermont Street church, Bishop Leete preaching the sermon. The sermon was inspirationally appropriate to the needs of the large congregation, thrilling the audience in his utterances.

Missionary Sermon—The annual Missionary sermon was preached at 2 o'clock by A. L. Caseley, who gave the audience a larger vision of the missionary needs.

Ordination—At 3 o'clock Bishop Leete ordained a class of five Deacons, and Seven Elders. (See Certificate of Ordination.)

SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1918.

Opening—The sixth day's session opened with a hymn and A. M. Wells led in prayer. Bishop Leete conducted a parliament on "Community Service."

Report—Board of Stewards—W. G. Lloyd presented the report of the Board of Stewards and on his motion the same was adopted.

Trustees—A. S. Chapman presented the nominations for the Board of Trustees, and on his motion the same was adopted. (See list—Board of Trustees.)

Conference Boards and Societies—W. D. Fairchild presented the nominations for the various Conference Boards and Societies, and on his motion they were adopted. (See list under Officers of Conference Societies.)

Change of Relations—On motion of S. H. Whitlock a leave of absence was granted W. A. Boyd for one year.

Loan for Conference Claimants' Fund—On motion of H. C. Gibbs the conference authorized the making of a loan to increase the available funds for Conference Claimants for the current year.

Report—Preachers' Aid—A. M. Wells presented the report of the Preachers' Aid Society, and on his motion it was adopted.

Dr. E. B. Randle—On motion of A. S. Chapman sympathy was expressed to the family of Dr. E. B. Randle in the loss they have sustained by the death of our brother, and a committee consisting of F. A. Havighurst, W. H. Wilder and J. W. Crane was appointed to attend the funeral.

Home Missions and Church Extension—E. S. Combs presented the askings from the Home Missionary and Church Extension Society, and on motion of J. L. Settles the same was ordered.

Camp Meeting Grounds—E. M. Antrim presented the report of the committee on Camp Meeting Grounds at Mechanicsburg, stating that the committee considered the purchase of such grounds inexpedient, and on his motion the same was adopted.

Committee Reports—E. L. Carson presented the report of the committee on Domestic Missions, A. E. Cole on Church Literature, S. R. Reno on Woman's Home and Woman's Foreign Missionary Societies, A. A. Luce on Sunday schools and Epworth Leagues, T. L. Knotts on Hospitals, G. F. Oliver on the State of the Country, M. G. Coleman the report of the Deaconess Board of Nine, and on the motion of the readers of the several reports the same were adopted.

W. G. Lloyd presented the report of the Board of Stewards, and on motion of J. L. Settles the same was adopted.

On motion of E. M. Antrim the conference ordered the other reports printed in the Minutes and adopted them as thus presented.

Official Journal—On motion of R. W. Ennis the printed copy of the Minutes was made the official report of the conference session.

Trustees Mattoon Hospital—On motion of R. F. McDaniel the same trustees for the Mattoon Hospital as last year were elected, with the exception that the name of W. D. Fairchild was substituted for that of C. F. Buker.

Introduction—Mrs. Frields of the Chaddock Boys' School was introduced and spoke to the conference in the interests of the school.

Conference Claimants' Fund—On motion of R. W. Ennis, the matter of distribution of Conference Claimants' Funds was referred to the District Superintendents with power to act.

Salaries—Detached Service—A. M. Wells presented a resolution requiring each member in detached service to report amount of salary received and on his motion it was adopted. (See Resolution.)

War Appropriations—On motion of W. D. Fairchild the conference ordered that the balance due on war apportionments on the several charges be raised before Thanksgiving.

Report—Auditing Committee—The report of the auditing committee was made by E. A. Hedges, and on his motion the same was adopted.

Reports—J. S. Smith presented the Conference Treasurer's report, and E. J. Campbell the Statistician's report in totals, and on motions of these brethren the respective reports were adopted.

Election of Treasurer and Statistician—On motion of E. A. Hedges the conference voted to elect the treasurer, statistician and auditor for the next session of the conference at the present session.

J. W. VanCleve placed in nomination J. L. Settles for treasurer, O. H. Meyers for statistician, and E. A. Hedges for auditor, and on his motion these brethren were elected to the respective positions.

Gifts to Secretaries—On motion of A. M. Wells the conference voted the usual gifts of $20 each to the secretaries, the Conference secretary excepted.

Property Sale—On motion of B. F. Shipp the conference ordered that the Heyworth charge, Bloomington District, be granted permission to sell the Shiloh church property, real estate and buildings on the same charge, the proceeds of the sale of the said property to be divided equally between the Heyworth Methodist church and the Shiloh Cemetery Association.

On motion of W. D. Fairchild the conference authorized that the proceeds of the sale of the Mt. Olive church on the Ridge Farm circuit be returned to the charge and that the funds be reinvested on the charge.

Seat of Next Conference—A. K. Byrns extended an invitation to the conference to hold its next session in First Church, Bloomington, and E. G. Sandmeyer invited the conference to meet at Charleston. On vote of the conference Charleston was chosen, and on motion of Bro. Byrns the vote was made unanimous.

Educational Collection—On motion of J. C. Nate the conference ordered that the educational collection be divided among the Illinois Wesleyan University, the Illinois Woman's College, and the Wesley Foundation in the ratio established for the present year.

Missionary Sermon—On motion of J. C. Nate the conference referred the assignment of missionary sermon to the District Superintendents with power to act.

Resolutions—G. W. Flagge presented the resolutions of courtesy for the committee on resolutions, and on his motion the same were adopted. (See Resolutions.)

Special Appointments—On motion of J. C. Nate the Bishop was requested to make the special appointments as the several cases were recommended.

Adjournment—On motion of S. H. Whitlock the conference voted that after the reading of the appointments and benediction the conference stand adjourned, Bishop Leete read the appointments and the conference stood adjourned sine die.

Reports.

(A) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

B. F. Shipp, Superintendent.

Due to the elimination of the Danville District, some adjustments were necessary in our work, at the opening of the conference year. These adjustments were quickly made, and the whole work speedily related and fully harmonized; so the program of the year was quickly launched, into which every man fitted himself readily, and the district was early under way for an aggressive year. The conference program, adopted at our last session, we have kept before us as our goal, and have earnestly and eagerly pressed toward it.

Changes.

No changes have occurred on the district through the year among the regularly appointed men, and only a slight change has taken place among the student pastors, consequent upon war conditions.

District Meetings.

Early in the year we made the District Stewards' Meeting the occasion of a regular district meeting, which was held at Park Church, Bloomington. This meeting was indeed inspirational, educational and exceedingly helpful.

Besides this we held other district meetings, sub-district meetings, group meetings and sub-group meetings, until we approached confusion and almost lost our bearings. These meetings were in the interest of the various movements of the church, among them being the Conference Claimants' Movement, the Wesley Foundation, National War Work Council, and other enterprises.

A special series of Group meetings were held from April 23rd to 26th, inclusive, at four different centers, at which meetings we had the representatives of the various Church Boards, supported by some of our district leaders. These men made this series of meetings very much worth while. The elements were not in our favor, but the attendance was gratifying. By this group method we were able to reach a very much larger number of our officials and members, than it were possible to do by the single central meeting.

Patriotism.

We have not lacked in patriotic fervor. No other district in the conference, I dare believe, has surpassed this district in its patriotic offerings. Nearly every charge met the call in full, made by the Home Missionary Society last fall, for our war work. This was augmented by every charge, with scarcely an exception, meeting the requirement of our National War Work Council, which was presented in the spring.

Everywhere our people have rallied to and been leaders in the work of the Red Cross, the Young Men's Christian Association, and kindred organizations. The church has yielded up her full measure of men and treasure, in defence of the flag. The parsonage homes have contributed their sons. Almost every church has its service flag, with its full quota of stars, as well as a long honor roll. Practically whole classes of young men have gone from some of our Sunday Schools to join the colors, while the service flag of the Illinois Wesleyan contains no fewer than three hundred and twenty-five stars, and several of these young men so represented have made the supreme sacrifice. The patriotism of Methodism has not waned since the Civil War, when she won from the immortal Lincoln his glowing tribute. This is proved by the present vacancies in our homes, and evidenced by the statistics from hospital, camp and field.

Membership.

The war conditions, when people's minds are diverted in many directions, do not seem to be conducive to large gatherings. May we be spared the deeper sorrow which drives men to God, but rather permit His goodness to lead us to repentance. However, we have had some gracious gatherings at a few places. Were it not for the fact that our Committees on Church Records are strangely remiss in their duty, or our pastors are woefully deficient in practical bookkeeping this year, the district would show a wholesome increase in membership. During this year two churches, by the correction of their membership rolls, each reports a decrease in membership of one hundred and fifty, others report a smaller number, so that by this method our records show a decrease in membership of over four hundred. In spite of so many losses by this method, we shall show a net gain approaching two hundred. Either the injustice of some pastors is vast, or the patience of others is perfect, otherwise there would be a reformation in the matter of keeping church records.

Property.

On December 16th, a new rural church was dedicated at the Harmony appointment on the Lincoln Circuit. The church is of brick and the architecture is pleasing. For beauty and equipment, for every phase of community welfare and social life this church is lacking in nothing. No more attractive place can be found for the developing of the community interest. This church is complete in every particular, as far as provisions can be made to meet the rural needs. All of its cost is fully subscribed, with a large margin, sufficient to meet any possible emergency. Pastor N. R. Johnson and his people, in the construction of this church, have contributed largely to the welfare of the community and have executed well for the future of the Kingdom.

On April 7th, there was dedicated, at San Jose, one of the most complete community churches. It has every appointment and equipment for community service, embracing not a few institutional features, such as gymnasium, club rooms, reading rooms, dining room, kitchen and shower bath, all thoroughly furnished and nothing wanting. This is a remarkable achievement on the part of E. L. Tobie and his people. The church was dedicated with every penny of its cost amply provided. In both of these cases the dedicatory sermon was preached by Prof. W. J. Davidson.

On October 8th, the church at Ebenezer was reopened, after having been thoroughly remodeled and improved. So well were the finances handled, by Pastor Batty and his loyal people, that no offering was necessary on the day of the rededication.

Lesser improvements have been made on our property at Saybrook, Lincoln Circuit, Mahomet, New Holland, Green Valley, Wapella, Delavan, Fisher, LeRoy, DeWitt and other places. These improvements consisted largely in remodeling, enlarging, painting and frescoing, the placing of new furnaces in parsonages and churches and other new undertakings for comfort of worshipers and conveniences in parsonage homes.

Several old debts have been largely reduced, and others have been fully met. This is notably true in the case of Park Church, Bloomington, which church has been burdened with a debt since its erection. This debt has been fully provided for and will no longer hinder the progress of this church in its promising field. This was made possible by the splendid leadership of A. G. Carnine, the pastor, and the sacrifice of his loyal people.

Benevolences.

The calls upon our people have been very many and strangely varied, but they really desire to put first things first, and in some measure seek to give the church her rightful place. They have caught the spirit of our President, who has expressed his gratification that in "this time of crisis there is a resolution to maintain all the benevolent, moral and missionary work of the church, both at home and abroad, in the most effective manner possible." To these calls the people are responding more nobly than ever before. There are not a few of our churches which are one hundred per cent churches, both in membership and in support of our benevolent causes. Assuming that the data furnished by the pastors is fully reliable, I am warranted in stating that while we have given so largely for the support of our National War Work Council, in the regular apportioned benevolences there will be an increase this year of over three thousand dollars.

Pastoral Support.

The high cost of living is a well nigh universal topic, yet who has felt the effect of the high cost of living more than the average pastor? This is not to be wondered at, when it is recalled that many of them have been preaching for years at a lower salary than the present salary of the section hand, indeed at a day's wage as low as the present-day washer woman receives, and yet he was supposed to keep himself abreast of the times, thoroughly versed on almost every subject, and keep himself up to the maximum of efficiency as a leader of men. In some instances his salary was so low that to buy books was to rob his family of its needs.

These conditions are now changing, for which we are indeed grateful. For who can be at his best weighed down with financial burdens? Not a few of our churches are allowing their pastors a more liberal support. I speak now not of increases due to the readjustment of charges, but a genuine increase of salary to the individual pastor. It may be best to set a standard salary for the different classes of charges, but I have not been able to operate that method yet, though I have sought to secure for every man all that I possibly can, according to his needs and his worth. The minimum salary the churches of the district have allowed for the ensuing year, in the aggregate, will reveal an increase over this year in excess of five thousand dollars.

Sunday Schools and Epworth League.

The Sunday School work is being well directed. While the enrollment in this department of our work, and the average attendance may not be as large as a year ago, it is not to be wondered at, when you consider the high pressure at which we have been operating this department for the past quadrennium, and when you recall the fact that almost whole classes of young men from some of our schools have joined the colors, and this fact largely affects the entire community from which they have gone. Admitting that there is a decrease in numbers, we must acknowledge that our Sunday Schools were never better directed and equipped than now. The method and the quality of teaching exceeds by far anything of the kind in former years.

The year for the Epworth League has been one of advance. There has been a wholesome increase in membership, and renewed activity in every department. Especially is this true in our missionary endeavor, while the study classes have greatly increased. Two hundred of our young men are either at the camps or already at the front. The district convention held at San Jose, in June, under the direction of the district president, J. L. Settles, was largely attended and characterized by much enthusiasm. The district organization is harmonizing itself fully with the plans of the Central Office, and a program for an aggressive year's work has been well launched.

Campaigns.

The Conference Claimants' cause has been presented, or introduced on every charge. Nearly all the charges have met the conference requirements in this particular. In round numbers the amount of forty thousand dollars has been subscribed, and fully a proportionate share of it has been paid. All have responded, save where new churches have been erected, or where churches are otherwise carrying heavy financial burdens, making a later presentation of this cause desirable.

The Wesley Foundation has been presented in many churches and responses have been made, but I regret to say that only two charges have pledged the standard amount, fixed by the Foundation.

Chaplaincy.

Only one of the men of the district has gone into the chaplaincy, H. G. Beck of DeLand. Though leaving the latter part of July, he had completed the work of the year, and before he left his report for the year were in the hands of the statistician and the treasurer. He possesses many parts which fit him admirably for his new duties, in which he will serve the country well and honor the church.

Departure.

We regret to record the departure of Professor J. W. Henninger, whose obituary has been presented in connection with the memorial service. He was a Christian indeed, a noble soul and choice spirit. In his demise the Illinois Wesleyan has suffered a keen loss, and the conference is bereft of one of its most delightful characters.

Woman's Missionary Organizations.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary organizations have both enjoyed a very prosperous year. Not only has there been splendid increase in the offerings of these organizations, but the Foreign Society has had an increase in membership of twenty-five per cent, while their total offering approaches nine thousand dollars. There has been a healthy increase in the offerings of the Home Society and it has also enjoyed a large increase in the membership.

Illinois Wesleyan.

The high cost of maintaining a college, together with the great loss of students, during the period of the war, makes these days most trying for all our schools. In view of these conditions it is most gratifying to announce that the last year closed for the Illinois Wesleyan with a few hundred dollars in the treasury.

A military training camp has been established by the government in connection with the Illinois Wesleyan, and from present indications not fewer than three hundred and fifty students will be in training under military discipline and direction. This will necessitate much readjustment, new methods and plans, and the making of special provisions for the housing of the men. In connection with the new phase of college life, the citizens of Bloomington are taking an intense and helpful interest. They appreciate the increased opportunities and obligations which come with this new order, and are displaying a spirit of hearty co-operation with the college authorities. The Association of Commerce is financing the building of a two-story barracks. This will be substantial, comfortable and convenient, and capable of accommodating two hundred and fifty men. For the social needs of the Training Corps, a Lodge or Club house is to be built, and will be thoroughly furnished to meet all social needs.

The attendance of two hundred and fifty men will insure the service of a Y. M. C. A. secretary, with no cost to the school, who will devote his entire time to the physical, social and religious welfare of the men.

To more thoroughly safeguard the religious side of the student life, the churches of the city of Bloomington have agreed to co-operate with the city and college Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. to this end.

Speaking further of the high moral and religious life of the school, attention is called to the fact that at the Lake Geneva Y. M. C. A. Conference, the largest delegation save one from the ten states represented, went from the Illinois Wesleyan, while the Y. W. C. A. sent to their conference, at Lake Geneva, the largest possible delegation there were allowed to send.

It might be further mentioned that in order to be prepared for the days of reconstruction, voluntary classes were formed in the studies of Democracy, Internationalism and Missions. In these voluntary courses every student of the school was enrolled. Possibly such a record is unsurpassed by any other college in the United States.

Anticipating the needs of the ensuing year, under the new conditions, all is being done that possibly can be done to throw around the students wholesome and religious influences. A program of addresses, lectures and sermons has been arranged, running through the year. Some of the most notable men of the country are on this program. The state Y. M. C. A. Secretary will spend a week at the school, while Bishop and Mrs. Nicholson will spend several days at the school, for addresses, conferences and other phases of religious work.

Much readjustment will be necessary to properly relate the college to the new military conditions. These readjustments of the faculty are being made, as well as additions made thereto. By these readjustments and additions, it is believed that the faculty is greatly strengthened.

Appreciation.

Later the statistics will be presented, but how far short they will come of relating the story of the year, they do not reveal the toils and sorrows, the sharing of others' burdens, and the anxious cares for the interests of the Kingdom, which burdens every faithful pastor's heart, when sometimes he struggles almost alone. The story can only be known by Him who readeth the heart.

I want to commend every pastor for his sacrifice and toil, for his devotion to his calling, and for his earnest co-operation in every plan we have had for the furtherance of the interests of the Kingdom. I further wish to express my gratitude to a host of loyal laymen, without whose devotion and co-operation the achievements of the year could not have been written.

CHAMPAIGN-DANVILLE DISTRICT.

J. C. Nate, Superintendent.

Students of the District Superintendency in Methodism have discovered that this official usually sails an uncharted sea. That is, he assumes the superintendency of a district without any trace of an existing program by which his territory is being definitely and increasingly articulated into the programs of the church and Kingdom at large. It is understood that he will do the thing which is put up to him from any source, whenever it comes. And in these days it comes rather thick and fast. In the local pastorate, in the area, and in the church at large there are carefully worked out programs which look several years ahead and which the successor of an incumbent official is glad to follow as making for a maximum of success in the long run. But the superintendent of all these workmen inherits from the reports of his predecessor largely a summary of salary advances, benevolence collections, percentages and results upon the special campaigns of the year, new churches and parsonages builded, indebtedness paid, the personal matter of the parsonage homes, the revivals held, and some expression of personal religious feelings over the whole situation. The most definite program for a successor often is a convenient itinerary of travel for the first quarter, and most of us have devoted a paragraph of our first annual report to a statement of our thanks for being thus told how to cover thirty miles of surrounding territory in the period of three months. Such are the criticisms of the office of the superintendency which have been coming to light in recent years and, it must be admitted, with a degree of justice. It has been with an earnest desire to profit by whatever merit they may hold, that we have sought in the district work this year, as pastors and superintendent working together, to study larger maps and make all our work count increasingly under the plans of the church at large and the deep problems of the Kingdom in our day. In this purpose nothing has been more helpful than the leadership of our Area under Bishop Nicholson, and the consciousness that every brother superintendent of the Conference is bent upon similar goals, whereby we are all learning to work together. Kipling described an essential phase of Methodism when he said:

"It ain't the guns nor armament, nor funds that they can pay,
But close co-operation that makes them win the day;
It ain't the individual, nor the army as a whole,
But the everlastin' teamwork of every bloomin' soul."

The New District.

The new Champaign-Danville District, as made last year, includes thirty-nine Charges, twenty-two from the former Danville District and seventeen from the former Champaign. We believe in the plan of fewer districts in the Illinois Conference, and pastors and people generally, after working on the new basis for the year, consider that the change made last year is in the right direction. Before this year the smallest District in the Conference had thirty-three charges and the largest, the Decatur, forty-three. The average was thirty-seven. The elimination of one District brings the average to forty-three, or simply asks each superintendent to care for as many Charges as the former Decatur District had included for many years. As to geographical difficulties of travel, etc., no one of the new Districts is as difficult as the former Quincy District has always been. The Central Illinois Conference has the average of fifty Charges to a District, as against our forty-three. Our whole easy preference for our convenient little Districts of thirty or forty charges grew out of the theory that everything must be subordinated to keeping a cluster of churches called a District roundabout our eight larger city centers which were formerly District heads. The Pittsburgh Conference has the average of fifty-five charges to a District with frequently two or three cities as large or larger than our own within a single District. The Rock River Conference, stretching from Lake Michigan to the Mississippi, has Districts respectively of 59, 69, 74, 61, and 62 Charges, a third more than the number which we now include. Geographically, in Colorado or Montana, superintendents when they leave home must travel for a week at a time, and their Districts extend not over a county or two, but for a hundred and two hundred miles. Our former plan was made before the days of hard roads, interurban cars, telephones, telegraph, stenography, and automobiles. Surely, a man can direct the work of a half dozen more Charges than the fathers had, without a physical collapse. In our own thoughts of the work of the year, it is not smaller Districts we need, but the elimination of at least one more, giving to each of our superintendents the care of fifty charges, and enabling the present administrative centers to lie more fully within the territory of the District rather than upon the edges, as in several of the present new divisions.

Pastoral Changes.

The year has brought unusual changes in pastoral relation under national conditions and otherwise. Shortly after Conference Bro. Howard Leach at Ludlow accepted his place under the national army draft, proud and glad to waive his ministerial exemption. Bro. Verne Mitchell was transferred from Grace Church, Urbana, to Ludlow and has had a splendid year, registering his third successive Charge at 100 per cent upon the benevolences and all the regular work of the church. For Grace, Urbana, we secured a fine young man as supply pastor, Bro. G. M. Goodman, son of a southern Illinois Methodist parsonage. But he, too, heard the whispering of the flag and is now at Jefferson Barracks as an enlisted man. Bro. D. T. Miles of our superannuated forces has closed the work at Grace upon the 100 per cent basis in everything. To Savoy, left to be supplied, came A. S. Weiss by transfer, a McKendree College and Southern Illinois Conference man, whose reports are all in full. At Gifford and Penfield Bro. I. S. Haverfield found it necessary to relinquish the work at the end of a half year on account of illness in the home. The affairs of the church have been successfully concluded with 100 per cent reports by Bro. Merrill Faulk, a graduate of the University of Illinois, who is before the Conference this year for admission on trial. From Bismarck Bro. A. L. Honn was appointed some six weeks ago to a chaplaincy in the army, and is now in the East. His laymen got loyally under the closing affairs of the church year, and I have their remittance for every regular claim of the church, ministerial and benevolence, at 100 per cent. At St. Joseph, Bro. E. B. Houck has just concluded an unusual year's work. Stirring revivals both at St. Joseph and Mayview, in which the pastor was assisted by Bro. E. K. Towle, have greatly strengthened both churches and bring each of them to this Conference each asking for an appointment on the station basis. From every other standpoint, Bro. Houck has concluded two years of thoroughly good work in the Charge. I regret to report that, owing to conditions of illness in the home, he must ask us for the supernumerary relation at this session.

At First Church, Champaign, Dr. R. H. Schuett entered upon his sixth year. Last spring, after a half year of characteristic success, an exchange was arranged by which Dr. Schuett was appointed to the pastorate of the First M. E. Church at Tacoma, Washington, and Dr. D. H. Trimble, the pastor there, came to Champaign. Dr. Trimble had made a fine initial impression among us when, within a very few weeks, he sustained an unexpected and serious physical breakdown, and his physicians advised that he must immediately give up active work and seek the recovery of his health in the Southwest. In this emergency, acting in conjunction with Bishop Nicholson, arrangements were completed whereby Dr. W. J. Davidson of Garrett Biblical Institute has cared for the interests of the church until the present Conference session. The official members of First Church, Champaign, have proved their mettle in this crisis of affairs and, under the inspiring leadership of Dr. Davidson, are bringing up strong reports for the church with everything on its usual 100 per cent basis. A recent letter from Dr. Trimble states that he is regaining his strength gradually and his physicians advise that he can take up active work again within another year.

One of our most important appointments last year was that of Bro. C. M. Duncan to Rantoul. As the seat of the government Aviation Field, it was an unusual opportunity for the new pastor. Bro. Duncan at once proved himself the right man for the place, and the story of his relationship to our soldier boys at the field is one of loyal devotion and of inspiring interest. There was in store for this Charge and parsonage home, however, a great trial. On the night of April 16 both church building and parsonage were destroyed by fire with the loss of everything. Mrs. Martha A. Duncan, the mother of Bro. Duncan, a visitor at the home, inhaled the flames in the hurried escape of the family from the parsonage, and the next day at the hospital in Champaign she passed away. To the home it was the loss of a precious mother, and to her former Methodist Church at Flatrock, Illinois, the loss of a beautiful Christian character who had long adorned its life and aided at the Kingdom work of its womanhood. Our people at Rantoul, with a perfectly characteristic spirit of heroism, are re-building the church and parsonage upon more commodious and beautiful lines than before. The new subscription required, of $30,000, was secured in full in a few days' canvass, all in the form of bankable notes. A tabernacle has been built for the temporary requirements of the situation, and none are more loyal and interested in the success of all the work than Bro. Duncan's many friends among the soldier boys of the Chanute Field.

Early in the year there occurred the death of the wife of Bro. E. O. Clark, of our Veteran forces, and her remains were brought to Rankin, her girlhood home, for burial. Also, at Urbana, on February 25, occurred the death of the widow of our honored brother, the late Dr. M. W. Everhart. In the mid-December days the long and courageous battle of W. N. Tobie ended in defeat as to the earth life, but in the final victory for our Conference scholar, builder, and saint. On December 10, 1917, Willard Tobie went from the mountains of Colorado to the Mountains of God. Funeral services were conducted by Drs. J. C. Baker and R. H. Schuett, at the Trinity Church, Urbana, whose foundations, in his clear vision of future Kingdom needs, he had laid so well. Let us of the Illinois Conference lead the way in making the Wesley Foundation his fitting monument here, and let us who loved him so live and labor that we shall meet him at the Beautiful Gate of the Church Triumphant.

The Plans of the Year

Our work for the year was organized under the five heads of Evangelism, including our increase in Membership upon the Roll; Benevolence, for an advance and for a 100-per cent goal in every Charge for the apportioned items; the Educational work of the church in Sunday schools and elsewhere; the Business Affairs of the church, for the regular and full payment of all claims; and, last but by no means least, Patriotism, for a full and systematic co-operation in all the needs and calls of the Nation. Everything in the year's work seeks to unify and achieve a complete program under these heads, under which no church can become a slacker except in the sunlight of complete publicity among its fellow churches which are doing the work. Every Quarterly Conference and District gathering, Group Meetings, Sunday services, and the necessary literature, charts, and personal work are all carefully determined with a view to bringing the District aims home to the last member of every church. Every pastor in the District has co-operated helpfully in every phase of the work, and for whatever progress we have made the honor is theirs and, with it, the grateful appreciation of their Superintendent.

The Preachers at Work.

With each year of District work the desire grows upon one, though necessary to resist it, to try to suggest the story of the achievements of each pastor in his Charge. Every man in the District has been steadily and sturdily at work upon all our denominational programs, and many of them accomplishing unusual special matters besides. The fine story of the endeavors and achievements of the itinerant Methodist ministry under present day conditions should be written by some worthy hand, and when it appears it can fairly be claimed as a portrayal of the life and labors of our parsonage homes in the Champaign-Danville District and in the Illinois Conference. New men came for their first year to several of the larger churches of the District and all have had fine beginnings of pastorates which promise to be noteworthy. Buker at Danville First, true to type, comes up with a 100 per cent report on everything, while White at Kimber, Aitken at Urbana First, Chapman at Hoopeston, and Duncan at Rantoul, have had similar success, all with 100 per cent for the benevolence causes or very large advances. The same thing can be said for the remaining first-year men, Honn, McConkey, Adams, Shouse, Read, Cummins, Biddle, Mitchell, Mark White, Pulliam, Maxey, Phillippe, and Weiss. The remaining men have been longer in the Charges and have all made notable advances upon their former good records.

Twenty-nine Charges in the District report a total gain in Full Membership on the Roll, of nearly seven hundred. Their average gain, twenty-five, is representative under the conditions involved and is on the right side of the ledger. Three churches have neither gained nor lost. A more regretful report is that the seven remaining Charges, all having substantial gains in the present year, are compelled to erase their advance, and to report a total seeming loss for the seven of some four hundred members, due almost wholly to careful revisions of the church records. The net result of these processes will leave a District gain in membership of three hundred. I admire the courage of a pastor who, to the seeming disadvantage of his own record as a workman, will perform a surgical operation like this upon the records of his church. And I have advised it in each case. But it is not right that, where the cause is slipshod methods of keeping the books in former years, near or remote, the gain of an entire District should be so largely off-set, and the evangelistic results of as good workmen as we have in the Conference be thus obliterated in the records of the year.

Of other activities twenty-nine churches conduct a systematic every-member-canvass for the local budget and fourteen of these have a like canvass for the benevolences. Twenty-nine Charges report the holding of a midweek prayer service with an average attendance of eighteen persons. There are thirty-three Epworth Leagues, with an average attendance of thirty-five. The League chapters of the District have made contributions aggregating $1,000 to the West China University as the Parish Abroad interest of our District young people. Every Church in the District has a fairly complete Sunday School organization, some meeting all of the standard requirements and all meeting most of them. The Sunday schools of thirty-four of the Charges have systematic meetings of the Sunday School Board as often as monthly, while the number having regular systematic Teacher Training work is so far limited to eleven. Decision day has been observed in twenty-two of the Charges, and the failure of so many others in this important matter is one of the weaker features of our reports. The Disciplinary pro-rate of ministerial claims is provided for in every church, and the four items will be reported in full for every Charge. Revival campaigns thorough in scope and of significant results have occurred at Armstrong, Bismarek, Champaign Circuit, Collison, Danville Gracc, Vermilion Heights, East Lynn, Henning, Hoopeston, McKendree, Ogden, Paxton, Philo, Potomac, Rantoul, Rantoul Circuit, Rossville, St. Joseph, Urbana Grace, and Urbana Trinity.

Property improvements in the larger amounts of outlay have totaled, $1,300 at Danville Kimber, $1,000 upon the new parsonage obtained this year for Danville Lincoln, $1,000 paid on indebtedness at Georgetown, $1,000 upon church improvements at Hoopeston, $5,500 for the remodelled Pleasant Hill Church on the Sidney work, $2,350 on indebtedness and improvements at St. Joseph and Mayview, and $1,400 in improving the church building at Urbana First. The national emblem, service flags, the banner of the Red Cross, and Honor Rolls of members in the national service are upon the walls of every church. The number of distinctively patriotic service has varied from four to twenty-five to a Charge. Every church has held them. The total number of members of our churches and Sunday Schools in the national service under complete reports of September 10, 1918, is over 1,100 for the entire District. Methodism, because of her great numbers and, as we believe, because of her great spirit, is doing her great part in the winning of the war.

The Apportioned Benevolences.

It is believed that we may properly refer, as having preliminary relation to the record upon the benevolences made by the men of the former Champaign District as reported to the Conference last year. The plan of the year was "An advance by every Charge for apportioned benevolence, and a 100% report." When the reports came to Conference they revealed that every Charge in that District had "pulled up" upon the apportioned benevolences, and seventeen of the thirty-three had made 100% or more. It seems fair to the men of the old Champaign District who made possible such a report in its final year upon the map, that this record of their achievement should be made.

When the new District was formed it was found that we had retained nine of our seventeen 100% Charges and we gained two more such among the fine group of Charges coming to us from the territory of the former Danville District. We have worked this year with the purpose that these eleven 100% Charges should leaven the whole lump. The following is the honor-roll of Charges which report 100% or upward this year for the apportioned benevolences: Armstrong, Bismarek, Central Park, Champaign First, Champaign Circuit, Collison, Danville First, Danville Grace, Danville McKinley, East Lynn, Fairmount, Gifford-Penfield, Henning, Ludlow, McKendree-Fairview, Oakwood, Ogden, Paxton, Philo, Potomac, Rankin, Rantoul, Rantoul Circuit, Savoy, Sidney, Tilton, Urbana First, Urbana Grace, Urbana Trinity—thirty in all. Every Charge in the District will again register an advance for these Kingdom causes, with a total advance of $4,000, as against a net advance of the same Charges last year of $1,735. The "Pull-down" column is for the second time wiped entirely off our map, and the District percentage is 93% of its total apportionment. In addition to this effort of the churches as a whole for the Kingdom causes, every Woman's Home Missionary Society in the District has advanced over its report for last year. Every Woman's Foreign Missionary Society has advanced over its report for last year, while the advance in salaries, with those which will be added this Fall, will include almost every church in the District. God forbid that we should herald these significant things in any spirit of mere pride in the efficient organization and workmanlike qualities of our pastors and Charges, although I am proud of them. For it is recognized that similar reports will be made here this year by every District in the Conference, and the significant thing is that the great world-war with its heartache has brought our Illinois Methodism to a new and sacrificial spirit for the causes of the Kingdom; that along with the winning of the victory of our nation and our allies on the military side, the purpose is growing to make the vitally necessary parallel spiritual conquest; and that while our boys are enduring the bloody sweat of it all "Over There," among the fires kept burning here shall be those upon the altars of the churches from which they have gone.

Special Campaigns, Etc.

The special campaigns in the District have all had their "innings." The Conference Claimants' Endowment fund has been subject to our District relations to the campaign for the Wesley Foundation, but nevertheless has been advanced to the total of some $33,000 out of the required sum of $43,000. The Army Camp Offering of the Home Board inaugurated last Fall was being completed on the basis of a report from every church, when the new and more adequate call sent out by Bishop Henderson came to us. It seemed best at the time to complete what we were doing, and there is no blank for any church in the District under the original effort, while some of the offerings were large. A few churches which were in a position to do so have gone ahead under the second call and have raised the same on the basis required of 10% of salary. It is about the last cause before the church upon which any of us would desire to be slack or slackers, and it is intended to put the new endeavor on the slate for a 100% result after the preachers are settled this Fall. As will be formally reported to the Conference, the campaign for the Wesley Foundation to which the Conference pledged special priority in the past year, has become a part of the Centenary Movement in the ensuing year. The work of Trinity Church at the University of Illinois promises to become more important in its bearings, rather than any less so, during the ensuing period of the war. Five thousand boys are to come to us under Government registration, and a full proportion will be Methodist boys. The coming Centenary Movement will lift the whole church to new tides of financial and spiritual power. The merging of our lesser campaign for the Foundation in this great endeavor should be made a matter of great mutual working advantage in the full development of the plan.

A District Survey.

The plan for a complete District survey which we had under way in the former Champaign District has come well on toward completion this year, in the new District. The Town and Rural Church phase of the work has been developed in co-operation with the plans of the Rural Department of the Board of Home Missions, and along with this we have developed a survey of the larger cities independently. A large three-color map drawn to the scale of an inch to the mile includes our circuit and station arrangement, churches of other denominations, abandoned churches, etc. It affords a quick and vivid grasp of many problems of District administration. The plan includes many photographs of our own and other church plants, already taken, and written reports by pastors of every phase and problem of the work possible to formulate. The whole plan lacks something yet of final completion, but it is quite available for study and use even in its present form.

The Laborer Is Worthy of His Hire.

The recent noteworthy article in the Literary Digest "The Laborer Is Worthy of His Hire," points facts regarding the support of the ministry which have been made the subject of serious and systematic consideration in the District from the beginning. But the conditions which were sure to come out of the war, both of advancing prices and the shortage of working forces, have called for a new approach to the entire subject this year. The proposition has been advanced to our laymen that the minimum cash salary of the Charges in the present times must be $1,500, with a minimum of $1,200 for student-pastors having families and residence upon the work. It was not required that the advance of these figures, where needed, should be immediate, but it was urged as necessary that the definite goal of progressive advances to these figures in one, two, or three years should be adopted. If, in any case, the Charge finds such a goal impossible, the two methods remaining open were organized Missionary assistance, or a new combination of Charges reducing the number of preaching services but affording the pastor a reasonable support. Be it said to the credit of the sterling spirit of our laymen, that they have usually not desired to avail themselves to either of these methods. Rather, they have agreed that our rich territory ought to be helping the missionary needs of the world, and that there must be no reduction in their preaching services if we were best to keep the home fires burning in every community for the nation and the world. For instance, our District Survey revealed a group of five Charges extending northward from Fithian and Oakwood, paying $1,000 or less which, with the new systems of hard roads, could be regrouped to distinct advantage into four Charges providing a salary of some $1,300 for each. But our generous laymen have left but little of this work to be done this year. The salary advances of the District as made at the Fall Quarterly Conference, were as follows: Armstrong $150, Bismarck $200, East Lynn $150, Henning $100, Potomac $300, Gifford-Penfield $50, Ludlow $50, Rankin $100, Rantoul $500, Champaign $200, Champaign Circuit $400, Homer $100, Ogden $100, Philo $100, Sidney $100, St. Joseph $50, Urbana Grace $100, Catlin $100, Central Park 100, Collison $75, Danville Grace $300, Fairmount $200, and McKendree-Fairview $350. The total is $3,875. It should be added that several of these advances in the former Danville District charges were fully planned at the close of the former Conference year in the District administration of Bro. W. D. Fairchild. In the recent round of fourth Quarterly Conferences, the following additional advances have been pledged for the ensuing Conference year. Armstrong, $150; Bismarck, $150; Catlin, $100; Central Park, $50; Champaign First, $50; Collison, $275; Danville Grace, $100; Danville Lincoln, $200; Vermilion Heights, $100; East Lynn, $150; Fairmount, $200; Georgetown, $300; Gifford-Penfield, $200; Henning, $200; Oakwood, $300; Ogden, $100; Rankin, $100; Rantoul, $200; Rantoul Circuit, $150; Rossville, $200; St. Joseph, $250. The total is $3,525. The grand total of advances thus reached during the year is $7,400.

Looking Forward.

Now we have come to another year and it will be different from the years any of us have known in our ministry. In a sense none of the former programs are sufficient and many of the things which constituted a standard performance must take a secondary relation. Sometimes we hear it said, as often at Conference time, and speaking of the coming year, that a brother would like to move to a place of opportunity as compared with some limitations of a present work. But in many of the old meanings of the expression, there are no "opportunities." It is no time to build churches; it is no time to erect parsonages; it is hardly a time for many of the old social features and factors of the church and community life. It is a time of heartache, and a time when the world is on fire! Our educational, evangelistic and missionary processes, and doubtless phases of the social, are of course to be maintained. The study of Charges and circuits, strategic regroupings as necessary, providing a living wage for preachers and adequate leadership for the church in this day of need, may all go on. There are special campaigns to be completed, the Claimants' Endowment, the army-camp offering, etc., while the Centenary Movement has come to us providentially in these days to mark a proportionate goal of consecration and endeavor under the blessings of the church and the needs of the world. All these are endeavors before us—not to bemoan as a task but to be glad that we live in the day when the church can see them through.

But the one great thing before the church of Jesus Christ in this hour, is its absolute maximum co-operation with the Nation in the winning of the present war! If there ever was a conflict in which we might believe that Christ, our Lord, marches with our boys in every camp and on every field, this is that war. We desire, in the Champaign-Danville District to be mobilized, accurately and completely, so that the last element of our church organization and the last man of every Charge can be reached effectively through our aid for every need and call of the Government. We have no right to let the highest inspirations for this conflict come from other sources. What does it mean to us that Mr. Hoover says he must look to the churches. What a privilege and responsibility, that General Pershing, not a preaching man but a fighting man, should write, "We depend upon the churches at home." What a summons to the church of Jesus Christ when General Crowder, master-genius of military organization, will plead with us in formal letters to strengthen the call to the draft by keeping its high spiritual meaning uppermost among the men from eighteen to forty-five.

Surely, the man who moves this year does not move to the familiar line of opportunities of other years. He will move to a church under the strain and heartache of a mighty war. The youth and manhood of many a home will be in camp and field, and on the seas, and "Over There." The blue stars will hang in increasing numbers upon the walls of his church and Sunday-school. And they will be in the windows of his homes. And some of the blue stars will be turning to gold. There never was a time when we were called to such consecration, and to such a ministry, and to such an opportunity to help human hearts, and strengthen our government, and live and labor for the betterment of the world.

DECATUR DISTRICT.

M. N. English, Superintendent.

To Bishop Frederick D. Leete and Members of the Conference:

Decatur District, as constituted in the last annual Conference, includes all of Macon, Shelby and Moultrie Counties; two-thirds of Piatt; several Charges in Champaign, Douglas, Coles, Logan and Christian Counties. There are forty-seven (47) Charges, and seventy-two (72) Churches. In the rearrangement of last year we lost fourteen Charges and gained eighteen. The distance, time required and expense of traveling is practically doubled that of former years. The membership is 13,500, with a natural constituency twice that number. The Sunday School enrollment 14,000 with a 50% average attendance. We have every variety of Church and almost every problem that can be found in any District, in Methodism, similarly situated.

Change In Pastors.

The following changes in the appointments, made by Bishop Nicholson, have occurred during the year. The three Churches left to be supplied—Sanner Chapel, Molton-Shelbyville and Strasburg—have been supplied respectively by H. B. Pollock, Homer Hoeing and W. A. Schell. C. A. Sullivan, appointed to Cowden, was transferred to Southern Illinois, in March, since which time M. F. Ault has served the Charge every two weeks. Leonard Moomaw resigned the pastorate of Clarksburg, in June, and Herman Dill was appointed to succeed him. These arrangements have proved most satisfactory to the congregations and those who have served them.

Organizations and Plans.

The years' work was outlined, and set forth in a most successful way at a Conference of ministers and laymen in October. Rev. J. W. Summerville, of Gloversville, N. Y., formerly of this Conference, being one of the speakers. Group rallies were held in five centers the last of April. Though hindered by torrential rains, these were largely attended and of great value. The team of special speakers including J. L. Fort, of Commission on Finance, W. S. Bovard, of the Board of Sunday School, C. R. Booth, District Steward Secretary, attended all the rallies and Bishop Thomas Nicholson was present at the Decatur meeting. Bishop W. A. Quayle addressed a banquet in interest of Wesley Foundation in February, which was attended by every pastor and layman from nearly every charge. The second and third Quarterly Conferences were combined in nearly all the stations, and where the Pastors could arrange for it, these Conferences were congregational and thus a large part of the membership reached with the program and task of the Church. In places where both the second and third Conferences were held, a neighboring pastor presided at one. This plan proved entirely satisfactory and successful, and enabled the Superintendent to give needed attention to other activities. The plans for the year were set forth in a series of twelve goals, which have been kept constantly before the Churches, with full attainment in some and partial in others.

Ministerial Support and Financial Plans.

Eighteen of the Charges, recognizing the need of more liberal support of Pastors, made advancement in pastoral support, in the past year, to the amount of $3,300. The increases for next year, which have been either definitely acted upon by Quarterly Conference or for which I have reasonable assurance, will exceed $5,000 net over the current year.

Almost without exception the four items of Ministerial Support are included in the budget and where not, are handled by a special subscription, thus protecting Benevolences. This is the first year under this plan in several of the Churches. The Disciplinary plan has been successfully worked in a number of the Charges, and wherever a conscientious effort is made, will prove successful. The need everywhere is for "The Man Behind The Plan."

Property Interests.

No new buildings have been erected or contracted for during the year. Extensive improvements and repairs have been made in a number of the Charges, including Shelbyville, Findley, Stewardston, Windsor Circuit, Tower Hill and St. Paul's, Decatur, with minor items in a number of other places. The most extensive work of this kind is now in progress at Cowden, where the interior of the building is being entirely made over, which with other repairs and improvements will cost $6,500. A successful one day drive, in which Pastors Ault, Coleman, Enninger, Combes and the District Superintendent, each teaming up with local laymen, reached $4,000. A generous gift from the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension will make possible the financing of the enterprise, which will be a noteworthy achievement.

An old indebtedness of $2,000 has been paid at Findley, while Bement has reduced the debt on its magnificent property by $8,000, the remainder of which will be paid the ensuing year.

It being no longer possible to continue our work at Mt. Zion, the Church building was sold and the proceeds, amounting to $1,500, turned over to the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees of the Conference. The parsonage was also sold and the proceeds will be reinvested in a parsonage at Longcreek. It is expected that some combinations of Churches will be affected, whereby the combined salary will give an adequate support to the Pastors, and the Churches thereby receive more satisfactory service than otherwise. The German Methodist Church, at Boody, will be transferred to the Illinois Conference. It will be attached to one of the other Churches, in the District, and constitute a new called Boody.

Among the forward looking Churches are Sanner Chapel, where a committee has been named to consider and report, at an early date, relative to the erection of a new and modern Church. At Maroa, a committee has been appointed to consider plans for a new parsonage.

Church Literature.

The campaign for the Northwestern Christian Advocate resulted in an increase of 47%, in the number of subscribers. The paper goes into almost exactly 50% of the official homes. In two cases, Longcreek and Monticello, every member of the Board is a subscriber. Practically all the Sunday Schools use our own Church publications. We are keeping before our official members, the fact that a knowledge of the general Church and the Christian interpretation of current history, is absolutely necessary if they are to be the kind of officials we need in these days, and this can be secured only through the careful reading of our Church Literature.

Evangelism and Membership.

Though seriously interfered with by the extreme weather and fuel famine, successful revivals were held in many Charges. Those having special evangelistic help were First Church, Decatur,—where Evangelist Honeywell and Party lead the campaign—Pesotum, with Evangelist Miller and Sadorous with Evangelist Towle, Tower Hill, Evangelist Waters leading. The number of conversions in the district total 625, with accessions of 950. The loss by removal, and the large number entered this year as removed without letter, and who will no longer appear in the statistics, will so reduce the total that the net increase will not be more than 50% of the number of accessions.

The Conference on Evangelism, under the direction of Secretary George Dean, of the Department of Evangelism of the Board of Home Missions, which was held in Decatur, in June, was very beneficial, and will bear its fruit. The passion for soul is still our need and the prime requisite for success. For many it is difficult to maintain this passion. In these days of varied activities of Pastors and Laymen, we must overcome these difficulties, for without this passion our efforts will be vain.

Christian Stewardship.

Successful campaigns, for the enrollment of Christian Stewards were carried on in many Charges, in June, and in others, preceding and since that date. The results have varied with the Charges and the care taken in carrying out the plan recommended by the District Stewardship committee. Scores of new tithers have been enrolled and the standard of giving of others has been lifted. The reports of Pastors show at least 650 enrolled tithers in the Decatur District.

Benevolences.

I have not sought to get last minute figures on the Benevolences. Every indication, however, points to a splendid advance. Last year only five Charges reported all apportionments in full. Based upon the reports of the last few days, there will be at least twenty, and probably twenty-five, so reporting this year. In nearly every Charge there will be a distinct advance, in some reaching at least 100% over any previous year. I believe there is not a Charge in Decatur District, which cannot, under careful cultivation, be brought up to the full apportionment in a period of two, or at most three, years of pastoral fidelity in this matter.

Conference Claimant Campaign.

Last year the report of the Conference Commission on Endowment Campaign showed that $21,509.80 had been pledged by the Churches of Decatur District, toward its goal of $43,740. The new arrangement of Districts, reducing the amount to the credit of Decatur District to $16,853 and increasing our goal to $45,860. Through the co-operation of Pastors and Laymen, the report this year will show $43,349 pledged on the new goal of $45,860, an increase for the year of $29,007. The cause has been presented in every Charge except one, and every Church but three. The obligation has been accepted by the Quarterly Conference at Cowden, where it was not formally presented, and as soon as conditions justify, it will be raised. The giving in some of the places, which will be reported as deficient, is as worthy of commendation as the larger and full amounts pledged in other places. I confidently believe that the full quota of the District will soon be reached. The success of the campaign is due largely to the fine team work on the part of a number of the Pastors, who in groups of three to five led in successful one-day drives, in a number of the Charges. The untiring devotion, skill and unremitting labor of the Field Secretary, Henry C. Gibbs, throughout the Conference, in view of the large amount of office work his position has entailed, has been a marvel, as I have observed.

Organized Activities.

The activities of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and Home Missionary Society and Epworth League, were seriously affected by the change in District lines. All, however, went about in the task of readjustment in the most willing way. Each has had a successful year's work. The Ladies Aid Society has been very active, much of their time being given to Red Cross and other phases of War Work. The Sunday Schools of the District are well organized. Most of them are graded, or at least in part. The teaching is above the average. I fear, however, the reports will show a slight decrease in enrollment and average attendance, due to the same conditions, which have produced similar reports throughout the Church in general. Many Pastors are leaving the religious care of the children entirely to the Sunday School, not understanding the purport of the disciplinary question, "Have the Rules Respecting the Instruction of Children Been Observed." Lewis Campbell, at Tolono, conducted a week of services especially for the children. Brothers Rigg and Havighurst, of Grace and First Churches, have a systematic plan, under which they personally instruct the children in the various grades, during the Sunday School hour. The working force of First Church, Decatur, will be increased this year by the addition of Rev. H. W. Blashfield, who comes to the responsible position of Director of Religious Education.

The Church and the War.

Service flags with hundreds of stars; generous giving in response to every appeal, including that of our own war council; the constructive preaching, ministry of consolation and leadership of the Pastors in all of the War Drives, attest the loyalty to the Government of the people and Pastors of Decatur District. Rev. T. B. Lugg, a member of the Conference—ordained Deacon last year, and since ordained Elder—is now serving in France as Chaplain. Rev. Homer Hoeing, who had expected to apply for admission to the Conference, has enlisted as a private and is now in training. Many of the sons of the parsonage are now in service. Among these are the sons of Brothers Coleman, Enninger, Fry, Gibbs, Jones, Juppín, Lugg, McGiffen, Smith and Wehrman.

A Noteworthy Achievement.

I wish to call attention to the remarkable development of our Church in East Decatur. I do not do this for the purpose of singling out those most vitally concerned, but because it justifies the policy and program of Methodism. Six years ago, J. C. Brown entered this field, where he had neither organization or Church property, or a place in which to hold services. As a result of unremitting toil, at the end of four years, he left the Church thoroughly organized, with 340 members, a Sunday School averaging 223 and Church and Parsonage property valued at $17,600, against which there was less than $3,000 indebtedness. This was made possible through the backing of the Board of Home Missions and the Domestic Missionary Society of our own Conference. Not less remarkable are the achievements of the present year, in another direction. Building on the foundation of his predecessor, C. R. Booth has sought to carry out the present day program of the Church with special reference to the matter of Christian Stewardship. As a result of the Stewardship campaign carried on in January, 69 tithers were enrolled and increased giving-inspired in all. A few of the results are as follows: All claims for the year paid in full September, including full apportionments for Benevolences, War Work and the special calls and $100 in the treasury. The Church has notified the Board of Home Missions that it will no longer need assistance. A budget of $3,500 for next year, carrying a $1,800 salary, which is $900 more than paid by the congregation for the year closing, and other estimates advancing accordingly, has been adopted. The every member canvass for this budget brought in pledges of $4,100, or $600 in excess of the budget and is not yet completed. A fine enthusiasm for the Kingdom prevails, the atmosphere is deeply Spiritual and the Church is in the enjoyment of the blessing promised to those who honor God with their substance. This has been made possible by the second thing, to which we call attention, the adoption of the program, to which our leaders are calling all our Churches.

Appreciation.

To name all those about whose work some special and commendable thing should be said, would be to call the roll of the District, and this we cannot do, in the limits which have already been exceeded. I wish to express my appreciation to all the Pastors, and especially commend the fine work being done by the supplies, whose work will compare most favorably with that of members of the Conference, who are in similar charges. A number of retired members of the Conference are resident in the District, and I have found them most helpful and loyal to every interest of Pastors and Churches. Rev. E. B. Randle, for the first time in the forty-one years of his ministry, is not able to be present at Conference. He is seriously ill at his home, in Decatur, and asks me to convey to the Conference his love. The year has brought a growing appreciation of what Bishop Quayle has called the "Consequentiality" of the fine Laymen of this District.

Understanding Our Problems.

We are giving studious attention to the many problems of the District, in the effort to set forth a definite and constructive program, with a special reference to the interests of Methodism in Decatur, which outnumbering as it does, the Methodism of any other city in the Conference, has before it an opportunity in the city and in its co-operation in the connectional movements of the Church, which is second to none. Every Pastor and Church is being urged to adopt a program based upon the needs of the community served, and which will give evidence of constructive Christian Leadership.

Ministerial Qualification.

Never was the task of our ministry so difficult. Never was the opportunity so great. The day has passed when the man who can do one thing well, and others indifferently. The man who can preach well, or the man who is a successful pastor, or the man who is strong socially, or the man who is an organizer, or the man who is successful as an Evangelist only, cannot meet the needs of these days. While every man's work will stand out for some one thing and leave his impress upon the community, if he is to have complete success, he must be all of these. We are prone to judge ourselves by our strong points and our brethren by their weak points. Amid all the duties that come to us, none is greater just now than that of seeking out and laying hold of our best young men for the Ministry. The Nation needs, and will need, thoroughly efficient men for the Ministry as badly as it needs soldiers. The cry is for men equal to the tasks of the Church in its new day.

The Centenary.

Decatur District, Pastors and Laymen, gladly accept the challenge of the Centenary. We believe its results will be the most far reaching of any movement of modern times. In addition to making possible the carrying out of a great world program, it will transform the life of the Church at home; require its organization on a more effective basis; inspire giving that will solve our financial problems; offer to our victorious youth that will return from the battle fields of Europe the moral equivalent of war; and revive the Church's passion for a lost world. Greater than these will be the transformation in the life of individuals, who will find in the Centenary a new identification with our risen and triumphant Lord and Master.

We have a marshalled nation, we must have a marshalled Church. As that Christian Statesman, John R. Mott has said, "The clock has struck and the hour has come when the Church must gird itself adequately for this momentous task."

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT—ILLINOIS CONFERENCE.

E. L. Pletcher, Superintendent.

Bishop Leete and Brethren:—At the beginning of the Conference year the Jacksonville District having fallen heir to parts of the Bloomington and Springfield Districts found itself a District of forty-seven charges with over one hundred churches, covering a territory reaching north and south from the boundary of the Southern Illinois Conference to the Central Illinois Conference, some 90 miles and east and west 60 miles. It has been our privilege to travel this district constantly, preaching three times nearly every Sunday and repeatedly during the week, besides giving attention to the many other responsibilities of our office.

Adjustments.

Three charges were left at the close of Conference "To be Supplied." Before leaving the seat of Conference, J. A. Betcher of the Maine Conference was secured for Island Grove and Alexander. A month later C. L. Stokes came from the Southern Illinois Conference to Bluff Springs. Both have had a most successful year. Forest City was not so fortunate. Finally a Pastor, H. R. Smith, a student from the Wesleyan was secured but in a short time he was called to the service of the Nation. At the close of the first six months, C. M. Barton was elected to the Secretaryship of Apportioned Benevolences. With the consent of Bishop Nicholson W. W. Henry was taken from Havana and placed at Greenfield, and J. N. Jermain was moved from Franklin to Havana. For a time Franklin was without a pastor, but H. W. Miller has been secured from the West Wisconsin Conference and is closing up the year at Franklin in a very commendable manner. Raye Ragan was called in the Selective Draft in June and his work, Linnville has been taken care of as far as possible by J. O. Kirkpatrick in connection with his own work on the West Jacksonville Circuit. O. E. Johnson transferred from Boston to Nebraska at the beginning of the last quarter of the year and Conference Evangelist Towle has done most efficient service in caring for this charge and bringing up the benevolences.

Improvements.

There have been a number of very fine Churches and Parsonages built during the year. November the 25th at Waverly the beautiful new church costing $24,000 was dedicated by Bishop Quayle. On the day of dedication $11,000 was raised in less than an hour. This was indeed a great victory for F. E. Smith the pastor and his faithful people. June 9th the new church at Asbury on the Greenfield Circuit was dedicated by the District Superintendent. This is a modern country church, with basement and complete equipment. It cost near $3,000 and not only the $550 needed but nearly $700 was raised on the day of dedication. A very large portion of the success of this enterprise is due to the Pastor W. A. Hostetter. The new Church at Modesto is nearing completion and will be ready for dedication very soon after Conference. The last act of the year was the laying of the Corner Stone of our new Church at Durbin on the Franklin Circuit Sunday afternoon, Sept. 15th. This church was destroyed in a wind storm last May and the new one will be a fine improvement over the old. It will cost about $10,000 and be equipped with all the conveniences suitable for the up-to-date country church. W. A. Keenan is the pastor of this charge. At Franklin the new parsonage of eight rooms with garret and basement was formerly opened with a reception given by the pastor J. N. Jermain and wife on the evening of February 14th. This building cost $6,100 and is certainly a great credit to this charge. Winchester is completing a most beautiful parsonage which will be ready for the pastor immediately after Conference. The architect estimates the cost at $7,000 but by the careful management of the building committee it will be built for less. This is a much needed improvement and with its new location gives Methodism a fine property and commanding position in the capitol city of Scott County. There have been many minor improvements on both Churches and Parsonages such as new roofs, paint and general repairs.

District Meetings.

Early in the year a meeting of the District Stewards and Pastors was called to meet in Jacksonville. An all-day program was given and at the luncheon hour 98 Pastors and District Stewards sat down as the guests of the District Superintendent and wife. At the luncheon we were given a stirring patriotic address by Joseph Hanley who was at that time conducting a great union evangelistic campaign in Grace Church, Jacksonville. The District being so large it was found impossible to have one place where all could meet without great inconvenience and expense, so it was decided to try the plan of grouping the charges. The District was divided into six groups around some central point where all in the group might easily gather. In December the District Superintendent called the pastors together and organized each group by electing a Chairman and Secretary. Then in March the Group Meetings were held and the results were very satisfactory. Each Church reported its work for the first half of the year. Charts were used showing the amounts raised for Ministerial support, Benevolences, and Conference Claimants' Campaign; also the condition of the Epworth League, Sunday School, Accessions to the Church and Students in our Church Schools. The total attendance by actual count at the six group meetings was over 1,500.

Revivals.

We have tried always to sound the evangelistic note in all our work, never forgetting that the primary aim of all Christian effort is the salvation of men. Nearly every pastor has held special evangelistic services, and some with very marked success. Many have had a continuous gathering all the year as the result of the personal influence of their lives among men. Passion week was observed by the District as a special and impressive season, and as a result there were many accessions to the Church.

Finances.

The reports from the Pastors indicate there will be no backward step in the Benevolences, but a slight advance. Our Conference Claimants' Campaign, by the most able assistance of the Field Secretary Dr. H. C. Gibbs and the loyal support of the Ministers has advanced from $7,000 at the beginning of the year to $23,000. The Laymen seeing the need of a better support for the Pastors responded nobly and there has been an advance of $3,800 on the salaries of the Preachers during the past year, and now we have definitely set for the coming year an advance of $5,200 with several charges promising an advance but not yet determined.

The Illinois Woman's College.

During the year one of the most pleasing events was the celebration of the 25th anniversary of the Presidency of President Harker of the Illinois Woman's College. It can never be known until the Books are opened at the last great day, what this noble man and his devoted wife have done for Methodism and the cause of righteousness. Because they have so wrought upon the lives of the young women committed to their care, that the widening influence must go on forever. It was very fitting that all of Jacksonville should unite with many from abroad in doing them honor at this time. Bishop Nicholson, Secretary Harris and many other leaders in the Church honored us with their presence. Editors of Church papers, College Presidents, Friends and former Students came to do honor to President and Mrs. Harker, and all rejoiced not only in a quarter century of achievement, but in the bright prospect of the future.

The Preachers.

We have learned as never before to appreciate the brotherhood of Methodist Preachers, their loyalty and devotion. Personally we would here speak a word of commendation and appreciation of every Preacher upon the Jacksonville District. Our heart has gone out to them in their joys and in their sorrows. The general health of the Preachers has been good, but they have not all escaped sorrow. The mother of Joseph Hallem had her home with her son at Petersburg. After a long illness, she slipped away and was not for God had taken her. Brother and Sister Anderson Orr honored among our veterans, were spending the twilight hours of their long and useful life at Roodhouse, when Sister Orr, fell asleep, while her aged husband still waits this side the stream. Maurice the oldest son of F. T. Peters responded to his Country's call, and as a soldier was rapidly winning promotion, but by an accident, while serving at Camp Americus, Georgia, he was killed. After his death his commission as Sergeant was received. Special services were held at Murrayville, where a great number of people came to tribute to the memory of one of our Preacher's Soldier Boy. The following day the body was taken to the old family home in Indiana.

Conclusion.

This has indeed been a strange and trying year. Events have rushed upon us with the suddenness and stress of a storm, but through it all we have noted a deeper faith in God, and a growing devotion to His cause. Our Preachers and people have shown a devotion and patriotism that has surprised us all. Among the Preachers on the Jacksonville District there is not a single drop of slacker blood, and none but true Americans. Our people stand by and back of the Churches, that they may stand back of the Government. Not only the present war must be won, but in our fight against all unrighteousness we shall push the battle to the gates. We will not cease our efforts until the King shall say "It is enough, come up higher."

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT—MATTOON DISTRICT.

W. D. Fairchild, Superintendent.

The following is a summary of the Superintendent's Report as ordered by the Conference:

In the re-districting of the Illinois Conference at the last session, by which the Danville District was eliminated, I was transferred by Bishop Nicholson from the Danville to the Mattoon District, now comprising forty-four charges and embracing ninety-six churches.

Interruptions.

The year has been characterized by many interruptions, all unavoidable, but all interfering seriously with the orderly carrying on of the work.

Lerna, Murdock, and Charleston Circuit, were left to be supplied. Rev. J. D. Ewers was transferred from the Southern Illinois Conference and appointed to Charleston Circuit. Rev. J. R. McBride was appointed to the Murdock Charge, and Lerna remained without a pastor most of the year.

In less than a month after Conference Rev. S. W. Balch died leaving the Vermilion charge vacant. January 1st Rev. R. N. Montague of LaHarpe, Kansas, was transferred and appointed to Vermilion. In February Rev. A. A. Heinlein of Kansas received a Chaplain's Commission in the United States Army and reported at once for duty. April 1st, Kansas was cared for by the transfer of Rev. A. C. Adams from Fort Lauderdale, Florida. In April Rev. T. M. Carter, pastor of Westfield was made a Chaplain in the U. S. Army and the charge left without a pastor till Conference. In April Rev. F. M. Harry gave up the Martinsville charge and entered the Army Y. M. C. A. work. Rev. J. O. Lehman was appointed from Paris Tabernacle charge to Martinsville, and the Tabernacle church left without a pastor till Conference. New Hope church on the Tabernacle charge was supplied by Rev. M. F. Ault. In May Rev. J. P. Edgar was compelled, on account of ill health, to give up active work on the Chrisman charge. He remained in Chrisman and with the assistance of neighboring pastors kept the pulpit supplied till the end of the year. His health is so completely broken that he must remain out of active service for an indefinite length of time. It is a source of sorrow to the entire Conference that our brother so well known, so efficient in service for the past twenty-five years, and so universally loved by the Conference, must, for the time being, step out of the active work. Rev. W. F. Pitner, pastor at Tuscola has suffered poor health through a large part of the year. During the past two months he has made rapid improvement, but has decided to step aside for a year in order that he may fully regain his health.

Evangelism and Membership.

Conditions over which we have had little control have worked seriously this year against our efforts toward special revival services. The public mind has been in a state of unrest, its chief thought being the war and matters related to it. The severe winter, together with fuel shortage worked against us. However, reports received show that pastors held 130 weeks of revival meetings resulting in 300 conversions and about the same number of accessions.

In membership our statistics will likely show a decrease in the District. This is due largely to a revision of the rolls in many places. Some of the churches have no reliable records of membership, and others have exaggerated membership lists. It is our purpose to arrive at a fair basis, being careful to dispose of none except in a legitimate manner.

District Meetings.

The Fall meeting of Ministers and Laymen was held Nov. 1-2 in First church, Paris, and was well attended. The Spring meetings were held in four groups, meetings in Tuscola, Mattoon, Chrisman, and Marshall. These were well attended by the ministers but poorly attended by the laymen. However, the effort was well worth while. The League Convention was held in June in Paris First church and was a decided success in every way.

Church Literature.

One of the serious duties of every pastor is to circulate our church literature and to try to cultivate a desire for it. A questionnaire sent out last fall revealed a situation that needs careful attention. It was discovered that among 5,121 families there were but 336 Advocates taken—one paper to every fifteen families. However, there has been a reported increase this year of 150 Advocates. There are about 150 Epworth Heralds taken.

Mattoon Memorial Hospital.

It is known to the Conference generally that we have a Methodist Memorial Hospital in Mattoon made possible through the generosity of Dr. McFall some years ago, but it is not so generally known that this hospital is now housed in a modern, thoroughly equipped, up-to-date building that is second to none even in cities much larger than Mattoon. Mr. S. W. Phillips is the efficient President of the Board and takes delight in working for this institution. During the past year more than 800 patients have received treatment and more than $1,000.00 worth of free work has been done. This institution's circle of influence is gradually enlarging.

Property Interests.

No large church buildings have been erected this year. Some proposed building has been postponed till after the war. One church has been built, and a number repaired, and some improvements made on parsonage property. The Livingston church destroyed by the cyclone more than a year ago was rebuilt at a cost of $2,500.00 and was dedicated free of debt Sept. 8. The church at Dorans was repaired to the amount of $1,000.00. Paris First church has been redecorated and otherwise repaired at a cost of some $2,000.00. Many of the small churches have been painted, papered or otherwise repaired. In November pastor O. B. Hess moved into the new $6,000 parsonage at Villa Grove. At Chrisman a $6,000 parsonage will be ready for occupancy by Oct. 1. Sidell is preparing to erect a modern home for the pastor. Hume recently purchased a modern house for a parsonage costing about $4,000. Many of the parsonages have been repaired and improved in varying amounts. The total for repairs and building will approximate $16,000.00. During the year the indebtedness against church property has been reduced by about $7,000.00. Two abandoned churches have been sold, Mt. Olive on the Ridge Farm work and Wesley Chapel near Mattoon.

Benevolences.

We have sought to bring the Benevolences before the people in a clear and definite manner, holding before them the apportionment as the goal. Pastors have taken the matter seriously and have labored to bring to their people an added sense of responsibility for these great causes, and the results will justify the labor. Many charges report one-hundred per cent of the apportionment. Last year the District raised 47 per cent of its apportionment. Present reports indicate this year's per cent will be greatly increased.

Generous things have been done outside the Apportioned Benevolences. Most of the churches have done something on the war fund and many have raised their full apportionment for this cause.

Women's Organizations.

The W. F. M. Society has had a remarkable year. The District President, Mrs. A. C. Alexander reports the pledge to be $6,000.00 for the year and the amount raised to be $9,006.

The Ladies' Aid Societies have been active, but less so than usual on account of war activities. Much of their time and effort have been loyally devoted to the work of the Red Cross.

The W. H. M. Society has enjoyed a prosperous year but I have been unable to secure a report from this society.

Increase in Ministerial Support.

In my report last year touching this matter I said, "During the past two years both pastors and people have, in many charges, become painfully conscious of the lack of adequate pastoral support." At the end of another year

I can only add that the pain has become more acute. With constantly soaring prices on everything the minister must buy there comes the full realization of the decrease in the purchasing power of his fixed income. It has become a serious problem with many a man just how he is to continue unless there shall come some relief by way of increased salaries or decreased cost of living. There is no prospect of any immediate reduction in the cost of living, hence there is but one alternative, and that is an increase in his income. Believing this to be a just claim and knowing that the church is abundantly able, I have sought to put before the churches their responsibility in this matter. I am glad to say that the churches have in most instances been quick to see the situation and ready to respond generously. Last fall salaries were increased $1,600 in the District, taking effect for the present year. At the Fourth Quarterly Conference minimum salaries have been fixed in all the charges. I have suggested that no charge ought to pay less than $1,200 cash salary, and, with a very few exceptions in minor charges, this suggestion has been accepted. Thirty-two charges have increased from $100 to $500 each, making a total of $6,500 to be added to salaries for the coming year. This added to the increases last fall makes a total of over $8,000 granted by the churches in one year. Our aim has been to place the salaries on a basis that would compare favorably with the other Districts, on a basis where men can live, and then to expect living men to serve these charges. It should be said, also, that every charge understands fully what is required of it for Conference Claimants and Bishops and that these items belong in the budget and must be paid out of the treasury and not misappropriated from the benevolences. It is to be said to the credit of the churches of the District that they accepted these two items this year generously and that benevolent monies must not be touched in making good these claims.

The Church and the War.

No people are quicker to recognize the rights of others than are Methodists, and no people are freer to give themselves in defense of these rights. This is the history of our people through the years gone, and it is no less true in the world struggle now on. Since war was begun four years ago our church has had occasion in many conferences, conventions, and assemblies to speak its mind, and never has there been an uncertain word. Our churches are open to all patriotic meetings, many of our ministers are in active war participation, our resources have been forthcoming in the war measures calling for money, and our boys are in the field in great numbers. Throughout the Mattoon District there is but one voice and that is the call for a victory that will mean the end of war and the ratification of the program of Jesus Christ among all nations. The service flags in the churches of the District bear more than 1,200 stars, some of which have already turned to gold.

Deaths.

Four times death has entered the parsonage homes of the District this year. In early October Bro. S. W. Balch of Vermilion was called. He had just moved onto the charge and was anticipating a happy year when he was suddenly called to come up higher. He had given some 27 years of service to the church, service that won scores to the Lord and built up the Kingdom.

In May Mrs. T. M. Carter died at the home of her parents in Bloomington. Rev. Carter had gone as a Chaplain only a few days previously, and Mrs. Carter had gone to make her home for the time with her parents. She was a noble Christian woman, consecrated to the work of the church, capable in a large measure, and loved by the people she served.

Little Paul Hammand, five-year-old son of Bro. and Sister C. W. Hammand was run down by an automobile in front of their home in Marshall and sustained injuries from which he died. He was a charming little lad, bright and cheery, putting warmth and glow into the home life and his going brought a heavy burden of grief to the stricken parents.

Just as the Conference session was closing last year Rev. W. S. Calhoun suddenly died in his home town, Tuscola. He was among our most beloved and deeply devoted workmen and gave to the service of the church a long and active life.

Personal.

I desire here to record an expression of my appreciation of the fellowship enjoyed during the year with pastors and people. Of the good people of the Mattoon District it can be said there are none better. I have found them kind and hospitable, interested in the work of the Kingdom, and ready to do whatever seemed reasonable. I have found the pastors ready at all times to co-operate in whatever plans were made for the church's welfare and to them belongs the credit for whatever has been accomplished.

QUINCY DISTRICT.

A. S. Flanigan, District Superintendent.

All of the preachers of the District have been faithful to the high trust committed to them. There never was a year in which the people have said so little in blame of them and so much in praise. To work together with such men of God is indeed a joy. And the book would be a large one that contained all the praiseworthy things done in His name by them. The following are only a hint of all that might be written:

Building and Improvement.

October 13, 1917, on the Camden Charge, was dedicated the finest purely country church in the District. It is named Fairview on account of its fine landscape outlook as well as for its large kingdom prospects.

Pleasant Grove, of the Columbus Charge, rededicated, on the 20th of October, 1917. So extensive were the improvements as to treble its value. And it is modern in all of its appointments. A building perfectly adapted to serve the community in every way a church of Christ should in our day.

J. C. Brown, whose pastorate for the first year in Pittsfield, has witnessed so many notable events, as 1,400 per cent advance in apportioned benevolences and the welcoming of the First German Church membership into his church, has had also the luxury of moving twice this year. Shortly after Conference the old parsonage was sold and a new house with every modern device for convenience and comfort was purchased. And by a truly unique method he provided for the difference in cost.

Vermont Street had to do something by way of adornment to be in accord with its very popular pastor, Dr. Francis Asbury McCarty. It speaks eloquently for itself. It cost $2,700.

February 2d our church at Rushville was burned. The loss was total save for a piano and some Sunday School furniture. This was Saturday night. Sunday morning the Sunday School was held at the usual hour in the Court House, as were all other services that day and since. There was only one thing for this great church to do and they are doing it. In a very short time, including the insurance money, over $40,000 was provided for a new building. The contract has been let and the new building is now being constructed. It will be the latest word in church beauty and utility. Rev. D. V. Gowdy, who is greatly loved by his people, is the inspiring leader in this magnificent enterprise.

District Meetings.

In October we held our Annual District Stewards' and Preachers' Meeting in this church. The Conference Claimants' Endowment Campaign, Our Advocate, and Evangelism for the year were stressed at this meeting. The W. F. M. S. and the W. H. M. S. held very inspirational District gatherings which helped much in making the year the banner year for both of these great societies in the District. In January we called a conference of preachers and laymen in the interest of Wesley Foundations at the University of Illinois.

And though it was one of the coldest days of the year, the attendance was exceptionally large and the plans of the management received the unanimous and hearty approval of the Conference.

The Epworth League had every phase of their work considered in a large and enthusiastic District Convention. President Cole's League received the banner this year as well as the year before.

The first day of our three Gospel Tent Campaigns was devoted to an institute at which we studied Church Finance, Sunday School Essentials, Wesley Foundation, The Church in Our Present World War, and some timely subjects for more efficient churches and preachers. Dr. J. W. VanCleve, Dr. W. J. Davidson, Dr. J. C. Baker and Superintendents Antrim and Pletcher helped greatly to make these institutes of high value. Thus by these District meetings every important interest of the church has been seriously studied this year.

Money.

If, as has been said, our giving of our means to Christ's Church, measures our real love for Him, then never was our devotion to Him so full. For everywhere in our bounds in all war affairs intense "drives" with "over the top" and more has usually resulted. But these in no sense have hindered the church in all her money affairs to write the same victorious story. As the salaries of the preachers were advanced $2,250. And this is about the average advance for the past five years. And already for the year to come the advance will be near $3,000. Then the Apportioned Benevolences will receive more than ever before from the District, thirty-two Charges have reported 26 per cent over last year. While the W. F. M. S. reports to me an increase over last year in every auxiliary save one. And the W. H. M. S. reports an increase in all auxiliaries with no exception. And the miscellaneous causes have an exceptionally large amount to their credit.

Sunday Schools.

We regret to report that our Sunday Schools will show a decrease both in the total enrollment and in the average attendance. This to some degree is accounted for by the large number of Methodist Sunday School men and women in the service of our country away from home. In two schools in the District the entire class of young men are in the United States Army. Every School has some now in France or on the way. The opinion generally held by our Sunday School officials is that the war in some way accounts for our showing.

Rev. William T. Beadles, Chaplain of the Illinois Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, has had a very prosperous year. Several men and one woman have begun the new life. A large number of the members of the home are church members and some of them are active church workers. The attendance at all services has been good. For the last year the attendance of the Bible Class has averaged over 125. The attendance at the Thursday evening prayer meeting has been more than that. The preaching services at 2 p. m. and at 6:45 p. m. has been attended by as many as 400, and has averaged about 275. The chaplain and the soldiers are happy in their present relation and desire that this relationship be continued.

Advocate Campaign.

Last December we put on a District-wide campaign to increase the circulation of our Advocates, the Northwestern in particular. The results, while not satisfying, were gratifying. Twenty-one Charges increased the circulation from 100 per cent to 1,200 per cent, three 50 per cent or more, from 25 per cent or more, and none decreased.

While our people, without the reading of our Advocates, may know to some degree our doctrine and discipline, they cannot be up-to-date, intelligent Methodists as regards our world-wide achievements and enterprises without the reading of them. And whatever else may be said of them, they are replete with this kind of knowledge. I am also sure if some of us spent less time in talking them down in public and in private and more time in talking them up in pulpit and home, not only would they have a far larger circulation, but the papers would be "going on to perfection" in quality and our people through the knowledge thus gained would give a far greater and gladder response to the calls of the church.

Chaddock Boys' School.

We were very desirous to have the Illinois Conference hold its session in Quincy this year. We are glad you are here for Quincy and Quincy District's sake. And, judging the days to come by the days that are no more, the inspiration of the many great services, and the benediction of your presence in our city and homes will long abide. But the chief object of seeking to have you here is that you might know Chaddock Boys' School, not by faith, but by sight. As the life of our religion depends not so much on the terms of our faith as on the force of it. So we would have both your faith and knowledge of Chaddock increased. Then when the time comes for our campaign for larger endowment and ampler equipment you will back it commensurate with its great opportunity to serve the Kingdom of God. We have planned to have you see it as a body, but we trust you will not fail to see it as individuals. The authorities welcome you at any time.

Evangelism.

Last year we were able to report more conversions and accessions to the church than in any other year of the past four. This year opened in a way that led us to believe that this year would surpass last year. But beginning December 9th there was more unfavorable weather for services in the revival season than we have ever known before. And at the first of March we feared that the year in this great work would be our leanest. But with the coming of better weather and the faith, zeal and persistency of many preachers together with three Gospel Tent Campaigns, we are enabled to come with rejoicing, reporting more than five hundred who made Him their choice.

The Methodist people in the District are a hundred per cent loyal. If they are not loyal they are not Methodist. In our midst not of our number we have just enough disloyalty and just about the number of slackers necessary to raise us to the height of "black anger" against their utter ugliness and to keep our patriotism glowing at its best for the offensive and defensive at home and abroad.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

E. M. Antrim, Superintendent.

Bishop Leete and Brethren:

The new Springfield District comprises 46 pastoral charges and 72 churches. It lies in the heart of the commonwealth with almost every type of people and problem. It has within its bounds the down-town and suburban church in the capital city, the village and the rural church among the farmers, townspeople and miners that make up its constituency. Our work is cast both among pure-blooded Americans and foreigners.

Our First Year.

Though this is our first year, we have had a good one. Nearly every interest is on the up-grade. We know that Superintendents are in the habit of giving glowing reports of their District work, but we believe we have a report with a phosphorescent glow that won't come off. The year's work began with a District meeting of great power and grip, when the Ministers and District Stewards were gathered together for a part of two days to consider the theme: "The Ideal Church and the Ideal Minister." As an outcome of that meeting, a comprehensive program was adopted which we pledged ourselves to realize if it took five years to do so. It is as follows:

1. A ten per cent (net) increase in church membership and Sunday School attendance, by the use of every legitimate means, such as revivals, personal evangelism, gospel teams, constituency roll, special efforts and the utilization of the lay forces of the church.

2. Every Sunday School standardized and doing 100 per cent efficient work.

3. Galvanization of the men's work and Young People's Society in every church.

4. The current expenses of the church taken care of by united, prayerful and loyal work on the part of the laity. This includes the adoption of the disciplinary financial plan.

5. All benevolent apportionments to be raised in full.

6. The conference Claimants' Endowment fund to be pledged in full.

7. All church debts to be cancelled.

8. Every church to make far-sighted plans to secure adequate and up-to-date equipment in its building and accommodations to meet the church and community needs.

9. Constant prayer and endeavor to be made to secure recruits for the ministry.

10. Wider circulation of Methodist papers, books, magazines and literature in all our homes, particularly our Area Advocate the Northwestern. Special goal—every official member a subscriber to a church paper.

11. Every preacher and every church prepared for the most effective work by the adoption of a carefully thought-out program of work.

How nearly we have approximated this high standard, the following report will show.

District Plans.

To assist him in carrying out the program as adopted, the Superintendent was authorized to appoint a District Cabinet composed of a dozen of the ministers and laymen of the District, who have met a number of times to counsel and plan concerning the work. Among other things authorized was a little District Herald published once a month. Special drives were also planned—for Advocate subscriptions in December, for converts and new members from January to Easter, for the Conference Claimant Endowment Fund in April and May, for the Benevolences at the close of the year. In order to promote the work better, the District was divided into seven sub-districts, with a center and chairman named for each. In each of these groups a very successful simultaneous third quarterly Conference and Group Meeting was held in the spring when we secured some of the finest talent in the church, including two of our Superintendents, to present various phases of church work. Brief reports were heard from pastor, Sunday School superintendent, Epworth League president and church treasurer. Those churches which had raised and paid the ministerial support in full to date were placed on an honor roll. Fifty-four out of the 72 churches went on that roll. The series ended with a great Social Union banquet in Springfield at which over 300 plates were laid. Charts were prepared, showing the standing of each church on Ministerial Support, Conference Claimants' Fund, Benevolences, New Members, Sunday School and Epworth League standing, Stars in the Service Flags and new subscriptions to church papers. A ten-year study of the standing of each church had also been prepared on charts by Brother E. S. Combs, which was designed both to instruct and inspire the laity. So successful were these meetings that we intend to repeat them in some form next year.

10 Per Cent Increase in Membership.

Reports of the whole year's work show that about 25 per cent of the church reached or passed the 10 per cent increase in membership. Laurel Springfield, Rev. A. B. Peek pastor, stands first in point of numbers, making an advance of an even 100 or 17 per cent. Witt comes first in point of percentage with a net gain of 64 new members or 33 per cent. Other charges which made a gain of 10 per cent or more are: Millersville, C. C. Pearce, pastor; Butler, S. C. Hilburn, pastor; Farmersville, M. M. Marshall, pastor; Kincaid, A. M. Sinclair, pastor; Niantic, H. C. Munch, pastor; Nokomis, A. S. McIntosh, pastor; Morrisonville, O. D. Ross, pastor; Dawson, Harold Hartman, pastor; 18th Street, Springfield, T. L. Marsden, pastor.

Financial Victories.

The year has been marked by some extraordinary financial achievements. In spite of war demands, our people have been generous with their offerings, and every department will register an advance. They seem to be catching the vision and glory of Christian Stewardship. In ministerial support 26 charges this year increased the pastors' salaries to the amount of $4,374, while 25 charges have already promised an increase for next year amounting to $5,075, making a total of $9,559, with enough more in prospect to put it above the $10,000 mark.

The 26 charges that increased the salaries this year and go on the star roll are: Blue Mound, $100; Buffalo, $100; Butler, $50; Farmersville, $80; Grove City, $100; Irving, $75; Kenney, $50; Kincaid, $750; Middletown, $50; Millersville, $200; Morrisonville, $150; Mt. Auburn, $250; Mt. Pulaski, $250; Oconee, $100; Owaneco, $200; Pawnee, $200; Pana, $100; Raymond, $100; Rochester, $50; Rosamond, $50; Shiloh, $50; 18th Street, Springfield, $519; Laurel, Springfield, $200; Stonington, $200; Williamsville, $250; Witt, $350.

Benevolences.

Our charges have almost without exception closed the year with current expenses all met, while offerings for the apportioned benevolences will show a remarkable advance. Last year only 3 charges on the District raised the benevolences in full. They were Mt. Auburn, Chestnut and Mt. Pulaski. This year nearly every charge will show marked advances while about one-third of the charges of the District, beginning with the fine achievement of First Church, Springfield, which raised its great benevolent budget of $2,809 in full for the first time, will report all benevolences in full. Those charges are, Blue Mound, Buffalo, Butler, Chestnut, Farmersville, Grove City, Middletown, Mt. Auburn, Mt. Pulaski, Niantic, Nokomis, First and 18th St. Springfield, Witt and Owaneco.

Conference Claimant Campaign.

At the same time the Conference Claimants' Endowment campaign resulted in bringing in $38,369 on the permanent fund, mostly from smaller charges, which swings our District standup up from sixth to third place in this matter. About 9 per cent of the charges, including the city of Springfield, which is 100 plus, are over the top and the rest will be early in the new year.

Bequests.

Mr. Daniel Bottrell, of Mt. Auburn, left in his will the sum of $500 each to the Ladies' Aid Societies of Mt. Auburn and Illiopolis and $1,000 to the Conference Claimant Endowment Fund, while Mrs. Cantrall, of Rochester, left about $2,000 in trust to the trustees of the Rochester Church, the interest of which is to be applied on the pastor's salary.

NOTABLE ACHIEVEMENTS.

Owaneco.

Among them was the completion and dedication, free of debt, of the beautiful new $20,000 church at Owaneco, an architectural gem. Amidst great difficulties this victory was won. After the persistent and heroic work of Pastor Drake, who gave every ounce of his strength to the enterprise, had come to its fruition, dedication day dawned with many thousands of dollars to be raised. But the finances were ably handled by Dr. W. J. Davidson, so that at the evening service, the District Superintendent announced every dollar subscribed with over a thousand to spare and dedicated the church amidst great rejoicing. It is now thoroughly equipped for the right man to come in and do a great constructive piece of church work.

Raymond.

Notable also was the raising of $2,100 at Raymond to dedicate the beautifully remodeled church there free of debt. After the ground had been carefully prepared by the pastor, Rev. Paul E. Carson, the people responded so generously to the appeal of the Superintendent on dedication day, that the whole sum needed was pledged in 25 minutes and the Doxology sung. The hopeful and aspiring people there are going to raise the salary $400 next year and have more than enough pledged already to cover all expenses.

Witt and Nokomis.

Great financial victories were also won at Witt, Rev. P. R. Powers, pastor at Nokomis, and Rev. A. S. McIntosh, pastor at Witt, when, on two successive Sundays, $3,000 at the former place and $2,000 at the latter was raised to pay parsonage and other debts and to take care of the Conference Claimant Pledge. After careful preparation by the pastors these amounts were quickly subscribed in response to the appeal of the District Superintendent.

Taylorville.

An imperfect roof needing repairs, the necessity of installing a new furnace and the desire for ample and up-to-date Sunday School, banquet and recreational quarters have led to the launching of a $40,000 project at Taylorville under the leadership of the pastor, G. W. Flagg and his officials, with over half of it already subscribed. When completed, the Taylorville Church will be practically new, as well-appointed as any, and well equipped to meet the problems of young life, civic and church duties in the reconstruction days just ahead of us.

Other Church Improvements.

The Pana Church, under Brother E. S. Comb's leadership, has raised over $4,200, this for a new heating plant and basement. Amounts raised and paid for church improvements or indebtedness by others are: Millersville, $225; Kincaid, $1,500; Laurel Springfield, $1,400; Kumler Springfield, $572; Williams-ville, $600; Mt. Pulaski, $250; Grove City, $600; Mechanicsburg, $500; Buffalo, $800; Oconee, $500; Dawson, $150; Blue Mound, $133; Elkhart, $550; Morris-ville, $225; Taylorville, $898. Brethren, there are many more things we might say about the results of the fine team work of laymen and ministers, characteristic of our District, but ye can not hear them now. The Superintendent wants to thank all those who have contributed so enthusiastically to the year's work. We have some of the finest preachers and the greatest laymen in the conference.

"It ain't the individuals,
Nor the army as a whole,
But the everlastin' teamwork
Of every bloomin' soul."

The Centenary.

At such a time as this birth of the Centenary Movement is Providential. In the midst of the world crisis, in which the church as well as all other high interests have become involved, this Divinely inspired movement is launched. It is a bold and audacious adventure. But it will win. It will work wonders in the world. We see in it not merely the raising of $80,000,000 to aid in the salvation and reconstruction of a torn and bleeding world, but a Divine Call to a deeper religious life, higher standards of stewardship and a greater force of Christian workers. Such a movement is needed for our own sake as well as the war-scared world. When 100,000 people in 104 villages in a section of one of our great commonwealths are without Church, Sunday School or gospel, it is high time we should awake to such a peril and opportunity. When 50,000 Italians are crowded into one block of a city and thousands of Russians on the East Side of New York may become the prey of Bolshevism which terms us "Christ-screamers" and proceeds to destroy our liberties and batter down sacred human rights, it is time for the Zion of the Lord to go first to her knees and then to her task with all her Divinely inspired might. The biggest thing in the Church in the next five years will be the Centenary. It will be Methodism's contribution to the spiritual and moral and material reconstruction of the world.

Ministerial Shortage.

Due partly to war conditions and partly to personal reasons, the ministerial shortage on the Springfield District is extraordinarily acute at this time. We are hit harder in this particular, than any other District in the Conference. This only serves to accentuate a situation which is causing every Superintendent much anxious thought. With but few young men joining the Conference we must look in the future for ministerial recruits among the boys who have responded to the country's call in the great war, when the war is won. No doubt many of them will return better equipped than ever, to serve in the mighty days of reconstruction before us. A drive to this end should be launched at the opportune moment. We have lost or will lose eight at this conference. They are W. W. Drake who after 27 years of faithful service in the Illinois Conference; dedicated free of debt the beautiful new church at Owaneco, only to suffer a complete breakdown and must regretfully ask for superannuation; Oscar Stewart of Sharpsburg, and Paul J. Snyder of Kenney, both of whom responded to the call to go to colors, the former now in service in France, the latter in the medical arm of the service; W. M. Carter of Blue Mound who under solemn promise to his son, who is also "over there," to take care of his farm while away asks for a year's leave of absence; H. M. Derby of Illiopolis who is retiring; O. C. Ross of Morrisonville, who for family reasons has transferred to the Colorado Conference and takes up work at 5th Ave., Denver; F. A. Dowler who was at the last conference was assigned to Niantic, but later gave up the work at his own request is withdrawing from the ministry and Paul E. Carson, who after an extraordinary year at Raymond goes to the Theological Seminary if not into the service of the country.

The Church and the War.

Patriotic fires have been burning in all of our churches. Whenever in the history of our Country, it has become involved in the war for some great principle or our precious liberties or the cause of Democracy, the Methodist Church has proved its unfailing loyalty by springing to its aid. Now that nearly all the world is engaged in a death grapple with a military autocracy, seeking military, political and commercial domination, the Methodist Church is offering its treasure and its sons with lavish prodigality. We have something like 750 stars in our District Service Flags. We know our cause is just and right. We know God is on our side. We are proud of our Yankee boys who are rolling back the hordes of the enemy. We know final victory will be on our side. We know that the Kaiser's present peace offensive would lead to an offensive peace and we will not listen.

Personal.

Through storm and sunshine, in zero weather and when the thermometer stood at 106 in the shade, without a day's vacation this year we have tried to discharge the duties of our position. We tried with our might to do what our hands found to do. We have traveled 15,424 miles by trolley, train, carriage and auto through snow drifts as high as the buggy tops, and in weather when the atmosphere quivered with heat. We have delivered 169 sermons, lectures and addresses. We have done things our predecessor in office, Peter Cartwright never thought of doing—that is work for an hour to pull out an auto mired in a mud-hole. We have been admitted to the inner circle of the finest fraternity on earth, that of the Methodist Ministry, whose unfailing kindness we can never repay. We have been admitted in the most intimate way to the inner shrine of their joys and sorrows. In order to prepare the better for the discharge of the responsibilities of this office, we have not only familiarized ourselves with the conditions in our own District, but through a survey of the whole conference by means of a questionnaire sent to the men we have made a most complete compilation of accurate data respecting nearly every man and every church in the conference, put together in loose-leaf form ready for instant reference. We want to thank the Brethren for responding so generously to the request for facts.

Final Word.

Finally, brethren, it is great to be alive in this year of our Lord. We would rather be alive now and have a little part in the salvation of the world right now by cross and sword than to have lived at any other period of the world's history. We're glad we're in the thick of the fight. For it is "Better in one ecstatic epic day,

To strike a blow for glory and for truth,
With ardent singing heart to toss away
In Freedom's holy cause my eager youth,
Than bear, as weary years pass one by one,
The knowledge of a sacred task undone."

(B) STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCES.

Your committee records with gratitude to God and a just pride in the liberality and loyalty of our people, the handsome increase this year in the total of contributions to the various benevolent causes authorized by the church. But it should be remembered that the constant decrease in the purchasing value of the dollar materially reduces the apparent advance in benevolent gifts, and calls for a steadily advancing goal of giving.

The reports of pastors and District Superintendents indicate that from one-third to one-half of the charges in the Conference have reached the full amount of their apportionments and deserve to be rated as 100% charges, while many of them have gone over the top with an advance beyond the apportionment.

We maintain that our benevolent causes are of equal importance and validity with the claims of the local church and equally binding upon pastors and people, and we recommend as an objective, a minimum of 100% for every charge and as a maximum the obligations of Christian stewardship to God and Christian brotherhood to men.

We urge the pastors to employ, wherever practicable, the Disciplinary Financial Plan and the every member canvass of church and constituency, for both local and benevolent budgets, and inasmuch as the organization trained for the financial interests will also be used to carry out the program of the Centenary movement we suggest that the canvass for the regular financial budgets be put on as early in the year as possible.

We recommend that, a Conference Commission on finance be appointed and we nominate for that commission: G. W. Randle, S. N. Wakefield, E. H. Lugg, A. H. Flag, C. F. Juval, C. S. McCullom and F. B. Ward.

G. W. RANDLE, Chairman.
L. G. CUMMINS, Secretary.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANT COMMISSION FOR ENDOWMENTS FUNDS.

Your Commission for the campaign for Conference Claimants Endowments Funds respectfully reports in addition to the report made by the Field Secretary, H. C. Gibbs, the recommendation for action upon the following resolutions:

RESOLVED:

First. That the Conference Claimants Commission with the powers conferred by the Conference in 1916 and reaffirmed in 1917 be and is hereby continued;

Second. That the Commission shall provide for all necessary expenses incident to the most efficient prosecution of its work;

Third. That Henry C. Gibbs be appointed as the Field Secretary, who shall work under the direction of the Commission and be ex-officio member of the Commission;

Fourth. That Veterans' Day shall be observed in each of our Congregations when special efforts shall be made to secure intelligent and hearty co-operation on the part of each congregation, Sunday School and Epworth League in

(a) Setting before our young men the claims of the Christian Ministry as a life work.

(b) Securing the standard amount in pledges wherever that standard amount has not been subscribed;

(c) The prompt payment of pledges made, and at as early a day as possible the full payment of all installments on the pledges;

(d) In raising not less than $250,000 over and above the standard amount which is absolutely necessary to furnish an adequate support for our Conference Claimants which has long been overdue them by the church; and

(e) To keep the fact before all the people that at least this additional sum of $250,000 must be raised before there can be any decrease in the amount appropriated annually to the Pastoral Charges for collection. For this purpose both the Ministers and Laymen should seek out persons who could be induced to make large gifts and bequests for our Endowment Funds, calling especial attention to our Annuity plan and the schedule of rates as published in the By-Laws of the Preachers' Aid Society.

Fifth. In order to conserve the endowment funds and to protect the conference and the church from unfaithful and inefficient men

(a) Great care should be exercised in admitting men into the Conference;

(b) Members of the Conference who become inefficient because of entanglements in secular affairs should be denied the Supernumerary Relation, but rather should be given a certificate of location at least until such disabilities have been removed;

(c) That the District Superintendents and the committee on Conference Relations be and are hereby requested to give the fullest examination of all requests for placing any brother upon the retired list, and to be ready to give to the Conference upon each request the grounds upon which any recommendation for this honorary relation may be made;

Sixth. That the Conference Board of Stewards be and are hereby directed to observe the annuity principle as primary in the distribution of funds available for Conference Claimants.

B. F. SHIPP, Chairman.

M. N. ENGLISH, Secy.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

In view of the action of this Conference to push the great campaign for $500,000.00 endowment for the conference claimants and the splendid progress thus far attained, we urge it as the paramount duty of every charge to see that the standard amount asked for this fund be raised in full this year, if at all possible; also that full support and assistance be accorded those who have this campaign in charge.

(2)

An erroneous report has gone abroad to the effect that as this conference claimants' fund is raised and paid, the present apportionment of six per cent of the pastor's salary would be correspondingly reduced. Dr. Gibbs is in no way responsible for this error. We recommend that great care be taken to explain to all our charges that this special endowment is entirely extra and that the annual apportionment will continue to be asked and we recommend no decrease.

We respectfully ask in view of unprecedented cost of living and shortage of funds for our conference claimants that those who may find it possible relinquish their funds to help from this fund.

(4)

We reaffirm our statement of last year with respect to the Preachers' Aid Society, which is as follows:

"In view of the fact that, by the adoption of the Report of the Commission on Conference Claimants, every member of the Illinois Conference becomes a sharer in the benefits that shall accrue from all funds secured, ultimately including the funds and endowments of The Preachers' Aid Society; and, until a large productive endowment has been secured, the funds available for annual distribution to Conference Claimants by The Preachers' Aid Society will depend in part upon the payment of annual dues by the members of the Preachers' Aid Society; therefore, be it

"Resolved, (1) That every candidate for admission into membership of the Illinois Conference, before he is admitted into the Conference, shall be asked to pledge himself to become a member of and pay his annual dues to The Preachers' Aid Society;

(2) That with every member of the Illinois Conference it is a matter of good faith that he become an active member of, and pay his annual dues to The Preachers' Aid Society, in the benefits of whose funds he is to share; and,

(3) That each member of the Conference who shall be appointed to service other than that of Pastor or District Superintendent shall furnish the Secretary of the Conference the name of the position held, and the amount of salary or income received from said position."

(5)

We profoundly appreciate the dauntless and untiring labors of our Field Secretary in the Campaign, Dr. H. C. Gibbs, and we most sincerely recommend his reappointment to this office for the coming year.

R. Y. WILLIAMS, Pres.
J. C. BROWN.

REPORT OF THE CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

Your Board beg leave to report that we have carefully enquired into all matters pertaining to the work of deaconesses and deaconesses' institutions within the bounds of this Conference. We find that the following persons are licensed and consecrated deaconesses under the jurisdiction of our Board, to wit:

Bertha A. Beadles, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Ill.
Mary L. Brewer, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Ill.
Anna M. Kellogg, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Ill.
Eva C. Fields, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Ill.
Mary E. Williamson, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Ill.
Anna J. Davidson, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Ill.
Harriet L. Severns, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Ill.
Emma S. Severly, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Ill.
Mabel G. Millard, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Ill.
Anna L. Logan, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Ill.
Laura M. Batman, Cunningham Children's Home, Urbana, Ill.

CHADDOCK BOYS' SCHOOL.

It is with pleasure that we report that the Chaddock Boys' School has had a most successful year. The agricultural department which has for four years past been such a strong feature of our work has come in to a much larger place. The trustees have leased a farm of 157 acres, one mile south of the school, where ten of our boys live. They are under the direction of a farm manager and operate a dairy, cultivate the land and harvest the crops. With the remodeling of the house where we now have our own light plant, a furnace, hot and cold water, the boys live under the most wholesome and comfortable conditions.

Another beautiful new building, the Joseph S. Hoyt Hall, is nearing completion. Twenty of our boys occupy the dormitory in this hall while the carpenters are busy finishing the first floor. We now have accommodations for sixty-five boys, and more than double that number of boys sought a place with us this year. Sixty-five are now under our tuition.

Under the new financial plan outlined by the Conference last year we reached fifty-four charities in the country. Pledges and cash to the amount of $6,274.89 were received. Of this amount $2,694.74 has been paid in and vouchers returned to the pastors for their reports. This amount, together with the $3,000 contributed by our Chaddock Aid Society, enabled us to close the year without a deficit, though we had done $5,000 worth of the work. The school will be happy to continue the financial plan as set forth in the Conference minutes of last year on page 77.

Thirty-nine Chaddock boys are now enlisted under the National Colors. Four of our High School boys enlisted from the school last year. We recommend the election of the following named persons trustees of the Chaddock Boys' School:

Rev. F. A. McCarty, D. L. Musselman, J. F. Chappell, H. B. Dines, Rev. E. M. Antrim, J. W. Henry, Mrs. Idella Hewes and Rev. A. S. Flanigan.

CUNNINGHAM CHILDREN'S HOME.

There is but one deaconess under the jurisdiction of the Cunningham Children's Home, Miss Laura Bateman. It is reported by Mr. Fowler, the Superintendent, that the Home is in most excellent condition, but very much crowded and will soon be seriously embarrassed because of the lack of a building for the care of contagious diseases among the children. We have not before us the figures to indicate the number of children cared for during the year nor such a report as would enable us to make any statement as to their financial condition, but we most heartily commend the institution as one of the most worthy within the State of Illinois, for the care of dependent orphan children. In this institution, as also in the Chaddock Boys' School, there are listed quite a number of women as associate workers.

We nominate for the class of 1921, A. H. Flagge, W. H. Wilder, Mrs. E. G. Sandmeyer. For the year 1819 the members are M. G. Coleman, N. M. Rigg, C. R. Morrison. For the class of 1920, Mrs. H. L. Haywood, Mrs. S. A. Bullard, Mrs. Geo. H. Wilson.

(Signed) W. H. WILDER, President.

M. G. COLEMAN, Secretary.

Present: W. A. Smith, Chairman; S. H. Whitlock, H. C. Gibbs, J. F. Wohlfarth, R. F. McDaniel, F. B. Madden.

The Treasurer, H. C. Gibbs, presented his report, and on motion of S. H. Whitlock, it was accepted and ordered placed on file.

On motion of J. F. Wohlfarth, a dividend of twelve hundred dollars was ordered paid to the Board of Stewards.

On motion, A. L. Caseley was appointed to preach the Strawbridge Sermon, and F. B. Madden alternate.

W. A. SMITH, Chairman,

F. B. MADDEN, Secretary.

Trustees met at 8:00 p. m., Sept. 21, 1918.

Present: W. A. Smith, Chairman; S. H. Whitlock, H. C. Gibbs, J. F. Wohlfarth, R. A. McDaniel, B. F. Shipp.

On motion of S. H. Whitlock, the Treasurer of the Board of Trustees was authorized to negotiate a loan of $5,000 from the Commission on Conference Claimants' Endowment Fund and to pay said sum to the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards.

On motion the Trustees adjourned.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

Whereas the rural church situation is of so great importance, there being in many communities churches of other denominations, as well as our own, which have been practically abandoned and the fields left largely, if not altogether to the Methodist Church. And whereas many of our weaker churches could be greatly strengthened if there was sufficient means to support a stronger man than is possible under present conditions. Therefore,

Be it resolved, That every pastor is urged to raise his full apportionment for Domestic Missions and Church Aid.

E. L. CARSON, Secretary.

EDUCATIONAL REPORT.

Your Committee on Education submit the following report:

The great war, which has brought changes to every other phase of life, has not failed to affect our colleges. We are proud of our young men, who have responded to our nation's call in this her hour of need, as well as the young women who are giving their service to the Red Cross and kindred agencies.

But the going away of these young people has brought great problems to our schools. At the Illinois Wesleyan the service flag displays 325 stars, representing the students and alumni who are now in the various phases of war work. The loss of so many students at one time makes a very serious situation, which would prove an embarrassment indeed were it not for the Government's decision to convert the colleges into temporary training camps. At this school barracks are already in preparation to take care of the more than three hundred regular and limited service men that are expected to enroll September 30 for combined literary and military training. This is undoubtedly a great opportunity for our young men, and we desire to urge our pastors to do their utmost to get the young men who have the equivalent of a high school education to enroll at the Illinois Wesleyan this fall, and by so doing without doubt in the case of the younger men will be enabled to complete the greater part of a year's work before being called to the regular army service.

The work of taking care of these young men Illinois Wesleyan realizes is a big responsibility, but it is adjusting itself to the task with a desire that they shall receive the largest possible benefit. The churches of Bloomington are expecting to co-operate in showing hospitality to these young men and throwing about them the very best moral and spiritual influences while they are here. The local Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. are also making plans to help co-operate with the college in throwing the best moral and religious safeguards among the young men and women in school the coming year.

The Y. M. C. A. was re-organized this past year and did some very successful work. It sent the second largest delegation to Lake Geneva this summer that was sent by any college in seven states attending that great Conference. The Y. W. C. A. also sent a large delegation to Lake Geneva, and they have all come back imbued with a spirit of earnestness and a desire to make this coming year the greatest of Illinois Wesleyan's history. Illinois Wesleyan made a record in the study classes under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. These classes were organized voluntary classes, and made this remarkable record, that they enrolled every student of the College of Liberal Arts in the University, a record unsurpassed by any school in the country. These associations are making very active plans for the coming year. They are planning to have their Bible Classes, Mission Study Classes and other active work. The College Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. has promised to spend one week at the opening of school in helping the boys get the work going. We have also been apprised that a Y. M. C. A. Secretary, furnished by the National Y. M. C. A., is to be sent here for work among the boys the coming year at the expense of the Y. M. C. A. Also Bishop Nicholson and Mrs. Nicholson have promised to come early in the year for nearly a week to hold Conferences and religious meetings with the student body.

A number of changes were made in the faculty this year owing to the resignation of the six or seven of our teachers. Most of the teachers received handsome advances in salary at other institutions, while some of them went away for post-graduate work, but in their stead some very excellent teachers have been engaged, and they have the highest type of scholarship and will be a credit, we feel sure, to Illinois Wesleyan in these days of enlarged opportunity and increased responsibility.

By action of the Board of Trustees the Academy was discontinued last June, but provision was made for those who are lacking one or two credits of meeting entrance requirements to make up their work.

Prof. J. W. Henninger, a member of this Conference and a faithful and efficient member of our faculty, after a brief illness, passed to his eternal reward. He was an excellent teacher of ripe scholarship, a man of rare Christian character and exerted a most potent influence for good in the school and community. He was greatly beloved by students and faculty and he will be greatly missed.

Three of our student body are represented by gold stars in our service flag. Two of our choice young men died in cantonments and one died of wounds in Flanders.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

At the Illinois Woman's College the problems incident to the war has had a more serious effect than at our co-educational institution. While last year showed a small increase in students, this year will likely show a decrease. This loss of the usual tuition, together with the increased expenses incident to these war times, will without doubt present a serious financial problem for this school.

The operating accounts for the year show a deficit of $2,663. It is a pleasure to report that this amount was wholly provided for at Commencement time by gifts of friends, so that the year closed without indebtedness. But the need of a large additional endowment is imperative, and must be secured at once to insure the continued high standard of college work and to meet the current demands.

The year 1921 will be the seventy-fifth year of the college, and should be marked by a fitting Diamond Jubilee celebration, and by the addition of at least $400,000 to the assets of the college, for endowment, buildings and equipment, making the total value of the college plant at least one million dollars. The Trustees have announced their purpose to secure this amount, and earnestly request the support and co-operation of the Conference to this end.

The Rev. Charles A. Nyman, formerly of this Conference, and now of the Rock River Conference, has been elected Vice-President of the College, to assist President Harker in general college administration. Mr. Nyman is well fitted for this work, and will bring to it energy, ability and enthusiasm. We bespeak for him a hearty welcome to the Conference.

At the Commencement last June there was special and fitting recognition of the completion of twenty-five years of faithful and efficient service of President and Mrs. Harker. The city of Jacksonville, the Trustees, Faculty and past and present students of the College, Bishop Nicholson, Secretary Harris and many other representatives of the Church and Conference with representatives of a large number of colleges and universities united in expressions and tokens of honor for this man and woman who have for twenty-five years given their lives to the College and to the educational interests of the Illinois Conference and the Methodist Church.

THE WESLEY FOUNDATION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS.

The University of Illinois is this year a great military school. Hundreds of men for more than a year have been in training in the Ground School of Military Aeronautics. Now, in addition, plans have been perfected for taking care of five thousand men under the new Government scheme for the Students' Army Training Corps.

Counting the women students, the present outlook is that there will be one of the largest student bodies ever at the University of Illinois.

The situation as above described serves to make more urgent than ever the work of the Wesley Foundation in its endeavor to provide social and religious care for University students—especially those of Methodist affiliation. The University authorities have appealed to the churches about the campus for assistance in the social and moral care of the men in the Students' Army Training Corps.

In the matter of the campaign of the Wesley Foundation for five hundred thousand dollars—already authorized by this Conference—we submit the following agreement made between the District Superintendents of the Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences and the Joint Centenary Committee. We recommend the approval of this action by the Conference.

1. The Wesley Foundation is in a state-wide campaign approved by all of the Conferences of the State for five hundred thousand dollars, of which the Central Illinois Conference has accepted $100,000.00 as its portion and the Illinois Conference has accepted two hundred thousand dollars as its portion. This campaign has been repeatedly delayed on account of the continuation of campaigns for colleges, conference claimants and various war activities. It has the right of way for its completion by action of the respective Conferences of the State. The earliest possible time for the prosecution of the campaigning is following the Conference sessions this fall.

2. It will be an embarrassment to both campaigns for either one of them to go forward singly.

3. We believe the work of the Wesley Foundation is a legitimate Centenary objective, both for the Home and Foreign Boards.

4. We request the Centenary Commission to recognize the Wesley Foundation campaign as a part of the Centenary on the following basis:

(a) The askings for the Wesley Foundation shall form an integral part of the total apportionment to our respective Conferences and the regular apportionment made by the Centenary to the Conferences shall include this amount as an additional part of the same.

(b) In the matter of the actual returns from the Centenary campaign in the Central Illinois and Illinois Conferences, the Wesley Foundation shall share in its due proportion as the amounts are collected.

5. We believe that this arrangement will be mutually beneficial to the Centenary and the Wesley Foundation, as it will enable the Central Illinois Conference and the Illinois Conference to give their undivided attention to the work of education, organization and successful prosecution of the Centenary campaign from Conference time on.

THEOLOGICAL SCHOOLS.

We commend our theological schools for their helpfulness in keeping before the Church the need of the best training of the high calling of the ministry, and for the continual raising of the standards to keep pace with the rise of standards of the professions.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Educational Board is rendering very efficient service to the Church. The closing of the Educational Jubilee campaign July 3, by which movement the colleges were led to raise the sum of $27,000,000, is a triumph in itself, while the "loan fund" under the management of this Board is aiding an increasing number of students, which number from the beginning has passed the 25,000 mark. To aid ourselves we should raise our educational apportionments in full.

We congratulate ourselves that we have had for leaders of our schools Dr. Harker, who for a quarter of a century has led in the advancement of this institution; Dr. Baker, who has given us for eleven years inspiration for the work at the U. of I., and Dr. Kemp, who has for ten years led us in the work at the I. W., and we express the hope that they will be spared to us for many years to come.

We nominate for members of the Board for the Class of 1921 the following: W. D. Fairchild, C. R. Morrison, L. J. Owen, G. Cathcart, B. F. Huff, H. W. McPherson, C. N. Snavely, A. C. Adams and C. M. Duncan.

We nominate for trustees and visitors the following: Wesley Foundation—John Stipes, two years.

Illinois Wesleyan—Trustees: J. C. Nate, William Cathcart, L. J. Owen and H. R. Snavely. Visitors: J. W. Davidson, George Scrimger, B. F. Shipp, M. N. English, H. W. McPherson and Arthur S. Chapman.

Illinois Woman's College—Visitors: J. C. Nate, A. C. Piersel, T. N. Ewing, Arthur S. Chapman, C. R. Morrison, District Superintendent Jacksonville District, and pastors resident in Jacksonville, District Superintendent Springfield District.

Theological Schools: Iliff, E. M. Antrim; Boston, H. W. McPherson and A. K. Byrns; Drew, F. B. Madden; Garrett, C. F. Junivall and E. G. Sandmyer.

CONFERENCE VISITORS ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

One year ago we were appointed by this Conference as Visitors to the Illinois Wesleyan University, and we now appear to report to you on what we have observed and learned touching conditions obtaining in the Illinois Wesleyan University.

On every hand there is a feeling that with the equipment and endowment she has, the Illinois Wesleyan University has done, and is still doing, a great work. Her contribution to Methodist leadership in Illinois and elsewhere has been of high order and greatly to her credit; her contribution to education and to the teaching and legal professions has been equally significant. During all these years she has had to try to meet the demands of the times with nothing like the endowment and equipment which many strong educational institutions enjoyed.

There is a widespread conviction that the great endowment campaign for the Wesleyan, which received its inspiration from the magnificent conditional gift of $200,000 by Mrs. Martha A. Buck, and which was brought to a victorious conclusion in the Interconference educational forward movement, marked the beginning of a new era for the Wesleyan. We believe the conviction has some good reasons back of it, but not as many as it needs. President Kemp and his faithful faculty, as well as the Presidents and faculties of other days, have had to make brick without straw in too many instances. They have done nobly; what they might have done, had they been given the money, the equipment and the room for doing it, would have surpassed all they have accomplished in a measure that both thrills the imagination and also makes us ashamed of the limitations they endured.

While we rejoice at the good which has been accomplished by this institution of the Illinois Annual Conference, we beg to report that certain conditions exist there which involve questions so vitally related to the future interests and welfare of the school, and, therefore, to the welfare of this Conference, that, as your appointees, we deem it due your body to officially bring them to your attention and ask you to give them your earnest consideration and take such advisory action concerning them as you may deem advisable.

First—We respectfully call attention to the inadequacy of the present campus and buildings to meet the demands of the school if it is to maintain its past record and successfully compete with other schools in the state which afford superior equipment and advantages. It seems to us that a declaration by this Conference would be appropriate as to the urgency of adopting a definite program for the next half century and the best method of beginning now to carry the same into effect.

Second—We call attention to the fact that a recent proposition for the removal of the Illinois Wesleyan University to another city has given rise to the question whether the Illinois Wesleyan University may, under any circumstances, be moved from the place where it was originally located and still exists. A difference of opinion has developed on this question, which is still open and undecided by the Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors. The proposition for removal to another city was declined, but not for this reason.

A declaration by the Conference at this time would seem to be appropriate, if not essential, upon the question whether the school should have the freedom to change its location in case its best interests seem to demand such change, or whether the matter of location should be held as irrevocable and primary and the highest interests of the school and its future development subordinate thereto.

Third—We find considerable sentiment in favor of such a co-ordination of the Methodist co-educational colleges of Illinois at some strategic city-center in the state, as would result ultimately in merging all of them into one great school under the charter of The Illinois Wesleyan University, while retaining the smaller schools as feeders or junior colleges or auxiliary schools if that should be found practicable. It might be found advisable even to give the new institution a new name with its new, or revised, or amended charter. We refer to the Co-educational Methodist Schools of Illinois, exclusive of Northwestern University. We found at the Joint Board meeting in June, and have also found in many parts of this Conference, a real enthusiasm for some great, central, strategic, commanding site for the Illinois Wesleyan University, and we believe that the intelligent and unbiased educational and Methodist sentiment of the state would favor such a consolidation. Under such a plan, each school should contribute something in the way of sacrifice to further its consummation, and Illinois Wesleyan might be called upon, in the interest of a harmonious adjustment, to surrender both its name and location, if this seemed to be for the best interests of the movement. We believe it is inevitable that in time such a consolidation will take place in some city in Central Illinois, and that wise educational statesmanship will seek to organize its movements with reference to such great anticipations. We, therefore, believe that a Conference declaration on this subject would be opportune at this session.

Fourth—We find that the Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors is composed of 24 Trustees, the President, who is ex-officio a member of the Board of Trustees, and 12 visitors, making a total of 37 members; that the Board meets twice annually, and that in the interim of meetings a committee of 18, appointed by the Joint Board, carries on the business of the Illinois Wesleyan University. Ten members of this committee of 18 are not members of the Joint Board. It seems incongruous to us that a body to whom has been committed the important trust of looking after the policies and other great interests of this Christian School should delegate their powers and functions to others outside their body who are in no way responsible to the patronizing Conferences. It would seem advisable for this Conference to make a declaration as to whether it favors such a policy and expects its appointees, the Trustees and Visitors of the University, thus to delegate their powers to persons who are not members of the Joint Board. In view of this unusual condition, we have deemed it our duty to apprise the Illinois Annual Conference of the same. In calling your attention to this method of procedure, however, your visitors do not wish to appear to be imputing a single wrongful intention to the Board of Trustees and Visitors; it merely seems to your visitors that the Illinois Annual Conference might desire to consider the advisability of so declaring itself upon this subject, as to safeguard both it and the University from any possible future embarrassment and, at the same time, endeavor to point out the desirability and importance of conforming in this particular to the methods current in other educational institutions, and in business affairs generally.

Fifth—We have noted that what obtains in other Conferences, where for many years a growing Methodist College has existed and functioned, has also occurred in the Illinois Annual Conference, to-wit: The Illinois Wesleyan University has been a constant and glorious source of Methodist leadership. What would the Illinois Conference be today without the Illinois Wesleyan University? It is true that we have had many a glorious minister of Jesus Christ in this Conference who had no vital student relations with this school, but we have had no prophet of God among us who was not interested in Christian education. The Illinois Wesleyan University means for everyone of us more than we can possibly calculate, whether we ever passed through her halls or not. More and more, she will put the mark of her life upon us and upon our record of service here and elsewhere. Her lines have gone out through all the world. For these and other reasons your visitors take the liberty of urging you to canvass with the greatest care, every name proposed, as a member of the Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors. She deserves to have as such officials the most devout, the most able, the most generous, the most progressive and aggressive men to be found. She deserves the best and only the best men to guide her and shape her destiny. Let us see that she gets them by using the most careful discrimination in their appointment.

In conclusion your visitors take the liberty of asking the Conference, sitting as a committee of the whole, to express itself on the following resolutions, which we recommend for adoption:

1. Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the Illinois Wesleyan University requires a new site of from 40 to 80 acres, new buildings and enlarged equipment, and that definite steps towards these ends should be taken without further delay, with a view to the needs of the next one hundred years.

2. Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the interests of the Illinois Wesleyan University should be considered as paramount and the place of location subordinate thereto, and that local civic pride should not be allowed to obscure or reverse this order of procedure. It is the further sense of this Conference that the school should be removed from the present campus to such site at or near Bloomington, or to such other centrally located city, as may offer the greatest promise of her future development and of the fulfillment of her purposes as a Christian institution; said promises to be based on immediate and responsible assurances of substantial and sympathetic support.

3. Resolved, (a) That we favor the taking of immediate steps looking towards so co-ordinating the Methodist co-educational schools of this state (exclusive of Northwestern University), so that they will be placed upon a fraternal relationship of operation, with a view to ultimately combining these schools by merging the same into one great school, under the charter of the Illinois Wesleyan University, and of retaining the smaller schools as Junior Colleges, or auxiliary schools if it shall be found practicable to so continue them, thus making of this combination an educational institution of such acknowledged merit that it will take rank in the state second only to its three great universities.

(b) That it is the further sense of this Conference that in connection with the readjustments which must occur in relation to the selection of a new site and the erection of new buildings thereon, for the Illinois Wesleyan University, the foundations should be so laid, with respect to centrality of site, character of buildings, and all other considerations, as to make it seem advantageous to the smaller co-educational Methodist schools of Illinois to relate themselves vitally to this central institution.

4. Resolved, That it is the sense of this Conference that the business, both general and detail, of the Illinois Wesleyan University ought to be transacted by members of the Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors only; that all committees appointed by that body should be made up of members from within this responsible and creative body; and that if it is found desirable in any of the school's activities to have the co-operation of friends outside the Joint Board their relation should be advisory only, and not as active members having plenary and decisive powers over the school's policies and affairs. We can not approve of the Trustees and Visitors appointed by this Conference delegating their powers and functions to any person or persons not belonging to the Joint Board as appointees of the patronizing Conference.

5. Resolved, That no election of Trustees of, or appointment of Visitors to, the Illinois Wesleyan University shall occur within twenty-four hours after the same shall have been nominated to the Conference; that it is the sense of this Conference that such Trustees and Visitors should be appointed whose broad vision and unbiased interest will enable them to adopt and carry into execution such policies and measures as shall be to the highest interests and development of the school, and that the most careful and judicious discrimination should be used in their selection.

6. Resolved, That this report be printed in the next issue of the Conference Daily and made the order of the day for tomorrow morning at ten o'clock, to be then considered by the Conference sitting as a committee of the whole.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) GEO. E. SCRIMGER,

ARTHUR S. CHAPMAN.

SPRINGFIELD PROPOSITION RELATING TO ILLINOIS WESLEYAN.

The Springfield University Association, organized for the express purpose of bringing a university to Springfield on behalf of the citizens of Springfield and in their name, desires to bring to the attention of the Illinois Annual Conference the remarkable proposition which they are making without condition to the Illinois Wesleyan University and desires an expression from this Conference relative to the desirability of moving said University to Springfield, with a recommendation to the Board of Trustees of said University. The proposition is as follows:

First—To donate to the University by warranty deed free from all encumbrance a site containing not less than eighty acres of land.

Second—To raise $500,000 for the erection of buildings such as you may immediately require or to erect such buildings under your direction with a view to their occupancy not later than September, 1920, or as soon thereafter as the conditions of our country will permit, same to cost not less than $500,000.

Third—Transfer to the Board of Trustees of the University an option on fifty-six acres of land adjoining the eighty-acre site on the south. This tract will make an admirable residence building site, and when subdivided and sold into lots ought, and we believe will, net the University not less than $150,000 profit.

Fourth—In addition to the above, realizing that temporarily your income may not be sufficient to cover your operating expenses, owing to the disturbed conditions which will surround your school pending its removal and until you shall have been fully established in the new quarters, we will (a) for a period of five years beginning with the school year following the consummation of this contract, give to your SUSTENTATION FUND the sum of $5,000 per year, or so much thereof as may be needed by you; (b) furnish the funds for a President's residence; (c) co-operate with you in securing a business manager to serve under your direction with our association and the committees in charge of the work connected with the removal of the institution to our city, for such time as he may be needed; and (d) furnish legal counsel in all matters pertaining to the ordinary and current business of the University for a period of three years beginning with date indicated in section (a) above.

To carry out all the purposes named in item "fourth," including the "Sustentation" fund, we will raise and turn over to the Trustees of your University the further sum of $50,000.

This proposal has been officially endorsed by three of the large commercial bodies of Springfield in the following terms, which will make a great civic movement of the campaign, should the proposition be accepted:

"Whereas, We are informed that the Trustees of the Illinois Wesleyan University are considering the advisability of a new site for its University buildings.

"Now, therefore, Believing that said institution would be a most valuable asset to the city of Springfield, we, the directors of the Springfield Commercial Association heartily endorse the plan submitted to us to bring the Illinois Wesleyan University to our city and pledge our enthusiastic co-operation for the carrying out of said plans as soon as the conditions of our country will permit."

Unanimously passed at the regular meeting of the Board of Directors of the Springfield Commercial Association held September 10, 1918.

The Springfield Commercial Association has a membership of 650.

Endorsed by the Springfield Optimist Club and also by the Springfield Rotary Club at its regular meeting September 9, 1918, both pledging their hearty co-operation.

All Springfield asks is that she be given an opportunity to make good on her proffer. I, therefore, move that a committee of five be appointed by the chair to weigh this proposition and bring in a recommendation before our adjournment.

EPWORTH LEAGUE SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Dear Fathers and Brethren: We, your Committee on Sunday Schools and Epworth League, beg to present the following report and recommendations:

We recognize in the Epworth League a great organized force of young people that has made itself felt in the battle for righteousness and the building up of the church in a manner that deserves commendation and that should be encouraged in every way possible.

We rejoice that, after a brief period during which this organization may not have been as effective as during its earlier existence, it is again coming to its former life and power, and we believe that much of the influence that has brought about this revival of interest in the Epworth League has come from the recent and increasingly successful Institute Movement.

We desire to recommend a more active and intense co-operation in all local and district movements, and especially do we urge that pastors give attention to the organization and perpetuation of District Conventions.

Believing it to be for the best interest, not only of the League itself, but of the church also, in furnishing a corps of informed special workers who cannot be reached, instructed and inspired otherwise, we desire to heartily recommend a Conference Epworth League Institute, and for the promotion and execution of the same we recommend the constituting of a Conference Epworth League Institute Commission, and as members of the same we place in nomination the following:

Andrew Asher, J. L. Settles, Chas. Duncan, Mr. Schermerhorn, H. L. Thrall, Miss Ruth Maderis, Alfred H. Flagg, Miss Cuma Lee, W. W. Henry, J. R. Robinson, C. C. Grimmet, A. E. Cole, Bentley Caughlan, A. A. Luce, Miss Susan L. Buck and C. R. Booth, and we recommend that this commission shall meet at earliest convenience for organization.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

Inasmuch as the Sunday School is being recognized more and more as the one fertile field for church progress we congratulate the schools in their renewed efforts and splendid advance toward the standard set by the Board of Sunday Schools.

Be it resolved, That we renew our pledge to support the Adult Bible Class movement, the Graded Lessons, the use of our own Literature, the Teachers' Training Class and the observance of special days, as recommended.

Respectfully submitted,

A. A. LUCE, Chairman,
C. R. BOOTH, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

In these great days, when nations and peoples move en masse, we must not overlook the fact that the matters of greatest moment and the source of greatest power must be sought and found in the individual.

Again, we must not overlook the fact that the spiritual history of the individual becomes the history of the nation and of the world. Character, therefore, which reveals itself at its best in sacrifice and service, is the goal of our endeavor.

The Cross is at the center. Never in the history of the world has this been so clear a truth. Never has the appeal of the Cross been so compelling. The sacrifice upon the Cross and the sacrifice upon the fields of battle alike cry out the awfulness of sin and press upon us the need of forgiveness. Only in Him shall we find redemption.

Therefore, we call for a ministry, unconfused by the clamor and changes of the times, that will pursue this end, namely, the preaching of the Cross of Jesus Christ, the bringing of men to the foot of this Cross, and the enlistment of bearers of the Cross.

In event that outside help in special effort is to be secured we recommend that great care be exercised lest false and irrelevant notes be struck.

In particular these times of sorrow and confusion are those in which a pastor should be very close to his people. Bleating sheep await the voice of the shepherd.

Beginning then at Jerusalem, let us care for youth, maturity and age never as before, remembering ever the Cross of Him who commissioned us to do His work.

T. H. TULL, Chairman.

R. S. FAIRCHILD, Secretary.

HOSPITALS.

The world today is appreciating the work of Christian hospitals as never before. We, therefore, commend all our Methodist hospitals, and especially the one within our own borders, Mattoon Memorial Hospital, with its splendid equipment and skilled surgeons, as well as kind and efficient nurses. It deserves both our patronage and support.

C. H. DAVIS, Secretary.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

Strenuous war conditions throughout the past year have demanded millions of our men, billions of our money and all possible sacrifice of all citizens. The terrible facts of prolonged warfare call for a renewed expression of the church's loyalty and religious patriotism.

Government being ordained of God, it is manifest that the church is called to war in these days as really as she is called to holiness. Moreover, this is, by virtue of our avowed aims and alliances, distinctly a holy war. We are divinely summoned to make the supreme sacrifice. Our own sons and brothers are to be dedicated on the altar of our country for the purpose of winning this war, which means the defeat not merely of a barbarous enemy, but the overthrow of world domination and piratical militarism.

We exult in the thrilling and continuous good war news of the recent months. Every day seems to bring us closer to the world triumph of the righteous principles for which we fight. The Government of the United States having begun the good work of redemption, she will finish it at all costs. As the heroic wife in pioneer days stood by her husband, so will the church support the Government to the last ounce of her influence and spiritual power.

Accordingly this Conference pledges its support to the President and his cabinet, and to the Congress in all their efforts to unite the people in the securing of funds, the saving of food and fuel, and in the surrender of our pleasures for the sake of the whole world's welfare. We order that a telegram of congratulation, good cheer and promised loyalty be sent to President Wilson as the expression of our religious devotion to God and our country's honor.

In the midst of our conflict, we exult in the triumph of moral and social reform. We especially rejoice and thank God for the progressive legislation against intoxicants and hail the prohibition of the liquor traffic, marching at the front of the procession. For this result no organization has been so potent as the Anti-Saloon League. We will pray, and press the battle in our own beloved state for the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment at the earliest possible date.

We view with approval and comfort the confidence shown by the Government in the united Church of Jesus Christ. We see good omens in the blending of effort and removal of dispute and bigotry for the sake of our common cause of democracy, and for the equal rights of both sexes and all races and nations.

We prize the agencies of the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the Salvation Army and all kindred forces, not as a substitute for but as a contribution to, and companion of, worship and Christian benevolence for the uplift of mankind. It is all an endorsement of the unselfish spirit which should swathe both our sermons and our swords.

As we approach the campaign for our Fourth Liberty Loan, we join hands with all patriots in bringing to a consummation this national enterprise for the welfare of our men at the front. This, too, we will do with no forfeit of our steady sacrifice for Missions and for spiritual redemption of a lost world.

The encouragement of college education for our boys through the appropriation of the Government in their behalf is a tribute both to education and the young men of the country. The Students' Army Training Corps marks a new era in practical union of the forces of church and state for the rebuilding of the nation.

In these war times we need still to stress the value of the preacher, the pastor, the reformer and the editor as conservators of the home base of moral power. The Sabbath must still be remembered and kept holy. Prayer and charity must clasp hands.

Respect for the ministerial office must be emphasized more and more. The Gospel trumpet call must not be lost in the reveille of the camp or battlefield. Revival fires in the church as well as the home fires must be kept burning to prepare the church and country alike for the future battle against sin when this cruel war against autocracy shall come to an end. The days of redemption and reconstruction hasten on. God speed our triumph, spare our President, and bring safe home our battling boys under a stainless flag and into a saloonless land.

G. F. OLIVER, Chairman,
C. F. BUKER, Secretary.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

It is with pleasure that we note the increased subscriptions of the North-Western Christian Advocate, and would urge the pastor to continue their efforts in behalf of the circulation of the same.

We rejoice also in the effectiveness and usefulness of the Epworth Herald, and congratulate the young people of the Epworth League on their privilege of this paper and advise a larger use of it.

We are fortunate in having the splendid literature to provide for our Sunday School, and we commend the largest use possible for every department of Sunday School work.

We must not overlook the high character of the productions of our Book Concern, and that they are largely the expression of the life and thought of the church, and we believe that the books and periodicals and papers are essential to the development of an intelligent Christian life and effective leadership and should be patronized.

GEORGE V. METZEL, Chairman.
ALFRED E. COLE, Secretary.

President—W. H. Wilder.

Vice-President—Christy Galeener.

Secretary—A. M. Wells.

Treasurer—Hiram Buck Prentice.

Managers—William G. Cathcart, Benj. F. Shipp, Frank Rice, Archibald K. Byrns, Leslie Owen.

Henry C. Gibbs—Field Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS.

After a period of fifteen years since our last Conference session in the city of Quincy we record a most delightful visit this year, the weather being delightful and the sessions from day to day being inspiring and instructive.

We acknowledge our debt of gratitude to the local pastor, the Rev. F. A. McCarty, G. L. Losh, and his splendid church for the perfect arrangements for our entertainment and comfort while we have been among them.

To our hosts and hostesses for the very generous opening of their homes for our entertainment, and for all the gracious courtesies we have received at their hands.

To the sister churches of the city for the opening of their doors for the use of our committees, and their pulpits to our pastors in the Sunday services.

We record our appreciation of the visit of Bishop Frederick D. Leete in his first episcopal administration in our Conference, for his earnest efforts in the morning parliaments of methods to suggest workable methods for pastoral service, and for his spiritually uplifting addresses and sermon, and we shall gladly welcome his return in the future.

The Special General Conference visitors have brought to us messages replete with information concerning the great enterprises of our great church throughout the world.

The Centenary team has imparted an enthusiasm for this great movement that will mean much for complete victory throughout our Conference.

Dr. C. M. Boswell's evangelistic addresses have fixed in mind and heart anew the great mission of the church of Jesus Christ, the saving of souls, and a holy life.

Dr. J. S. Dancey, one of ourselves, though loaned to Chicago and our beloved nation, made us to see through his eyes and soul the meaning of today's world conflict.

We are indebted for other special courtesies to:

The press of the city and to the Quincy Methodist for the very thorough and exact report of our sessions from day to day.

The Illinois State Bank for the use of its facilities in the handling of the Conference finances, and to Mr. W. J. Singleton, the Vice-President in person, for his personal help, and the loan of the office force, adding machines, etc.

Mr. D. L. Musselman for invaluable personal courtesies, and Gem City Business College for the use of its offices for our cabinet sessions and other uses.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union for the room so generously furnished.

To Chaddock Boys' School for its enjoyable Wednesday evening entertainment and supper and for the delightful music brought to us from day to day, and for splendid dinner served to our laymen on Saturday.

To all of these, and to all others, who in innumerable ways have contributed to our comfort and the successful conducting of the Conference business, we desire to express our deep obligation and abiding, sincere gratitude.

ALBERT H. FLAGGE, Chairman.

W. F. HUNTER, Secretary.

THE WOMAN'S HOME AND WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

We hear with unrestrained joy and satisfaction of the growth in the past year of both these strong and effective arms of the church, the Foreign Society having had an increase in membership from 14,121 in 1917 to 15,297 in 1918, or an increase of 1,176 members, and an increase in the collections from $49,648 to $58,304, or an increase of $8,656.

The home field has been diligently looked after by the Home Society as effectively as the limited funds and help would allow. The war conditions have greatly embarrassed both societies, but the heroism of our sisters of both societies have been limited only by inadequate sums of money and the number of helpers.

We recommend that our Epworth League Chapters use as far as practicable the splendid literature of both these societies in their Study Classes, and that on Missionary Sundays in the Sunday Schools the literature of these societies be used as far as practicable. We would also urgently request our District Superintendents and pastors to direct the mind and heart of the young women of our churches definitely to dedicate themselves to an earnest study and better acquaintance with the work of these two splendid societies, and also to urge upon our Christian girls the importance of offering themselves personally for actual service in the field, and we do this the more urgently in view of the constant call for more helpers in both the Home and Foreign fields.

S. R. RENO, Secretary.

(G) SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

AUDITING COMMITTEE.

Your committee has examined the reports of the pastors to the Conference Treasurer and finds most of them correct. Eleven pastors failed to enclose both parts of the duplicate vouchers. Four certified that officials vouchers had not been received for want of time, and three reported vouchers lost. The large number of vouchers for the Conference Claimants' Endowment Fund made many reports cumbersome, and we suggest that some change in plan be made to relieve this condition.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON "A DECLARATION OF PRINCIPLES AND RESOLUTIONS ON APPORTIONMENTS FOR CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS."

Report No. One.

Whereas, The Treasurer of the General Board of Conference Claimants has presented to our Conference Treasurer a claim for ten hundred and twenty-seven dollars.

Resolved, That we instruct the Treasurer to inform the General Board of Conference Claimants that we do not have any funds available from which to pay such claim.

WM. H. WILDER,
CHRIS GALEENER.

Report No. Two.

Whereas: First—By the provisions of paragraph 336 of the Book of Discipline it is the sole right and also the solemn duty of the Annual Conference to determine the total amount which shall be apportioned to the pastoral charges, and also to determine the method by which the amount necessary for the support of Conference Claimants shall be apportioned; and

Whereas: Second—Certain moneys, see paragraph 342 of the Book of Discipline, cannot be lawfully diverted but are subject only to annuity distribution; and

Whereas: Third—Both the law and the gospel enjoins upon us the brotherly consideration of those in "Special Need" and the Conference only has the right and is under obligation to determine what portion of the moneys raised by collection from the pastoral charges shall be exempt from annuity distribution; and

Whereas: Fourth—The amount apportioned to the pastoral charges together with all moneys available from other sources for the Conference Claimants hitherto has not been quite fifty per cent of the total claims upon our funds; and

Whereas: Fifth—Some claimants have waived all the annuity claim and others have waived in part from year to year; and

Whereas: Sixth—Notwithstanding all the waivers and in face of the law which requires the application of the pro rata principle in paying out moneys raised for ministerial support, we have yet to do justly by the veterans of our own Conference; and

Whereas: Seventh—The world-wide Church has set its face toward being one hundred per cent efficient and one hundred per cent loyal in its care of these men; and

Whereas: Eighth—As in civil affairs, every loyal citizen is expected and required to do "his bit," so, not less in the affairs of the Kingdom of God, every member of this Conference should face the facts and conditions as they are and not only do "his bit," but do his best which will mean the full discharge of our duty; and

Whereas: Ninth—The time has come when the effective ministers of this Conference should be one hundred per cent loyal to these veterans; therefore,

Resolved: First—That we now attempt to pay all claims of Conference Claimants in full and to accomplish that purpose we:—

(a)—Apportion six per cent of Pastors' salary as the amount to be raised by the pastoral charges as a part of their annual budget and which must, as now be pro rated if not raised in full.

(b)—That we inform our people that 10% of the pastor's salary in addition is necessary to pay all these claims and we urge each charge to accept it in full until the productive endowment funds of the Conference shall enable us to decrease the percent.

Resolved: Second—That we instruct the Conference Treasurer to remit to the General Board of Conference Claimants the same proportion of their claim that is paid to the Conference Stewards.

Resolved: Third—That we order $2,500 be set apart for necessitous cases.

Resolved: Fourth—That the Conference Board of Stewards be and is hereby directed to request for next year a reply to the following inquiries from each Claimant on the funds to be distributed in 1919:

(1) Are you willing to waive for the year 1919 your entire annuity claim?

(2) Are you willing to waive any portion of your annuity claim; if so, what per cent of it?

(3) Are you in need of more than your annuity claim if it were allowed and paid in full? If so, state in writing how much more would you need, and give information in detail for the use of the Conference Board of Stewards.

Note that without such information being furnished by you in reply to these inquiries a claim of "Special Need" cannot be favorably considered.

Resolved, That we ask the Conference and the congregation at the Love feast next Sunday morning for One Thousand Dollars to help meet the deficit.

W. H. WILDER, Chairman.

CHRIS GALEENER, Secretary.

CENTENNIAL ILLINOIS METHODISM.

Your committee on Centennial of Illinois Methodism submits the following report:

Your Committee organized by electing Dr. Joseph Harker chairman and Arthur S. Chapman secretary-treasurer. It was decided that the celebration should go out in at least two lines:

First by producing a program of five year's duration that would be worthy of one hundred years of history and of one hundred thousand members.

Second that steps be taken to produce a history of the Illinois Conference that the first one hundred years of our existence may be permanently preserved.

We have appointed therefore two committees: One on program and organization consisting of Jos. Harker, Arthur S. Chapman, J. C. Nate, Cliff Guild and H. R. Snavely.

The other on history consisting of F. A. McCarty, chairman; R. W. Ennis, F. A. Havighurst, M. N. English and Geo. Wilson.

We desire the continuation of the following committee: The District Superintendents and Pres. Jos. Harker, R. W. Ennis, Chris Galeener, F. A. Havighurst, W. H. Wilder, R. F. McDaniel, F. A. McCarty, Arthur S. Chapman, Prof. Cliff Guild, Prof. J. G. Mosier, Sherman McClelland, H. R. Snavely, Geo. Wilson and Richard Yates.

A. S. CHAPMAN.

CENTENARY MOVEMENT.

Whereas, The World War summons the Church to unusual devotion and activity in preparation for the days of reconstruction following the coming of peace, in order to make the world safe for democracy, that democracy can be safe for the world; and,

Whereas, The General Conference directed that the years 1918 and 1919 be set aside for the observance of the celebration of the Centenary of the founding of our missionary work; and,

Whereas, The Centenary is thus providentially timed to coincide with the great World War; and

Whereas, Under the order of the General Conference, a World Program has been adopted which provides for placing our work at home and abroad upon a basis of higher efficiency in order that the Methodist Episcopal Church may do its full share in bringing in the Kingdom of Jesus Christ, and

Whereas, The District Superintendents of the Illinois Conference and the joint Centenary Commission have agreed upon a satisfactory incorporation of the Wesley Foundation with the Centenary movement, that has been given in detail in the Educational report.

Be it resolved, first, That this Annual Conference strongly endorses the Centenary movement and pledges its full co-operation.

Second, That we heartily approve the action of the Superintendents and joint Centenary Committee in regard to the Wesley Foundation.

Third, That a Conference Centenary Council be and hereby is created, this council to consist of the District Superintendents, and one pastor, and one or more laymen from each district.

Fourth, That the District Superintendents be requested to take immediate steps to organize the district, sub-district and local councils.

Fifth, That the Centenary Allotments, as handed down to the Districts, be at once heartily accepted by the districts.

Sixth, That all necessary arrangements be made by district superintendents, pastors and laity of the church for the intensive period of ten days with which the campaign is to culminate, and that a day be designated by the National Committee and set aside in all our churches, this day to be known as World Program Sunday. We, therefore, recommend that on this day our pastors and people everywhere give themselves to prayer and earnest consideration of the facts involved in building the World Program of American Methodism.

Seventh, We especially commend the plans being made by the Joint Centenary Committee for deepening the spiritual life of the church and for enrolling its members in Christian Stewardship, and we join in the prayer that this great Centenary Movement may result in an evangelistic awakening throughout the world.

H. W. McPHERSON, Chairman.

A. K. BYRNS, Secretary.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON HALIFAX DISASTER.

We recommend that each District Superintendent of the Illinois Conference ask each pastor in his District to present this matter to each congregation with due information as to need and sanction by the Board of Bishops of our Church and that a free-will offering be taken. The amount to be sent to Bishop Leete.

COMMITTEE ON SPRINGFIELD PROPOSITION RELATING TO THE ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

We would respectfully report as follows:

When the committee came together it was immediately evident that we felt under obligation to be influenced by two and only two considerations.

First, the educational interest of our state and nation and Second, the business interests of the University.

So we asked ourselves this question, "If you were individually the sole proprietor of this institution at this time what would you do with this proposition?"

After carefully studying every factor that we thought would be involved in a proposed change of site we concluded that:—

First, from an educational point of view, Springfield offers advantages, unequalled by any other city in Central Illinois, viz.:

Many institutions already established which would be accessible to students of the university; such as

The State Library (General).

The State Historical Library.

The Library of the Supreme Court.

The Lincoln Library.

The Museum of Natural History.

The State Biological Laboratory.

Department of Public Welfare.

Department of Public Health.

State Geological Survey;

and many other institutions which will contribute greatly to the advantages of any great educational institution. Indeed it may be said that the very same arguments that led to the establishment of our American University at Washington, D. C., may apply with equal force here.

And second, from a business point of view we are convinced that the proposition which comes from Springfield is probably the greatest, financially, that was ever offered the Illinois Wesleyan at one time. Summed up and run into a single sentence this proposition is to give to the University a building site of 80 acres of land, $500,000 for buildings, $50,000 sustentation fund to cover expenses incident to the removal of the University and an option on 56 acres of land lying adjacent to the campus which may be subdivided and sold so as to greatly increase the funds of the institution. These figures are only a small part of the business advantages accruing from this proposition. Nearly all colleges draw three-fourths of their students from a radius of 50 miles, and practically all of these students are graduates of the high schools within this radius. In other words, the high schools within a radius of 50 miles are preparing 75% of the material upon which the college must draw for its student body.

Within a radius of 50 miles of Springfield this year there were graduated 1,986 students.

We believe it is doubtful if within a circle of 100 miles diameter anywhere else in Illinois, exclusive of Cook County, anything like an equal amount of material can be found.

The very location of the University at the gates of the State Fair grounds would be worth thousands of dollars annually in the way of advertising.

As the capital and near the center of the State, with fine railroad facilities, and well removed from such competition as North Western and Chicago Universities and University of Illinois it offers a site well worthy of consideration.

Because of the large number of visitors to Springfield on account of the numerous conventions, the State Fair which draws hundreds of thousands annually, and last but by no means least the last resting place of the great emancipator to whose tomb thousands journey every year, such location would pass before the eyes of a larger number of strangers than any other that could be selected.

Recognizing the equal interest and authority of the Central Illinois Conference and requesting them to join with us;

We recommend that the Site Committee of the Illinois Wesleyan University take in hand at once the matter of securing in proper written form the proposition from Springfield officially signed by the various business Associations which have endorsed the same, and if deemed necessary obtain such other evidences as possible of good faith as shall make a practical guarantee of the fulfillment of the proposition, and that this be done at the earliest possible date, but not later than the December meeting of the Board, and when the proposition is in such form, a special meeting of the Joint Board be called and the proposition accepted.

For some time both ministers and laymen most interested in education have been considering the advisability of co-ordinating and federating all the educational institutions of Illinois excepting North Western.

This can be more readily done at Springfield than any other center available and it appears to us that it might be done at the capital of the state under the name of Abraham Lincoln, Statesman and friend of humanity.

We also recommend that a committee be appointed to secure concurrence and if possible the concurrent action of the Central Illinois Conference, and the same committee be authorized to consult with a similar one from the Southern Illinois Conference on the matter of federation of colleges and all matters thereto pertaining.

And further, in view of the proposition for federating the various Methodist colleges of the state we recommend that the Southern Illinois Conference be invited to join with us in this great movement.

Springfield was also for nearly a half century the center of the activities of that great and famous pioneer Methodist preacher, Peter Cartwright, the most illustrious member of the Illinois Conference in all its history, whose remains lie buried hard by in the beautiful suburban village of Pleasant Plains, and, if this offer be accepted, whose statue in bronze of rugged cast and heroic size, should be erected on the campus at the centennial celebration of the Illinois Conference in 1923, as a tribute to his great work and to the pioneer spirit of heroism, sacrifice and service which his life typified.

To establish a University at this time under the inspiration of the two great names of Peter Cartwright and Abraham Lincoln, at their home center, would not only tend to perpetuate the attributes of rugged honesty, noble character and service for others, for which these great names stand, but would also be a fitting contribution by Springfield, in this centennial year of the advent of Illinois into the union, of this as a great movement to the heroic past and ought to make it an easy task to raise an amount far beyond its present generous offer.

ABBREVIATED CUNNINGHAM REPORT.

June 15, 1917—June 15, 1918.

Cunningham slogan is "Be good, do good, make good."

University Sociology students rated Cunningham among the model small institutions.

Number of Children cared for during the year, 101; wholly supported by the W. H. M. S., 34.

Number whose support was 1-2 to 1-4 paid by relatives or guardians, 67.

Industrial work of various kinds was taught to 74 boys and girls.

No boy over six was received, none kept after twelve, unless the case warranted special ruling.

Girls under thirteen were accepted, and will remain till eighteen, if necessary.

Hospital was keenly needed, but lacking, for scarlet fever, chicken-pox, and German measles patients.

All spiritual, educational, industrial and physical training aimed toward Christian citizenship.

Members of Catholic, Protestant and atheistic families were equally welcome, and treated alike.

Children from 17 different states were enrolled; four were from abroad.

Half-orphans constituted the majority of the membership; 8 had insane mothers living.

Innovation of Foreign Missions classes to give every child a worldwide outlook, proved helpful.

Loyal, patriotic spirit obtained in every department, "Conservation," the watchword.

Doctor's calls numerous; 3 quarantines; no fatalities.

Red Cross class met Thursday evenings in winter; 26 girls knitted.

Endowment fund increased $790 by bequests; now totals $5,395.

National W. H. M. S. sent $1,223; Illinois Conference W. H. M. S., $5,500; other Conferences, $1,153.

Self-help from relatives and guardians, $3,569; total receipts during the year, $14,780.

Home employed Superintendent, Asst. Supt., 6 Dept. Matrons, 3 Teachers, Cook, Laundress and Farmer.

One State Inspector of Institution said, "C. C. Home is the most homelike I have found in the State."

Many scholarships, at $60, are needed; also, Kindergarten scholarships, $15.

Even the smallest donation for the proposed HOSPITAL will be thankfully received.

Plan of Conference Examinations.

CONFERENCE STUDIES.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Chairman—C. D. Robertson, Arcola.

Registrar—R. L. Steed, Saybrook.

Examiners—C. M. Barton, A. K. Byrns, H. M. Derby, T. N. Ewing, F. A. Havighurst, E. A. Hedges, E. H. Lugg, R. F. McDaniel, R. H. Schuett, W. A. Smith, R. L. Steed, W. R. Leslie, P. C. Sommerville, E. L. Tobie, H. W. McPherson, C. F. Juvinall, A. A. Heinlein, G. V. Metzel, E. G. Sandmeyer, C. W. Hamand, A. L. Caseley, J. E. Evans, E. S. Combs, J. A. Biddle, F. J. McCaually.

RULES OF THE BOARD.

With Plan of Examinations for 1917-18.

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners by the chairman. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District, as may be determined by the chairman. They shall be in charge of District Supervisors designated by the chairman, and, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the chairman shall arrange with a member of the conference as special supervisor for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed supervisor, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

As early in the conference year as possible all applicants for admission on trial shall send to the chairman of the board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the chairman. All such candidates may take their examinations as above.

4. The examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Registrar of the Board three different sets of questions, 90 days or more before the examinations take place in June. The Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time in the hands of the district supervisors for all examinations, both regular and special. Set No. 1 shall be used in the first examination; set No. 2 for all who fail at the first trial; and set No. 3, "doubly difficult," for all who postpone the examinations until the day before the Conference session.

5. Before the examination in June the Registrar will supply the supervisors with questions on the entire course of study.

6. Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study, or to appear for examination, shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time of examination. And in case of such failure to pass, the registrar of the board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the board.

7. Examiners shall report grades on all papers to the registrar within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the conference to the chairman of the board. Such appeals shall be decided by the board at their annual conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for prepayment.

8. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

9. The examination questions shall conform to the requirements of the Commission on Conference Courses of Study and the markings on both examinations and collateral reading shall be upon the scale and according to the method established by the Commission, and no mark below 70 per cent shall pass.

10. All credits from Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the chairman of the board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the annual conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. All grades from whatsoever source, other than those given by the conference examiners, shall be designated by the letter "P", as an indication of passing grade, which neither adds to nor detracts from the general average of the undergraduate.

11. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, including the applicants for admission on trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the board. This fee shall be paid to the registrar of the board within thirty days after the adjournment of the conference session, for which the registrar shall furnish receipt. District supervisors are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. The financial accounts of the Registrar shall be audited by the board at their annual conference meeting.

12. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the chairman and registrar of the board.

13. It shall be the duty of the chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the board of examiners; and it shall be the duty of the board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant. District superintendents are requested to report to the chairman of the board of examiners, all candidates for admission on trial or from other churches, and candidates for admission into full membership, and for recognition of orders, at least thirty days before Conference, or as soon thereafter as possible, concerning the applicants, with references, that the chairman may have ample time to investigate.

14. It shall be the duty of district superintendents to report to the chairman of the board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

15. The annual meeting of the board of examiners shall be held at the seat of the annual conference at 2 o'clock p. m., on the day preceding the opening of the session, to consider matters involved in Rule 14, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the ensuing year. Examinations for those who are eligible shall be conducted on the same day, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m., and closing at 6:00 p. m.

16. "Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success, will be conferred at each annual conference upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively; but no one can be "Honor Man" who shall not have done at least 50 per cent of his work under this board, or whose standing in the course of study is irregular.

Examinations deferred to the day before Conference will be doubly rigid, and no examination will be given after 6 p. m. on day preceding Conference.

17. All examination papers shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipt for the same shall be brought to the chairman at the seat of the Conference.

18. The Board will deduct 10 per cent or less on each paper in which the spelling, grammar, writing or general execution is slovenly, deductions being made on each of these points. On all written work not in before August 15th, a reduction of 5 per cent, and after September 1st, 10 per cent, will be made from the grades. All written work must be within the required limits, or deductions will be made.

Undergraduates will give especial attention to paragraph 599, Sec. 1, of the Discipline of 1916.

COURSE OF STUDY

Assignment of Studies for the year 1917-18.

Of the following studies, those having the letter "J" prefixed are the subjects for examination at the first mid-year district period, the first Tuesday in June. The written work is to be sent in before that time.

The studies and written work having the letter "A" prefixed are assigned to the second period, the first Tuesday in August.

Memoirs.

S. W. BALCH.

Samuel W. Balch, a widely-known minister of the gospel in the Illinois Conference, departed this life October 23, 1917, at Vermilion, in Edgar Co., to which charge he had been recently appointed by Bishop Nicholson.

Brother Balch was born near Farmington, Coles County, Illinois, January 28th, 1852, being the son of George B. Balch, one of the early settlers of that section. He lived on a farm during his childhood and early manhood. At the age of eighteen he began to teach school. He taught in the communities of Indian, Muddy Point, Kickapoo and Humboldt.

After teaching a number of years he engaged in business at Lerna, Illinois, until he decided to become a minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Brother Balch was teaching at Humboldt when he got under conviction, and was converted while opening his day school with prayer. He was later given Local Preacher's license at the Kickapoo Church. He joined the Illinois Annual Conference in 1885. Afterward his business partner, at Lerna, R. H. Osborne, entered the Methodist ministry, and both possessed great evangelistic power.

The ministry of Reverend Balch was peculiarly marked by great revival meetings. Among instances which may be cited, when he was on the Stewardson work, the revival fire was burning upon all the altars of the churches on that charge. His pastorate at Humboldt was blessed with a great ingathering of souls. The same was true of the work on Jacksonville Circuit.

For a number of years he did not take work in the church because of poor health. Part of this time he lived in Joliet. While there he was superintendent of the Sunday School of Ottawa Methodist Episcopal Church, and later supplied that pulpit with marked success in the absence of the pastor. Finding that his health would permit him to re-enter the ministry, he held pastorates at Ladd and Prairie Center in the Rock River Conference. His work was blessed in the building up of the kingdom of God.

A glad welcome was given to him by his brethren when he came back to the Illinois Conference. Last year he preached in the vicinity of Mattoon, and few ministers in that District reported more conversions to Conference than Brother Balch. He was looking forward with great joy and glad anticipations to his work at Vermilion.

He preached his last Sunday evening from the words, "Behold I come quickly." In his case his words were prophetic, and he entered into the reward that was his, and into the joy of his Lord.

Our brother never crossed the ministerial deadline for there was none in his life. Added years of life only gave him a greater store of experience from which to draw, and facts upon which to base his judgment. He was an original preacher and his ministry was characterized by the marks of genius. He had an intense passion for souls. He was called of God to the ministry. He was true to his call and because of this, God signally blessed him in his work.

His loved ones tell us that he frequently sang:

"Let me die in the work.
Let me die in the harness."

He had his wish.

While in the Kickapoo community teaching school he married Miss Ma-lissa Williams. Their home was blessed with three children, two of whom still live to comfort the wife and mother. They are Mrs. J. W. Johnson of Mattoon, and Charles Balch of Chicago. The other son, Horace Balch, met death in an accident near Springfield, two years ago.

Brother Balch is survived by Thomas Balch, of Greely, Colorado; Robert Balch, near Lerna, and Mrs. Frank McCrory, Charleston, Illinois; Mrs. John Faris, near Gresham, Oregon; Mrs. Etta Clark, Seward, Nebraska.

There are six grandchildren: The two sons of Mrs. Horace Balch, of Joliet, Ill., and the four children of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Johnson.

His funeral was held October 4th in the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Mattoon, Illinois. Rev. C. B. Taylor had charge of the service, assisted by W. D. Fairchild, District Superintendent, C. F. Buker, M. G. Coleman, R. Y. Williams, and R. F. McDaniel, the pastor of the church.

There were a number of other neighboring pastors present, and a large congregation in which were many parishioners from charges he had served.

MRS. THOMAS BONNELL.

Catherine Hinman was born in Hinman Prairie, Pike County, Illinois, February 25, 1840, the daughter of Asa and Sarah Hinman, sturdy pioneers of the state. When sixteen years of age she went with her parents and two younger brothers to Texas, traveling all the way in wagons. During their stay of eighteen months in Perry, Texas, she was converted. She returned to Pike County, Illinois, in 1858. She related many interesting experiences of those journeys in that early day. The family remained on Hinman Prairie, where, September 25, 1862, she was married to Rev. Thomas Bonnell, a young Methodist preacher of the Illinois Conference. The officiating clergyman was Rev. J. P. Dimmitt, a pioneer Methodist preacher, and a colleague of Rev. Peter Cartwright. One of her treasured possessions was a certificate of life membership in the Methodist Missionary Society, signed by Dr. Cartwright. She was educated in the schools of Perry, Griggsville, and in the Woman's College of Jacksonville, Illinois.

For a number of years she ably assisted her husband in the various charges to which he was assigned. Failing health caused Mr. Bonnell to retire from the active ministry, and he and his family located on Buckeye Prairie, in 1870. In 1892 the family moved to Taylorville, where Mr. Bonnell died May 3, 1897. A few years thereafter Mrs. Bonnell moved to Normal, Illinois, later going to Owaneco where she died in September, 1918. She was the mother of six children, Charles, Mary Alice, Wilbur, Clarence, Bertie and Frances, three of whom survive her, the other three having died in childhood. Charles lives on the Buckeye farm, Clarence has been Principal of the Harrisburg High School for fourteen years, and Frances has remained at home. Five grand-children survive her, and also a sister, Mrs. S. K. Strother, of Havana, Ill., the sole survivor of the Hinman family. Mrs. Bonnell was an ardent lover of nature, especially of birds, trees and flowers. Her home was always abundantly supplied with the latter, and appropriately her casket was covered with them, the last tribute of love of family and friends.

She was deeply interested in the affairs of the church, especially in the building of the new church edifice which was completed last November. Funeral services were held in the Owaneco M. E. Church, Sept. 12th, 1918, conducted by Rev. G. W. Flagge, of Taylorville, a large audience being present, and the interment was in the Taylorville cemetery, beside the remains of her husband.

WINFIELD SCOTT CALHOUN.

The Rev. Winfield Scott Calhoun was born July 16th, 1845, near Cisna Run, Perry County, Pennsylvania, and departed this life in Tuscola, Illinois, September 10th, 1917, aged 71 years one month and 24 days.

The call came suddenly to him as he was sitting in the office of his physician friend. Without warning the paper he was perusing fell from his hands, and death was instantaneous. He was translated without a murmur or sigh. One moment here, the next with God.

He was the son of John and Katherine Calhoun. His father, dying when he was quite young, left the widow and several young children. The deceased and his two brothers worked on a farm to support their widowed mother and sisters. The family moved to Blaine, Pa., where they remained for eight years, when they removed to LaSalle County, Illinois.

When Civil War broke out, the deceased was too young to enlist with his elder brother. He went to Washington, D. C., and applied for a position other than in the fighting forces. He was given employment in civil affairs under the War Department. He served for six months in various capacities, among which was service as a seaman on a government transport along the Atlantic coast. After his discharge he came back to his Illinois home.

While his education was somewhat limited, he made the most of his opportunities and acquired a great store of knowledge. He in turn followed teaching in the public schools and the business of photography. He had studios in the following cities: Farmer City, Ottawa and Marseilles, besides spending three years as clerk in a dry goods store in Champaign, Ill.

While residing at Farmer City in February, 1875, he was converted and became an ardent follower of Jesus Christ. He forsook his nets and followed the call of the Master, and became a fisher of men.

The following September he united with the Illinois Annual Conference and for 30 years he preached the Gospel that saves men from sin. He was a faithful preacher and truly was not ashamed of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. He served the following charges:

Newcomb, Mansfield, South-Champaign, Newman, Buffalo, Perry, Barry, Pittsfield, Atlanta, Beardstown, Tuscola, Monticello, Saybrook and Potomac.

In 1905 he took the retired relation and chose as the place where he might reside the remainder of his life, the city where he had the greatest triumph of his ministry, Tuscola, Illinois.

For many years the deceased was a member of the Board of Examiners of the Conference. In that period many young men were examined and admitted to the Conference.

The deceased was a preacher indeed, who had deep convictions concerning the Kingdom of God. He preached a plain Gospel, which a child could understand, and yet so able that adults were charmed with his sermons. He was beloved by all who came within the range of his ministry. In 1878 he was united in marriage to Miss Anna Brown, of New Richmond, Ohio. Four children came to bless their home life, three of whom grew to adult life, one dying in infancy. The three surviving are as follows: Rev. Granville Moody, pastor of St. Paul Methodist Episcopal church in Stevens Point, Wisconsin; Mrs. Jessica C. Swartz, of Chicago, Ill., and Wayne Walker, of the "Cincinnati Post," Cincinnati, Ohio.

Besides the widow and children, there are left to mourn two brothers, two sisters, and five grand-children.

The funeral was held at the Methodist church in Tuscola, September thirteenth, with Rev. A. A. White in charge, assisted by a number of neighboring pastors. The remains were laid to rest in the beautiful Tuscola cemetery.

MRS. THOS. M. CARTER.

Lillian Irene Carter, daughter of Jonas and Lydia Zimmermann, was born in Livingston County, Illinois, October 7, 1891. At the age of sixteen she came to Bloomington and entered Wesleyan College of Music, and in 1908 received her teacher's diploma from the same.

The next year she entered Mrs. John R. Gray's School of Music, taking a post-graduate course and received her Artist's Diploma in 1910.

She also graduated from Illinois Wesleyan Academy in 1912, and the College of Liberal Arts of the University in 1915. Soon after her graduation she was chosen a member of the faculty and taught one year in the Academy.

On September 5, 1916, she was united in marriage to Rev. T. M. Carter, and went with him to Westfield, where he served as pastor of the M. E. Church until his call to service as Chaplain in the National Army. On March 29th a little daughter, Ruth Elizabeth, came to brighten their home.

On May 1st Mrs. Carter with her little daughter accompanied her husband as far as Bloomington, the home of her parents, he going on to New Haven, Connecticut, to take up his duties as Chaplain.

Mrs. Carter was converted during the Billy Sunday campaign in Bloomington, in 1908, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. From that time forward she lived a consecrated Christian life, constantly growing in the grace and knowledge of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

When she became a minister's wife she made a definite consecration of her life and often said that her chief ambition was to be the best minister's wife possible.

She loved her baby with the deepest mother love known, and it was the happiest moment of her life when she dedicated it to the Lord in Baptism, the rite being performed by the baby's father. Words cannot express the loss her death means to those who knew and loved her best. She leaves a loving, heartbroken husband, her six weeks old daughter, a loving father and mother, one sister, two brothers, besides many other relatives and friends.

She has done her work nobly and well here and has gone to her rest with full hands for her Master.

MRS. E. O. CLARK.

Sarah L. John, daughter of Lewis and Eleanor E. John, was born near Rankin, Ill., August 31, 1868, and died at Norris City, Ill., February 25, 1918, aged 49 years 5 months and 25 days.

She was married to Edward O. Clark, October 16, 1898. To them was born one daughter, Mable Eleanor, who, with her heart-broken husband, survives her; also a father, mother, three sisters and one brother.

She was converted in early life, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Prairie Chapel, near the home of her girlhood, in the church her father helped to build. She moved her membership to various charges where her husband served as pastor, until he retired from the active work, and located at Norris City, Ill., where she placed her membership and remained a faithful and earnest member until called to her reward. She was a faithful pastor's wife, loved by all on the charges where they served, which were Carriers Mills, Montrose, Moccasin, and Cisne, in the Southern Illinois Conference, and Sanner Chapel, Irving, and Fithian, in the Illinois Conference.

She was a teacher in the Sunday School when taken ill, and gathered the little ones about her with tenderness and love.

The last time she left home she attended Sunday School in the forenoon, and preaching service in the evening. She will be missed by the church she loved so much, by her husband for whom she was so thoughtful in his affliction, and the twelve year old daughter to whom she was a true mother and companion.

All was done that could be done to relieve her suffering, but the Lord took her home, and we bow submissively to the Divine will.

Short services were held at the home by Rev. H. W. Smoot, then the remains were taken to Rankin, Ill. Funeral service was held at the Methodist Episcopal Church by Rev. B. F. Shipp, a former Presiding Elder, assisted by Rev. W. A. Phillippe and neighboring pastors, and the body was laid to rest in the Rankin cemetery.

MRS. AMANDA F. COLLIER.

Amanda Frances Hanley, daughter of Edward and Catharine Hanley, was born near Martinsville, Illinois, March 14th, 1861, and died in Winter Park, Florida, October 21, 1917. At the place of her birth she grew up to womanhood. She was converted at the age of sixteen years, in the United Brethren Church, and became an active member.

She was married to M. F. Collier, a local preacher, in the United Brethren Church, June 17, 1888.

She and her husband changed their church relation to the Methodist Episcopal Church at Martinsville, Illinois, under the pastorate of R. H. Osborn. Her husband decided to go to school, and entered DePauw University at Greencastle, Indiana, where they spent four years.

Her husband joined the Illinois Conference in the year 1895, and during their itinerancy she put her whole strength into the work of the church. She took great delight in working among children. She commenced failing in health, and at the end of their work on the Murdock Charge her husband took a Supernumerary Relation. They moved to Greencastle, but she made no improvement in health, so they decided to go to Florida, in the hope that she might improve in health, but without avail. She was finally taken to a hospital for an operation and was found to be in an incurable condition. She lived about three years after her operation, but kept failing until death claimed her. Her last hour was one of great victory.

She leaves a husband and son, and many relatives and friends to deeply mourn her loss.

MRS. M. W. EVERHART.

Sarah Isabel Wyandt was born in Tuscarawas County, near Newcomerstown, March 12th, 1847. Her girlhood years were spent upon the farm where she was born and where together with her widowed mother and her sisters and brothers, she helped to tide over the agriculturally difficult years of the fore part of the Civil War.

On June 28th, 1863, she was married to Marlon Washington Everhart, then a young licentiate of the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and later as members of a party of thirteen emigrants, she and her husband came by wagon train to the State of Illinois, where her husband taught school for the first winter pending his admission to the Illinois Conference and assignment to a charge.

During the privations of those pioneer years as the wife of a Methodist Circuit Rider, when her husband was too poor to purchase a horse and walked the miles of his Circuit, and when common matches were so precious as to be husbanded and counted and one made to serve a day, she was his loyal and courageous helpmate.

With the increasing responsibilities of her husband's rapid ministerial advancement and the growing family cares, she put all her unusual resources of fidelity, family sacrifice and Christian trust and fortitude into the tasks which came to her. To have been the chief factor of those economies by which a large family was reared and educated on a Mississippi Valley Methodist Minister's salary between the years 1867 and 1900 is ample testimony to the tiresome tasks and household resourcefulness she displayed. Her children cannot do otherwise than call her blessed, for in addition to all the physical ministrations they received at her hands through their dependent years, there was the consciousness that no day passed as long as she was given life here, but her prayers carried them in earnest supplication to the throne of grace.

After her husband's retirement from the active ministry, and during the fourteen years of his semi-invalidism, she was still the faithful ministrant in the home until his demise. That event was a shock from which she never fully recovered. Weakness and severe heart trouble marked much of the last eighteen months, with varying periods of comfort. Her final illness was brief.

Of her six brothers and sisters, but one brother, James Wyandt, survives her; and of her six children, five: T. W. B. Everhart, Mrs. Lois V. Handford, Rollin O. Everhart, Franklin D. Everhart and Leon U. Everhart are left to mourn. She died, aged seventy years, eleven months and eleven days.

J. W. HENNINGER.

John Wesley Henninger was born in Hagerstown, Illinois, December 21, 1857, and died in Bloomington, July 25, 1913, thus having reached the age of 60 years and 7 months.

Mr. Henninger lived in Hagerstown until early manhood, when he left home for Bloomington, to attend the Illinois Wesleyan. It was the last year of the presidency of Bishow Fallows, and young Henninger did not remain beyond the one year, partly because of the resignation of the man he had learned to admire and love.

The next two years he was Principal of the West Side School in Vandalia, Illinois. From Vandalia he went to Lebanon, Illinois, to attend McKendree College. He received his Bachelor's degree there in 1881. From Lebanon he went to Mt. Carmel, Illinois, as Superintendent of the City Schools. In 1884 he came to Bloomington as Principal of the High School. This position he held four years. From Bloomington he went to Charleston, Illinois, as Superintendent of City Schools, remaining there seven years. His next residence was Springfield, Illinois, where he held the position of Assistant State Superintendent of Schools. At the close of one year he resigned to accept the Superintendency of the City Schools of Jacksonville, Illinois. After six years here, he was elected President of the Western Illinois State Normal School at Macomb, where he remained three years, going thence to Chicago, where he pursued a course in graduate study in philosophy, receiving a master's degree from the University of Chicago in 1907. During the next four years he was engaged in business pursuits, residing in St. Louis. He had felt the call to the ministry for many years but had tried to persuade himself that his work did not lie in that direction. However in the fall of 1911 he yielded, entered the Illinois Conference and removed from St. Louis to Gays, Illinois, where he became pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. He remained here two years and then moved to Bloomington as one of the Endowment secretaries of the Illinois Wesleyan University. At the end of one year he accepted the professorship of Social Sciences in the Wesleyan. During these four years he at the same time filled the pastorate of the Methodist Church at Gridley.

He was married in 1890 in Quincy, Illinois to Miss Clara Kimlin, who survives with three children, Louise, a teacher in the High School at Elkhart, Indiana, Julia and Thomas at home. Two sisters remain, Mrs. I. P. Clark, of Decatur, and Mrs. R. C. Clark, of Anthony, Kansas. There is but one brother, Rev. L. T. Henninger, of Loami, Illinois.

The funeral service, July 27th, was held in the First Methodist Church, Bloomington, with which church Brother Henninger was identified in Quarterly Conference relation. The pastor, Rev. A. K. Byrnes, was in charge. President Theodore Kemp of Wesleyan gave the message of the hour, strong and beautiful—as was the character of him over whose form he spoke. District Superintendent Newland of the Peoria District, under whom was Brother Henninger's charge, gave a brief address; other fellow ministers of the deceased participated in the service. Brother Henninger lies buried in Bloomington.

Professor Henninger had and left a large place in Illinois Wesleyan faculty. Strong and sympathetic, he gripped the situation with mind and heart. How the students, as well as his colleagues, will miss him! His every pastoral charge recognized in him a master who served. Gridley, his late charge, feels sorely bereft. In every relationship of life he has left a trail of loyalty and love that leads to glory and to God.

MRS. ANDERSON ORR.

Catherine McCaskill was born September 15th, 1837, in Brown County, Illinois, and died February 6th, 1918, aged 80 years, 4 months and 21 days at her home in Roodhouse, Ill.

She was united in marriage to the Rev. Anderson Orr, October 17, 1865. To this union were born four children who, with the husband, are left to mourn their loss. The children are Mrs. John T. Shaw, Mrs. J. W. Mellen, James M. Orr and Miss Kate Orr, all of Roodhouse. There are eleven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

There are also the five children and seven grandchildren of the late Mrs. Jennie Reid, of Toronto, Kansas, who was a daughter of Rev. Orr by a previous marriage, Mrs. Reid being reared by Mrs. Orr, who looked upon her as her own daughter.

Besides these are one sister, Mrs. Ellen Green of Warrensburg, Mo., and one brother, Daniel McCaskill, of Chicago, and many other relatives and friends.

She surrendered her life to her Lord and Master when eighteen years old, and began at once to tell others of His love and for over sixty years she has never tired of proclaiming the love of Jesus for the lost world.

After her marriage to Rev. Orr she began to experience the vicissitudes of the wife of an itinerant preacher's life. She proved herself worthy of her high calling. Faithfully, by the help of the Divine Spirit, she attended to the interests of the home and also to those over which he was appointed as shepherd of the flock of Jesus Christ.

They were sent to the following places in the Illinois Conference: Pawnee, Pleasant Plains, Beardstown, Chatham, Nilwood, Taylorville and Roodhouse, and for fifteen more years cared for churches in the vicinity of Roodhouse. The past sixteen years they have not been in the active work, but Roodhouse has had the benefit of their loving service, and the town has been blessed by the presence of their consecrated lives.

Deceased had a clear testimony of the saving and perfecting love of God.

She did not talk much of the doctrine of holiness, but went in and out among her friends and neighbors living a holy life.

Like Mary, of Bethany, who anointed her Lord with the ointment, "She hath done what she could." The sweet influence of her life remains, and by that "being dead she yet speaketh."

The business houses of Roodhouse were closed during her funeral services, which were conducted in the church by her pastor, Rev. C. T. Pilch. The text of the discourse was one selected by herself years ago. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." A large congregation paid her their last tribute of love. The remains were laid to rest in Fernwood mausoleum.

MRS. A. H. REAT.

Hannah A. Glover was born in Hamilton, Ohio, in 1844. She was united in marriage with B. F. Norvell, near Brookfield, Indiana, in 1862. To this union six children were born, four of whom survive: Albert L. Norvell, Indianapolis, Indiana; Bert E. Norvell, Houston, Texas; Mrs. Ella Van Tree, Davis Creek, California; and Mrs. Mary Gregg, Greenwood, Indiana. Mr. Norvell died July 5, 1875.

In October, 1902, Mrs. Norvell was united in marriage with Rev. Austin H. Reat. She was a faithful worker and in all of her experiences, pleasant or adverse, she manifested an unwearied confidence in her Heavenly Father.

Triumphant in faith, she passed to her rich reward January 29, 1918.

Funeral services were conducted by her pastor Extra L. Hutchens, of Greenwood, Indiana, who, at the request of Mrs. Reat, used as his text, John 16:33—"These things have I spoken unto you that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation, but be of good cheer, for I have overcome the world."

MRS. CHAS. E. TAYLOR.

On Saturday, October 27, 1917, the word came that Mary E. Taylor, the widow of Rev. Chas. E. Taylor, had slipped away into the heavenly homeland. She had been in frail health since the last Conference, until finally the doctors advised an operation. She was taken to Wesley Hospital at Chicago, where the operation was performed. At first she seemed to rally, and hopes were entertained for her recovery; but after a few days her strength began to fail, and early one morning her spirit departed to the God who gave it.

Mrs. Taylor, the daughter of Chas. E. and Emiline Owen, was born on a farm near Lawrence, Kansas, June 6, 1876. She attended High School at Lawrence, where she graduated in the same class with her future husband. She was married to Mr. Taylor on September 1, 1903. The first year of their married life was spent in Boston, Brother Taylor graduating from Boston Theological Seminary the next spring. Returning to his home Conference, he was stationed at Effingham for two years. He was next sent to Nortonville, from which charge he was transferred to the Illinois Conference, being assigned to Villa Grove. He served three years at this place, two years at Marshall, and three and one-half years at Camp Point. During all these years, Sister Taylor proved herself to be a most efficient pastor's wife, as well as a woman of high ideals and rare Christian insight. While she was at Camp Point, there came to her the great sorrow of her life, for one cold day in February her husband went forth to meet his Christ, and she was left alone with three fatherless children. Bravely she gathered the little ones about her and prepared to accept the new responsibilities.

Arrangements were made for her and the children to live at Chaddock Boys' School, she to be one of the house mothers. In June of 1917, she began her new duties, proving herself capable and efficient. But her work was brief, for in a few short months, she was called to take up higher responsibilities in the heavenly life.

When the news of her death reached Quincy, Mrs. Frields, the Superintendent of Chaddock, hastened to Chicago, bringing the body to Camp Point. There the funeral services were conducted, with her pastor, Dr. F. A. McCarty, of Quincy, and the District Superintendent, Dr. A. S. Flanigan, in charge. Many neighboring pastors were present, assisting in the service, together with representatives from Chaddock, who acted as pall bearers. The body was taken to Lawrence, Kansas, for burial, beside that of her husband.

She is survived by three children, Beulah, Esther, and George, who are now at Chaddock, besides her father and mother of Lawrence, Kansas, and numerous other relatives and friends. These will all miss her sadly for her character was such as to endear her to all who knew her. In her death the church has lost one of those rare spirits who help to make it the light of the world.

WILLARD N. TOBIE.

Willard N. Tobie was born at El Paso, Illinois, August 26, 1871; died at Grand Junction, Colorado, December 8, 1917. From childhood he manifested an alert mind in a frail body. At the age of fifteen he heard and recognized the call of God, and he at once entered into conscious fellowship with Him as a son, united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and ever afterward walked and worked with God.

He was studious from childhood. In youth studious habits were formed and with the scholar's instinct led him to the real rewards of a scholar in manhood. He was patient and painstaking in his methods of study, penetrating, discriminating and accurate in his fields of research. He had the advantages of the best schools, although his college life was broken because of the want of a rugged physical endowment. He studied at Leland Stanford and Cornell, N. Y., universities, but finished his collegiate studies and received his degree at the University of Illinois while carrying the responsible duties of pastor of Parks Chapel.

He was married in 1897 at Bloomington, Illinois, to Mamie Wright, who made him a most admirable companion and helper during his career, whether as a teacher or a minister. At the time of his marriage he was principal of the Bement High School, which position he resigned in 1899 to enter the ministry. He was admitted on trial that fall and served at White Heath, a hard circuit that did well to furnish a salary of $500.00. His work was done without a murmur and most admirably. The writer of this sketch was, at that time, his presiding elder, and saw in him the man to develop the possibilities at Urbana under the shadow of the State University. He entered upon his work with the vision of a builder and with the determination of a man who knew no failure. Here he labored for seven hard years, but to him years of faith and victory. Trinity Church was built, its relationship to the church in its mission to the great educational center was rapidly being defined, and not only Conference wide, but State wide efforts were made to interest the church in the great possibilities at Urbana. It is no disparagement to others to say, that whatever Trinity parish has become or will become, including its phenomenal service to the student body of the University of Illinois, and through them to the State, the Church and the world, the first and greatest honors will be given to the heroic Willard N. Tobie. Many men have visions. He had a vision. Untiring energy, a high degree of strategy, and a God-conscious faith characterized those years of suffering and service. He embodied himself in that pastorate. During it all he was the student.

At the end of that seven years he was stationed at Springfield, Douglas Avenue charge, where he remained for four years, when he was sent to Lincoln. Here he wrought for another four years. As pastor he was faithful, sympathetic, and exceedingly industrious. The people loved him. As a preacher he excelled, and lacked only in physical force. He never lost sight of the fact that his Master was emphatically a teacher-preacher. Willard N. Toble, whether in the pulpit, the Sunday School, the League, or the prayer meeting was pre-eminently a teacher of the Word, and with it all and always a Christian gentleman. Encouragement to the timid, inspiration to the diffident, information to the ignorant, hope to the desponding and discouraged, and vigorous religious life he brought to all his people.

He was not simply a lover of books of best character, but wrote them as well. "Our English Bible—How We Got It," written in the early years of the pastorate at Parks Chapel; "At the Beautiful Gate of the Church," and "Two Beautiful Prayers," were written to help his own people. The most pretentious effort at authorship was "The Atonement", which reveals the thinker and student. He was poetic in his nature and several beautiful poems were written by him. His was one of the most alert minds I have known. The frail body weakened. At the end of four years pastorate at Lincoln, the presiding Bishop thought to rest him awhile by giving him an out-door work. He was placed on the Danville District where he won the hearts of all his men; but within three months to save him from the "white plague" the Bishop transferred him to Colorado. At Grand Junction he won, for such as he win the people. They loved him; did all that could be done for him. He fought as a hero against the disease. The inevitable was seen. He ceased to fight and smiling said: "It is all right. It is the Master's will. I am ready. Lay my body in the cemetery at Urbana." Beautiful and eloquent words of appreciation and love were uttered by two of his most intimate preacher friends, Drs. R. H. Schuett and James C. Baker, while the lifeless form lay in Trinity's chancel. He lived. He lives. We shall see him.

Mrs. Tobie and the only child, Helen, returned to Grand Junction, Colorado, but their hearts will ever turn toward Urbana, the scenes of heroic struggles and eminent success, and the resting place of their beloved.

WM. H. WILDER.

MRS. E. D. WILKIN.

Mary E. McGahey was born in Crawford County, Illinois, November 25, 1831.

She spent her early years at her home near Palestine, where she was married to E. B. Hill in 1860.

They made their home in the old town of Palestine, where, near 1880, the husband and an only daughter died. She was married to Rev. E. D. Wilkin on March 11, 1884, and they were living at Lincoln at the time of his death, in 1895. After a few years she went to Long Beach, California, where she made her home till her death, on September 21, 1917.

Her body rests in the cemetery at that place.

She was a good, Christian woman, trained in the Presbyterian Church, and earnestly devoted to the cause of missions and the welfare of her home and the church.

RESOLUTIONS.

Auditing Committee.

Resolved, That the Conference elect at this session the Treasurer, the Statistician and the Auditor for next year's session and that hereafter at each session of the Conference the Treasurer be elected for the succeeding session.

Resolved, That within ninety days after the adjournment of this session of the Conference the Treasurer submit to the Auditor his report as presented to the Conference together with his receipts from the benevolent Board for the sums due them severally and a statement of the funds remaining in his hands, if any. The Auditor shall thereupon audit the Report and Receipts, and if they are found to be correct he shall deliver the accounts and funds (if any) to the Treasurer elect.

Resolved, That Pastors be required to see that their reports for the Conference Treasurer be placed in his hands properly made out not later than the first day of the Conference session.

Resolved, That the Treasurer give bond as required by the Discipline in the sum of $5,000 Dollars.

Resolved, That we request that no causes be reported under the head of Other Collections, except such as have been duly approved by the Annual Conference Commission on Finance.

Resolved, That the reports of Pastors as presented to the Treasurer shall be correct in the following particulars:

1. They shall be presented on TIME.
2. Properly designated—showing in proper places the name of the Conference, the District, the Charge and the Pastor.
3. The figures shall be clear and legible.
4. They shall be correctly entered. The correct amounts shall be entered in their proper places, and the figures shall be in the proper digit column.
5. They shall be in agreement. The amounts as entered in A shall agree with the sum of the cash and the vouchers as entered in B.
6. They shall be accompanied by proper vouchers. They must be official vouchers and where they are in duplicate must not be torn apart.
7. They must contain no extraneous matter, that is matter which is not properly contained in the Treasurer's report.

CENTENARY MOVEMENT.

Be it Resolved, That we recognize the timeliness and urgency of the Centenary Movement and pledge our utmost resources to its successful prosecution.

Be it further Resolved, That a Centenary Committee be raised to bring to a later session of this Conference any details of the Centenary which should come before us.

J. C. BAKER.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

Whereas, The dividend of the Book Concern for the Current Conference Year is $5,000.00 less than last year, and

Whereas, The Board of Trustees has authorized its Treasurer, H. C. Gibbs to negotiate a loan of $5,000.00 more or less from the Commission on Conference Claimants' Campaign for Endowment Funds, and

Whereas, Upon report of H. C. Gibbs that such loan will require the sanction of both the Commission on Conference Claimants' Campaign for Endowment Funds and The Preachers' Aid Society; be it

Resolved, That we instruct said Commission to hold a called meeting at once to consider this loan, and that following the meeting of the Commission, we request The Preachers' Aid Society, also, to hold a called meeting of said Society for the purpose of endorsing said loan provided same is authorized by the Commission.

R. Y. WILLIAMS.

PRO RATA FUNDS.

In view of the fact that the Amount reported at last Conference by the Board of Stewards as necessary to be raised by the Charges for the payment of all claims of our Conference Claimants was $50,521 and the amount apportioned by the Board of Conference Claimants was $1,323 and the fact that no provision was made for the collection of the entire amount.

Therefore be it Resolved, That the Conference Treasurer be instructed to pay to the Board of Conference Claimants the pro rata share of the funds that have been collected.

W. G. LLOYD,
R. Y. WILLIAMS,
R. F. McDANIEL.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' STANDARD TOTAL.

That when a charge has raised a total amount equal to or above the standard total, but the standard due from any apportionment has not been reached, then the standard of such appointment may be reduced as agreed by the Secretary of the Conference Claimants' Campaign, the District Superintendent and the Pastor of the Charge. Any such reduction shall be for just cause shown.

PUBLISHING MINUTES.

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Conference be and hereby is instructed not to receive any material for publication in the Conference Minutes later than one week following the close of the Conference session, and shall insert a statement as to any material not presented together with the name of the party or parties responsible for the delay.

The Committee appointed to Publish the Minutes is instructed to let the contract for the publication to some printer of character and ability and to secure the delivery of the Minutes not later than thirty days following the close of the Conference session.

XVI.

CONFERENCE RULES.

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock, noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the Conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the Conference."

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and, if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1) when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided, (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but, on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by ——— members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than ———, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The District Superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the Conference in advance of the Conference Session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"22. Vacancies in the Conference Board of Trustees, the Conference Board of Stewards and the Conference Deaconess Board shall be filled by election of the Conference on nomination by the District Superintendents.

"23. All requests for special appointment shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

"24. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"25. The Statistical Secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the Conference Session immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"26. Each pastor in effective work shall contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent of his annual salary each year to a fund known as Secretarial Expense Fund, such fund to be applied as necessity requires to the purpose of securing expert accountants, or stenographers, or assistants to the Conference in any way.

"27. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"28. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the Conference."

PRESIDENT

C. C. GRIMMETT,
SECRETARY

MINUTES

— OF —

THE ELEVENTH ANNUAL MEETING OF THE LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF THE ILLINOIS CONFERENCE.

Held at the Presbyterian Church in Quincy, Illinois, September 20th and 21st, 1918.

Association called to order by Mr. Benjamin F. Kagey, Tuscola, Illinois, President of the Association.

Devotional exercises conducted by Eva C. Fields, Quincy, Illinois.

The address of welcome was given by Mr. D. L. Mussulman, Quincy, Illinois, and responded to by Dr. Joseph R. Harker, Jacksonville, Illinois. Mr. Mussulman extended a very hearty welcome to the members and friends of the association, closing with a strong appeal to loyalty. Dr. Harker's response was made in his usual happy but earnest manner, calling attention to the need of wide-awake laymen.

President Kagey announced the appointment of the following committeemen: Resolutions—S. E. Dillavou, Champaign, Ill.; John Kissack, Farmer City, Ill.; and C. W. Caughlin, Pittsfield, Ill. Nominations—Mrs. Emma A. Jerman, Havana, Ill.; T. E. Orr, Buffalo, Ill.; and T. V. Hopper, Jacksonville, Ill.

The following Lay-Delegates and persons elected to represent their charges responded to a number of appeals to register, and if any attended who do not appear in this list, it is because of their failure to register:

Champaign District—Chas. W. Graves, S. E. Dillavou, S. A. Murdock, H. M. Lenord.

Decatur District—D. G. Warren, John W. Hauver, Silas A. Shafer, and Oscar Frazer.

Bloomington District—John Kissack, J. U. Surface, B. M. Taylor, F. M. Austin, and C. T. Rinehart.

Jacksonville District—T. V. Hopper, R. B. Smedley, C. C. Grimmett, John Hall, C. E. Rice, and Dr. Joseph R. Harker.

Mattoon District—H. R. Snavely.

Springfield District—S. M. Sheldon, Ira B. Blackstock, J. H. Circkenberger, F. T. Kuhl.

Quincy District—C. W. Caughlin, Mrs. Ellen L. Royeral, S. Simmonds, Mrs. M. U. McMahan, W. F. Ogilire, Mrs. J. N. Jerman, S. A. Murcenet, W. W. Watson, Mrs. Elle M. Orr.

Quincy District has the distinction of largest attendance, and Springfield District, the very great distinction of every church paying in its Annual Dues.

Judge H. R. Snively, of Marshall, Ill., delivered a 15 minute address on, "Laymen in the Annual Conference." It was a timely address, and we believe appreciated by all who heard it.

Joseph W. VanCleve, D. D., Secretary of the Commission on Finance, Chicago, Illinois, delivered a forceful address on "Financing The Kingdom of God."

Deaths of Lay-Delegates during the year, so far as reported: John K. Crawford, Barry, Ill. Reported by Mr. C. W. Caughlin, Pittsfield, Ill.

Song—"There is a Fountain Filled With Blood," was followed with short talks, by Ira B. Blackstock, S. A. Murdock, C. W. Caughlin, and C. C. Grimmett.

Mrs. Tempa Asher, representing THE BABY FOLD at Normal, Illinois, and Miss Mary Ann Taggart, Supt. Agard Deaconess Rest Home, Lake Bluffs, Ill., were introduced by the President as visitors and spoke in behalf of their respective Institutions.

Miss Frields extended a very kind invitation to the members of the Asociation to dine at the Chaddock Boys' School at 1:00 p. m. Saturday, and on motion the invitation was accepted.

With a song, followed by prayer, Brother T. E. Orr, leading, the afternoon session closed.

The morning session opened in the basement of the Vermont Street Methodist Episcopal Church, on account of heat, it being impossible to get heat at the Presbyterian Church.

Devotions were lead by Prof. E. M. Austin, Bloomington, Ill., closing with inspirational talks by the members present.

C. C. Grimmett, Secretary and Treasurer, read his reports for the year, which showed a balance on hand from last year of $84.39, and the amount of $150.80 received at Conference from the various Vice-Presidents.

On motion by Mrs. Emma Jerman, the Treasurer was authorized to pay to the Treasurer of the Presbyterian Church $5.00 as an expression of our appreciation of all courtesies extended.

On motion by F. M. Austin, the Secretary was authorized to have the minutes printed with Conference minutes same as last year.

The Committee on Resolutions presented their report, which was unanimously adopted.

A motion was made and carried that 500 copies of the Resolutions be printed, and that every Church Official Board in the Conference be furnished a copy, and that the same be read and considered at the first Board Meeting.

The Committee on Nominations presented the following report, which, on motion of Mr. T. E. Orr, was approved and adopted, and the following declared to be elected as Officers of the Association for the ensuing year: President, Benjamin F. Kagey, Tuscola, Illinois; Secretary and Treasurer, C. C. Grimmett, Palmyra, Ill.; Vice-Presidents, Bloomington District, J. U. Surface, Mason City, Ill.; Champaign District, S. A. Murdock, Champaign, Ill.; Decatur District, E. N. Herrin, Shelbyville, Ill., Jacksonville District, Thomas Hopper, Jacksonville, Ill.; Mattoon District, Myrtle Howard, Villa Grove, Ill.; Quincy District, C. W. Caughlin, Pittsfield, Ill.; Springfield District, Ira B. Blackstock, Springfield, Ill. Gospel Team Committee: E. C. Coon, Leslie Owen, C. W. Meneley, Bert Cole, F. M. Austin and J. W. Breckon.

The officers present were introduced to the Association.

The Executive Committee was announced as follows: Benjamin F. Kagey, Tuscola; C. C. Grimmett, Palmyra; H. R. Snavelly, Marshall; F. M. Austin, Bloomington; and Emma A. Jerman, Havana.

On motion the Treasurer was authorized to pay all bills due and not presented at this time.

A motion was made and carried that the Treasurer give $50.00 of the Associations Funds to the Centenary Drive, and that $50.00 be invested in the Fourth Liberty Loan Bonds.

Address by Miss Eva C. Fields, of Chaddock Boys' School.

Address by Hon. George H. Wilson, Quincy, Illinois, on "Prohibition in Illinois, Present, Past and Future." Mr. Wilson is the type of man that this State and Nation need at this important time in history.

Rev. C. W. Chiles, of the Anti-Saloon League, was introduced, and spoke for a few minutes of the great work this organization is doing to aid the coming of nation-wide prohibition.

Dr. Kemp, of the Illinois Wesleyan, came in at this moment and was asked by President Kagey to speak to the Association, which he did in a very pleasant and forceful manner.

Members present who have attended every session throughout the quardenium were: Mrs. Emma Jerman, H. R. Snavelly, B. F. Kagey, F. M. Austin, T. E. Orr, C. C. Grimmett, J. B. Thomas, John Kissack, Ira B. Blackstock, George H. Wilson, J. U. Surface, Dr. Joseph R. Harker.

Members present, who have attended every year since the organization of the Association, eleven years ago, in Bloomington, were: T. E. Orr, Dr. Joseph R. Harker, C. C. Grimmer, and John Kissack.

After brief remarks by the President, Dr. Kemp pronounced the benediction and the Association adjourned.

BENJAMIN F. KAGEY,

President of the Laymen's Association, Tuscola, Ill.

C. C. GRIMMETT,

Secretary and Treasurer of the Laymen's Association, Palmyra, Ill.

The following resolution was made by Dr. Joseph R. Harker, and seconded by Mr. J. U. Surface, which motion prevailed:

"That we request the Executive Officers of the Association, to take the necessary steps to present the question of, LAYMEN IN THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE, to every Charge during the coming year, so that all the Churches will be informed on the question, and, if possible, the Delegates elected to the next Annual Conference be instructed to vote for its adoption."

Brother Kagey will go into any pulpit in the Conference and speak on the following topics, or anything else that pastors want him for: "Laymen in the Annual Conference," "Conference Claimants," and such matters as the "Centenary Drive."

OFFICIAL SUPPLEMENT

— TO THE —

1918 MINUTES OF THE

ILLINOIS CONFERENCE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

ERRATA.

Report I.—Correction—Journal, Afternoon Session, Saturday September, 21st.

Proposition from the Springfield University Association. E. M. Antrim presented a proposition made by the Springfield University Association to the Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors of Illinois Wesleyan University Association on condition the institution accept the new site for the school located in the City of Springfield. (See Proposition, Pages 81 and 82.)

On motion of Dr. Antrim the Chair was requested to appoint a committee of five to consider this proposition and bring in a recommendation to this conference. Bishop Leete named as that committee, J. W. VanCleve, F. A. McCarty, Chris Galeener, A. S. Chapman, and M. G. Coleman.

II.—Correction—Journal, Monday, September 24th.

Illinois Wesleyan Site: Chris Galeener presented a report of the committee on the Illinois Wesleyan Site, and F. A. McCarty presented a minority report of said committee. On motion of Chris Galeener the majority report was adopted by almost unanimous vote. (See Report of Committee, Pages 90-92.)

Committee—Illinois Wesleyan Site: On motion of Chris Galeener the District Superintendents were authorized to appoint a committee as provided in the report on the Illinois Wesleyan Site, and the following were named: A. C. Piersel, A. S. Chapman, M. G. Coleman, Chris Galeener, R. F. McDaniel, F. A. McCarty, and T. N. Ewing. A. C. Piersel was, on his own request, relieved from serving on this committee and A. M. Wells was named in his place.

III.—Statistical Tables.

The copy for the Stewards Report, Domestic Missionary Society Report and Statistical Tables No. 1 and 3 having been delayed too late for publication under the order of the conference, are appended on extra sheets. (See Appended Reports.)

The above are hereby certified as true and correct portions of the Official Minutes of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of 1918.

JOURNAL OF SESSION.

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17, 1919.

Opening—The Ninety-sixth session of the Illinois Annual Conference convened in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Charleston, Illinois, at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, September 17, 1919, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., L.L.D., presiding.

After singing a hymn, W. S. Phillips led the conference in prayer. The Bishop addressed the conference on the "Fundamentals of Evangelism," and conducted the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, assisted by the District Superintendents, together with the host of the conference, E. G. Sandmeyer.

Roll-Call—The secretary of the last conference session called the roll, and 146 members answered to their names. On motion of R. W. Ennis, it was ordered to dispense with the further calling of the roll.

Messages of Sympathy—On motion of E. L. Pletcher, the conference appointed Chris. Galeener to convey a message of sympathy and brotherly love to W. F. Gilmore, who is confined to his room at the hotel owing to injuries sustained by being run down by an automobile after reaching the city. Similar messages were ordered by action of the conference as follows:—On motion of E. M. Antrim to B. D. Mallinson; on motion of J. C. Baker to President Edmund James, of the Illinois State University; on motion of Christie Galeener, the secretary of the conference, Parker Shields and A. B. Peck were made a committee to send a message to Dr. J. A. Burchitt, who was stricken on his way to the seat of the conference, and is critically ill in the Methodist Hospital, Indianapolis, Ind.

Organization—Upon request of the secretary, A. B. Peck, to be relieved from the duties of the office of conference secretary, F. B. Madden was elected on motion of J. C. Nate, and on motion of J. L. Settles, E. G. Sandmeyer was elected his assistant.

Upon nomination by F. B. Madden the following assistants were elected:—C. S. Boyd, and C. W. Hammond; also the conference Historian, and the Registrar of the Board of Examiners.

On motion of A. M. Wells, O. H. Meyers was elected Statistician, and named the following as his assistants:—H. Ray Funk, assistant statistician, with O. E. Martin, A. S. Weiss, F. D. Reed, J. H. James, C. L. Stokes, E. C. Swaney, M. M. Marshall as collectors of Secretarial expense fund.

Bar—On motion of E. G. Sandmeyer the bar of the conference was fixed to include the auditorium of the church.

Post Office—On motion of E. G. Sandmeyer, Mr. C. W. Henderson, a postoffice employee, was made the conference postmaster.

Order of the Day—On motion of S. H. Whitlock, the conference ordered that the first ballot for general conference delegates be made the order of the day immediately following the admission of the class into the conference on Friday.

Conference Boundary—On motion of W. H. Wilder, the conference ordered that a commission be appointed to confer with a similar commission from the Central Illinois Conference regarding the matter of conference boundary, and that the Secretary telegraph for their proposition in full, including charts and exhibits.

On motion of R. Y. Williams, the conference ordered the continuation of the commission appointed at the last session, with the exception that B. F. Shipp be excused and J. W. Van Cleve be appointed to take his place.

On motion of J. W. Davidson, the conference empowered the chairman of the commission to select and add members to equal in number those appointed by the Central Conference.

Standing Committee—On motion of E. M. Antrim, the conference adopted the printed list of committees as the standing committees of the session.

Special Chaddock Commission—On motion of F. A. McCarty, T. N. Ewing, A. K. Byrns, A. C. Piersel, M. M. English, and F. A. McCarty were appointed a special committee for the Chaddock Boys' School.

Centenary Vouchers—E. M. Antrim presented recommendations made by the Cabinet relative to questionable cases in the Centenary Vouchers, and on motion of F. A. McCarty the same were adopted with the provision that J. W. Van Cleve be made the arbiter in all questions submitted by the Treasurer relative to said vouchers. (See resolution).

Name Added—On motion of J. C. Nate, the name of Theodore Kemp was added to the printed list on committee on education.

Ratification of Action of Decatur Assembly—On motion of T. N. Ewing, the Conference ratified the action of the special assembly of the Illinois Conference at Decatur, March 20, 1919, and ordered that the minutes of that meeting be a part of the official journal of the Conference.

Conference Relations—On motion of C. R. Morrison, it was ordered that all cases under question 23 be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

F. B. Madden requested that he be relieved from the Committee on Conference Relations, and on his motion C. Galeener was substituted in his place.

On motion of R. W. Ennis, the District Superintendents were requested to furnish a list of those desiring a change of conference relation to the Committee on Conference relations.

On motion of E. S. Combs, the conference instructed all cases applying for admission from other churches should be first submitted to the Committee on Conference Relations, and then submitted to the Board of Examiners.

Adjournment—Following the announcements the conference stood adjourned on motion of Walter Mitchell, and the benediction by Dr. E. C. Wareing.

Report of Committee on Conference Relations and Preachers' Aid Society—Walter Mitchell read a report from said Committee. The report was considered item by item. Item One was adopted. The second item with an amendment by W. J. Davidson and a substitute by J. C. Nate was on motion of J. W. Van Cleve referred to a special committee of seven to report at a later session. The chair appointed the following as said committee: J. W. Van Cleve, W. J. Davidson, W. D. Fairchild, H. C. Gibbs, E. M. Antrim, Walter Mitchell, and C. Galeener. Items three and four on motion of W. J. Davidson were referred to the committee on memorials with the request that they be presented as a memorial to the next general conference.

On motion of A. M. Wells, additional paragraphs were adopted and also a resolution offered by J. W. Van Cleve. Then on motion the report as a whole was adopted as amended. (See report).

On motion of Walter Mitchell, the Board of Stewards were directed to pay to the Board of Conference Claimants the same per cent as they pay our Conference Claimants.

Ballot—A ballot was taken for the election of reserve delegates to the General Conference.

Report of Committee on Conference Relations—The secretary of the committee read a supplementary report which on motion was adopted. (See report).

World Outlook—The Bishop introduced Peter Kittel, who presented the missionary magazine entitled "World Outlook."

Methodist Review—The Bishop appointed S. R. Reno solicitor for the "Methodist Review."

Credentials—The Conference authorized the return of the credentials of J. H. Howsman, who had been granted a location, when said parchments have been properly endorsed.

Report of Committee on Education—A. S. Chapman read a report of the committee on education except the part referring to the Illinois Wesleyan University which was made the order of the day for Monday after the adoption of the report of the committee on boundary. The committee was instructed to announce and post the names of the trustees and visitors to be elected twenty-four hours before said election. The suggested change in rule 24 was adopted as a special item of the report. Then the report as read was adopted.

Afternoon Session—It was ordered that when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet at 1:45 this afternoon. The Bishop appointed J. C. Baker to preside.

Sale of Churches—On motion of E. L. Pletcher, the trustees of the Chapin Church of the Jacksonville Circuit and of the Mt. Zion Church of the Curran Charge were allowed to re-invest, in other church property within the bounds of said charges, the proceeds from the sale of said abandoned churches.

Rural Pastors' Association—On motion, the report concerning the organization of a Rural Pastors' Association was read by H. F. Higgins and adopted. (See report.)

Introduction—Dr. M. B. Burns, of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, was introduced.

Election—The tellers reported the result of the ballot for the election of reserve delegates. Whole number of votes cast 167. Necessary to a choice 84. E. G. Sandmeyer received 88 and B. F. Shipp 84 and they were declared elected. A second ballot was taken on which one name only was to be written.

St. Louis German Conference—On motion of M. N. English, the Board of Trustees were directed to pay $45.00 annually during the next quadrennium to the Conference Claimant Fund of the St. Louis German Conference in consideration of the sale of Zion Church at Boody, Illinois, to the trustees of the Methodist Episcopal Church of said town.

Adjournment—After announcement, the Conference was adjourned with the Benediction by Dr. W. J. Davidson.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Opening—The afternoon session opened at 1:45, Dr. J. C. Baker in the chair. After the singing of the hymn, A. W. Wells led in prayer.

Reports—The reports of the following committees were read and adopted: Domestic Missions, Sunday-School and Epworth League, Publication of Minutes, Hospitals, Church Literature.

Edit—On motion of A. M. Wells, the Secretary was authorized to condense the reports, preserving the ideas.

Hospital Trustees—On motion of R. F. McDaniel, the Board of Trustees of the Mattoon Memorial Hospital was re-elected with the substitution of the name of W. N. Simmons for that of W. G. Clark.

Conference Claimants—On motion of H. C. Gibbs the report of William G. Cathcart, Treasurer, the names of the personnel and the resolutions of the Commission on Conference Claimants were ordered printed in the minutes.

The conference adjourned.

FIFTH DAY, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 21, 1919.

Love Feast—The annual Conference Love Feast was conducted by S. H. Whitlock at 9:30 o'clock. Public services of Conference Sunday were held in the First Church, Charleston, Bishop Nicholson preaching an instructive and inspirational sermon.

Missionary Sermon—The annual Missionary Sermon was preached at 2 o'clock by H. W. McPherson, who gave the audience a larger vision of the missionary needs.

Ordination—At 3 o'clock, Bishop Nicholson ordained a class of five Deacons and five Elders. (See Certificate of Ordination.)

SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 1919.

Opening—Conference convened at 8:30 A. M., Bishop Nicholson in the chair. Prayer was offered by C. F. Buker. Bishop Nicholson addressed the conference on the "Christian Conception of the Social Order."

Journal—The journal of Saturday's sessions was read and approved.

Introduction—The Bishop introduced Dr. J. C. Baker who spoke of the work of the Wesley Foundation, Mrs. Fields who represented Chaddock Boys' Home, Arthur Kinkade who told of the work of the Y. M. C. A. overseas, Dr. Harker, President of the Illinois Woman's College, and Dr. Hancher, General Director of the Centenary meeting.

Reports—The following reports were read and adopted: Chaddock Boys' Home, Board of Home Missions and Church Extension, Benevolences, Deaconess Board of Nine.

Change of Relation—On motion of E. L. Pletcher, the name of Wiley Johnson was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Semi-Centennial Sermon—On motion of E. L. Pletcher, the Conference invited Rev. W. F. Gilmore to preach a sermon next year in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of his entering upon the work of the Christian Ministry.

Retired Relation—D. H. Trimble was granted the retired relation.

Conference Relation—On motion of E. M. Antrim, the name of W. F. Hunter was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Withdrawn—On motion of R. W. Ennis, H. S. Alkire was permitted to withdraw and the Bishop was authorized to return his parchments when properly endorsed.

Sale of Church Property—On motion of B. F. Shipp, the following disposition of church property was authorized: That the Green Valley Church property lying about seven miles northwest of Clinton, DeWitt County, Illinois, as per quarterly Conference action, be received by the Board of Conference Trustees and be disposed of by the said Board of Trustees and the money received for the sale of the said property be used according to Disciplinary requirements. That the Mount Olive Church property on the Weedman Charge be sold and the money from the sale of the property shall be at the disposal of the Weedman quarterly Conference to re-invest in church property within the bounds of the Charge.

On motion of J. C. Nate, the Trustees of Collison Charge were granted permission to re-invest the proceeds from the sale of the abandoned church of Jamesburg belonging to the Collison Charge in church property within the bounds of that Charge.

On motion of W. D. Fairchild, the Conference authorized the Trustees of Hitesville on Kansas Circuit, Plainview on Lerna Circuit, Clarksville on Grandview and Redmon Charge, Camp Chapel on Vermillion Charge, to re-invest the proceeds from the sale of said abandoned churches in other church property within the bounds of said Charges respectively.

Credentials—On motion, Bishop Nicholson was authorized in compliance with the Discipline to issue a certificate to Joseph H. James, whose parchments have been lost, certifying that he is a member of the Illinois Conference.

On motion of C. Galeener, the Conference ordered that when Fred Enslow shall present to the Secretary of the Conference a certificate signed by a District Superintendent and Secretary of a Quarterly Conference that he has received license as a local preacher, his credentials shall be restored to him.

Memorials—The Committee on Memorials reported as follows: That no action be taken on the following memorials: Courses of Study, from the Wilmington Conference, from the Newark Conference, from the Wisconsin Conference, from New York East Conference. The memorial from the Eastern Swedish Conference concerning the foreign speaking groups was approved with the following proviso: "This memorial was approved for the general proposition but with the recommendation that at least a first report on this matter be made to the General Conference of 1920 either through such a commission as is here proposed or through the Standing Committee on Itinerancy of the 1920 General Conference."

On motion of W. J. Davidson, it was "Resolved that we memorialize the General Conference to enact such legislation as will direct and authorize the Methodist Book Concern to cease the publication of Sunday School literature in foreign-speaking languages for all Sunday School departments below the Adult department within the next two years if possible; this memorial, however, to be construed as applying to literature for Sunday Schools in the States of the United States."

On motion of J. W. Van Cleve it was "Resolved: That we memorialize the General Conference to provide that statistical and financial returns to the Annual Conferences shall be made by individual churches instead of by Pastoral Charges."

On motion of J. W. McPherson, the following was adopted: "Whereas, the Discipline paragraph No. 208 provides that a District Superintendent may not serve more than six consecutive years in any twelve on the same district: And Whereas, the Illinois Conference has for many years had a rule that a District Superintendent may not serve more than six years on any District in the Conference in any consecutive twelve, and Whereas we believe that such a rule has worked to the welfare of the Conference: Be it Resolved: That we memorialize the General Conference to pass such legislation as will enable any annual Conference by its own action to prohibit the appointment of any man to the District Superintendence for more than six years out of any consecutive twelve." Signed A. C. Piersel, and H. W. McPherson.

On motion of A. C. Piersel the following was adopted: "Believing that it will greatly vitalize the relationship of the laymen to the local church, the Illinois Conference hereby memorializes the General Conference to enact such legislation as will necessitate the selection of Trustees and Stewards for the local church by classes, three classes for three years each in succession. At the close of his term a member of either Board may be reappointed or reelected, but is to be regarded by the members and pastor as having no more claim to such appointment or election than any other eligible member of the church.

"This memorial is simply aimed at an outworn, impeding system." Signed: A. C. Piersel, F. A. McCarty, J. C. Baker, E. G. Sandmeyer, A. K. Byrns, Wm. Davidson, C. F. Buker.

On motion of J. W. VanCleve the following was adopted:

Whereas, for a long time the Benevolent Boards of the Church have been authorized both to administer the interests of their several causes and to solicit for the same in consequence of which there have been over-lappings and duplications of work resulting in waste of effort and resources, and whereas the authority to conduct financial campaign still resides in each Board thus making possible the continuance of this confusion, and whereas the success of the Missionary Centenary has demonstrated the superior utility and efficiency of uniting all financial interests in one campaign:

Resolved, that we memorialize the General Conference; to provide first for one Benevolent Board to have oversight of the work of the present Benevolent Boards with power to eliminate conflicts of administration and duplications of effort, such Board to be chosen on a thoroughly democratic basis and in such manner as to make it as far as possible representative of the whole Church; to provide, second, for the administration of the affairs of the present Benevolent Boards under separate departments of this General Board, uniting and consolidating the present Boards as far as may be consistent with efficiency of operations, to provide, third, that an auxiliary organization be created in the Annual Conference to have control and oversight of all financial campaigns for local and Conference Benevolences, unifying them as far as may be practicable with the General Campaign.

On motion of J. W. Van Cleve, the Conference ordered the above memorial to be sent to other Conferences that have not already met.

Constitutional Amendment—The proposed amendment to the Constitution of the Methodist Episcopal Church submitted to the Annual and Lay Electoral Conferences pursuant to a resolution passed at the General Conference of 1916, was submitted to the Conference and was adopted by a rising count vote of 145 for and 2 against its adoption.

Secretarial Expense Fund—On motion of E. S. Combs, the Secretary of the Conference was elected Treasurer of the secretarial expense fund and it was ordered that said fund (1/10th of 1%) be turned over to the secretary as soon as collected and that he audit all bills for secretarial expense before paying them. If funds thus collected are not sufficient, after the bills have been paid, to give the secretaries their usual allowance, they shall pro rate.

Conference Boundary—J. W. Van Cleve read the report of the commission on Conference Boundary. Debate began with intense interest.

Adjournment—It was ordered that we adjourn to meet at 1:30 and that the continuation of the debate of the report of the Commission on Boundary be the order of the day. Dr. Hancher pronounced the benediction, and the Conference stood adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Opening—Conference assembled at 1:30, Bishop Nicholson in the chair, Dr. W. A. Smith offered prayer.

Boundary—The discussion of the Conference Boundary was resumed and continued at length. On motion of C. F. Buker, speeches were limited to five minutes each. The report was finally adopted by a practically unanimous vote. Then the supplementary resolutions offered by Dr. Van Cleve were adopted. (See report.)

On motion of E. M. Antrim, it was ordered that, when the Conference shall finally adjourn, it shall adjourn to meet at the call of the Bishop.

Commission on Boundary—On motion of W. J. Davidson, the Board of District Superintendents were requested to nominate a commission of nine on Conference Boundary, one of whom shall be a District Superintendent, and a special commission of five to meet with a like number of commissioners from the Central Illinois Conference.

The nine commissioners nominated and approved are: J. C. Nate, M. N. English, E. M. Antrim, W. J. Davidson, J. W. Van Cleve, H. W. McPherson, T. H. Tull, F. A. McCarty, A. S. Chapman.

The commission of five nominated and approved are: T. H. Tull, J. W. Van Cleve, J. C. Nate, E. M. Antrim, F. A. McCarty.

Change of Relation—On motion of R. W. Ennis, the Conference granted Wiley Johnson and W. F. Hunter a supernumerary relation. Christie Galeener took the chair. The Bishop and Cabinet were excused and retired.

Reports—The following reports were read and adopted: State of the Country, Treasurer, Statistician.

Officers—On motion, J. L. Settles was elected Treasurer, E. A. Hedges Auditor, and O. H. Meyers Statistician of the Conference for next year.

Secretarial Expense—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve, the matter of providing funds and remunerating the officers of the Conference and their assistants was referred to the Board of Trustees with power to act.

Transfer—The Bishop announced the transfer of Charles W. Ivie from the Southern Illinois Conference to this Conference.

Conference Claimants—The report of the Committee on Conference Claimants was read and adopted; also that of the Board of Stewards.

Message of Sympathy—On motion of W. S. Phillips, the Secretary was directed to send a letter of sympathy to John P. Edgar.

Bishop resumed the chair.

Joint Session—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve, the Conference requested that the joint-session, provided for in the report of the commissioner on boundaries, be held not later than next Thanksgiving and that the session be called to meet neither at Springfield nor Bloomington, and that the Bishop and District Superintendents of the Illinois and Central Illinois Conference be asked to fix the place of meeting.

Reports—A report of the committee on education in regard to the Illinois Wesleyan University was read and adopted.

Leave of Absence—On motion of E. M. Antrim, W. E. Schell was granted a year's leave of absence under paragraph 186.

Commission on Evangelism—E. M. Antrim reported the commission on Evangelism nominated by the Board of District Superintendents. The nominations were approved. (See list.)

Appointment Requested—The Conference requested the Bishop to appoint J. C. Baker as Director of the Wesley Foundation. This to be in addition to his appointment as Pastor of Trinity Church, Urbana.

Honor Men—The Bishop announced the honor men and introduced them to the Conference. (See list.)

Centenary Money—On motion the Treasurer was instructed to follow the Centenary plan in remitting the Conference funds to the Treasurers of the Church Boards.

Admitted—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve, Henry F. Higgins was admitted into full membership.

Resolutions—The Committee on Resolutions read their report which was adopted by a rising vote. (See report.)

Journal—On motion the Journal of Sunday's and Monday's sessions was approved without reading.

Bishop's Return Requested—On motion of A. C. Piersel the Conference requested the next General Conference to return Bishop Nicholson to the Chicago Area for the next Quadrennium.

Official Record—On motion of F. A. McCarty, the printed minutes were made the official journal of the Conference and the printed minutes of the Quadrennium 1916, 1917, 1918, 1919, including the special supplement to the minutes of 1918, were made the Official Journal for the Quadrennium.

Adjournment—On motion the Conference, after reading of the appointments and prayer by Bishop Nicholson, adjourned to meet in special joint session as previously stated. Bishop Nicholson pronounced the benediction.

(A) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS' JOINT REPORT.

Who would not covet the pleasing task of recounting the deeds of the past year, one of the most remarkable and significant years financially in the history of the denomination, and one of the outstanding years in the history of the conference—the Illinois, the conference which enjoyed the enviable distinction, last year, of leading the church in its advance in Foreign and Home Missions, the conference whose history has been made splendid by the stalwart and heroic characters of the past, whose faith was of that quality that subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness and obtained promises, whose spirit was one of holy daring, whose character was irreproachable, whose integrity was spotless, whose deeds were mighty. Not without their wondrous story, could be writ the Churches' glory. But needless is it to name these men, whose devotion, toil and sacrifice laid the moral and spiritual foundations of this commonwealth, upon which we are seeking to rear a worthy temple, for their names are graven on our hearts.

This roll of worthies has been augmented this year, by the following having been accorded an abundant entrance into the everlasting kingdom, whose virtues and service, spirit and character have already been presented in our touching memorial service: Randle the indefatigable toiler, Creath the gentle, Danely the fatherly, Drake the meek, Wilson the unostentatious, Dungan the humble, Greer the hopeful, Martin John B. the devout, Martin Joseph B. the enthusiast, Wade the sympathetic and Kasiske the master workman.

Besides this our loss has been deepened this year by the departure of the following sisters, who have graced the parsonage homes of the conference: Mesdames H. C. Adams, E. J. Campbell, J. W. Crane, W. M. Gooding, H. C. Munch, G. B. Wolfe, and C. G. Wood. To these elect ladies the church will never appreciate its full indebtedness, nor how large a share their's has been in its successes and triumphs.

The Centenary.

To some churches the Centenary has been epochal, the dawning of a new era. Upon the introduction of this movement churches began to talk and think at once in world terms, as they had never talked and thought before, for them the horizon was extended, the vision new and enlarged. Churches began to appreciate their world relationship, and to interpret the declaration of Christ, in the use of his world terms. To many it was an ecclesiastical awakening, a financial revival, from which the church is moving out into a larger place, and the results of which shall be abiding.

This new era was not ushered in without struggle and earnest toil. It brought new and varied experiences. In connection with it many will recall the hours of intense toil, days of anxious care, sleepless nights, heartaches and almost heartbreaks. To those who conceived and outlined the plan, their task may have seemed arduous, but let it not be forgotten that, in many instances, to those who executed the plans it meant an approach to the blood-sweat, and to press hard the verge of collapse. The task is not to discover money, but to induce those, who have held it fast, to yield it for the Kingdom's sake.

In the undertaking souls have been measured, and many a pastor knows the dimensions of the souls entrusted to his care, in their relation to the deep things of God, and to the needs of the Kingdom, while many a congregation knows the measure of the pastor's vital interest in God's plans and the real sincerity of the prayer, in which he leads the church, "Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done."

No movement so vast was ever undertaken by any denomination before. No wonder it had revelations for us. It proved to be the supreme test to many, the crucial hour in some lives. When the test was applied many a pastor stood the test, and having done all still stood. He proved himself to be a real leader of spiritual forces, furnishing enthusiasm, inspiration and direction for the great movement, in his local church, and many a church proved itself alert to the spiritual needs of the new day it is facing, and rejoiced at the opportunity of becoming a part of an adequate program, so vast in extent and purpose as to have for its objective the world's redemption. It has discovered leadership in the laity, which augurs well for the complete success of any future program that may be built, looking toward a worthy goal. In this movement the laity has embraced the opportunity it has afforded it of coming back to its own in service, interest and leadership. In fact, in this the church is re-discovering itself, standing amazed at her own possibilities, joyous in her new found power, with a look both upward and forward, rejoicing as a strong man to run a race.

In tangible results, in the Conference, the campaign has furnished, in round numbers, thirty-five thousand intercessors, possibly ten thousand tithers, and fully fifteen hundred who have placed themselves upon the altars of the church, for some form of definite Christian service, as a life work.

Three of the districts have exceeded their financial quota, namely the Champaign-Danville, by seven per cent, the Decatur by four per cent, Bloomington by three per cent. Mattoon has reached ninety per cent of its quota, Springfield ninety-seven per cent, while Jacksonville and Quincy have reached 85 per cent, 85 per cent above the allotment. The hope is that nearly all will reach the full quota.

Evangelism.

The year has not been marked by a high tide of evangelism. The entire fall season, which is regarded as peculiarly favorable for evangelism, and indeed spasmodically, until the early summer, the epidemic of influenza raged everywhere, and the parsonage homes were not exempt from its ravages, compelling some churches to cease operations for months, and not a few that were in operation, because of the fear of the results of the epidemic, the congregations were reduced to the minimum. Following that season the financial features of the Centenary received undivided attention and were accentuated thoroughly, thus adjusting ourselves to the larger program of the church, here placing our stress for the rest of the conference year, according to the direction of the Centenary authorities.

Only here and there in the conference, has there been held an evangelistic meeting which has been in results significant, or in influence wide. Each district will report a few hundred accessions. However, after the Committees on Church Records have been reckoned with, our own clerical defects accounted for, and the inaccuracies of previous years corrected, the numerical strength of the conference will not be largely augmented.

Improvements.

In spite of the large outlays in bonds, victory and otherwise, as well as the offerings for the Centenary, the material improvements are not being delayed or disregarded. On the Decatur district a new church will soon be dedicated at Macedonia, on the Atwood charge, a new parsonage is nearing completion at Maroa, the church at Cowden has been remodeled at a large outlay, a new parsonage is planned for Cisco and plans are already being executed for a handsome new church at Lovington, to take the place of the church which was destroyed by fire earlier in the conference year.

The material values of the Mattoon district will be enhanced by a new, fully equipped parsonage at Sidell, also a new one at Chrisman, which was ready for occupancy early in the conference year. The church at Mattoon is planning extensive and costly repairs, while a new church is in prospect for Longview.

The attention of the Springfield district is turned to two large and important enterprises, the new Church in course of erection at Taylorville, costing $100,000, and the new building, planned by the Laurel church of Springfield, at a new location, to cost fully $125,000, for which a choice and most desirable site has already been secured. Important improvements have been made on the Pana church, providing for greatly needed Sunday School and social facilities, at a cost exceeding $4,000. A new parsonage is under way at Kincaid. Then a legacy of $2,000 has been left for the benefit of the Church at Rochester.

Champaign-Danville district is not without pride in the complete new plant at Rantoul, consisting of a beautiful and convenient new church costing not less than $65,000 and a most desirable parsonage, costing not less than $10,000, there being no indebtedness on the plant. It is also anticipating with pleasure the early construction of a $25,000 church at Ogden. Extensive improvements have been made on Grace Church, Urbana, and the church at Paxton. One of the most significant events on the Champaign-Danville district is the consolidation of the First and Kimber churches of Danville. This had been under consideration for a long time, but the culmination came on September 1st of this year, when a conference was held between the Boards of the two churches, Bishop Nicholson being present to advise and counsel. Through all the discussions and negotiations the pastors of the two churches displayed the most fraternal spirit, considering what was expedient for the Kingdom and not for themselves. Their spirit all the way through while the plan was pending was the most commendable. This consolidated church promises to be one of the outstanding churches of the conference. At other places debts have been paid, and prospects are bright for large material advance next year.

On the Jacksonville district two new churches have been erected and one parsonage. Besides these achievements Grace Church, Jacksonville, rejoices in the liquidation of a long standing debt of $10,000.

No new church has been dedicated on the Bloomington District this year, but the church at Weldon has been remodeled and beautified, and will be formally reopened the first Sunday after conference. The church at Saybrook is being greatly enlarged, almost doubling its capacity, thus furnishing needed facilities for their excellent Sunday School department, while among the improvements the social needs have not been neglected. A new church and parsonage Holland is being planned. A remodeled church at Boynton on the Hopedale charge will receive early attention. A thoroughly up-to-date parsonage has just been purchased at Clinton, at a cost of $9,000. Negotiations are now being made for the purchase of a new parsonage for DeWitt, while extensive improvements are soon to be made on the church at Farmer City. Through the liberality of an aged and devout couple, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Geer, there comes into the possession of the Church at Clinton $70,000, upon $60,000 of which the church is now paying an annuity. Quincy district takes just pride in the new $60,000 church at Rushville. The property values of the district have been further increased by two remodeled churches on the Lorraine charge, the one in Lorraine at a cost of $8,000, and the Centennial church at a cost of $4,000.

By this survey it will be seen that while many drafts have been made upon the financial resources of our people, the material interests of the Kingdom are receiving all necessary attention, while future advance is not without large promise.

Salaries.

No one has felt the strain and pinch of the high cost of living more than the salaried man, who is not defended by a union, and cannot wield the weapon of collective bargaining. This is especially true of the ministry. The financial situation has become strangely acute for the average preacher, and it is he of whom I speak. He is found among the class of the poorly paid, and is far behind, in compensation, many of those who are now paralyzing the industrial world for better pay. It was found at the close of the year 1918 that there was a difference between the advance in the cost of living and in the advance in the compensation of the average minister of 52 per cent. In more recent years he has not been able to keep himself fit, up to the maximum efficiency, without practicing the most rigid economy, but by such a practice an even balance cannot be maintained, which really means a reduction in efficiency. Frequently he has had little to say about his compensation, and if he expresses an anxious concern about it he exposes himself to adverse criticism. He is entirely at the disposal of those whom he serves. Some churches—few in number though—have commenced the task of reducing the high cost of living by cutting down the pastor's compensation, or refraining from advancing a very meager salary. The fact is appreciated though, that these men do not represent the rank and file of the laity of the Illinois Conference, the vast majority being fair minded, appreciating the present economic situation, and in a most brotherly manner have given most favorable consideration to the pastors' needs, seeking to share with them in the present conditions.

In pastoral support, one district has fixed as the goal, toward which it is pressing, the making of $1500 as the minimum salary of a resident pastor, giving full time to the charge. The average salary on this district, the Champaign-Danville, is $1750. Splendid advances in salaries have been made in many charges of the conference for this year, as well as those salaries fixed for the ensuing conference year. If the statements which have been furnished me of the advances, which have been made this year, and arranged for the ensuing conference year, are up to date, then I am warranted in saying that for this period, 1918 to 1920, the Springfield district will show an advance in pastoral support of above $13,000, Jacksonville above $12,000, Decatur and Bloomington each about $12,000, Mattoon and Quincy above $9,000 each and Champaign-Danville above $9,000. This makes a total increase for the seven districts of over $70,000, or an average of over $10,000 each, in two years. To the fine sense of equity and justice, to the kind consideration of our liberal and loyal laymen this fine advance in salaries bears testimony. The heart of no class is more deeply moved with gratitude and appreciation than that of the ministry, to whom the advantage afforded by these conditions accrues, aiding the ministry the more nearly to approach the balance in the high cost of living.

Sunday Schools.

The same conditions, which made so ineffectual many of our evangelistic efforts, the influenza, has not been without its effects upon our Sunday School activities, reducing the average attendance below that of last year and in other ways impeding our advance in this department of our work.

There is a marked need of better trained teachers on almost every hand, and teachers also who have a higher appreciation of the great opportunity afford by the Sunday School for the most effective and permanent Christian work and how indispensable is the Sunday School to the future advance and prosperity of the church. For lack of this appreciation altogether too many feel no weight of responsibility or obligation in Sunday School interest or service. Here and there a teacher training class is found in connection with the Sunday School, the evidence of which is displayed in the advance quality of teaching in the school.

The constant influence of our Board of Sunday Schools is evidenced in new and advanced methods, in Sunday School management and direction. Here is a field the most productive of permanent results, the full cultivation of which is waiting our larger effort.

Epworth League.

This institution does not seem to be so large a factor in the life of many a church as it formerly was. Here and there a chapter makes itself indispensable to the churches' program, and always may be depended on in every advance, socially, evangelistically or otherwise. But this condition is rather the exception than the rule. However, several chapters made Win-My-Chum-Week count for much in evangelism. Some inroads were made in the membership of the organization by war conditions, for any of the young men of Epworth League age are also of service age, for the ages co-inside.

The membership of the Conference is about eleven thousand. Each district maintains a well and carefully selected organization, as well as the conference being under the direction of a competent cabinet. There are in this connection some hopeful and encouraging indications. This year a conference Epworth League Institute was held in July at the city of Springfield, attended by two hundred of our young people: A faculty of six, under the direction of Dr. Dan B. Brimmit, furnished inspiration and instruction. The institute closed with enthusiasm, after making increased plans for another year and arranging to make this annual gathering a permanent feature of the conference organization.

Illinois Wesleyan.

The Illinois Wesleyan, due to the S. A. T. C., for which much preparation has been made, at a cost of no small outlay, and which after a few months discontinued, was somewhat impeded in its work during the early months of the school year. Aside from this the work of the year advanced very satisfactorily, and the progress made was gratifying.

For the year just opening the college course has been much strengthened, by the securing of new teachers, and the addition of two new departments, that of Economics and Sociology and that of Religious Education. It is felt that this new Department of Religious Education will harmonize perfectly with the new Centenary plans, and aid in meeting the needs of the new day we are facing. Under the direction of this new department there will be classes in Teacher Training, Missions, Religious Fundamentals and kindred subjects. The aim of the department is to send our college students back to the communities from which they came equipped for spiritual leadership and better Christian service. Dr. A. C. Piersel will have charge of this department and will have close religious oversight of the students.

The college of Music has been also greatly strengthened by securing as its director, Dr. Edward Young Mason, so long identified with the Music Department of the Ohio Wesleyan. The College of Music has been moved from down town to a location directly opposite the college campus, the building secured has been thoroughly equipped, in every way, for a musical department. This close proximity to the college proper offers an opportunity for the mingling of the various students.

Last year the college had thirteen student volunteers, and several students in preparation for the ministry. Plans are being formulated for a great religious forward movement in keeping with the larger plans of the Centenary.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois.

There can be no question of the strategic opportunity of the Church in the midst of the students at the University of Illinois. It is gratifying to note that since the Foundation was established at the University of Illinois, eight similar Foundations have been established at other tax supported or independent institutions. The combination of the Foundation needs with the Centenary has been a happy one, working to the mutual advantage of each cause.

We are happy to record that the Board of Home Missions has established a Chair of Religious Education and of Rural Leadership in connection with the Foundation at Illinois. There will probably be more than five hundred Methodist students in the College of Agriculture this year, a fact which needs only to be mentioned to emphasize the importance of this Chair of Rural Leadership. This group of students will have a large part in making or marring the church in the small town and the open country.

During the past year, Brother Elmer K. Towle has become identified with the Foundation as Field Agent. Rev. George Metzel has been appointed by the Bishop to organize and develop the important features of personal work among the students.

Plans for the Social Center Building have been completed and have been put in the hands of contractors for bids. It is hoped that the actual building will be begun in the near future.

Illinois Woman's College.

The past year in this institution has been one of marked success, both as to attendance and in the work accomplished. The year was also one of financial success, the returns being ample for immediate needs. However, other buildings are sorely needed to meet the growing demands of the institution, as well as a more adequate endowment commensurate with the larger plans, which it is hoped will soon take form. The college is advancing both in standards and equipment, its high standards receiving recognition by the highest educational institutions of the Country. The opening year promises to be one of the very best in attendance and achievement, the school has enjoyed in its splendid history.

Chaddock Boys' School.

Many obstacles have been in the way of the progress of this school through the year, as every such institution is facing at this time, but in spite of these, success has marked the year. Even in these times of financial unrest it has made some advance in equipment. However its present equipment comes far short of meeting its pressing demands, or permitting it to meet the great and unique opportunity for service which is afforded it. It has its immediate needs, for besides larger equipment, it should have an endowment of not less than $250,000. The cause it represents is most deserving, and it is believed that it should be the policy of this conference, just as quickly as opportunity will afford, to render this institution the consideration which is due, and the assistance it needs.

Mattoon Memorial Hospital.

This institution boasts not of the extent of its patronizing territory nor the magnitude of its buildings, but within its own circle, it might modestly speak of the intense and efficient service it is rendering. This institution is thoroughly abreast of the times, having the most modern equipment. Few institutions in our larger cities are prepared for more scientific and skillful treatment than this institution affords. A continuance of its present splendid management and efficient service, will shortly give it a deserving conference-wide patronage and influence, which in turn should warrant it conference-wide interest and support.

Cunningham Children's Home.

This institution, under the direction of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, is making good progress in its care of the little ones, many of whom are orphans. The work being done is one of real merit and necessity. The home is in good condition, and there is no sickness among the inmates. The isolation ward, which has been long planned, will be commenced this fall.

This is a much needed addition to the institution, and will prevent much sickness among the inmates, during the time of children's epidemics. The prospects of the new year are excellent.

The Women's Missionary Societies.

These organizations have had a year of remarkable progress and general advance. The increase in members and offerings, on some districts, is little short of phenomenal, while the increase in interest has deepened everywhere. Instead of the Centenary detracting from the interest of these organizations, and reducing their offerings, the interest has been intensified and the offerings increased. In the Home Society there has been an increase in membership of seven hundred and thirty-eight, and an increase in its offerings in the conference of eleven thousand one hundred and sixty-eight dollars.

Though the request was made early for information of the Foreign Society, I have not received it, hence I can only speak in detail for one district, the Bloomington, whose progress through the year has certainly been remarkable. Its pledge made for the year was five thousand five hundred dollars. It has raised and paid on the same nine thousand, nine hundred and forty dollars. In other words it has exceeded its pledge by four thousand four hundred and forty dollars. From facts I have been able to secure un-officially, I am warranted in saying that each district of the conference, through its foreign Society, has made unusual progress, though perhaps all of them have not made equal progress with the district mentioned.

The Rural Problem.

We have many problems facing us, awaiting solution. The rural problem is far from being solved, though it has been viewed from every angle and attacked with numerous surveys. One of the difficulties is that the task is sought by the few and shunned by the many, and he who grapples with the task is the exception, if from it he does not early seek release.

There are now phases and features to the problem from time to time. The horse has been almost entirely set aside, and only finds a place on the farm or for the transporting of produce, seldom for passenger service. The automobile is well nigh universal in its use. One scarcely ever sees the horse and carriage at the country church. When the worshipper attends service he is transported by automobile, otherwise he does not worship publicly. But if the conditions of the roads will admit of his going two miles, by automobile, they will generally admit of his going six, eight or ten miles, the element of time not entering far into the question, and this connects him with the village, town, or city church, where there is afforded for his family a well equipped Sunday School or regular service, while the probability is that his country church only supplies him with a meagerly equipped Sunday School and a single service on alternating Sundays. All honor to the man or organization who can devise some method in these days of tenant farming and auto travel, by which the country church may be revived, and take the place it had four or five decades ago. The country places, and what, in some instances, have almost become waste places, might be greatly aided, if, outside our larger cities, the entire district be divided into parishes, each having its specific lines and definite territory, so that every square mile shall be attached to some church and under the care and oversight of some pastor, that no people, for whom we are in any way responsible, shall go unshepherded, as far as pastoral oversight is concerned, and there are many such, that there may be no occasion as far as shepherding is concerned for any to say "No man cared for my soul."

Social and Economic Reconstruction.

There are social and economic problems facing us, more serious than those which have faced other generations. We turned away from the horrors of war, which had depressed and affrighted us for some years, to what we supposed would be a period of peace and clam, quiet and serenity when the affairs of the world would flow on normally and contentment and satisfaction would prevail everywhere. But, alas, we turned from the horrors of war to face a world rent and torn with industrial and social strife, bordering on disastrous upheaval. We had thought we were standing on the rocks, and that no people had a surer social and industrial footing than had we. But in this we are undeceived, and discover an under-current flowing just beneath the surface, and no one knows where it is going to break through, and sweep the surface like a torrent. The restraint of the law is all that is holding many in place, as evidenced by the recent Boston episode. Everything indicates that we are at the parting of the ways. We are in a new day. We can never return to pre-war conditions. How large a factor is the church to be in this period of social and industrial reconstruction? If she is not to be eventually a large factor in it, she has measurably failed. In this hour this is the great task of the church. It must place itself in opposition to autocracy wherever found, whether in capital or labor; it must encourage democracy wherever it is seeking to express itself. If true to ourselves and the trust committed to us, we can but seek to actualize the Cleveland utterances and "Regard the laborer as a man and not a machine, as a living soul, and not a commercial commodity to be purchased on the market. "This is essential for the common good of society as for the welfare of the individual directly concerned, for the essence of civilization is found in the value placed upon human life. This is also the genius of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, upon which alone true civilization can be built.

"The Church must be as much concerned in the wages of the poor as well as in the wealth of the rich. It must see the menace to society in those who have too much, as well as in those who have too little." It must not cease its efforts to secure for every man a man's rights, until the day shall arrive when "the good of all shall indeed become each man's law."

Conference Claimants.

It is difficult to understand how tardy we are to recognize and prepare fully for the support of the retired minister. In our conference the disciplinary requirement in this particular is being disregarded and we are paying the retired minister less than 50 per cent of the required amount. It is not without reason that the conference has refrained from apportioning the full amount to the pastoral charges, possibly lest this with the apportionments for other causes shall over burden the people and the conference face serious objections on the part of the people to the full apportionment. The conditions facing the church in relation to the retired minister have been accurately set forth in a recent statement from one of our leading laymen, Mr. Marvin Campbell, which article should receive the most careful consideration of the entire church. He says, "this law, which makes adequate provision for the retired minister, was enacted in 1908, without a dissenting vote in the General Conference.... It was intended to give immediate and always reliable annuity. Eleven years have gone. More than half of the then Superannuates are dead, and never got in full what should have begun in 1908. Others are yet living and are being denied the provisions of the Discipline." But as touching the status of the retired minister in this conference, it has its peculiarities. Some few years ago we set ourselves to the task of carrying forward a campaign to raise sufficient funds to meet his needs, pledging ourselves in the agreement between the Conference Claimants' Commission and the Preacher's Aid Society, that any of the money thus secured or the interest therefrom should not be available for distribution to the retired ministers, until the various funds under the control of the conference, for this purpose, have reached an aggregate of $500,000. Of securing that amount we have fallen short in pledges of not less than $70,000. Hence large sums of money, freely given on the part of many throughout the conference, are held in abeyance, and cannot be used, or made available for the needy retired minister, because this campaign has not been completed, and the amount of money decided upon has not been realized. It surely becomes the imperative duty of this conference, before any other financial campaign is permitted to be inaugurated, to complete this campaign, that the worthy retired minister may have an adequate support, and that we may not be compelled to apportion a very much larger per cent to our people for this cause. To some, I am sure, it will be difficult to see the justice of increasing the apportionment to the charges for this item of ministerial support, while they have contributed largely to this fund, and this fund, because of its being incomplete, is withheld from the support of the retired minister. It certainly is due those who have contributed liberally to this cause, as well as the retired minister, that this campaign shall be completed at the earliest possible moment.

The Larger Program.

The influenza epidemic defeated us to a considerable extent in carrying out the full Centenary plan. The program was first to lead the people to a greater consecration, and produce a spirit of real evangelism, furnishing for us a sure basis for our financial appeal. But in this we were measurably defeated and our evangelistic effort counted for little. Perhaps we were changing God's order, which is first to bring our tithes into the store house, and thus prove and try him, and then behold the open windows.

A million souls for Christ and the Church by May next, is indeed a task stupendous and a challenge colossal. Is it possible the task of raising more than $110,000,000 is but the prelude to the larger and more significant program? The church is on tip-toe of expectancy for a larger program. Whatever may have been the results of the financial campaign the church is now deeply conscious of her own need, that to conserve what has been gained and to fit her for the part God would have her play in the great world-reconstruction task, and to direct in the new social order there must come to her an anointing of the spirit. The needs of the world in its present condition can only be met by the power of the Gospel of Christ, and that power can only be well expressed by those whose hearts have been strangely warmed by the spirit divine, setting aglow other hearts, which may now be strangely cold toward things spiritual and eternal.

A million souls in a given time is not impossible. If it may seem so, let it not be forgotten that the faith of the church laughs at impossibilities. There is nothing that can prevent it except the lack of consecration on our part. The price may seem large but we can pay it. We have paid a larger price for national conquest, and we have the price for the larger spiritual conquest.

We have the machinery. The machinery we used so successfully in the financial campaign, will now serve us well in the evangelistic campaign, if only on the part of the pastors, minute men, unit leaders, and those who compose the teams, we only have a like zeal, devotion, enthusiasm and consecration, plus the anointing of the spirit, the victory is sure and when the hour is struck, we shall be there bearing the precious sheaves.

No, from the human viewpoint the greatest encouragement does not appear. The throng it is true rushes thoughtlessly on, and the fields are white indeed. The present world condition forces this program of evangelism upon us. In this day, this is our task supreme: "Lift up your eyes and look upon the field" and while you behold, thy sensitive soul shall feel the hand of God upon thee for this purpose.

"Not ours to question why the hosts go blindly—
Enough that we may know the fields are white.
Since his coming we have seen, dare we turn back,
Unblushing walk the narrow-visioned track?
God forbid, lest we be traitors to the light."

(B) STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS

COMMITTEE ON BENEVOLENCES.

We are grateful for the success of the financial drive of the Centenary and that we have at last reached our goal of all the apportioned benevolences in full and as much for others as for ourselves. We report the following Resolutions:

1. Whereas, for a long time the Benevolent Boards of the Church have been authorized both to administer the interests of their several causes and to solicit money for the same, in consequence of which there have been overlappings and duplications of work resulting in waste of effort and resources, and whereas the authority to conduct financial campaigns still resides in each Board, thus making possible the continuance of this confusion, and whereas the success of the Missionary Centenary has demonstrated the superior utility and efficiency of uniting all financial interests in one campaign:

Resolved: that we memorialize the General Conference: to provide, first, for one Benevolent Board to have oversight of the work of the present Benevolent Board with power to eliminate conflicts of administration and duplications of effort, such Board to be chosen on a thoroughly democratic basis and in such manner as to make it as far as possible representative of the whole Church: to provide, second, for the administration of the affairs of the present Benevolent Board under separate departments of this General Board, uniting and consolidating the present Boards so far as may be consistent with efficiency of operations; to provide, third, that an auxiliary organization be created in the Annual Conference to have control and oversight of all financial campaigns for local and Conference Benevolences, unifying them as far as may be practicable with the general campaign.

2. Whereas, the large increase of formings for Benevolences places greater responsibility upon the local benevolence treasurer:

Resolved: That a report from the benevolence treasurer be required at each Quarterly Conference, and that these reports be the basis of the pastor's report to the Annual Conference.

3. Whereas, The larger plans of the General Conference on Finance, includes a closer co-operation with the annual Conference and local charges.

Resolved: That the Conference Committee on Finance be continued and that the following be elected members: S. N. Wakefield, E. H. Lugg, A. H. Flagg, C. F. Juvinall, C. S. McCollom, and C. M. Corrie.

E. J. CAMPBELL, Chairman.

J. S. SMITH, Secretary.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

We recognize the continued power and influence of the North Western Christian Advocate, as the official organ of the Conference, and the committee feels that its continued circulation will be especially needed in the new campaign into which we are now entering.

We heartily commend the strong attitude of the editor in recent issues of the paper respecting the evil of the cigarette among our soldier boys—and kindred evils.

We, likewise, endorse and rejoice in the increased usefulness of the Epworth Herald as the official organ of the Epworth League, and recommend a wider circulation of the paper among our young people.

We rejoice in the growing power and increased circulation of our Sunday School publications,—unequaled by any publications of their kind.

We also have a growing pride in the character and growth of the publications of our Book Concern,—that they are an expression of the life and thought of the Church—and most heartily recommend our people to patronize our own publications, and encourage the circulation of the same.

PHIL. J. RINEHART, Chairman.

S. R. RENO, Secretary.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE COMMISSION ON CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' CAMPAIGN FOR ENDOWMENT FUNDS.
ADOPTED BY THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE 1919.

Resolved: First—That the Conference Claimants' Commission with the powers conferred by the Conference in 1916 and re-affirmed in 1917 and 1918 be and is hereby continued;

Second—That the Commission shall provide for all necessary expenses incident to the most efficient prosecution of its work;

Third—That Henry C. Gibbs be appointed as the Field Secretary, who shall work under the direction of the Commission and be ex-officio member of the Commission;

Fourth—That Veteran's Day shall be observed in each of our Congregations on Sunday, April 17th, when special efforts shall be made to secure intelligent and hearty co-operation on the part of each Congregation, Sunday School and Epworth League in

(a)—Setting before our young men the claims of the Christian Ministry as a life work;

(b)—Securing the standard amount in pledges wherever that standard amount has not been subscribed;

(c)—The prompt payment of the pledges made, and at as early a date as possible the full payment of all installments on the pledges;

(d)—In raising not less than $500,000 over and above the standard amount which is absolutely necessary to furnish an adequate support for our Conference Claimants which has long been overdue them by the Church; and

(e)—To keep the fact before all the people that at least this additional sum of $500,000 must be raised before there can be any decrease in the amount appropriated annually to the Pastoral Charges for collection. For this purpose both the Ministers and Laymen should seek out persons who can be induced to make large gifts and bequests for our Endowment Funds, calling especial attention to our Annuity plan and the schedule of rates as published in the By-Laws of The Preachers' Aid Society;

Fifth—That beginning with Veterans' Day a campaign be inaugurated in every charge where the standard amount has not been raised and that full amount be raised by May 1, 1920.

Sixth—In order to conserve the Endowment Funds and to protect the Conference and the Church from unfaithful and inefficient men

(a)—Great care should be exercised in admitting men into the Conference;

(b)—Members of the Conference who become inefficient because of entanglements in secular affairs should be denied the Supernumerary Relation but rather should be given a certificate of location at least until such disabilities have been removed;

(c)—That the District Superintendent and the committee on Conference Relations be and are hereby requested to give the fullest examination of all requests for placing any Brother upon the Retired list, and be ready to give to the Conference upon each request the grounds upon which any recommendation for this honorary relation may be made;

Seventh—That the Conference Board of Stewards be and are hereby directed to observe the annuity principle as primary in the distribution of funds available for Conference Claimants.

B. F. SHIPP, Chairman.

M. N. ENGLISH, Secretary.

COMMITTEE ON CONFERENCE RELATIONS AND PREACHERS' AID

For the sake of greater accuracy of the records and that more perfect justice may be rendered all the claimants on the Conference Funds we move:

First—That all members of the Conference be required to file with the Board of Stewards a complete pastoral record of all items which may affect the annuity rights of present or future Conference Claimants.

And hereafter all ministers who are received into the Conference, whether from probation, by transfer or any other way, shall be required to file a similar record with the Board of Stewards.

When a brother is transferred out of the Conference it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Board of Stewards of the Conference to forward to the Secretary of the Board of Stewards of the Conference to which the brother has been transferred his complete pastoral record.

We respectfully ask in view of unprecedented cost of living and shortage of funds for our conference claimants that those who may find it possible relinquish their funds to help this fund.

We reaffirm our statement of last year with respect to the Preachers' Aid Society, which is as follows:

"In view of the fact that, by the adoption of the Report of the Commission on Conference Claimants, every member of the Illinois Conference becomes a sharer in the benefits that shall accrue from all funds secured, ultimately including the funds and endowments of The Preachers' Aid Society; and, until a large productive endowment has been secured, the funds available for annual distribution to Conference Claimants by The Preachers' Aid Society will depend in part upon the payment of annual dues by the members of the Preachers' Aid Society; therefore, be it

"Resolved, (1)—That every candidate for admission into membership of the Illinois Conference, before he is admitted into the Conference, shall be asked to pledge himself to become a member of and pay his annual dues to The Preachers' Aid Society;

(2)—That with every member of the Illinois Conference it is a matter of good faith that he become an active member of, and pay his annual dues to The Preachers' Aid Society, in the benefits of whose funds he is to share; and,

(3)—That each member of the Conference who shall be appointed to service other than that of Pastor or District Superintendent shall furnish the Secretary of the Conference the name of the position held, and the amount of salary or income received from said position."

Failure in any of the foregoing the member failing so to do shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Resolved: That the District Superintendents be instructed to report to the Conference Treasurer at the close of the First Quarter, the several amounts apportioned to charges in his District for the support of Conference Claimants, and that the Treasurer be instructed to enter these amounts in the proper column in his Annual Report.

New Plan.

While we are heartily in favor of paying all our conference claimants their full claim we find ourselves facing a practical dilemma. We are forbidden by the provisions of the Discipline to apportion less than the full annuity claim, but we are confronted by the embarrassing fact that this would be an extraordinary advance over apportionments which have already been made and placed in the budgets of many churches.

It is possible, however, to pay the full annuity next year if we may have the co-operation of the whole conference including the consent of the conference claimants to receive their claims in quarterly installments.

We recommend that the present apportionment of six per cent of the Pastor's cash salary be continued for the present year, and that we request the churches to collect these apportionments in full and to remit the amounts each quarter to W. G. Lloyd, Treasurer of the Conference Stewards.

We recommend that for next year the apportionment of the full annuity claim be ordered, that the apportionment be made on the grade plan, and credit——on such apportionment shall be given to each charge which has made a contribution to the Conference Claimants' Endowment Fund of the Conference for an amount equal to five per cent of its contribution.

We recommend, third, that beginning with the next Annual Conference Session, we pay to each Claimant his or her full annuity claim in four installments as follows: The first installment to be paid at the close of the conference session, the other three to be paid severally on the fifteenth day of the months of December, March and June.

We recommend that not later than May first, the Secretary of the Conference Stewards, send to the Commission on Finance the amount necessary to pay the full claim including a suitable allowance for possible necessitous cases; that we request the Commission on Finance to apportion this amount to the charges and to forward such apportionment to the District Superintendents; that the District Superintendents after readjusting the apportionments without altering the totals for their Districts, shall transmit the same to the Conference Treasurer, who shall enter them in the proper column in his report to the Annual Conference.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

We, your committee on Conference Relations, submit the following report:

We recommend that the relation of T. L. Hancock, W. D. McIntosh, Ira S. Haverfield be continued as supernumerary.

We recommend that the relation of H. J. Floreth and G. E. Burton be continued as supernumerary and the Secretary of the Conference notify them that action will be taken to locate him at the next conference.

We recommend that A. A. White, A. J. Jockish, T. F. Hartman and T. Lee Knotts be granted a leave of absence for one year.

We recommend that the relation of C. F. McKown, Lewis Campbell and D. H. Trimble, be changed from effective to retired.

We recommend that the request of J. C. Berry for location be not granted.

We recommend that Edwin H. Gibson be discontinued.

We recommend that the relation of E. S. Borton and Peter Kittel be changed from supernumerary to effective.

We recommend that F. T. Peters be allowed one year in which to appear before the Board of Examiners and make satisfactory arrangements with reference to the course of study and unless this be done the Conference will proceed to take action, locating him at the next Conference.

We recommend that the relation of W. F. Hunter and Wiley Johnson be changed from effective to supernumerary.

We recommend that H. S. Alkire be permitted to withdraw in order to unite with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

C. GALEENER, Chairman.

CONFERENCE DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

The Deaconess Board of Nine beg leave to report that we have carefully inquired into all matters pertaining to the work of deaconesses and deaconesses institutions within the bounds of the Illinois Conference. We find that the following persons are licensed and consecrated deaconesses under the jurisdiction of our Board, to-wit:

Mrs. Eva C. Frields, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Illinois.

Miss Bertha A. Beadles, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Illinois.

Mrs. Anna Kellogg, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Illinois.

Miss Mary Williamson, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Illinois.

Miss Corinne Calvert, Chaddock Boys' School, Quincy, Illinois.

Miss Anna Logan, San Diego, California, on leave.

Miss Emma Heverly, Center Point, Iowa.

Miss Harriet Severns, Clinton, Illinois.

Miss Mabel Millard, Appleton, Wisconsin, on leave.

Miss Mary L. Brewer, Normal, Illinois, Baby Fold.

Laura M. Bateman, Cunningham Children's Home, Urbana, Illinois.

Miss Clara Hughes, Cunningham Children's Home, Urbana, Illinois, was licensed as a Deaconess and recommended for consecration. She was consecrated Sunday, Sept. 2, 1919.

During the last year at Chaddock Boys' School they have completed Hoyt Hall, a home for twenty boys, and a new dining hall costing $15,000 is nearly completed. Last year there were applications from 300 boys. They were able to care for only seventy of them. This year the enrollment was completed long before the date of opening and the applications are still coming daily. Chaddock needs immediately a modern well equipped school building, an endowment of $500,000 and after that additional homes to accommodate one hundred and thirty boys. We recommend the plan of sustentation for Chaddock as outlined in paragraph two, page 77, in Conference Minutes of 1917, which was also agreed upon by the annual Conference of 1918.

In harmony with the action of the Methodist Deaconess Association held at Columbus, Ohio, July 3, 1919, we recommend that the General Deaconess Board of the Church in bringing about an organization which shall include all vocational women workers of the church.

We recommend the election of the following named persons as trustees of the Chaddock Boys' School:

Rev. M. N. English, Decatur, Illinois.

Rev. Parker Shields, Springfield, Illinois.

J. S. Hoyt, Augusta, Illinois.

Herman Brown, Quincy, Illinois.

J. R. Pierce, Quincy, Illinois.

Rev. W. T. Beadles, Quincy, Illinois.

Dean H. C. McPherson, Quincy, Illinois.

Miss Bertha Beadles, Quincy, Illinois.

We recommend as Visitors to Chaddock Boys' School the pastors of Vermont St. and Grace Church, Quincy, Illinois, and Rev. A. K. Byrnes, and Rev. E. G. Sandmeyer.

As members of the Deaconess Board of Nine we recommend for 1920, Mrs. H. L. Haywood, Mrs. S. A. Bullard, and Mrs. G. H. Wilson, 1921, W. H. Wilder, E. G. Sandmeyer, and A. H. Flagge, 1922, M. G. Coleman, N. M. Rigg, and C. R. Morrison.

CUNNINGHAM CHILDREN'S HOME.

This institution of which both the state and world wide Methodism may well be proud was founded at Urbana, Illinois, in 1895, mainly by the munificence of Judge J. O. Cunningham of that city. It is now housed in two well fixed buildings, one being Sheldon Hall having been made possible by Judge J. G. Sheldon, also of that city. An effort is now being made to erect a hospital building which is greatly needed to care for the children of the Home. The Institution has been aptly characterized as "A Girls' Home, W. a Boys (Small) home, a school and a Baby fold combined. A gentleman who recently inspected it spoke in terms of highest praise of it as being in every respect nearly a model home for dependent children. The Rev. X. M. Fowler and his capable wife are admirably fitted for the responsibilities of its interests. From the beginning the Home has been operated by the worthy women of the Woman's Home Missionary Society.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

We most heartily approve the general Rural program of the Church, such as is now being launched by the Rural Department of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension in effort to establish and equip rural centers in which the Church shall, in a larger way mould and direct the social, as well as the moral and religious life of the whole community. To strengthen and enhance this part of our Centenary Program our Domestic Missionary funds may be applied to make permanent this larger enterprise in the strategic and needy rural centers in our great field.

CHADDOCK BOYS' SCHOOL.

Two new Homes for Boys have been erected upon the Chaddock Campus during the past four years, costing about twenty-five thousand dollars, and a third building, a spacious dining hall, costing fifteen thousand dollars, is now in process of erection. All of the old buildings have been remodelled and repaired; physical improvements on the grounds in the way of cement walks, etc., have made it a beautiful and servicable property.

The demand for a School that furnishes home as well as school privileges is very great. The enrollment is limited only by space. Each year the applications have been more than double the accommodations. In order to care for two hundred boys there is need immediately for eight more houses, accommodating twenty boys each, and costing fifteen thousand dollars per house.

A fund of seventy-five thousand dollars has been started for a modern school building to be known as "The Mother's Memorial Building" and this should be erected at the earliest possible moment. To maintain standards in the faculty and the kind of school work needed, an endowment of five hundred thousand dollars should be procured.

Your attention is called to the fact that Chaddock has quietly and patiently stood aside for seven years for other causes, which no doubt justly demanded the field. An immediate campaign in the sense of a drive is not now contemplated. The Conference authorizes the continuance of the present arrangement by which Chaddock has the privilege of presentation in the pulpits, and that Pastors and Laymen be urged to co-operate with representatives of the school in the solicitation of gifts from those who might be friendly to the Institution.

However the right of Chaddock to a campaign at as early a date as is deemed advisable in view of the present Centenary campaign, is recognized, and should there be a combined campaign for other Institutions, that Chaddock be included in such plan.

As a Conference we request the Bishop to appoint F. B. Ward as Field Secretary of Chaddock Boys' School, and commend him to the most hearty sympathy and co-operation of our Pastors and Churches.

EDUCATIONAL REPORT.

Your committee on education submits the following report: The past year has been a very difficult one for all our Educational Institutions. The war and the high prices following the war have placed upon our institutions of learning greater burdens than they have ever had in the past. We rejoice however, in the fine reports they are able to render regardless of these embarrassing conditions.

Illinois Woman's College.

The Illinois Woman's College emphasizes its work of preparing young women for Christian service in the home and church and in every community. Its motto is "Knowledge, Faith, Service." It seeks to lead every student to a personal acceptance of Christ as Savior and Lord, and to a personal consecration of His program. Its ideal for every student is a vigorous body, a scholarly mind, a strong and purposeful character, and a personal religious experience.

The college continues to advance in its standards and equipment. It has nation wide recognition as maintaining highest college standards, and its credits are accepted at face value by all universities and colleges of the country. It is in Class A of the colleges of the Methodist Episcopal Church as classed by the University Senate. It is a recognized member of the North Central Association of Colleges. It is in the highest college list recognized by the University of Illinois and other State Universities. It is on the Recognized College List of the Illinois State Board of Education, which secures similar recognition in other states. It is a member of the Association of College Women.

The commencement of 1919 marked the passing of the Academy, or preparatory department. The college now maintains only the full college department, and accepts only students who are graduates of a four-year High School or Academy.

The need of the college for a large increase of endowment is imperative. The recent Educational Commission for Methodist Colleges in Illinois, after a careful study of the work and needs of the college and its place in the educational program of the Methodist Church, reported unanimously that the Illinois Woman's College needs now, to do its work with full efficiency, an addition of one million dollars for endowment and two hundred fifty thousand dollars for new buildings and equipment.

Until this increased endowment and equipment are secured, the college will require an annual sustaining fund of from ten thousand to twenty thousand dollars a year.

Last year's deficit, as shown by the appended report, was $7894.99. Nearly all of this has been paid by interested friends, and it is the settled policy of the trustees not to permit the accumulation of a current deficit. The college has no other liabilities.

It is earnestly hoped that the Conference will approve and support the trustees in their efforts to secure these needed funds for current sustenance and additional endowment and equipment.

The Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois.

In accordance with the action of the Illinois Conference and similar action by the Central Illinois and Rock River the askings for the Wesley Foundation were taken up into and made a part of the Centenary quota for the Conferences named. The privilege was given donors of designating gifts to the Foundation if they so desired. A goodly number have taken advantage of that opportunity.

The Trustees of the Foundation have about completed the building plans and the Social Center Building is now being figured by the contractors and the hope is that the building may be under process of construction in the very near future.

A Chair of Religious Education and Rural Leadership has been established in connection with the Foundation by the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension and Professor E. S. Boyer has been chosen to fill it. Professor Boyer had his training at Albion, Drew, and New York University. He was also overseas for a year as one of the Chaplains of the 78th Division.

Recognizing the difficulty of reaching personally the more than 1200 Methodist students Bishop Nicholson has appointed Rev. George V. Metzel to the staff of the Wesley Foundation with special responsibility for the organization and direction of the personal work among our students at the University of Illinois.

We urge the pastors of this Conference to inform their young people going to the University of the Wesley Foundation and its work and also write the Director of the Foundation giving him the names of these young people.

Rev. E. K. Towle, who has done such splendid work in the field during the past year, is to continue this coming year as Field Secretary. His work will be to develop further the natural constituency of the Foundation throughout the State of Illinois.

We affirm our conviction that the Wesley Foundation is one of the significant educational responsibilities of the Methodism of Illinois.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

The past year was quite successful, tho made more difficult on account of the World War. Thirteen sons of the University gave their lives in service of their country.

A department of Sociology and Economics was established this fall and will make possible more extensive courses. Formerly this department was united with the department of Education and Philosophy.

A wholly new department of much significance was also established beginning with the school year, that of Religious Education. This department will train young people in Religious Fundamentals, Teacher Training, and Missions both Home and Foreign. It will also furnish courses in Church history and Church methods. Dr. A. C. Piersel has been elected as the head of the department and is highly qualified for this important task. He will supervise the religious work of the school and the University will be better prepared to look after the spiritual welfare of the students than at any time in its history.

A new building has been purchased just off the campus for the College of Music and this School has now been brought in such relation to the University that its students have the privilege of chapel and all the privileges of the students of the other departments. An able corps of teachers has been procured with Dr. Edward Mason Young as the head of the department. This school is prepared to give work second to no school in the middle west. The attendance already promises to be one of the best in its history. Next commencement marks seventy years in the life of this school and the event will be observed with proper ceremonies.

Your committee recommends that any further matters pertaining to the Illinois Wesleyan be referred to the visitors of the two Conferences requesting them to bring in a report thereon at the next session or sessions of the United Conference or Conferences; provided that a report may be presented at the Joint Session of the two Conferences should it be deemed advisable by the Educational Committees of the two Conferences.

Rule of Order.

We recommend that our rule of order be amended to read: The committee on Education shall meet on the first day of the Conference session, and shall organize by electing its own chairman and secretary and such sub-committees as may be necessary, one of which shall be to make to the committee on Education nominations for trustees and visitors for our educational institutions. It shall be the duty of this sub-committee to receive from the college presidents, boards, and individuals suggestions for the various boards, and when its work is completed it shall report back to the educational committee its nominations, and when accepted by them, a list shall be posted in a conspicuous place, if possible 24 hours before presentation to the Conference. The report of the committee on Education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock A.M., on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

Banquet Committee.

We recommend that the committee to arrange for the Educational Banquet for next year shall be C. M. Duncan, E. G. Sandmeyer and W. R. Leslie.

EVANGELISM.

A million souls by June, 1920. That is the program and challenge of Methodism for next year. It thrills the blood. It fills the heart with hope. It means a great evangelistic campaign that will sweep round the world. It will touch every hamlet and village, every country church and school house where Methodism ministers. It will be the great business on hand throughout the church—a spiritual crusade. The Centenary thus far has gone beyond the dreams of most, the hopes of many, the fears of not a few. It is in a sense a miracle. But it does not, must not end now. The Centenary properly culminates in a great spiritual awakening.

The church's call to Evangelism is Providentially put forward at this time. It will be our chief business this year. We now lay plans for this program. We must begin to pray. We can only advance upon our knees. The Centenary campaign has revealed the startlingly low spiritual state of some of our churches; the need of deepening the spiritual life is felt by all. Materialism is likely to master the world if the church is not vigilant. Our youth must be called to the dedication of themselves to Christ. The masses are yeasting with unrest. The gospel is the only hope of men and nations. We, therefore, make the following recommendations for the Evangelistic campaign in the Illinois Conference the coming year.

I.—Objectives.

1. A spiritually awakened church.
2. A revival of regular church attendance.
3. A renewed sense of Christian responsibility for the winning of the unsaved.
4. A family altar and daily devotional study of the word of God in every Methodist home.
5. The winning of at least 26,000 souls for the church and Christ by Conference 1920.
6. In every community the reaching of every person for whom Methodism is responsible.
7. Every non-resident member located, and notice sent to the pastor where the member resides.
8. The prayerful enlistment of young men and women for life services.

II.—Organization.

1. It is recommended that a Conference Commission, on Evangelism be named, composed of the District Superintendents, one Minister and one Layman from each district who shall give general inspiration and direction to the evangelistic activities of the Conference throughout the year. This Commission to be named by the Cabinet.

2. That the District Superintendent be the director of the campaign within his own district. And to assist and co-operate with him, a District Commission shall be nominated by the District Superintendent and confirmed by the district meetings. This commission to be composed of at least one pastor and one Layman from each sub-district group.

3. It is further recommended that a local church commission on evangelism of from three to five members nominated by the pastor to co-operate with him in promoting the evangelistic work during the year. The Unit Leaders and Minute Men should be utilized to the largest extent in the campaign.

III.—Preparation for and Promotion of the Campaign.

To further aid and promote the evangelistic program, it is recommended:

1. That the Fall district meetings be devoted largely to a consideration of various phases of the evangelistic work leaving ample time for prayer and spiritual preparation on the part of the Ministers and Laymen attending.

2. That group and local church rallies be held in order that the great task of Methodism this year may be laid on the hearts of the people.

3. It is recommended that as far as practical the Quarterly Conference should spend as little time as possible on the routine business and give the District Superintendent opportunity to lay the church program on the hearts of the officary to secure their adoption of the plans on foot. To this end we recommend a public quarterly conference be held and that every means be used to secure a full attendance of officary and membership.

4. The responsibility for this business rests primarily on the ministry. Every preacher should strive, pray and determine with God's help he will do the work of an evangelist, and thus give full proof of his ministry. This personal responsibility can not be delegated to any one else. But it is recommended that team-work be employed among the preachers and churches of sub-district groups. Whenever necessary some men may be released from their local work for a brief time to assist in some needy field. The consent and co-operation of the Laymen in this plan should be sought.

5. First of all, the ministers must be aflame with the evangelistic passion. Each of us must tarry at some Peniel until God gives us the blessing sought. If our enthusiasm for soul-winning has cooled even one whit we must tarry at Jerusalem until we be endued with power from on high. Let us solemnly covenant with one another that we will pray daily the prayer whose answer was the mass-movement of India: "O, Lord, send a revival and begin in me for Jesus' Sake." The pulpit must ring with the evangelistic note, the minister's message must come white-hot from a heart filled with love of men.

The rank and file of the church must also be led to pray for this campaign. "To your knees, O Israel," must be the ringing challenge of the call. There are 750,000 enrolled in the Fellowship of Intercession. What if they all prayed daily for a great awakening? It would be realized speedily. The membership of the Fellowship of Intercession should be enlarged, guided and inspired to pray for the bringing of the world to Christ. Special meetings of the members of the Fellowship of Intercession are recommended and the practice of prayer among all the people stimulated. The whole membership of the church should be aroused to a renewal of personal religion, church attendance, and family worship. A passionless church means an indifferent world, while a church on her knees means a world seeking the Saviour.

6. Survey—A list of prospects should be made by every pastor and both he and his people should enter into holy compact to win them to the Master. This list should include the unconverted members of the families represented in the Church and Sunday School as well as other residents of the community. Special cases and particularly the adolescents of the Sunday School should be made objects of evangelistic effort. No year should go by without every adolescent in the Sunday School and Church receiving a personal appeal from the pastor to dedicate his life to Christ.

7. Personal Work—Personal workers, training classes should be organized to study and pray about the best ways of winning men. Our people should be encouraged to personally interview others in their own circles. Some folks can only be won by others of their set whether rich or poor, capitalist or laborer.

It is further recommended that every department of Centenary organization such as Unit Leaders, Minute Men, Stewards of Intercession, Life-Service Candidates, be utilized in this Evangelistic campaign.

IV.—Finance.

The expenses connected with the local campaign should be cared for by collections for that purpose. We believe that this will be the easiest money to raise ever attempted, when the people see the good that is being done. We also request the Board of Home Missions to assist in financing Conference and District expenses from Centenary funds devoted to the purpose of Evangelism.

V.—The Intensive Campaign.

1. October first to Easter, April 4th, should be utilized for as continuous an Evangelistic campaign as can be planned. During January special attention should be given to college and high school students.

2. It should be remembered that there are several types of Evangelism.

a. Evangelism of the personal type which can be carried on every day and every week.

b. Evangelism of the group type by the units as already organized.

c. The public Evangelistic meeting.

3. During this evangelistic year, it would be well to head up our evangelistic efforts in certain climaxes such as every Communion Service, Win-My-Chum-Week, Week of Prayer, Decision Day and Easter.

VI.—Conservation.

A definite schedule of Christian activities should be provided for all converts. Immediately upon their accepting the responsibilities of the Christian life, they should be given something to do; some work to help win others; some definite method of Bible study, and taught in the first principles of Tithing Stewardship, and thus be as rapidly as possible assimilated into the activities of the church.

HOSPITALS.

The war developed an intense humanitarian spirit throughout the world. A feeling of profound sympathy was manifested towards human suffering wherever found.

Today we appreciate the work of Christian hospitals as never before. We therefore commend all our Methodist hospitals and especially the Mattoon Memorial Hospital with its splendid equipment, its skilled surgeons and its kind and efficient nurses. This hospital deserves both our patronage and support.

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Sunday Schools.

Noting with serious thought the suggested evangelist program of the church we desire to urge upon each chapter of the Epworth League and also each organized Sunday School within the bounds of the Conference a thorough systematic planning and an enthusiastic execution of the plan to the end that each constituent young person within the parish of each pastoral charge shall be reached, persuaded to become converted, uniting with the church, the Epworth League and Sunday School and an active worker for the kingdom of the Master.

Epworth League.

Your committee has examined with much interest the report presented herewith of the 1919 Epworth League Institute and desires to state that we heartily endorse the Institute and pledge the undivided support of each pastor in the conference for the session to be held in Springfield in 1920.

We desire to present for your endorsement and election the following nominations as members of the Illinois Conference Epworth League Institute Commission for the year 1919-20.

C. R. Booth, C. C. Grimmitt, J. L. Settles, C. S. Boyd, Susan L. Buck, H. G. Corrothers, Wilbert Dowson, Earl Johnson, Merrill Faulk, W. R. Leslie, H. A. Keck, H. L. Thrall, C. V. Metzel, C. D. Butler, Ruth Maderis and A. A. Luce.

Respectfully submitted for the Commission.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

The matter referred to your committee on "The State of the Country" concerning the proposed Christian amendment to the Constitution of the United States, has received consideration, and while we sympathize with the beautiful spirit and high ideals brought to us by the Rev. J. M. Coleman, we deem it inadvisable to recommend any change at this time, owing to the heterogeneous composition of our Citizenship, and the fundamental principle of the American Government securing for all classes freedom of worship and belief.

We are profoundly grateful that the conditions no longer exist which necessitate the sending of our young men to Europe and to war, and that so many of them have been permitted to return to our shores to engage in peaceful pursuits.

We take nothing from the immortal glory of those nations which were almost bled white and which defended with their men and money the institutions of democracy, when we say, that America added the force and influence which won the war; and in that contribution we are proud to know that Methodism gave so large a share. But now that the war is over we urge our people to grapple the problems of peace with the same intense earnestness with which they prosecuted the war. Never in the history of the nation have there been such problems as now confront the American people. The times demand a strong policy. We cannot tolerate indifference, far less hostility, to our institutions. We must sacredly regard the Constitution, which Gladstone declared to be the greatest political document ever struck off by the unaided mind of man, and insist upon the brand of Americanism which is one hundred per cent. We protest against American Citizens under the protection of U. S. passports visiting Ireland claiming to represent America, but actually under such cover carrying on a propaganda for the benefit of the Roman Catholic Church.

We hail the day when complete suffrage will be conferred upon women; its promise of moral uplift and Christian idealism is a needed element in society. In the procession of events there have been few measures of greater scope and value than that known as the Prohibition Constitutional Amendment. Volumes might be written in its favor; the present and coming generations will bless the day of its birth. The victory is ours, but contested ground is before us, we must fight to make the law effective as in other fields, everlasting vigilance is necessary. The blameful cigarette habit has spread like fire in dry stubble under the guise of patriotism, while adding millions to an already bloated tobacco trust, it is the harbinger of disease and death to our boys.

Regarding the other lines of Public Morals, we mention the necessity of better and more harmonious laws covering marriage and divorce, the vicious use of narcotic and other drugs, and dealing with venereal diseases. We urge the completion of the headquarters building at Washington, endorse the administration of Dr. Clarence T. Wilson and his associates, pledging co-operation and financial support, recommending the adoption of World's Temperance Sunday, November 2, 1919. The book concern will publish a suitable program.

We recommend sending by Conference Endorsement and Authority the following petition:

To the Congress of the United States, Care Honorable.....
House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

The Illinois Annual Conference in its 95th annual session, Charleston, Illinois, September 19, 1919, representing 97,000 church members and a constituency of 485,000 members and with 300,000 voters of Illinois, earnestly request the speedy enactment of a law which will deny to any and all citizens of the United States, the diplomatic, military, marine or naval protection of the United States who shall engage in the manufacture, sale or distribution of alcoholic liquors for beverage purposes, in Mexico, China, or any other foreign country.

Signed.....

Anti-Saloon League.

We recognize the Anti-Saloon League as the most potential agent in the execution of John Barleycorn, as it is "The Church in Action against the Saloon." Under its leadership fierce battles have been fought and great victories won, culminating in National Constitutional Prohibition which is to give us a saloonless nation and a stainless flag. But while we have outlawed the traffic, we now have the bigger job of downing the outlaw. We are in full sympathy with the League's plans and purposes to fully enforce our laws, and to extend that sort of Christian Civilization to all the other nations until we have a dry world. We will welcome representatives of the League to hold services in our churches.

We recommend for Headquarters committee Dr. Chris Galeener and Dr. T. N. Ewing, T. E. Lyon and Dr. Joseph R. Harker.

We heartily commend the effort to secure the greatest possible activity in a nation-wide movement for the bettering of the relations between the white people and the Negroes, and for the development of a satisfactory program to meet the present Negro situation, realizing that the problem is a national one of great moment. We deplore the disregard and profanation of the Sabbath and call upon our people everywhere to a stricter observance of the day in accordance with the Commandment to "remember the Sabbath day and keep it holy."

CONFERENCE BOUNDARY.

Action of Central Illinois Conference.

Canton, Illinois, September 15, 1919.

To the Illinois Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:—The following is a transcript of the Journal touching matters relating to the boundary line between the Illinois and the Central Illinois Conferences.

Thursday, September 11, 1919.

Order of the Day:

The report of the Committee on Conference Boundaries was taken up. J. W. Ferris presented the following report:

Realizing in the language of our District Superintendents that an acute situation exists between the Central Illinois Conference and Illinois Conference pertaining to the College situation, and the logical boundary line between the Conferences,

Therefore be it resolved:

1. That we the Central Illinois Conference in regular session assembled do hereby request that the boundary line between the aforesaid Conferences be lifted and a union effected by the General Conference next May.

2. That if this action does not meet the approval of the Illinois Conference that we, the Central Illinois Conference, memorialize the General Conference to that end that thereby a readjustment be effected of the boundary lines in the interest of the border charges, and also in the interest of Hedding College, and that a committee be appointed to meet this contingency if it arises.

J. H. RYAN, Chairman.

J. W. FERRIS, Secretary.

W. E. SHAW,

SAMUEL VAN PELT,

H. M. BLOOMER,

J. F. ROBINSON.

J. H. Ryan explained by chart the reason for the suggested changing of the boundary line. On motion of J. T. Jones the speakers were limited to 10 minutes. The following brethren took part in the discussion, D. S. McCown, W. E. Bradburn, J. F. Robinson, Alfred Dixon, T. E. Newland, H. M. Bloomer, R. A. Brown, G. R. Palmer, and W. W. Bollinger.

On motion of J. F. Robinson the report was adopted by a standing vote. The vote on the first paragraph was 95 for and 43 against. The second paragraph by 127 for and none against. The report as a whole was adopted.

T. E. Newland moved that the resolution touching the union of the Conferences be referred to the Committee on General Conference Memorials with the request that it shall present these Memorials in form to the Conference. The motion was adopted.

T. E. Newland moved that the chair appoints a committee of from five to nine to represent our actions before the coming Session of the Illinois Conference. The motion prevailed.

The following committee was appointed to present the matter of boundary line to the Illinois Conference:

W. E. Shaw, S. P. Archer, J. W. Ferris, F. E. Shult, S. Van Pelt, J. H. Ryan, T. E. Newland, J. T. Jones, C. F. W. Smith. Later H. M. Bloomer and J. F. Robinson, having been members of the Commission at the Conference of 1918, were added to the committee.

Monday, September 15, 1919.

Conference Boundaries:

C. E. Hawkins presented the further report on General Conference Memorials relative to Conference Boundaries, as follows:

1. Be it resolved that we, the Central Illinois Conference, in regular Session assembled, do hereby memorialize the General Conference of 1920 to lift the boundary line between the Illinois and the Central Illinois Conferences, and effect the Union of the aforesaid Conference.

2. Be it resolved that we, the Central Illinois Conference, in regular Session assembled, do hereby memorialize the General Conference of 1920 to the end that they, in the interest of Hedding College and in justice to our border charges, do hereby make a readjustment of the Conference boundaries between the Illinois and the Central Illinois Conferences.

On motion of E. F. Roe, both Memorials were approved with the understanding that if the Illinois Conference concurs in the first, then we memorialize the General Conference to lift the boundary and unite the two Conferences; otherwise we memorialize the General Conference to readjust the boundary in accordance with the second Memorial.

On motion of W. P. MacVey, the Committee was authorized to select from their number a sub-committee of five which shall serve as the Commission as required by the Discipline Paragraph 496, and W. E. Shaw, T. E. Newland, C. F. W. Smith, J. H. Ryan, and J. T. Jones were appointed.

Canton, Illinois, September 15, 1919.

I hereby certify that the above is a correct copy of the actions taken by the Central Illinois Conference at its 64th Session concerning the question of boundary line between the Illinois and Central Illinois Conferences.

Signed: JOSIAH B. BARTLE,

Secretary of Central Illinois Conference,
Canton, Illinois.

Action of the Illinois Conference.

Your commission on boundaries having heard the representations from the commission of the Central Illinois Conference and having had a consultation with them concerning all the questions involved beg leave to present the following report:

On examination we find the proposition for a removal of the boundary between the two Conferences beset with very grave difficulties.

First: This Conference will make an exceptionally large body. Its total membership including the addition of laymen which we may confidently expect will make a body considerably larger than the General Conference. While a full attendance is not to be expected, we may be sure of a number approaching that of the General Conference.

Second. Such a body will be somewhat difficult of entertainment and in only a few places shall we be able to find an auditorium of sufficient capacity to accommodate it.

Third: There is the further difficulty of the multiplication of our problems, as we shall add the distinct problems of the Central Illinois Conference to those which we now have.

Fourth: There is the danger of the formation of factions through the tendency of so large and unwieldy a body to break up into small contending groups.

Fifth: It will be impossible in such large numbers of men separated over such wide distances to cultivate that acquaintance throughout the Conference, resulting in a closeness of general fellowship which contributes to the unity of the body.

Sixth: The tendency is that a Conference produces usually about the same number of leaders, whether the body be large or small. The consequence is that such a considerable increase in the membership of the Conference will be a curtailment of opportunities for the development of leadership.

Seventh: We feel it necessary to advise the Conference that there is a probability that such action will not be absolutely final, but that the future adjustments of our boundary line are likely to be called for on both the Northern and Southern Borders, and while this proposed action does not necessarily involve any such readjustment it will not necessarily prevent it.

On the other hand we find that the proposed removal of boundary will be attended with certain very important and manifest advantages which we ought to set forth.

One: If we do not accede to the proposition for the removal of boundaries they have already declared their purpose to ask the General Conference for a readjustment of boundaries, asking for the transfer to that Conference of the whole line of charges on the Lake Erie and Western Railroad running from Hoopeston to Bloomington.

Two: There will be the advantage of affording the members of the two Conferences a wider range of Conference acquaintance with a consequent multiplication of points of contact.

Three: There will be greater momentum in our own Conference enterprises as a result of the increased enthusiasm arising from larger numbers and more important interests.

Four: There will be greater impact upon movements within the general Church resulting from the force of our greatly increased number, and producing a correspondingly greater influence in world problems.

Five: There will be the advantage of common aims and interests to bind together in one body our whole constituency.

Six: We have a great similarity in types of communities, churches, pastors, and problems.

Seven: We shall derive great advantage from the reciprocal influence between the two Conferences of superior achievements. The Central Illinois Conference exceeds our own in its care for hospital interests in its development of rural work, in its standard of Ministerial Salaries, and in its provision for the care of Conference claimants, while we think that we have the better of them in our contributions for educational institutions and for the General Benevolences of the Church.

Eight: The union of the two Conferences will contribute to greater ease and flexibility of administration especially in the matter of appointments. The adjustment of appointments is easier in proportion to the number and variety of appointments involved. Furthermore, there is in each Conference a considerable block of appointments of a certain grade complemented by what might be called an adjoining block of appointments of slightly different grade in the other.

Nine: The removal of the boundary would be attended by a possible unification of our education interests, both as to the governing body having final power of control and to the patronizing constituency upon which we must depend for support.

After having given due weight and careful consideration to both the advantages and the disadvantages of the proposed union and fully recognizing the fact that they are closely balanced, it is the deliberate opinion of your committee that the importance of the unification of our educational interests is so vital as to incline the scale in favor of the proposed union.

We therefore recommend that the invitation of the Central Illinois Conference be accepted and that proper steps be taken for realizing the proposed union.

We recommend, however, that instead of the proposed plan we can proceed more safely under paragraph 496 of the Discipline, and we therefore recommend the appointment of a commission of five to co-operate with a similar commission which has already been appointed for that purpose, by the Central Illinois Conference.

Supplementary.

We recommend the continuance of the present commission of nine to co-operate with the commission from the Central Illinois Conference to ascertain what action may be necessary with reference to all our educational and Eleemosynary Institutions as to charter provisions and Conference obligations and relationships and to report the same to the two Conferences operating in joint session when such session shall be called and in view of the fact that the laymen are as vitally interested as are we, it is further recommended that the two Lay Electoral Conferences be invited to participate in the proposed joint session.

That when we adjourn it is to meet on the call of the chairman and we recommend that the Conference be called as soon as possible after a conclusion of the work of the Joint Committee appointed to operate under paragraph 496.

We recommend (1) that the commission of nine on boundaries be named by the district superintendents; and (2) that they designate five of that number as the committee of five under Paragraph 496 of the Discipline, including therein one of their own number.

REPORT OF THE PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE, SEPTEMBER, 1919.

(By the President, Wm. H. Wilder.)

BRETHREN: This is the hour of our greatest hope for reaching the goal set in 1915 by the Annual Conference and forty years ago by the Preachers' Aid Society, that is adequate funds for the fulfillment of the promise made unto us in the beginning that the retired minister should have "a comfortable support," which promise was defined and legalized by the General Conference of 1908.

Since launching the Campaign by the Conference Claimants' Commission in 1915, the Preachers' Aid Society has had no special agent in the field but has given its full influence in aid of the Commission. We wish to record the fact that the Field Agent, H. C. Gibbs, however, has never lost an opportunity to do good unto the society.

For the greater part of the working months of the last year, the centennial has engrossed all of us. Of course the Field Secretary gave way and gave his best energies to the centennial drive. Nevertheless the reports from the Secretaries and the Treasurers show a very gratifying increase in our funds, as may be seen from the following summary:

SUMMARY OF INVESTED FUNDS.

Assets of The Preachers' Aid Society as per Treasurer's Books.

	$24,106.01
Less amount reserved for distribution.....	1,386.01	$ 22,720.00
GRAND TOTAL		$329,808.11

If to the Grand Total of invested funds we add $114,590.24 of unpaid pledges, the grand total resources are $444,398.35.

Not until these funds amount to $500,000.00 can the interest from the funds of the Commission be distributed to Claimants.

You should know that each one of the four men who handle at any time any of these funds is under bond sufficient to safeguard against any possible loss, and no men have been more faithful or conscientious in the discharge of their trusts than have been H. C. Gibbs, Wm. G. Cathcart, A. M. Wells, and Hiram Buck Prentice. You should also know that the expense of the care of these funds and their proper application is only about one third of one per cent. This record of expense will compare very favorably with that made by any trust fund managers. Mention of these matters is made in this report for the reason that under the contract between the Annual Conference in its corporate capacity and the Preachers' Aid Society also incorporated, the Preachers' Aid Society was made the custodian of these funds and the Board of Control was made the custodian of the funds raised by the Commission. We may also mention the fact that the interest accruing each year on the special fund is by that contract to be added annually to the principal until the endowment funds shall have aggregated $500,000.00. This means that pledges must be paid and they and property must become productive. It may be well to remind you also that one of the duties of the Commission appointed in 1915 and continued ever since was that the Commission should seek to increase the collections as well as to raise the permanent funds until such funds would relieve the churches in the amounts asked of them annually. Little in this direction has been done except a stimulation in raising the amounts apportioned. The amount asked from the Churches still falls far short of that required to pay the minimum legal claim.

Has not the hour come? Even in the midst of the all-engrossing centennial drive the "Forgotten Man" has not been wholly forgotten. While it was on one brother wrote Brother Gibbs a $10,000.00 order for the Preachers'

Aid Society. Has not the time come when we as ministers should face squarely both the facts and the law touching the claims of retired ministers and wives and minor children? Not long since our honored and honorable Board of Bishops pronounced this ruling in effect that "No Conference has the disciplinary right to vote to ask from the Churches for Conference Claimants a less amount than is necessary to meet the full Annuity claim," Discipline P-341, 1. Hitherto this conference has been derelict if not guilty. By the expedient of borrowing Five Thousand Dollars last year, the Conference was enabled to disburse barely thirty-six per cent of the claim due our Claimants. It is said that "the full claim cannot be collected and therefore why injure the cause by inviting repudiation by the laymen?" Dr. Joy, editor of the N. Y. Advocate, said recently that such a plea had been shelved by the centennial. Is Dr. Joy correct? Hear what one of these loyal laymen said and put in print over his own signature not long ago. I refer to Marvin Campbell, an active member of the General Board as well as an active member of the Commission that framed the law of the church. He wrote:

"The promises of our great Church should be sacred, that is, the promise of our Church should be as good as its bond. Paragraph 336 places upon the ministers of an annual conference the responsibility of making these promises good, but they do not meet the responsibility. They do not make the apportionments.

"What would we say of civil officials who levy a tax only sufficient to pay forty-four per cent of firemen's annuities, or teacher's annuities? What we say of industrial corporations that would pay only forty-four per cent of the annuities promised to those who should remain to old age in their service? With what consistency can we criticise mayors or police chiefs or civil administrators of any kind for ignoring law if as a great Church we continue to disregard a law so studiously enacted, so plainly written and so just? The legal claim will be paid in full if the annual conference make the apportionments that our law says they shall make.

"I commend and glory in the efforts for a greater endowment, but the income will not be in time for the now superannuate. He must have it from the budget as provided by the law or he must do without."

May the words of this godly layman who acts as he advocates, who practices as he preaches, sink into our hearts and minds and be properly digested and assimilated. Personally I know that he was one of the last men on the commission that framed the law of the Church on this question to consent to all its provisions. I know of none who has been truer to its provisions. Again we have the roll call of the men and the women who this past year lived in hope but died not receiving the promise. May the day be past when any from this Conference shall be compelled to go home without having seen the promise of the Church to them fulfilled.

Again Brethren, I say, has not the time come? Shall we not seriously orient ourselves on this whole question, lay aside pride of opinion and distrust of the Churches and face the facts as they are, consider the rights of our Claimants who can no longer work at our side in these days of better salaries and of as high a cost of living to them as to us and carry out the provision of the Law of the Church we love?

Finally, if tender consideration of the willingness of our laity should cause any one of us to hesitate, may it not be a duty, if not, certainly, a kindness to our brethren on the retired roll, lay the facts before the Lay Electoral Conference and call attention to the provisions of the law? Would they not welcome a statement of facts from us as ministers? Then surely these laymen would either aid us in fulfilling the law or proceed to seek such amendments as to relieve us and them from our present embarrassing situation of appearing as declining to carry out the order of the Church relating to the support of the ministry whereby the honored men alone of all classes of the ministry are made to suffer. We must not forget that the promise of the Church to these men and women is now worth only thirty-six cents on the dollar, while the claim of every other minister, whether bishop, district superintendent, pastor or agent is worth one hundred cents on every dollar.

Respectfully submitted,
WM. H. WILDER.

PUBLICATION OF MINUTES.

Resolved that the Secretary of the Conference, F. B. Madden, be authorized to edit the Minutes, and that he and T. B. Wright, the publisher, have sole responsibility for the editing and publication of the Minutes.

Be it resolved also that these brethren be instructed to go to press with copy at the expiration of ten days after adjournment of Conference and that all material not ready by that time be left out of the Minutes and responsibility therefor be indicated in the publication.

Resolved, further, that to every pastoral charge a number of Minutes be apportioned of one copy for each $100.00 of salary and major fraction of $100.00, including house rent, and that the publisher of the Minutes be instructed to send C. O. D. the assigned quota of Minutes to each active member and supply within the bounds of the Conference.

Committee: A. M. Wells, Joseph C. Nate, Eugene M. Autrim, T. N. Ewing, T. B. Wright, C. F. Juvinall.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS.

Twenty years have passed since we last met in the delightful city of Charleston and we are glad to again accord our delight in passing a week among her people.

We express our heartiest appreciation to our local pastor, brother E. G. Sandmeyer, and his church, for the cordial reception and fine arrangements for our comfort among them.

Of the fine manner our host and hostess have opened their homes for our entertainment and comfort during our stay in their city.

To our sister churches for their kindness and brotherly spirit in opening their places of worship for our use and their pulpits for our pastor.

We heartily accord our highest appreciation for the brotherly and helpful manner our beloved Bishop Nicholson has presided over our Conference and the inspirational addresses that have so stirred our hearts, and gladly assure him that he will always find a welcome among us.

To the special General Conference representatives that have brought to us messages so replete with information and good cheer in the work of our beloved church at large.

To our Centenary workers both laymen and pastors that have done so much to make this great movement a success.

To Dr. E. C. Warring, editor of the Western Christian Advocate, who has brought to us a most timely message in presenting the Evangelistic Methods of Jesus in view of the great spiritual campaign of the coming year. We hope Dr. Warring may visit our Conference again.

We also record our debt of gratitude to the local press for the fine manner in which they have opened their columns in reporting our Conference.

The National Trust and Savings Bank of Charleston for the assistance they have given us in allowing us to use their facilities in handling the finances of our Conference.

We are under great obligations to our own Brother W. S. Phillips, who with his usual ability and enthusiasm, has conducted the singing of our Conference. This feature adds very greatly to the spirit and inspiration of our Conference sessions and we emphatically express our appreciation of the faithfulness and efficiency of Brother Phillips. This year we have had the added delight of having Brother J. A. Betcher, who has so ably presided at the organ. Our Conference is especially fortunate in having the services of these two talented Brothers.

F. A. McCARTY, President.
LEO HOWARD, Secretary.

SCHOOL, QUINCY, ILLINOIS.

Quincy, Illinois, June 4, 1919.

Report of the general financial condition and condensed statement of the Treasurer of Chaddock Boys' School from June 4, 1918, to June 4, 1919.

RESOURCES:

Capital Account:

Building and Grounds $100,000.00

Endowment Account:

On deposit subject to check as per Treasurer's Book, Illinois State Bank of Quincy, Quincy, Illinois.....$	276.49
Loan authorized by the Executive Board on farm land at 5½%	1,500.00
160 acres of land set aside to the Endowment Fund by the Executive Board, known as the Asay Farm.	32,000.00	33,776.49

Building Account:

On deposit subject to check as per Treasurer's Book, Illinois State Bank of Quincy, Quincy, Ill.....	2,782.25	2,782.25
---	----------	----------

General Account:

Real estate in north part of the city known as the Skinner Lots	400.00
Cash on hand in the General Account as per Treasurer's Book of June 4, 1919	1,501.39	1,901.39

Farm Account:

On deposit subject to check as per Treasurer's Book, Illinois State Bank of Quincy, Quincy, Illinois, June 4, 1919	132.14	132.14
--	--------	--------

Endowment and Building Pledges:

In this account we have in signed pledges considered by your Executive Board as being good—endowment	336.66
And in building	5,217.37
The last two amounts named are not taken into consid- eration in the Resources at the present time.

Total Resources	$138,592.27
-----------------------	--------------

LIABILITIES:Liability Account:

Indebtedness on real estate purchased from T. C. Poling—balance		$ 8,000.00
Note to the Illinois State Bank of Quincy, money borrowed to complete building		6,500.00
Note to the Illinois State Bank of Quincy, money borrowed for general purposes in conduct of the School in 1917		2,500.00
Note to the Illinois State Bank of Quincy, money borrowed for the purpose of paying a proportional part on contract with Emery Lancaster in the managing of the farm		1,000.00
Note to E. V. Moorman, money borrowed for buildings		4,500.00
Note to the Ricker National Bank, Quincy, Illinois, against unpaid pledges not listed in the Resources above		1,100.00
Note to the State Savings Loan & Trust Co., Quincy, Illinois, against unpaid pledges not listed in the Resources above		1,350.00
Total Liabilities		24,950.00
Excess in Resources over Liabilities		$113,642.27

This does not include the unpaid pledges above referred to, and the Trustees have reason to believe that there is quite a large equity in the Asay farm above what it is at present appraised at.

IX. Plan of Conference Examinations

CONFERENCE STUDIES.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Chairman—C. D. Robertson, Homer.

Registrar—R. L. Steed, Saybrook.

Examiners—C. M. Barton, A. K. Byrns, T. N. Ewing, F. A. Havighurst, E. A. Hedges, E. H. Lugg, R. F. McDaniel, W. A. Smith, R. L. Steed, W. R. Leslie, P. C. Sommerville, E. L. Tobie, H. W. McPherson, C. F. Juvinal, G. V. Metzel, E. G. Sandmeyer, C. W. Hamand, A. L. Caseley, J. E. Evans, E. S. Combs, J. A. Biddle, H. S. Jackson.

RULES OF THE BOARD.

With Plan of Examinations for 1917-18.

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners by the chairman. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District, as may be determined by the chairman. They shall be in charge of District Supervisors designated by the chairman, and, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the chairman shall arrange with a member of the conference as special supervisor for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed supervisor, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

As early in the conference year as possible all applicants for admission on trial shall send to the chairman of the board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the chairman. All such candidates may take their examinations as above.

4. The examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Registrar of the Board three different sets of questions, 90 days or more before the examinations take place in June. The Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time in the hands of the district supervisors for all examinations, both regular and special. Set No. 1 shall be used in the first examination; set No. 2 for all who fail at the first trial; and set No. 3, "doubly difficult," for all who postpone the examinations until the day before the Conference session.

5. Before the examination in June the Registrar will supply the supervisors with questions on the entire course of study.

6. Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study, or to appear for examination, shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time of examination. And in case of such failure to pass, the registrar of the board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the board.

7. Examiners shall report grades on all papers to the registrar within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the conference to the chairman of the board. Such appeals shall be decided by the board at their annual conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for prepayment.

8. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

9. The examination questions shall conform to the requirements of the Commission on Conference Courses of Study and the markings on both examinations and collateral reading shall be upon the scale and according to the method established by the Commission, and no mark below 70 per cent shall pass.

10. All credits from Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the chairman of the board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the annual conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. All grades from whatsoever source, other than those given by the conference examiners, shall be designated by the letter "P", as an indication of passing grade, which neither adds to nor detracts from the general average of the undergraduate.

11. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, including the applicants for admission on trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the board. This fee shall be paid to the registrar of the board within thirty days after the adjournment of the conference session, for which the registrar shall furnish receipt. District supervisors are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. The financial accounts of the Registrar shall be audited by the board at their annual conference meeting.

12. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the chairman and registrar of the board.

13. It shall be the duty of the chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the board of examiners; and it shall be the duty of the board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant. District superintendents are requested to report to the chairman of the board of examiners, all candidates for admission on trial or from other churches, and candidates for admission into full membership, and for recognition of orders, at least thirty days before Conference, or as soon thereafter as possible, concerning the applicants, with references, that the chairman may have ample time to investigate.

14. It shall be the duty of district superintendents to report to the chairman of the board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

15. The annual meeting of the board of examiners shall be held at the seat of the annual conference at 2 o'clock p. m., on the day preceding the opening of the session, to consider matters involved in Rule 14, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the ensuing year. Examinations for those who are eligible shall be conducted on the same day, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m., and closing at 6:00 p. m.

16. "Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success, will be conferred at each annual conference upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively; but no one can be "Honor Man" who shall not have done at least 50 per cent of his work under this board, or whose standing in the course of study is irregular.

Examinations deferred to the day before Conference will be doubly rigid, and no examination will be given after 6 p. m. on day preceding Conference.

17. All examination papers shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipt for the same shall be brought to the chairman at the seat of the Conference.

18. The Board will deduct 10 per cent or less on each paper in which the spelling, grammar, writing or general execution is slovenly, deductions being made on each of these points. On all written work not in before August 15th, a reduction of 5 per cent, and after September 1st, 10 per cent, will be made from the grades. All written work must be within the required limits, or deductions will be made.

Undergraduates will give especial attention to paragraph 599, Sec. 1, of the Discipline of 1916.

COURSE OF STUDY

Assignment of Studies for the year 1917-18.

Of the following studies, those having the letter "J" prefixed are the subjects for examination at the first mid-year district period, the first Tuesday in June. The written work is to be sent in before that time.

The studies and written work having the letter "A" prefixed are assigned to the second period, the first Tuesday in August.

Memoirs.

MRS. H. C. ADAMS.

Flora A. Ross, daughter of Lieutenant John W., and Harriet Ross, was born in Palmyra, Illinois, September 27, 1843. Her father fell while leading his regiment the second day of the battle of Shiloh, in the civil war. After her father's death with her family she removed to Lincoln, Illinois. She gave her heart to God in childhood, became a devoted Christian, and united with the Congregational church, of which her parents were members. She was married September 12, 1865, to Rev. H. C. Adams, of the Rock River Conference. She at once became a loyal Methodist and the faithful wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher, than whom no minister of the gospel ever had a more devoted helper in every phase of the work incident to so high a calling, including all her husband's revival campaigns in which she was a successful soul winner. Her knowledge of, and her love for, the great and enduring hymns of the church, together with a special gift of song, especially extended her influence widely among the people. She served with her husband in the Seneca and Ellwood Charges, Rock River Conference, and after 1867 in the following charges in the Illinois Conference: Taylorville, Lincoln Circuit, Saybrook, Mahomet, Potomac, Williamsville, Griggsville Circuit, Payson, Quincy Circuit, Waynesville, Mason City, M'Lean, Cerro Gorodo, Waverly, Philo, and Savoy. After super-annuation in 1893, they lived in their own home near Champaign. He served as a supply in White Heath, and finally retired in 1894, rising to coronation the fall of 1899. Since then she has been waiting for release for her crowning, also, waiting as one of the almost "forgotten" heroes of the holy war, the widow of a deceased member of this Conference, who was also a volunteer in the service of his country.

Six children were born to her, Ella, and Henry Clay, Jr., dying in infancy; while the survivors are, Mrs. J. A. Bates, and Minnie, of Champaign; Mrs. I. E. Hess, Philo; and Rev. A. C. Adams, Kansas, Illinois. One brother, C. E. Ross, still lives, at Lincoln, Illinois. To her children who grew to maturity, she was the wise, patient, loving mother, to the end, which came June 20, 1919. They have a rich inheritance in her memory. Dr. Keck conducted her funeral services, and her remains were buried beside those of her husband in Mt. Hope cemetery.

Mrs. Adams was a womanly woman, even before she became a minister's true companion and helper, and grew more noble and queenly still through all her subsequent years. She has gone to a rich and sweet reward, rendered all the sweeter by the fact that she leaves a son and successor as one of God's servants who has taken up the work of the ministry where his faithful father and mother left it off, and is helping in a capable and worthy way to carry it forward toward a glorious completion.

MRS. JOHN W. CRANE.

Mrs. Amanda H. Crane was born in Orange County, New Jersey, September 23, 1846, and died in her home in Decatur, Illinois, November 17, 1918, aged 72 years. She was the wife of the Rev. John W. Crane, a member of the Illinois Conference since 1872.

Sister Crane's closing years have been burdened with afflictions which were heavy to bear. She suffered much from rheumatism and finally lost her hearing entirely. But through it all she showed the devout spirit of a child of God, and never lost her hope or her happiness.

She was married to the Rev. John W. Crane in Valparaiso, Indiana, September 1, 1870, and for more than 48 years they lived happily together.

Three children were born to this union of whom but one remains. Her son, Jesse, had died just three days previous to the death of his mother, in a hospital in Chicago, and had been brought back to Decatur for burial. While he lay in repose waiting for his funeral service in the afternoon, his beloved mother passed out of this life that same forenoon, not conscious that her son had been brought home for burial. But together in the better land they greeted each other.

Sister Crane joined the Methodist Episcopal Church very early in life and was well prepared as the help meet of her husband in the work of the ministry. As long as her health permitted she served with efficiency and joy. But the day of breaking health came and the husband was forced to retire to care for his companion. The family located permanently in Decatur, where all became identified with the Grace Methodist Episcopal Church. This was in 1886 since which time sister Crane has suffered much and waited patiently the coming of the chariot.

The loving care of husband and devoted daughter were hers through the days of suffering. She appreciated this to the full. The occasional calls of her pastors were seasons of joy to her from first to last.

The funeral took place from the home, 1299 West Macon Street, Decatur, Illinois, and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. N. M. Rigg, assisted by the District Superintendent, Dr. M. N. English. She was laid to rest in the beautiful Greenwood Cemetery of Decatur.

MRS. ERNEST J. CAMPBELL.

Mrs. Edith Eunice Campbell, wife of Ernest J. Campbell, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Maroa, Illinois, died at the parsonage home, October 10, 1918, of bronchial pneumonia following influenza. Mrs. Campbell was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Hobson, of Greenfield, Illinois, and was born at Girard, Illinois, September 23, 1890.

She attended the country school near Greenfield and also Blackburn Academy and University at Carlinville, Illinois. At the age of twelve years she was converted under the ministry of Rev. W. W. Henry.

June 8, 1910, she was united in marriage to Rev. Ernest J. Campbell in Asbury Church, on the Greenfield Circuit, of which he was the pastor. To them a son, Robert, now a manly lad of seven years, was born.

Her married life was spent in the parsonage homes of the following charges of which her husband was pastor: Greenfield Circuit, Merritt, Waverly, Latham, and Maroa. Among the people of each of these communities Mrs. Campbell made a large place for herself. She was a woman of a beautiful Christian character, a fine disposition, rare tact and good judgment, which made her a help meet indeed to her husband. In every charge she left a lasting impression for good. The grief of her immediate family is shared by all who knew her.

In addition to husband and son, her parents, two sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Lucie M. Skeen, of Carlinville, Illinois, Lieut. Harold H. Hobson, U. S. A., Miss Gwendolyn, and Richard Hobson, of Greenfield, Illinois, survive her.

Funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church at Maroa, October 11, 1918, in charge of Rev. M. N. English, Superintendent of Decatur District, assisted by neighboring pastors. Short services and interment took place at Asbury cemetery near Greenfield, October 13, in charge of Rev. W. W. Henry, of Greenfield.

U. M. CREATH.

Ulysses Morton Creath was born at Benham, Indiana, July 31, 1865, the son of Richard and Sarah Jane Creath. His education was obtained in the Indiana public schools, with college work at Purdue University the University of Kentucky, and Moores Hill College. Bro. Creath was admitted to the Northwest Indiana Conference in 1899, and subsequently served the Charges, Door Village, Rolling Prairie, Rossville, North Liberty, Waveland, and Royal Center. He then transferred to the Indiana Conference in which he served Park Chapel, Evansville, Clarksburg, and Arlington. His interest in the home missions field led him to transfer in the fall of 1913 to the Wyoming State Conference, where he had an unusually successful pastorate at Basin City, Wyoming. In December, 1916, he was transferred to the Illinois Conference in which he has served at Oakwood and Fithian.

Bro. Creath had entered upon his work at Fithian this Conference year with great earnestness and with increasing success. His work was especially effective in the up-building of the Sunday School, and in a complete reorganization of the financial affairs of the Charge. In recognition of his useful services, the Quarterly Conference advanced the salary to its highest point in the history of the Charge. When the Centenary came, he took that great endeavor upon his heart with thorough consecration and zeal, and his achievement in bringing his Charge through for that cause, financially and in all other respects, against conditions fairly to be regarded as unusually difficult, was one of the outstanding victories of his District for the Centenary. Just at the culmination of the financial campaign, Bro. Creath was suddenly stricken with a most serious condition of appendicitis, an ailment from which he had suffered upon former occasions. An operation was performed at Lake View Hospital, Danville, on June 3, and the best of surgical and medical attention was his, but in vain. He lingered until Monday, June 9, when he passed away.

At the request of Bro. Creath, he was buried at Fithian, the field of his last earnest labors for the Kingdom. The services were in charge of Dr. C. F. Buker, First Church Danville, who also represented the Champaign-Danville District in the absence at the time of the Superintendent in the South. Dr. G. E. Scrimger of Oakwood, and Rev. J. D. Shouse, Danville, assisted in the services, as did also the Ladies Quartet of the Fithian Church and the Boy Scouts of the village whom he had happily served as Scout Master.

Bro. Creath was married November 5, 1896, to Miss Lula May Ricketts of Rising Sun, Indiana, who survives him. There also survives a brother, William A. Creath, of the Treasury Department at Washington, D. C. He will ever be remembered by his associates as a noble spirit, full of the joy and zest of life, and consecrated to all his work for the Kingdom. In all of his pastorates he showed himself approved unto God, a workman who needeth not to be ashamed. And it was his joy that in his final work, at Fithian, the Centenary victory was such as would perpetuate his loyal and devoted ministry for his Lord—forever.

W. W. DRAKE.

Warren W. Draken entered upon his everlasting inheritance March 10, 1919, at Lincoln, Illinois. He was born near Topeka, Illinois, January 23, 1867. His parents were Baptists who came to Illinois from New Jersey. There being no church of their denomination near, they attended the nearest Methodist Church. There were nine children in the family. The testimonies of God's saving grace which Warren heard were the means of his conversion.

It was in one of these meetings, when twelve years old, that he arose and declared his faith in Jesus Christ. That fall on that charge the pastor reported one conversion. That convert was Warren W. Drake. He attended the country school and then the normal school at Valparaiso, Indiana, graduating from both the teacher's and the scientific courses, teaching meanwhile to help pay expenses. Somewhere along those years he heard the call to preach. He believed profoundly in it. On August 9, 1888, he was married to Miss Abbie Mount, who gladly shared with him the toils and triumphs of the Methodist itinerant. He was admitted on trial into the Illinois Conference in the fall of 1891. That was a conference session which marked a new era in the lives of many preachers. Dr. S. A. Keen led the four o'clock meetings. For nearly twenty years this man with the heart of a true shepherd labored. The Lord of Harvest crowned his labors with abundant success. In three different charges new churches arose as testimonies of his faith and labor, at Literbury, Griggsville and Owaneco. The church at Owaneco, built under trying circumstances, is one of the architectural gems of the conference. Many gracious revivals attended Mr. Drake's labors. He leaves, besides his faithful wife, a son, M. Bogarte; two daughters, Julia Angeline, and Grace Elizabeth; one grandson, Michael Warren Drake; two sisters and four brothers.

Funeral services were conducted at the church at Mount Pulaski by Eugene M. Antrim, District Superintendent, and the burial was in the cemetery at that place. Assisting in the services of the day were several ministers of the conference, including the Revs. T. H. Tull, William Cross, N. R. Johnson, C. R. Morrison, W. W. Theobald and W. M. Carter, some of them also acting as pallbearers.

A. M. DANELY.

Alfred M. Danely was born in Worthington, Indiana, September 21, 1841, and died in Urbana, Illinois, December 15, 1918. At the age of 20 he enlisted in the army as a soldier in the civil war, and he was ever after proud of his army record and his connection with the Grand Army of the Republic. After the cessation of hostilities he entered DePauw University, and graduated with honor, receiving in regular course the degree of Master of Arts. Theologically he was prepared to preach by taking a course in Garrett Biblical Institute. He was sent as the first missionary to Utah, that hard Mormon field, where he made good. He labored for two years in great privation and even peril, and established a permanent mission. In 1871 he united with the Illinois Conference, and continued in active relation for 33 years, serving successively, Lima; Quincy Mission; Astoria; Augusta; Versailles; Barry; Columbus; Lincoln Circuit; Jacksonville Circuit; West Jacksonville; Decatur Circuit; President of Chaddock College; and Champaign Circuit. In 1902 he became a supernumerary, and in 1904 took a retired relation, and continued therein till the end of his life, making his home in Urbana, where he was held in high esteem. He received his D. D. degree from Chaddock while he was its President.

In June, 1874, he married Miss Ella Cole, of Warsaw, Illinois. Of this union five children were born, all of whom, with their mother, survive; Mrs. N. B. Mayhew, Los Angeles, California; Mrs. A. H. Slaughter, Paris, Illinois; Mrs. J. W. Royer, and Alfred and Paul, of Urbana. Funeral services were held at his late home in Urbana, conducted by Walter Aitken, assisted by brother ministers, with services at the grave in Woodlawn cemetery by Black Eagle Post, G. A. R.

Doctor Danely was a manly man, even before he became a minister, and was a faithful pastor, and a preacher of ability and acceptability. He was a success at Chaddock, despite almost insuperable difficulties. He was never pessimistic in his views, but optimistic to a large degree, looking on the bright side of things and believing the greatest triumphs are yet to come. He was always courteous, sympathetic, a high type of Christian gentleman, and made a host of friends wherever he was known. Only the Sunday before his decease he assisted his pastor in the administration of the Lord's Supper, and attended the funeral of a friend that same afternoon. His illness was of short duration. Following a chill, pneumonia was contracted, and on the next Sunday morning he went to his coronation, with such closing words on his lips, as, "My all is on the altar," and, "My Jesus, as thou wilt."

G. W. DUNGAN.

George W. Dungan was born in Mercer County, Kentucky, in 1835, and was translated March 20, 1919, from his Springfield home in the eighty-fourth year of his age. His parents were Rev. Richard and Katherine Boyce Dungan. He united with the church early in life, and in 1856, after several months' experience in leading religious services, he was licensed to preach. Interpreting a call to preach to include a call to prepare to preach, he became a student, under the tutelage for a time of his brother-in-law, Dr. F. W. Phillips. He was well educated for his time. He joined the Louisville Conference in 1857 and had charges in Kentucky and Arkansas, and in 1859 returned to Russellville Circuit, on the Tennessee line. He was earnest and faithful as a pastor, and was largely successful. In his autobiography he says that "secession was rampant in 1860 and no one came into the church." He adds that a nearby Confederate preacher "did no better." His "quarterage" was only $40.00 for the year. He was loyal to the Union cause. In 1861 the Civil War was on, and he was unable to get out of neutral Kentucky. He taught school, and Hon. Champ Clark and sister were among his pupils. In 1865 he entered the Illinois Conference, and served successively the following charges: Milton, Mt. Sterling, Versailles, White Hall, Greenfield, Pawnee, Elkhart, Rochester, Chatham, Island Grove, Ashland, Girard, Edinburg, Grove City, Athens, Alexander, Loami, Dawson and Ridgely and Round Prairie. From 1898 to 1912 he was agent for the American Bible Society. He was chaplain of the State Senate during the incumbency of Governor Deneen. Since 1912 he had been on the retired list, living in Springfield, where he was highly respected and loved. Brother Dungan was a man, a manly man, who would scorn to stoop to any unmanly act. He was a man before he was a minister, and after being made a minister was manlier still. He was evangelistic, preaching the gospel, not in enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power. He was his own evangelist, had many revivals, and received approximately 1,500 persons into the church in the Illinois Annual Conference. He has risen from labor to rest and reward. Bro. Dungan was first married to Miss Susan Jane England, November 11, 1861. Seven children were born to them, only two of whom reached maturity—Dr. Charles Dungan, who died in Colorado in January, 1916, and Mrs. M. W. Gibson of Denver, Colo., who came east to attend the funeral obsequies. Years ago their mother fell asleep. In 1888 Brother Dungan married Mrs. Ellen Daggett, who survives him, together with the above-named daughter; E. K. Dungan, a brother, of Ashland, Illinois, while Rev. W. S. Phillips, a nephew, is still an active member of the Illinois Conference. He, who would have been "faithful unto death," if necessary, was faithful until death, and has gone to his coronation. The funeral services were held in his late residence, with Dr. W. A. Smith in charge. He was assisted by Drs. A. A. Luce and T. N. Ewing. Later a service was conducted in Jacksonville by Rev. W. R. Leslie, and interment was in Diamond Grove Cemetery at that city, beside the grave where the remains of his first wife rest.

MRS. W. M. GOODING.

Sarah Elizabeth Hewes was born in Payson, Illinois, June 24, 1846, and died December 26, 1918. She was the daughter of George and Sarah Ann Hewes, sturdy pioneers of the State and also of Methodism, their house being the itinerant's home where they always found true friends and a cordial welcome.

When seventeen years of age, Elizabeth married Captain William Gooding, a young officer in the army, afterward known as W. M. Gooding of the Illinois Conference. Coming from good old Methodist stock, Mrs. Gooding made an ideal pastor's wife, sharing the experiences of an itinerant minister. As her father's house had always been a refuge to all churchmen, so was her home made a welcome abode to Presiding Elders and others. She loved the church and its work as many can testify, as she had taken an active part in her husband's sacred calling for forty-seven years.

With the increasing responsibilities of a pastor's wife, and the cares incident to a growing family, she put all her resources of fidelity, sacrifice, and Christian trust into the tasks which came to her. With unflagging interest she cared for the education, training, health and morals of her children.

To meet the demands of rearing and educating a family on the meager salary of a minister in former years was no easy matter. The resourcefulness she displayed in accomplishing this task bears testimony to her careful management. Her children were always sure of her loving sympathy, and they cannot do otherwise than call her blessed, for in addition to all her love and care through their dependent years, they knew that as long as she lived every day they were in her thought, her plans and her prayers.

Mrs. Gooding was an ardent lover of nature, and quite appropriately flowers were largely in evidence at her funeral services. Quoting from part of a letter received shortly after her death from Dr. Schuett, a former pastor, "It was always a great rest for me to visit at your house. I liked Mrs. Gooding's openness and frankness; there was nothing artificial about her; she was genuine and detested cant."

Since her husband retired from the ministry in 1910, they made their home in Champaign, with the exception of the time he was Chaplain of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home in Quincy. Because of failing health, he decided to take a well-earned rest. After her husband's retirement and during the four years of his semi-invalidism, she was still the faithful helper, watching and caring for him as long as she was able.

Of her six brothers and sisters three are living. She was a sister of the late M. A. Hewes, a member of the Illinois Conference, pastor, presiding elder and conference secretary. She leaves to mourn her, in addition to a host of friends, her husband and three children, Mrs. Dr. J. T. Watters, of Potomac, Illinois, Charles W., head of the chemistry department of the high school, and Jessie, at home, principal of the Avenue School. One child, Helen, died in infancy, and May, Mrs. Dr. S. W. Shurtz, died about twelve years ago. Six grandchildren and one great grandchild are also left.

The funeral service was conducted at her late home by her pastor, Dr. Herbert Keck, assisted by the Revs. S. H. Huber, J. R. Reasoner, and L. F. Walden. Interment was made in Mount Hope Cemetery.

T. W. GREER.

Thomas Wilson Greer, son of John and Nancy Greer, was born near Littleton, Illinois, March 23, 1857, and departed this life at the Springfield, Missouri, Deaconess Hospital, November 6, 1918.

He grew to manhood in his native community. As a youth he had a great ambition to secure an education, and was among the first graduates of the Rushville, Illinois, High School. He afterward attended the Northwestern University.

Forty-eight years ago he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal church in Littleton. He early felt the call to preach, and heartily responded to that call. He was received on trial into the Illinois Conference in 1882. He served the following charges: Astoria, West Point, Augusta, Camp Point, Chatham, Homer, Camargo, Decatur Circuit, Mt. Pulaski, Arrowsmith, Lincoln Circuit, Paloma and Pleasant Hill. He served 25 years in the Illinois Conference, and five years doing mission work in Oklahoma.

He was united in marriage with Miss Mary C. Stambaugh, of Bader, Illinois, August 29, 1883. Of this union two children were born, Thomas, now of Peoria, Illinois, and Evalyne, at home.

Brother Greer belonged to those Methodist prophets of God, who, like modern Elishas followed our great Elijahs as pioneer ministers, who lay broad and deep the foundations of early Illinois Methodism. As a preacher he observed the rules laid down by the fathers of the church, and looked carefully after the choice young people, diligently training them for leadership in the home church, some of them becoming leaders in the church at large. Dr. W. J. Davidson, of Garrett Biblical Institute, has told of the quiet way in which this man of God placed his hands on him, and pointed him to the path leading to the College. Other men in the ministry attribute their call largely to the influence of this good man. As a preacher, he was clear, forceful, and practical. His ministry was characterized by great revivals, and large ingatherings into the church. With his brother ministers, he was congenial and beloved. His warm hand clasp, and pleasant smile always brought good cheer in any company. In the narrower circle of his own family, he was a model companion, an ideal father. As a friend and neighbor, he was true in all relationships, while as a Christian, he made the word of God the very bread of his life.

Many true and beautiful things may be said about this good man, but the best that can be said is that he ordered his life with a conviction that he was one of Christ's representatives on the earth, and he conducted himself accordingly. Nine years ago he took a retired relation, and moved to Enid, Oklahoma. Here he was used to found a mission church, which has grown into one of the flourishing churches of the city. After residing five years in Enid, he moved with his family to Phillipsburg, Missouri, where he was as active in the Master's service as his health would permit, till his death. The last year of his life he was a great sufferer, being confined to his bed the last half of it. During all this time he was tenderly ministered to by his faithful companion and his daughter, and all that medical skill and loving hearts could do was done for his comfort. With the hope that he might be helped he was taken to the hospital from which he passed in great peace to his home on high.

He was the youngest son of a family of ten children. Two brothers preceded him in death, in infancy, one brother and sister dying later. He leaves to mourn his loss, his companion, his two children, named above, four brothers and one sister.

Brief funeral services were held at the Littleton cemetery on Sunday, November 10, the officiating ministers being Revs. A. H. M'Connell, D. V. Gowdy, and J. S. Tharp. Interment was in the Littleton Cemetery.

H. R. KASISKE.

Henry R. Kasiske was born December 24, 1877, near Baraboo, Wisconsin, departing this life for the greater home November 26, 1918. He was fortunate in having Christian parentage, being born of praying Methodists. He united with that denomination at Elvaston, Illinois, when a lad of 12 years. He at once felt a call to enter the work of the Lord, and at the age of sixteen, while plowing in the field he stopped his team, fell down on his knees, and promised the Master to enter the ministry, praying God to lead him in preparation. The opportunity came to him at Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. He joined the German M. E. Conference in 1903 at Pekin, Illinois. In 1908 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference and served faithfully and efficiently the following charges: Beardstown, Moweaqua, Columbus, Huntsville, Loraine, Littleton, and Clayton. He took delight in the work of special meetings, and rejoiced in winning souls for Christ. He was an alert worker in every way to advance the kingdom of God both materially and spiritually, in all his pastorates.

On June 10, 1904, he was united in marriage to Miss Lydia Priebe, of Etna, Missouri. To this union came three children, Ruth Dorothy, Gladys Marie, and Melvin Elias. While engaged with his fellow pastors in Quincy District gospel tent meetings at West Point, in June, 1918, he returned home at Clayton one day, a sick man. His illness was of several month's duration, but he was tenderly cared for by his devoted wife and loyal friends to the last. Besides the widow and children to mourn his passing, his aged father, two brothers, and one sister, are left. The funeral service was held in the Methodist church in Clayton, conducted by District Superintendent A. S. Flanigan, assisted by 14 pastors of the District. The remains were taken to the old home in Etna, Mo., where the interment was had, after a second service, conducted in the Methodist Episcopal church there, by Rev. George E. Haas, of Naples, Illinois, a warm personal friend of the deceased.

Brother Kasiske had a lofty purpose that lifted him up and led him along the higher lines of life, and thus he made progress in the things that were worth while. He said in effect, "I will look straight out—see things, not try to evade them. Tact shall be fact to me, and truth the truth forever." He was true—four square—in both promise and performance. He was a real gentleman, clean in thought, pure in speech, and genuine in all life's relationships. He either spoke well of others, or observed a discreet silence. He was always sympathetic with his brother ministers, and helpful to his fellow men. He was regarded as dependable in all things, and his counsel was sought by both ministers and laymen. He was fond of fun, but his humor was of a high order. He gave out sunshine everywhere. He was a great pastor, and a good gospel preacher. He loved his own family and his home, and as husband and father he was wellnigh ideal in domestic attitude and action. He appreciated to the full his wife's devotion, and his children's love, and did his best for them in present conditions and in future plans. He was always brave and hopeful, kept his face toward the light, and was ever about the Master's business, making it his meat and drink to do the Lord's will. As loving husband and father, stalwart brother, true friend, kindly neighbor, and patriotic citizen, he will be greatly missed, for he was highly esteemed, especially as a faithful, conscientious servant and follower of the Man of Galilee.

JOSEPH B. MARTIN.

Joseph B. Martin was born in Lewistown, Mifflin County, Penn., February 5, 1848. He died August 6, 1919 at his home on Oak Lawn Farms, Atwood, Illinois, aged seventy-one years and six months.

When a lad of twelve years Brother Martin came with his parents to Bement, Illinois. Soon after the family moved to their farm near Lovington, Illinois where he lived with his parents until he entered the ministry. He was converted in early youth and heard the call of God to the work of the ministry. He was received into the Illinois Annual Conference held at Lincoln, Illinois, in 1869, Bishop Thompson presiding. This was a notable year as it marked the retirement of Rev. Peter Cartwright from active work.

The historical record of our Conference gives the following as the charges served by Brother Martin: Middletown; Mansfield; Newman; Tolono; Savoy; Fairmount; Philo; Chrisman; Arcola; Potomac; and Cerro Gordo, which was his last pastorate. A nervous break-down made retirement from active work necessary. From 1892 to 1900 he held the supernumerary relation and since 1900 has been in the retired relation. He was able to live in comfort without aid from the Conference and was a liberal contributor to all church and community enterprises.

His retirement however did not mean the loss of interest or the ceasing of activity in the service of the Christ he loved. Whenever called upon he supplied the pulpits of brother ministers. When no longer able to preach he made provision for the continuation of his work through others. He immediately began the education of Chinese boys in the mission schools of China and these as soon as completing the course entered the ministry. Thus through the years in many places in that land his representatives were proclaiming, and continue to do so, the Word of Life. He constantly kept four young men at a time in school. For many years these boys were named after the Presiding Elders of the Illinois Conference. He was a warm friend of the preacher and interested in all the great movements of the church.

In 1872 Brother Martin was united in marriage with Sarah E. McAllister of Newman, Illinois. Sister Martin has shared with him through the years the joys and the sorrows of the parsonage homes in which they lived entering heartily into his work and sharing with him the tasks and rewards of the Christian ministry. They were the parents of seven children. Sister Martin and five of the children survive, Mabel Jumper; Frances Martin; Florence Leachman; Clarence Martin; and Mary Smith. Two of the children died in infancy. One sister, Mary Martin, also survives.

Two years ago Brother Martin was stricken with paralysis which affected his vocal organs and later extended to his entire right side. It was this, which caused his death.

Brother Martin was a faithful and dependable servant of the church, a loyal follower of Christ, a man whose ministry was greatly blessed wherever he served, beloved by the people and his brethren, a workman that needed not to be ashamed. In his death the family loses a devoted husband and father, the community a most useful and benevolent citizen, and the church a faithful minister.

The funeral services were held at the residence four miles north of Atwood, August 8, 1919. Rev. G. N. Wilkerson his pastor, District Superintendent M. N. English, E. H. Lugg, J. M. Goodspeed, and President Theodore Kemp participated. It was under the pastorate of Brother Martin that Dr. Kemp entered the ministry. A number of neighboring pastors and hundreds of friends and former parishioners were present. It was a remarkable crowd, many coming for forty or fifty miles to pay their tribute. The burial was in the cemetery near the home.

JOHN B. MARTIN.

John B. Martin was born at Burlington, Vermont, June 30, 1848, and died July 25, 1919, at the age of 71 years and 25 days. While a small boy his parents moved to Darlington, Wisconsin, where he grew to manhood. In 1863 he enlisted as a volunteer in the Third Wisconsin Infantry, and fought for "Old Glory" to the close of the war.

In 1870 he came to Jacksonville, Illinois, where he held several responsible positions with the different railroads. He was converted in a revival held by Horace Reed in 1880, and immediately began preaching the gospel. He joined the Illinois Conference in 1882, and remained an honored member, with effective relationship to the time of his death. He ceased at once to labor and to live. He was statistical secretary of the Conference for 20 years. He served the following charges successively and efficiently: Manchester, Chandlerville, Grand View, Bethany, Windsor, Vermilion, Tower Hill, Belleflower, Potomac, Pawnee, Blue Mound, Humbolt, Gifford, Dewey, Minier, Garrett, La Place, Girard, Tolono, Ogden and Astoria.

Brother Martin was a man of rugged strength and noble character. He was a preacher of solid, substantial and spiritual qualities. No uncertain sound escaped his lips in the proclamation of the truth. Many souls saved and edified by his ministry will rise up and call him blessed. He was such a good man that his chaplet of goodness will be a royal crown to be eternally worn.

He leaves to deplore his sudden departure, his wife and seven sons and daughters, his death being the first break in the family circle. His children are, C. A. Martin, Vermilion; Mrs. Lucy Foor and Dr. F. A. Martin, Tower Hill; Mrs. Geo. Carson, Belleflower; Dr. J. W. Martin, Oliver; Rev. J. B. Martin, Elgin; and Miss Carrie Martin, resident in the home. Funeral services were held in the church, Astoria, July 28th, A. S. Flanigan, of Quincy, District Superintendent, in charge, with burial at Tower Hill, a former charge, where Mrs. and Miss Martin will make their home.

MRS. H. C. MUNCH.

Mary Evalyn Curry was born near Windsor, Illinois, September 23, 1895, departed this life January 30, 1918, at Niantic, Illinois. Death was due to influenza, followed by bronchial pneumonia.

Mrs. Munch was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Curry of Strasburg, Illinois, to which place they moved when the deceased was about four years of age. Here the daughter, an only sister in a family of five brothers, grew to womanhood.

At the early age of ten years, encouraged by the noble Christian life of her mother, she gave her heart to Christ and united with the Methodist Episcopal church, where she soon became a real part of the church life.

Just when she was in her happy years of girlhood, it seemed so arranged that a young minister, H. C. Munch, of the Stewardson charge should come into her life.

On January 5, 1914, in the presence of a church crowded with the members from the different points on the charge, this promising young couple were united in the holy bonds of wedlock by C. H. Buker, District Superintendent, and Mary became Mrs. Munch. At once she took up her duties most graciously as queen of the parsonage at Stewardson.

They remained at this place until September, 1914, when Rev. Munch was sent to Riverton, Illinois. There they resided for nearly four years, during which time two children came to bless their union, Joseph Curtis and Florence Munch. These little ones, being left in their tender years, can only faintly remember the fond care of a loving mother. In 1918, much to the disappointment of the Riverton people, who said: "The longer Brother and Sister Munch were with us, the better we liked them," they were transferred to Niantic, Illinois, where death claimed the young wife and mother, and the parsonage home ceased to be home for husband and children.

She leaves to mourn her untimely death, a heart-broken husband, two children, father, mother, five brothers and a host of relatives and friends.

The remains were shipped to her parents' home in Strasburg, where, owing to the epidemic that was then raging, a private funeral was held, conducted by Hugh Jackson, a former pastor, and assisted by Rev. McRoberts, the local pastor of the charge, after which the remains were laid to rest in Grace Cemetery.

E. B. RANDLE.

Edwin B. Randle was born in Madison County, Illinois, December 15, 1852, and died in Decatur, Illinois, September 20, 1918. He lived in Madison County until sixteen years of age, when he moved with his parents to Christian County, Illinois. His father, Wm. S. Randle, was born in North Carolina, and moved with his family in childhood to Illinois. His mother was a native of Trigg County, Kentucky. She came to Illinois in her girlhood, and was married May 10, 1849, to W. S. Randle.

E. B. Randle commenced his career as a school teacher, in September, 1871. He abandoned teaching and began to preach in 1877. He was converted in 1871 in a union meeting held in Palmer by Rev. Mr. Bell, a Cumberland Presbyterian minister, and Rev. Mr. Stokes, a Methodist preacher. His first appointment was on the Irving and Butler charge, as Junior preacher with J. W. Lapham, as a supply under Dr. Hiram Buck, his Presiding Elder. In 1878 he united on trial with the Illinois Conference, and was returned to the same charge, with P. A. Swart as preacher-in-charge. He was next assigned to Harristown, where he met, and married, August 25, 1881, Miss Mary C. Stookey, daughter of Daniel and Caroline Stookey. He had been married before, while a teacher, to Miss Nannie K. ShROUT, of Christian County. Two children were born of this first union, both of whom died in infancy, and the mother passed on soon afterward. In 1881 he was appointed to Ashland, and after three years, was given a student appointment to attend Boston School of Theology. For one year during that time, he served the M. E. Church at North Stoughton, Massachusetts. He returned to Illinois in 1885, and for two years labored in the Kansas charge. Then his successive Conference appointments were as follows: Paris, Illinois, (by request); Springfield, First Church; Decatur District; Danville, First Church; California Conference, San Jose, First Church; North Indiana Conference, High Street Church, Muncie; St. Louis Conference, Maple Avenue Church, St. Louis. In 1908, because of the ill health of his wife, he moved to Decatur, Illinois, where, during the next two years he resided, preaching and lecturing at various places. Transferring back to the Illinois Conference in 1908, he took a supernumerary relation. The last year of his residence in Decatur, he supplied the Hammond charge, and started the movement which resulted in the building of a new church in that place. In 1910 his relation to the Conference was changed to effective, and for five years he was pastor of Laurel Church, Springfield. In 1915, on account of health conditions, at his own request he was granted a retired relation. He was in the effective ranks 35 years, besides the two years as a supernumerary, during which he preached almost every Sunday.

By his second marriage he was the father of three children, Mrs. Lalah Ruth Warner, of Muncie, Indiana; Foster Stookey, and Edwin Herbert Randle, both of whom were in the world war in France. The Randle family has been a family of Methodists from the beginning down to date.

Brother Randle was a highly useful man to the church. He was up-to-date, read the best books and magazines, and was a most successful pastor and preacher. He stood for the doctrines of the Methodist Church. His was a high type of Christian character. He loved and labored for men after the fashion of his Master, and he preached with winning favor and fervor the glory of the cross of Jesus Christ.

To him God and heaven were an exceeding joy and a living reality. He was ready to be offered when the time of his departure came, and was prepared for his coronation. His home was a delight, and his wife and children were a continual benediction. He received all the love and care which a devoted wife could bestow during his last illness, though he insisted that it was too great a burden for her to bear.

Dr. Randle was a man among men, a true patriot, for he loved his country. He commanded the respect and confidence of his brethren in the ministry, and of the communities where he lived. His funeral obsequies were conducted in the First Methodist Episcopal church, Decatur, F. A. Havighurst in charge, assisted by Drs. W. H. Webster and W. H. Wilder, and Revs. J. W. Crane, J. W. Eckman, J. S. Bicknell and J. D. Reed. Interment was in the Harristown Cemetery.

J. B. WADE.

Josias B. Wade was born near Griggsville, Pike County, Illinois, March 17, 1834. He was educated in the schools of Griggsville, including a course in Griggsville Academy, which was in existence there during his young manhood days. He was converted during a great revival under the pastorate of the Rev. Hardin Wallace in the winter of 1853, and united with the Griggsville Methodist Episcopal Church. He was licensed to preach by the Griggsville Quarterly Conference, and joined the Illinois Conference on probation in the fall of 1858. After filling ably a number of charges, owing to failing health, he was granted the supernumerary relation the fall of 1864. With his family he removed to Kansas in the year 1867 and engaged in farming with but limited success owing to unforeseen natural contingencies that arose, and in the year 1884 he and his family returned to Illinois. He was then restored to the active relationship in his conference and continued therein until the fall of 1889 when he again became a supernumerary.

The condition of his health then requiring a change, in 1890 he and his family moved to Colorado and ever since the family residence has been in or near Denver, where he passed to his coronation April 21, 1919. It was not until 1896 that he was superannuated. He was a good pastor and an able preacher. The gospel trumpet gave forth no uncertain sound from his lips. He never compromised, or apologized for the fundamentals of the Christian religion.

He was united in holy wedlock to Miss Ellen Gillham near Winchester, Illinois, April 1, 1863, and for a little over fifty-six years they sojourned together in lovely, devoted fellowship, sharing life's changing vicissitudes. Nine children were born to this union, two of whom were called to the heavenly home in early childhood. The rest, with his bereaved companion, one sister and a host of friends, survive him.

For a number of years he suffered patiently from an increasingly aggravated bodily affliction until at last the silver cord was loosed, and the golden bowl was broken. Now he rests from his afflictions and labors. The memory of his beautiful character and life will be as sweet incense to all who have known and been associated with him.

HENRY WILSON.

Henry Wilson, son of William and Louisa Ewing Wilson, was born in Uniontown, Pennsylvania, October 1, 1840, and died April 7, 1919, when he "was not, for God took him." On one occasion when Bishop Edward R. Ames was a guest of his father, while young Henry was still a youth, the Bishop placed his hand on the boy's head, saying, "I dedicate you to the ministry." The boy never forgot the words or the act. After his conversion at seventeen, he attended Allegheny College and took his degree of bachelor of arts in 1860. He then went to Garrett Biblical Institute to finish his preparation for the ministry. He was called from Evanston to teach in the old Quincy College. This was in 1861. Here he met Mary Jane Padgett, whom he married September 2, 1863. He was admitted on trial to membership in the Illinois Conference in 1862 at Bloomington. He was ordained a deacon at Danville in 1864, and elder in 1866. Bishop Ames presided over both these conferences, who had in his boyhood dedicated him to the ministry. His charges in the conference were as follows: Littleton, Warsaw and Lima, Nilwood, Virden, Barry, Augusta, Clayton, Quincy Mission, Havana, Virginia, Perry, Pittsfield, Waverly, Jacksonville, Taylorville, Greenfield, and Mason City. At the conference of 1894, he was granted a retired relation at his own request, that he might give to his wife, then an invalid, the care she needed, and take her to a milder climate. In 1900 he was appointed to Quincy Mission, where he served five years, part of the time as assistant pastor of Vermont-street Church. Since that time he has held a retired relation, but has frequently been called upon to preach for brethren of his own and other communions, and he always responded, preaching with acceptability and power. For many years he held positions of responsibility and trust in the conference. In 1873 he was conference treasurer of the Missionary Society, which position he held until 1888, when the funds of the conference were all placed in his hands and he was reelected to that position until 1894, when he declined reelection, and today in the conference his fidelity and accuracy in this responsible office is remembered and spoken of by his contemporaries. He entered the conference just when it was emerging from the pioneer and entering the permanent period. Peter Cartwright was an active member and died ten years after Brother Wilson came into the conference. He was of the generation of preachers which did so much toward giving to Methodism the place it holds in the community of churches today. He was quiet and utterly unassertive as to what place he should hold in the conference. He came from a remarkable family. Until his death six of the family survived, all of whom have passed three-score years and ten. Since the death of his wife he has walked alone, yet cheered by the loving attention of his children, of whom three out of five grew to maturity and survive him; George H. Wilson, of Quincy; Mrs. Jessie Crowl, of Wooster, Ohio, and Mrs. Anne Graham, of Chicago.

MRS. G. B. WOLFE.

Mrs. Hannah Wolfe, widow of George B. Wolfe, of the Illinois Conference, died December 21, 1918, from the effects of influenza, at the Methodist Old People's Home, in Chicago, where she had spent her latter days. She was the mother of Dr. Joseph Wolfe, who died ten years ago, and who was most actively devoted to Epworth League matters in the city of Chicago. Mrs. Wolfe spent her entire life in a Methodist parsonage, her father being Greenbury Garner, a pioneer of the Illinois Conference. She was in her eighty-second year at the time of her passing over. To Mrs. Phillips, the Superintendent of the Home, her last words were, "It pays to serve the Lord." The burial was at Farmer City, Illinois, between the graves of her husband and her son.

MRS. C. G. WOOD.

In Wichita, Kansas, October 10, 1918, at the ripe old age of 84, Mrs. C. G. Wood, a devoted Christian, bade her loved ones the earthy good-bye. The funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Dr. Alexander G. Bennett, assisted by District Superintendent Dugald McCormick, President A. E. Kirk and Drs. McFadden and Caffyn. Lucretia E. Persons was born in Courtland County, New York, September 16, 1834. She was united in marriage to Rev. C. G. Wood, July 18, 1855. To this union were born three daughters and one son, all of whom survive; one son and daughter living in Decatur, Illinois, one daughter in Detroit, Michigan, and one daughter, Mrs. L. M. Riley, in Wichita, at whose home the aged parents were living. Sister Wood was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at the age of 16 years, and lived a faithful, active, consistent Christian life. For 63 years she walked by the side of her husband and shared with him the labors and victories of the Methodist ministry. She was a graduate of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle in 1886, and from all the Bible courses given at Chautauqua, New York. She afterwards gave this Bible work on the charges, which her husband served. A few years before her death, Bishop McIntyre said to her daughter, Mrs. Riley, "Tell your mother that the Bishop still uses the Bible outline she gave him years ago, but never uses it without being grateful to her." Sister Wood always took a special interest in the young men in the church and Sunday school, and usually taught a young men's Bible class. Several of the ministers of the Southwest Kansas Conference make frequent reference to the help they received while attending her Bible class at Southwestern College when she and her husband resided in Winfield. While interested and helpful in all the activities of the church, she was especially devoted to the work of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. This society always prospered under her wise and inspiring leadership on all the charges where she lived. She was Woman's Foreign Missionary Society Conference secretary in the Illinois Conference and for several years president of the Decatur District and was president emeritus at the time of her death. Recently she received a letter from the secretary of the district saying, "You see we still carry your name as president emeritus on our letterheads. How could we do otherwise? for you started us out."

RESOLUTIONS.Auditing Committee.

Resolved, That the Conference elect at this session the Treasurer, the Statistician and the Auditor for next year's session and that hereafter at each session of the Conference the Treasurer be elected for the succeeding session.

Resolved, That within ninety days after the adjournment of this session of the Conference the Treasurer submit to the Auditor his report as presented to the Conference together with his receipts from the benevolent Board for the sums due them severally and a statement of the funds remaining in his hands, if any. The Auditor shall thereupon audit the Report and Receipts, and if they are found to be correct he shall deliver the accounts and funds (if any) to the Treasurer elect.

Resolved, That Pastors be required to see that their reports for the Conference Treasurer be placed in his hands properly made out not later than the first day of the Conference session.

Resolved, That the Treasurer give bond as required by the Discipline in the sum of $5,000 Dollars.

Resolved, That we request that no causes be reported under the head of Other Collections, except such as have been duly approved by the Annual Conference Commission on Finance.

Resolved, That the reports of Pastors as presented to the Treasurer shall be correct in the following particulars:

1. They shall be presented on TIME.
2. Properly designated—showing in proper places the name of the Conference, the District, the Charge and the Pastor.
3. The figures shall be clear and legible.
4. They shall be correctly entered. The correct amounts shall be entered in their proper places, and the figures shall be in the proper digit column.
5. They shall be in agreement. The amounts as entered in A shall agree with the sum of the cash and the vouchers as entered in B.
6. They shall be accompanied by proper vouchers. They must be official vouchers and where they are in duplicate must not be torn apart.
7. They must contain no extraneous matter, that is matter which is not properly contained in the Treasurer's report.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' STANDARD TOTAL.

That when a charge has raised a total amount equal to or above the standard total, but the standard due from any apportionment has not been reached, then the standard of such apportionment may be reduced as agreed by the Secretary of the Conference Claimants' Campaign, the District Superintendent and the Pastor of the Charge. Any such reduction shall be for just cause shown.

SALARIES—DETACHED SERVICE.

Resolved, That each member of the Conference in detached service be, and hereby is, required to furnish to the statistician a statement as to the name of the position held and of the amount of salary received and that the Secretary of the Conference shall notify each of said members and that such report shall be printed in the Conference Minutes in connection with Statistical table number 1.

SPECIAL SESSION.

Illinois Annual Conference—Special Session. Held in First Methodist Episcopal Church, Decatur, Illinois, March 20th, 1919.

The Special Session of the Illinois Annual Conference met pursuant to the call of Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., L.L.D., at 10:30 o'clock a. m., March 20th, 1919, Bishop Nicholson presiding.

Opening—Following the singing of a hymn the conference was led in prayer by A. S. Flanigan and James C. Baker.

Bishop Nicholson read a portion of Scripture and the conference joined in the singing of another hymn.

Organization—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve, Bishop Nicholson was requested to preside over the session of the conference, and on motion of T. N. Ewing the conference elected A. B. Peck to act as secretary.

Absentees—On motion of R. Y. Williams a message of sympathy and greeting was ordered sent to W. D. Fairchild, who was detained from attending the session by reason of the illness of his son at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

On motion of J. W. Van Cleve the conference appointed A. S. Flanigan to call upon M. N. English, who was ill at his home in Decatur, and convey to him an expression of sympathy and greeting from the conference.

Roll-Call—On motion of A. M. Wells the roll-call of the conference was ordered. On the call of the conference roll by the secretary 231 members responded to their names.

Order of Procedure—T. N. Ewing presented to the conference a proposed order of procedure for the session, and on his motion the same was adopted by the conference. On motion of J. W. Van Cleve the conference voted that the parliamentary basis of special session shall stand as it was immediately preceding the adjournment of the last annual session of the conference.

Bishop Bashford's Death—On motion of A. C. Piersel the conference adopted a resolution expressing its sense of loss to the church and the world in the death of Bishop James W. Bashford.

On motion of W. J. Davidson it was ordered that a copy of the resolutions be incorporated in our Conference Minutes, and a duplicate copy be sent to the family of Bishop Bashford.

Luncheon—On motion of J. L. Settles the conference voted to adjourn from the hour of 12:30 to 1:30 p. m. for lunch.

Item One—T. N. Ewing presented item one of the order of procedure, and on his motion the conference proceeded to the consideration of the same.

State Legislation—Bishop Nicholson read a telegram from W. S. Fleming, Springfield, Ill., relative to pending legislation in the Illinois General Assembly, namely: the bill to legalize professional commercialized prize fighting.

On motion of A. M. Wells the matter was referred to a committee to be named by the Bishop. Parker Shields, E. M. Antrim, and T. N. Ewing were named by Bishop Nicholson to compose said committee.

Report, Committee on Federation of Colleges—A. S. Chapman presented a report in behalf of the committee appointed by the last session of the Conference to consider the proposition of Springfield to move the Illinois Wesleyan to that city, and to consider the feasibility of the down-state colleges and educational interests.

Report, Educational Commission—Bishop Nicholson presented to the Conference the preliminary report of the Illinois Educational Commission.

On motion of E. M. Antrim the Conference requested Bishop Nicholson to read the report of the Special Commission, and the Bishop complied with the request by reading the entire report.

Extension of Time—On motion of Parker Shields the time of the morning session was extended.

Apology—By courtesy of the Conference, E. M. Evans, of Bloomington, presented an apology on behalf of the citizens of Bloomington, the Bloomington Association of Commerce and affiliated organizations for an unauthorized printed statement which was mailed to members of the Conference within the past few days. On motion of J. C. Nate the Conference accepted the apology offered by the representative from Bloomington.

Adjournment—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve the Conference adjourned for one hour for lunch, the adjournment following prayer by G. E. Serimger.

Afternoon Session.

The Conference convened in afternoon session at 2 o'clock, Bishop Nicholson in the chair.

Following the singing of a hymn the conference was led in prayer by S. H. Whitlock.

State of Colleges—On behalf of the sub-committee of the committee on education J. C. Baker presented a statement of the state and needs of our colleges, and offered resolutions relative to the same. On his motion the same was adopted.

Visiting Brethren—On motion of A. S. Chapman the conference invited

Dr. W. E. Shaw, Dr. T. E. Newland, and Dr. Walter Agnew to seats on the platform.

Our Educational Institutions—By common consent J. C. Baker, Joseph Harker, and A. C. Piersel were given opportunity to represent the Wesley Foundation, Illinois Women's College, and the Illinois Wesleyan University, respectively.

Proposed Sites—The item of procedure of the consideration of sites was taken up.

Reconsideration—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve the conference voted to reconsider the action of the last session relative to the acceptance of the Springfield proposition.

Following this order of the conference Theodore Kemp presented the Bloomington Site Proposition, and E. M. Antrim the Springfield Site Proposition.

A discussion of the two propositions was participated in by A. C. Piersel, A. S. Chapman, A. M. Wells, J. B. Herney, C. E. Scrimger, W. A. Smith, G. F. Oliver, F. A. McCarty, W. J. Davidson, J. C. Baker, R. F. McDaniel, and J. W. Van Cleve.

Vote by Ballot—On motion of Chris. Galeener the Conference ordered that the final vote be taken by ballot, the ballots to be marked, "Springfield" or "Bloomington."

The chair named the following as tellers: A. K. Byrns, T. N. Ewing, S. R. Reno, L. G. Adams, Chris. Galeener, and M. G. Coleman.

The vote was taken with the following results: Total votes cast, 149. Defective, 1. Springfield, 114. Bloomington, 34.

On motion of J. C. Nate and seconded by W. H. Wilder the vote was made unanimous in favor of Springfield.

League of Nations—J. C. Baker presented a resolution respecting the matter of the League of Nations, and on his motion the same was adopted.

Votes of Thanks—On motion of R. Y. Williams the conference extended a vote of thanks to F. A. Havighurst and M. N. English, also the Official Board of the First Methodist Church for the courtesies extended the session.

On motion of A. S. Chapman expressed by vote their thanks to Bishop Nicholson for calling the extra session of the conference, and for the work he has done in the interests of the matter considered in the special session.

On motion of E. M. Antrim an expression of appreciation to the Commission was voted by the conference.

A vote of thanks was extended to the secretary on motion of J. H. Pence.

Joint Action—On motion of R. F. McDaniel the conference voted to request the committee on education and the commission act jointly and report at the next session of the conference regarding the matter of the educational matter.

Committee to Communicate—On motion of A. M. Wells the conference ordered that a committee of three be appointed to visit the next meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Illinois Wesleyan University and communicate the spirit and action of the special session of the conference.

On motion of J. W. Van Cleve Bishop Nicholson was elected chairman of that committee.

On motion of A. S. Chapman the other two members named were J. C. Baker and A. B. Peck.

Adjournment—On motion of R. Y. Williams the conference stood adjourned after prayer and the benediction by Parker Shields.

XV I.

CONFERENCE RULES.

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock, noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the Conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the Conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and, if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1) when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided, (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but, on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by _____ members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than _____, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The District Superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the Conference in advance of the Conference Session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"22. Vacancies in the Conference Board of Trustees, the Conference Board of Stewards and the Conference Deaconess Board shall be filled by election of the Conference on nomination by the District Superintendents.

"23. All requests for special appointment shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

"24. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"25. The Statistical Secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the Conference Session immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"26. Each pastor in effective work shall contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent of his annual salary each year to a fund known as Secretarial Expense Fund, such fund to be applied as necessity requires to the purpose of securing expert accountants, or stenographers, or assistants to the Conference in any way.

"27. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"28. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the Conference."

C. C. GRIMMETT
SECRETARY AND TREASURER

MINUTES

— OF —

THE TWELFTH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF THE ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

Held at Charleston, Illinois, September 18, 19, 20, 1919.

Benjamin F. Kagey, President; C. C. Grimmitt, Secretary-Treasurer.

All Meetings Held in the Presbyterian Church.

Association called to order by B. F. Kagey, La Place, Ill., Post-office address, Tuscola.

Devotions by Clifford Vest, after which Dr. Nathan Starr, Charleston, Ill., heartily welcomed the association to the city, and Judge Isaac A. Love, Danville, responded in his usual happy and pleasant manner.

Rev. E. G. Sandmeyer, Pastor of our Church in Charleston, was introduced and expressed further words of welcome, and announced the Rural Church Pageant at Presbyterian Church, 6:45, Thursday evening, and the Conference Lecture by Colonel Raymond Robins, Chicago, at 8:00 P.M., M. E. Church, Subject—"America's Answer to the Challenge of the Bolshevik."

President Kagey announced the appointment of the following Committees:

Resolution—D. L. Musselman, Emma A. Jerman, A. R. Crook.

Nominations—Isaac A. Long, Assumption, Isaac A. Love, Danville, and Amos Ford, Villa Grove.

On motion by C. W. Caughlin, which prevailed, all persons present who had been elected Lay-Delegates, were allowed a voice and vote on all matters of the afternoon.

Mrs. Eva Frields, of Chaddock, and Mrs. Fowler, of Cunningham Children's Home, were each introduced and spoke in interest of the work of their respective positions.

Dr. Robert Zareing announced Church Literature day, October 26th, and insisted minute men to do their best to assist Pastor in putting the Northwestern Christian Advocate in every church home.

Address, "The Conservation Program," Rev. E. K. Towle, Conference Evangelist, Champaign, Ill., pleading for an awakening Christian conscience among the laymen, re-established family altars, a revival of the prayer meeting, all of which will mean again, God in the hearts of His own.

Address—"Minute Men and the Challenge," John W. Perry, Chicago. A very timely appeal for a definite Christian service on part of laymen, and at close the Conference stood almost to a man, pledging loyalty and co-operation with the Ministry in the coming Evangelistic Campaign. Rev. Towle offered prayer of consecration.

FRIDAY, A. M., SEPTEMBER 19, 1919.

The Lay-Electoral Conference was called to order by Thomas E. Orr, Buffalo, Ill., at 9:30 A.M., Brother Orr being Secretary of the last Lay-Electoral Conference in 1915. After the singing of a hymn, prayer was engaged in with John W. Perry leading. The business of the hour was stated by the Secretary, and nominations declared in order for a temporary organization. Immediately, Judge H. R. Snively, Marshall, Ill., was nominated, and on motion nominations closed, and Judge Snively was elected temporary Chairman by acclamation. Thomas E. Orr, Buffalo, was likewise nominated for temporary Secretary, and on motion nominations closed, and Thomas E. Orr was elected temporary Secretary by acclamation.

A motion followed which prevailed, that the temporary organization be made permanent, and accordingly Judge H. R. Snively of Marshall, and Thomas E. Orr, of Buffalo, were declared duly elected for Chairman and Secretary respectively, of the Lay-Electoral Conference in session.

Mr. Orr announced as Assistant Secretaries, C. C. Grimmett and Ira B. Blackstock.

A motion was made, which prevailed, that the Secretary proceed to call the roll, by Districts, of those from whom he had received credentials, same to respond by answering present, and that if at conclusion of said roll call there were any present whose name had not been called, and who had credentials, same would present their credentials and be numbered with the other Lay-Delegates of their District and that this conclude the passing upon credentials.

The roll call showed there were 175 present and answering to call of name.

A motion was made and carried, that as nominations were made, the names of the candidates be placed upon blackboard.

A motion was made that nominating speeches be not allowed.

An amendment was made and seconded that nominating speeches be allowed, same limited to two minutes each, and the motion as amended prevailed, the original motion being lost. Accordingly the following candidates were nominated: Ira B. Blackstock, C. C. Grimmett, B. F. Kagey, John Kissick, S. A. Murdock, Judge Isaac Love, Mr. J. J. Rolofson, D. L. Musselman, Judge H. R. Snively, F. M. Austin, Miss Louise Dalbey and S. M. Sheldon.

A motion was made, which prevailed, that the candidates should all come to the front and stand in line, that all might see for whom they were voting.

The necessary majority vote being declared, the ballots were distributed, with the instruction from the chair that eight delegates were to be elected by this body to go as laymen to the next General Conference at Des Moines, Iowa, May next, and that all voting should vote for eight candidates, no more, no less.

The Chair appointed the following tellers: T. E. Orr, W. A. Joy, Milton Johnson, Miss Susan Buck, and Luther Wiley.

A motion was made and prevailed, that all candidates receiving a majority vote, be declared elected, and that we proceed to vote on balance, dropping no one, till the required eight candidates had been elected.

Ballots were collected, and tellers proceeded to count same.

President Kagey was called to front and proceeded to address association on the work of the past and the program of the future.

Drs. Harker and Kemp were both introduced to the association and spoke of the past, present and future of our Methodist Colleges in the Conference.

Accordingly, Blackstock, Grimmett, Snively, Murdock, Kagey, Dalbey, Musselman and Austin were declared elected as delegates from the Illinois Conference to the next General Conference, May next.

A motion followed which prevailed, that the three receiving the next highest votes be the reserves, it being necessary to elect three reserve delegates, and accordingly Love, Kissick and Sheldon were declared elected as reserves to the next General Conference, May next.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 19, 1919.

Devotions—C. W. Caughlin, Pittsfield, after which James C. Baker, D.D., Urbana, addressed the Conference, Subject, "The Centenary and Wesley Foundation."

President Kagey declared the meeting of Laymen's Association temporarily adjourned for the transaction of further business of the Lay-Electoral Conference and Judge Snively took the Chair. Immediately he called for the reading of the "Proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the Methodist Episcopal Church to be submitted to the Annual and Lay Electoral Conferences pursuant to a resolution passed at the General Conference of 1916.

"RESOLVED, that Article III of Chapter I and Article III of Chapter II of the Constitution of the Methodist Episcopal Church, being Division III thereof, entitled 'Articles of Organization and Government,' be amended by striking out paragraphs 36 and 39, which read as follows:

"Paragraph 36. The traveling preachers shall be organized by the General Conference into Annual Conferences, the sessions of which they are required to attend.

"Paragraph 39, Sec. 1. A Lay Electoral Conference shall be constituted quadrennially, or whenever duly called by the General Conference, for the purpose of electing Lay Delegates to the General Conference, and for the purpose of voting on constitutional changes. It shall be composed of lay members, one from each Pastoral Charge within its bounds, chosen by the lay members of the charge over twenty-one years of age, in such manner as the General Conference may determine. Each Pastoral Charge shall also elect in the same manner one Reserve Delegate. Members not less than twenty-one years of age, and holding membership in the Pastoral Charge electing them, are eligible to membership in the Lay Electoral Conference.

"Sec. 2. The Lay Electoral Conference shall assemble at the seat of the Annual Conference on the first Friday of the session immediately preceding the General Conference, unless the General Conference shall provide otherwise.

"Sec. 3. The Lay Electoral Conference shall organize by electing a President and Secretary, shall adopt its own Rules of Order, and shall be the judge of the election returns, and qualifications of its own members.

"Sec. 4. Each Lay Electoral Conference shall be entitled to elect as many Delegates to the General Conference as there are Ministerial Delegates from the Annual Conference. A Lay Electoral Conference may elect Reserve Delegates, not exceeding three in number, and not exceeding the number of its Delegates. These elections shall be by ballot.

"Sec. 5. Lay members twenty-five years of age or over, holding membership in Pastoral Charges within the bounds of the Lay Electoral Conference, and having been lay members of the Church five years next preceding, shall be eligible to election to the General Conference. Delegates-elect who cease to be members of the Church within the bounds of the Lay Electoral Conference by which they were elected shall not be entitled to seats in the General Conference."

And inserting in lieu of the paragraphs thus stricken out, the following:

"Sec. 1. Annual Conferences shall be organized by the General Conference, composed of Traveling Preachers holding membership therein, who are required to attend its sessions, together with one Lay Delegate from each Pastoral Charge within its bounds, such Lay Delegate to be elected by the lay members of the charge, over twenty-one years of age, in such manner as the General Conference may determine.

"Each Charge shall also elect in like manner a Reserve Delegate.

"A Lay Delegate shall be over twenty-one years of age and for two years a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

"Sec. 2. All matters relating to the passing of character examinations, trial of ministerial members, courses of study, ordination and Conference relations shall be determined by a vote of the ministerial members of the Annual Conference.

"Sec. 3. In the Annual Conference next preceding the meeting of the General Conference there shall be held one Ministerial Session composed of the ministerial members only, and one Lay Session composed of the lay members only. The Ministerial Session shall elect a number of Ministerial Delegates and reserves to which the Conference is entitled, and the Lay Session shall also elect a like number of Lay Delegates. The Lay Session shall also elect Reserve Delegates, not exceeding three in number. These delegates must be twenty-five years of age or over, hold membership in Pastoral Charge within the bounds of the Annual Conference, and must have been lay members of the Methodist Episcopal Church five years preceding their election.

"These elections shall be by ballot, Delegates-elect who cease to be members of the Church within the bounds of the Annual Conference, by which they were elected, shall not be entitled to seats in the General Conference."

A motion was made and carried to proceed to vote upon the Amendment as read. Accordingly the vote was taken, 129 voting yes. There were no nay votes.

The Chairman, Judge H. R. Snavelly, therefore declared the amendment carried by a vote of 129, or the total number present and voting.

Again by motion, the Lay-Electoral Conference stood adjourned, and the President of the Laymen's Association took charge of the meeting.

Rev. E. K. Crews was introduced and extended an invitation to the Joint session of Ministers and Laymen at Methodist Church at 8:00 P. M., and on motion, the invitation was heartily accepted.

Rev. C. Galeaner and H. C. Gibbs were introduced and spoke in behalf of the "Forgotten Man," the retired Minister. A motion prevailed, instructing the Committee on Resolution to incorporate any such recommendations as it saw fit, relative to the Conference Claimants, in its set of Resolutions.

The World Outlook was next presented, by Rev. Peter Kittel.

The Report of the Committee on Nominations was read as follows:

President—Benjamin F. Kagey, La Place, Ill.

Secretary-Treasurer—C. C. Grimmett, Palmyra, Ill.

Vice-Presidents:

Bloomington District—J. U. Surface, Mason City, Ill.

Champaign District—S. A. Murduck, Champaign, Ill.

Decatur District—Isaac L. Long, Assumption, Ill.

Mattoon District—Judge H. R. Snavelly, Marshall, Ill.

Quincy District—C. W. Caughlin, Pittsfield, Ill.

Springfield District—I. B. Blackstock, Springfield, Ill.

On motion which prevailed the report was adopted as read.

Mrs. Tempa Asher next spoke in interest of Baby Fold at Normal, Ill.

A motion prevailed, that the association make a free will offering to the members of the Presbyterian Church for the splendid offering of their Church for our session meetings.

Rev. J. M. Coleman was introduced, having been appointed by the Reformed Presbyterian Synod of North America to visit Ecclesiastical Bodies in the interest of the Christian Amendment, and spoke for five minutes.

By a motion, by B. F. Huff, the same was referred to the committee on resolutions.

A motion prevailed to adjourn, Rev. Gibbs pronouncing the benediction.

SATURDAY, A.M., SEPTEMBER 20, 1919.

The Conference was called to order by President, who asked Rev. Childs to speak in the interest of Anti-Saloon League, F. M. Austin not having come in.

After the same, devotions were led by F. M. Austin, Bloomington.

Business session followed; Vice-President's Report as follows:

Rev. E. K. Towle was next asked to read the report of the Conference Committee on Evangelism, and on motion the report was enthusiastically endorsed, as read.

A motion was made and carried that the minutes of the Laymen's Association and of the Lay-Electoral Conference, both be published in the Annual Conference Minutes.

Announcement was made by the Treasurer that the Presbyterian Church refused to accept the $10.00 voted them by the association and in turn a hearty vote of thanks was extended the Pastor and members of said church.

A motion prevailed not to print separately the resolutions this year.

D. L. Musselman, chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, made the following report.

Resolutions of the Laymen's Association, Charleston, Ill., September 18-19-20, 1919.

The Resolutions Committee of the Laymen's Association submit the following resolutions:

RESOLVED. 1. That the Laymen's Association approve of and support the great evangelistic program which is now being presented by our church. That we request the conference to have the report of the committee on Evangelism printed in sufficient number to supply all the church officials.

2. That we co-operate and assist to the extent of our ability, both as an association and as individuals, in making this evangelistic program a success.

3. That we believe in the efficiency of prayer and of the prayer service in the home, and to this end invite our ministers to take every opportunity to hold services in our homes.

4. That we condemn the use of cigarettes and approve of any good laws which may be passed for the purpose of prohibiting the selling or giving of cigarettes to minors.

5. That we approve of the act which prevents the reopening of the saloon or the selling of intoxicating liquor until the National Law preventing the selling of the same shall come into effect. That we are opposed to any act or law that legalizes the making of wine or other intoxicating liquors for private consumption.

6. That, appreciating the great influence for good that our Methodist papers exert in the home, that we approve of the campaign to place a Methodist paper in every Methodist home.

7. That we congratulate those in charge of the Chaddock Boys School and the Cunningham Home and Baby Fold for the excellent work they are doing for the kingdom of Jesus Christ in taking care of the orphan boys and children. That we approve of the work they are doing and recommend that they be given a hearing wherever they may go to present their work.

8. That we appreciate the value of all our educational institutions to the cause of Methodism, but especially commend the work of Woman's College at Jacksonville, Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, and the Wesleyan Foundation at Urbana.

9. That we extend our thanks to the Ministerial Association for the many courtesies shown us during this session of the Illinois Annual Conference, and that we especially appreciate our having been invited to hear Ernest C. Wareing, together with the additional courtesy of having seats reserved for us.

10. That our thanks be extended to the good people of Charleston for the warm welcome given to the laymen of the Illinois Conference, as well as to Trustees of the Presbyterian Church for the use of their building for our meetings.

11. That we appreciate the tireless work of our officers in making this one of the best and most successful sessions in the history of our association, and thank them for the services that they have so freely given.

September 20, 1919.

(Signed) Committee

D. L. Musselman,

Emma Jermain,

A. R. Crook.

A motion prevailed that made it possible for President and Secretary to make donations to the following, if in their judgment the funds justified it, after all obligations for the year were met:—Baby Fold, Cunningham Home, Chaddock Boys' School and Conference Claimants.

After song, and prayer by Judge Oscar F. Cochran, the Association adjourned.

Daily Proceedings.

JOURNAL OF SESSION.

FIRST DAY, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1920.

Opening—The ninety-seventh session of the Illinois Annual Conference convened in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Decatur, Illinois, at 8:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, September 8, 1920, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., LL.D., presiding.

After singing the hymn, "I Love Thy Kingdom, Lord," F. B. Madden led the Conference in prayer. The Bishop read appropriate selections of Scripture and based his address to the Conference on 2 Corinthians 8:9 and 2 Chronicles 27:29. The Reverend George Elliott of Detroit led the Conference in prayer. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered by the Bishop, assisted by the District Superintendents and the host of the Conference, H. A. Havighurst.

In Memoriam—F. B. Madden, Secretary of the last Conference, called the roll of the deceased members, of whom there were twelve, and the names of seven ministers' wives, deceased.

W. A. Smith presided at the Memorial service. After the singing of a hymn W. H. Webster offered prayer. After brief remarks by W. A. Smith, T. N. Ewing delivered an appropriate address.

Visitors—The Bishop introduced Dr. George Elliott, Editor of the Methodist Review, and Dr. P. J. Maveety, Secretary of the Board of Negro Education, who briefly addressed the Conference.

Roll-Call—The Secretary of the last Conference called the roll and 201 responded to their names. On motion the Conference ordered to dispense with the further calling of the roll.

Message of Sympathy—On motion of E. M. Antrim, the Secretary was directed to send a letter of sympathy to Brother Oscar F. Jones, who is unable to be present at the opening of Conference on account of sickness.

Organization—On motion of E. G. Sandmeyer, F. B. Madden was elected Secretary, with power to name his assistants. He named E. G. Sandmeyer, E. J. Campbell and C. W. Hamand, and R. L. Steed, Registrar of the Board of Examiners.

On motion O. H. Meyers was elected Statistician, and named as his assistants H. Ray Funk and M. M. Marshall; and to collect secretarial expense fund, Merrill Faulk, Milton Wilson, E. E. Williams, A. R. Wassell, Fred Reed, B. D. Mallinson and O. E. Martin.

Statistical Session—The Statistician and Treasurer received the Statistics and Reports.

Order of the Day—On motion of B. F. Shipp the report of the Committee on Conference Claimants was made the Order of the Day at 10 A. M. Thursday.

Ewing Petition—T. N. Ewing read a resolution concerning the appointment of District Superintendents, which paper he desired adopted and presented as a petition from the Conference to the Bishop. After extended debate the resolution was referred back to the maker to be rewritten, and its representation and consideration were made the Order of the Day for Thursday, immediately after the reading of the Journal.

Adjournment—After the announcements and the benediction by Dr. W. F. Spry of the Upper Iowa Conference, the Conference stood adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Opening—The afternoon session convened at 1:30 o'clock, Bishop Nicholson in the chair. After the singing of a hymn, S. H. Whitlock led in prayer.

Report—Bishop Nicholson announced that, at the close of the present session of the Conference, M. N. English, Superintendent of the Decatur District, would be transferred to the Rock River Conference and appointed to the pastorate of First Church, Oak Park, Illinois.

Dr. English then read the report of his district, and, on motion of G. E. Serimger, the Committee on Resolutions was asked to present a resolution of appreciation of Dr. English and his work in this Conference.

Conference Board of Education—A. S. Chapman presented the following recommendation from the Conference Board of Education: "That M. N. English be requested at an early session of the Conference to present the report of the Executive Committee of the Illinois Wesleyan University, and that the report be referred to a Special Committee composed of three from each district, selected by the ministers themselves, and that the committee report back directly to the Conference before adjournment."

On motion the recommendation was adopted and M. N. English made the report. On motion the time of the session was extended and a recess of fifteen minutes was taken for the selection of the Special Committee. After recess the following committee was reported:

Bloomington District—A. K. Byrns, W. R. Leslie, C. H. Thrall.

Champaign-Danville District—H. A. Keck, Harry McPherson, Walter Aitkin.

Visitor—Dr. Charles A. Gage, of the Rock River Conference, was introduced and addressed the Conference concerning the work of the Board of Conference Claimants.

Quartet—A Girls' Quartet from the Pythian Home of this city was introduced and favored the Conference with two selections which were heartily appreciated.

Deaconesses—Bishop Nicholson stated the new legislation concerning Deaconesses, and M. G. Coleman was appointed to collect data in regard to the Deaconess Institutions within the bounds of this Conference.

Adjournment—After the announcements and the benediction the Conference stood adjourned.

SECOND DAY, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 1920.

Opening—Conference convened at 8:30 A. M., Bishop Nicholson in the chair. A. J. Patrick offered prayer. The Bishop delivered an address based on the words, "I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed."—Luke 16:3.

Journal—The Journal of Wednesday's sessions was read and approved.

Parchment—On motion of C. Galeener the request of Fred Stephenson for a certificate of ordination as a Deacon, instead of the original which he has lost, was referred to the Cabinet with power to act.

Order of the Day—T. N. Ewing read the rewritten copy of the petition which was referred back to him yesterday. On his motion it was adopted as read. (See Resolutions.)

Change of Relation—On motion of E. L. Pletcher the name of W. F. Gilmore was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Question Fourteen—The fourteenth question, "Was the Character of each Preacher Examined?" was resumed. E. L. Pletcher and B. F. Shipp read the reports of their districts. Later in the session E. M. Antrim and J. C. Nate read their reports.

Treasurer—The Conference Treasurer called the names of the charges whose reports were missing.

Introductions—Peter Kittel was introduced and represented the World Outlook. Dr. E. R. Zaring, Editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, was introduced and made an optimistic report concerning the circulation of the Northwestern.

Conference Claimants—The Order of the Day was taken up and a session of the Board of Conference Claimants was held, Bishop Nicholson presiding. The Field Secretary, H. C. Gibbs, read his annual report, and on motion it was accepted and ordered printed. (See Reports.)

M. N. English read the recommendations of the Commission on Conference Claimants' Campaign for Endowment Funds, and on motion the recommendations were adopted. (See Reports.)

M. N. English read the "Proposed Plan for Payment of Conference Claimants in Full for 1920-1921," and after discussion the plan was adopted on the motion of J. C. Nate, with special attention called to paragraph five, entitled "Funds from the Churches." (See Reports.)

On motion of E. M. Antrim the Commission on Conference Claimants was requested to designate one of its members to present this Plan to the Laymen's Association.

On motion of R. Y. Williams the Conference ordered that the District Superintendents and District Stewards apportion to the charges the amount apportioned to the districts.

On motion of M. N. English the special and supplementary resolutions of the proposed plan were adopted. (See Resolutions.)

Conference Board of Deaconesses—M. G. Coleman reported that the only property within the bounds of the Illinois Conference belonging to the Deaconess Board is the Chaddock Boys' School at Quincy.

The following were nominated and elected members of the Illinois Conference Board of Deaconesses: (1) From the Board of Managers, E. V. Moorman and M. N. English; (2) from the Conference, M. G. Coleman, C. R. Morrison, A. K. Byrns and F. A. McCarty; (3) Deaconesses working within the bounds of the Conference.

Conference Relations—On motion of C. M. Duncan the request of W. M. Hailey, F. J. Talbot and S. C. Williams for a change of relations was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Excused—On motion Leo Howard was excused from the further sessions of the Conference.

Wesley Foundation—On motion of J. C. Nate the Conference Treasurer was directed to pay all centenary moneys designated for the Wesley Foundation directly to that institution.

Report—H. A. Keck read the report of the Committee of Twenty-one on the Illinois Wesleyan University, and on his motion the report was adopted as read. (See Report.)

Adjournment—After the announcements and the benediction by the Reverend R. H. M. Augustine, of the Presbyterian Church, the Conference stood adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session opened at 1:30 o'clock, Bishop Nicholson in the chair. After singing "Faith of Our Fathers," the Conference was led in prayer by Dr. George B. Dean, of the Department of Evangelism of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension.

Excused—The Committee on Conference Relations was excused that they might have a special meeting.

Centenary Conservation and Advance—A program in the interest of the Centenary Conservation and Advance was scheduled for the hour, with the following speakers:

Dr. Christian F. Reisner, of New York, spoke on "What the Centenary is Doing"; Dr. J. W. Van Cleve, Area Secretary, spoke of the New Organization; Dr. Morris W. Ehnes, Treasurer of the Boards of Benevolence and Committee on Conservation and Advance spoke of the Financial Problems of the Centenary, and Dr. George B. Dean spoke on Evangelism.

Solo—Prof. S. M. Lutz, of Decatur, pleased the audience with a delightful solo at the close of the Centenary program.

Excused—Walter Aitkin was excused to attend a funeral.

Report—W. D. Fairchild read the report of the Mattoon District.

Draft—H. C. Gibbs presented a check for $1,300, being the dividend from the invested funds of the Board of Trustees for the Conference Claimants. The same was passed on to the Conference Treasurer.

Benediction—After prayer by Walter Aitkin the Conference stood adjourned.

THIRD DAY, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1920.

Opening—The third day's session convened at 8:30 A. M., Bishop Nicholson in the chair. After singing a hymn, J. A. Kumler led in prayer. In his morning address the Bishop drew modern lessons from the Parable of the Good Samaritan.

Journal—The Journal of Thursday's session was read, corrected and approved.

Condolence—C. Galeener announced the death of W. D. Best, of Los Angeles, California, and on motion the Secretary was directed to send a message of sympathy to Mrs. Best.

Methodist Review—The Bishop announced the appointment of S. R. Reno as solicitor for this magazine.

Question Fourteen—The fourteenth question, "Was the Character of each Preacher Examined?" was resumed. C. M. Duncan read his report of the Quincy District. The names of the effective Elders in charge were called; they answered the disciplinary questions and their characters were passed.

Semi-Centennial—W. F. Gilmore closes his fiftieth year in the effective relation, and the Conference, by rising vote congratulated him upon his long and effective ministry.

Appreciation—E. L. Pletcher, Superintendent of the Jacksonville District, reported that Mrs. N. M. Rigg had cared for the pastoral work on the Virginia Charge since the death of her beloved husband, and the Conference, by a standing vote, thanked her for her efficient service. The Official Board paid Mrs. Rigg the salary in full, including house rent, for the rest of the year. The Conference extended a vote of thanks to the Official Board for this generous act.

Conference Relation—On motion of C. M. Duncan the name of J. M. Nash was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Question Twenty-three—The twenty-third question, "Who are the Supernumerary Ministers?" was taken up. T. L. Hancock, W. D. McIntosh and C. E. Parsons were continued in this relation for another year.

Located—H. J. Floreth, C. S. Jupin and F. A. Enslow were granted a location at their own request.

Retired Relation—W. F. Gilmore, J. C. Enninger, M. F. Ault and J. E. Artz were granted the retired relation on their own request.

Report—The Committee on Conference Relations recommended that the request of C. S. Williams for a year's leave of absence be not granted, because he had not rendered the required number of years of service; that F. J. Talbot be granted the supernumerary relation; that A. B. Fry be not readmitted; and that Curtis A. Lawrence be discontinued at his own request.

Undergraduates—The requirement of the Discipline in regard to the report of work, representation by the District Superintendents and the Board of Examiners, passage of character, classification in the course of study, and election to orders, were observed in the case of each undergraduate when his name was called, and the action of the Conference in the case of each was taken in parliamentary method.

Question Six—The sixth question, "Who have been continued on trial?" was taken up. The following were continued in the studies of the first year: Harlow B. Ambler, Earl O. England, Harry R. Evans, Samuel Graves, Leland L. Lawrence, Homer M. Hoewing, J. Fred Melvin, Boyd L. Rudd, Clarence C. Nordling, Paul J. Snyder, Harold D. Suhm.

Wilbur E. Keenan, Howard Leach, Jesse L. Murrell were advanced to the studies of the second year, admitted into full membership, elected to deacon's orders, and then advanced to the studies of the third year.

Frank A. Lindhorst was advanced to the studies of the second year and elected to deacon's orders, to be transferred and ordained elsewhere.

Herman H. Dill and Mead M. Marshall, the latter conditioned, were advanced to the studies of the second year, and continued on trial. Guy W. Holmes was continued on trial in the studies of the second year.

Paul E. Carson, Merrill C. Faulk, Martin H. Neumeyer, Elmer D. Palmer, James B. Reed and Cliva R. Underwood were admitted into full membership, elected to deacon's orders and advanced to the studies of the third year.

James J. Gross and John M. Phillips were continued on trial in studies of the third year.

Question Nine—The ninth question, "What members are in studies of the third year?" was taken up. Frederick J. Talbot, Joseph D. Ewers, Ira S. Haverfield, Charles L. Stokes, Francis T. Peters were continued in studies of the third year.

Question Ten—The tenth question, "What members are in studies of the fourth year?" was taken up. John D. Barnhardt, Jr., Otto E. Martin, H. Ray Funk were advanced to studies of the fourth year.

John F. Long was continued in studies of the fourth year.

Question Eleven—The eleventh question, "What members have completed the Conference course of study?" was taken up. Alfred

E. Cole, Joseph M. Harrell, having completed the course of study, were passed therefrom and elected to Elder's orders.

The Bishop announced the transfer of Charles E. Hogue, a Deacon, in the studies of the fourth year, from the Southern Illinois Conference, and on the recommendation of the Cabinet and Board of Examiners, he was passed from the course of study and elected to Elder's orders. The transfer of John T. Stewart from the St. Louis Conference, on trial, in the studies of the second year, was announced, and, on motion, he was admitted into full membership, elected to Deacon's orders and advanced to studies of the third year.

Harry F. Higgins, an Elder admitted last year from the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and classified in studies for lack of full information, is now passed from the course of study.

Question Four—The fourth question, "Who have been received on credentials and from what churches?" was taken up. Bert M. Petty, an Elder in the Methodist Protestant Church, was received on his credentials; his orders were recognized, and on recommendation of the Cabinet and the Board of Examiners he was placed in studies of the fourth year.

Question Three—The third question, "Who have been readmitted?" was asked. Answer: None.

Question One—The first question, "Is the Annual Conference incorporated according to the requirements of the Discipline?" was asked. It is.

Trier of Appeals—The Trier of Appeals for last year were re-elected. (See Disciplinary questions.)

Disciplinary Questions 12, 13, 19, 20 and 21 were answered in the negative.

Graves of the Fathers—On motion of C. Galeener the pastors of the local churches were requested to arrange for a pilgrimage to and services at the graves of Hiram Buck, Horace Reed and other members of the Conference buried in the local cemetery, the service to be held next Sunday afternoon. Buck Prentiss and Lloyd W. Snerly were added to the committee at the request of the pastors.

Laymen—On motion of J. W. Van Cleve the Conference requested the Chair to appoint a committee of five to bear the greetings of the Conference to the Lay Electoral Conference and to invite that body and the members of the Laymen's Association to meet with us in joint session at their convenience. The Chair appointed J. W. Van Cleve, C. Galeener, Theodore Kemp, H. C. Gibbs and T. N. Ewing.

Bishop McDowell—Bishop Nicholson introduced with most cordial greetings Bishop William F. McDowell, of the Washington

Area, and invited him to preside. Bishop McDowell took the chair and at the request of the Conference delivered a felicitous address on "The Importance of Life Service."

Conference Burial Ground—On motion of C. Galeener the Conference requested the appointment of a committee to consider the purchase of a burial plot, in which members of the Conference and their wives might be buried, and report to the next session of the Conference. The Bishop appointed C. Galeener, R. Y. Williams, A. M. Wells, G. E. Scrimger and C. F. Buker.

Chair—Bishop Nicholson resumed the chair.

Seat of Conference—D. V. Gowdy invited the Conference to meet next year in Centenary Church, Jacksonville. On motion of E. M. Antrim the invitation was unanimously accepted.

Question Twenty-four—The twenty-fourth question, "Who are the retired ministers?" was asked. The names of a few of the brethren were called and their characters passed. (See Disciplinary questions.)

Adjournment—After the announcements and the benediction by J. D. Kruwell the Conference adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session convened at 1:00 o'clock, Bishop Nicholson in the chair. After singing a hymn, W. H. Anderson led the Conference in prayer.

Question Twenty-four—The twenty-fourth question was resumed, and the characters of the retired ministers were passed. (See Disciplinary questions.)

Walter Mitchell—A vote of thanks was extended Walter Mitchell for his great interest in the retired members of the Conference.

Duet—The Conference was favored with a beautiful duet by Miss Florence Atchinson and Mrs. B. A. Imboden.

Change of Relation—E. L. Pletcher presented the case of Brother J. P. Hillerby, who was granted a location in 1882 on account of the health of his family, and who now asks to be readmitted. The case was referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

Special Appointments—On the request of the Conference the Bishop made certain special appointments. (See appointments.)

Introduction—Rev. J. M. Beadles, an evangelist, was introduced to the Conference.

Publication of Minutes—T. B. Wright made a statement of cost per page for additional pages above the number contracted for, and on motion of F. A. McCarty a committee was ordered appointed to investigate number and prices of copies and report before adjournment of Conference. The Board of Trustees were appointed as this committee.

Adjournment—After prayer the Conference stood adjourned.

FOURTH DAY, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1920.

Opening—The session Saturday morning met at 8:30 A. M., Bishop Nicholson in the chair. Conference was opened with a hymn and prayer by F. E. Lochridge.

Journal—The Journal of Friday's sessions was read and approved.

Class for Admission—The class for admission into full membership was called forward, the Bishop asked them the Disciplinary questions, and they were admitted into full membership. The Bishop's address was based upon Hebrews 13:8, "Jesus Christ, the same yesterday, today and forever." It was a scholarly and evangelistic presentation of the permanency of the Gospel and its progressive interpretation.

Change of Relation—The Committee on Conference Relations made a partial report, as follows: J. P. Hillerby was readmitted and granted a retired relation; Ira S. Haverfield was continued in the Supernumerary relation and the Secretary was instructed to notify him that the Conference will take action looking toward his location at the next session. The relation of W. F. Hunter was changed from Supernumerary to effective; Wiley Johnson was continued in the Supernumerary relation; A. J. Jockish was granted a Supernumerary relation.

Excused—F. M. Harry was excused from further attendance at Conference.

Order of the Day—H. A. Keck read the report of the Committee on Education, and on his motion the report was adopted and the representatives of our educational institutions were allowed ten minutes each to represent their schools. Presidents Harker and Kemp spoke of the achievements and plans of the I. W. C. and I. W. U., respectively.

Introductions—F. A. Havighurst presented to the Bishop the pastors of sister churches in the city, and the Bishop introduced them to the Conference: T. H. Marsh, Baptist; C. E. Jenney, Presbyterian; J. R. Golden, Disciples; E. H. Shuey, United Brethren; W. S. Dando, Westminster Presbyterian.

Joint Session—The members of the Lay Electoral Conference and of the Laymen's Association were received and seated in the center of the auditorium. Judge Love, of Danville, president of the Lay Electoral Conference, and Benjamin F. Kagey, president of the Laymen's Association, were invited to seats on the platform.

Church Program—M. N. English read the Cabinet message to the joint session. It was a comprehensive and progressive document and presented a program for the new quadrennium, which challenges the deepest consecration of both ministers and laymen.

Certificate—The Bishop presented to T. B. Lugg, for the Sadorus charge, an engraved certificate for the best exhibit of work in the rural church.

Resolution—On the motion of F. A. McCarty, Secretary of the Committee on Resolutions, the Conference adopted a resolution of appreciation of the work of Dr. M. N. English. (See Resolutions.)

Program Endorsed—Judge Love and President Kagey made eloquent addresses endorsing the Quadrennial Program and pledging the loyal support of the laity of the Conference. E. K. Towle, representing the Conference Commission on Evangelism, spoke of the relation of evangelism to the success of the Quadrennial Program.

On motion of R. Y. Williams the plan in general was approved and a committee of ten, five ministers and five laymen, was ordered appointed and instructed to prepare a series of resolutions providing for a permanent committee on the proposed program, and to provide for its publication, and to report at the afternoon session. Committee: J. C. Nate, F. A. McCarty, A. S. Chapman, H. A. Keck, E. S. Combs, Ira B. Blackstock, B. F. Kagey, C. W. Coughlin, C. C. Grimmett, S. A. Murdock.

J. W. Van Cleve spoke of the relation of the program to the Centenary Conservation and Advance.

Wesley Foundation—J. C. Baker, Director of the Wesley Foundation, addressed the joint session concerning the work of the Foundation at the University of Illinois.

Adjournment—C. Galeener moved that, when we adjourn, we adjourn to meet at 1:45 o'clock. Dr. Clarence True Wilson pronounced the benediction and the Conference stood adjourned.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session was called to order at 1:45 o'clock, Bishop Nicholson in the chair. After the singing of a hymn C. D. Robertson led in prayer.

Board of Examiners—The Bishop announced the appointment of the members of the Board of Examiners. (See list.)

Conference Treasurer—J. L. Settles nominated H. H. Waltmire

as Conference Treasurer, and on motion he was elected to serve next year.

Auditor—E. A. Hedges was nominated as Auditor, and on motion he was elected to serve next year.

Introductions—The following persons were introduced and spoke briefly to the Conference: W. T. S. Fleming, Chairman of Public Welfare Committee, Chicago; Miss Watkins, representative of the Chicago Training School; N. E. Davis, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Hospitals; Charles W. Netz, Superintendent of Hospitals, Peoria; Miss Bertha Barber, principal of Jennings Seminary, Aurora.

Excused—D. L. Jeffers was excused from further attendance on the Conference.

Change of Relation—P. J. Rinehardt was continued in the effective relation, and the Bishop was requested to appoint him as agent of the Anti-Saloon League of Illinois. W. M. Hailey and F. T. Peters were granted a location on their own request.

Committee—On motion of A. S. Chapman a committee was ordered appointed to adjust the claim of the General Board of Conference Claimants. The Bishop appointed J. W. Van Cleve, J. L. Settles, Walter Mitchell, C. M. Barton and H. C. Gibbs.

Quadrennial Program—F. A. McCarty read the report of the Committee of Ten on the Quadrennial Program, and on motion the same was adopted. On motion of J. C. Nate the committee was authorized to give the proposed program its maximum of working effect in the ensuing Conference year, subject to the Discipline of the Church and the action of the Conference; and further, that the Committee report a more final working program for the whole proposition, to be presented to the joint session of 1921.

Introduction—Clarence True Wilson, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, was introduced and briefly addressed the Conference.

Adjourned—The Conference stood adjourned by expiration of time.

FIFTH DAY, SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1920.

Love Feast—The Annual Conference Love Feast was conducted by R. Y. Williams at 9:30 A. M. The public services of the Conference Sunday were held in the First Methodist Church, Decatur, Illinois, Bishop Thomas Nicholson preaching an eloquent and inspirational sermon.

Ordination—At 2:30 P. M. the Bishop ordained ten Deacons and three Elders. (See Certificate of Ordination.)

Missionary Anniversary—Dr. Benson Baker, of India, delivered the Missionary address and presented the India Mass Movement Pageant.

SIXTH DAY, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 13, 1920.

Opening—Conference convened at 8:30 A. M., the Bishop in the chair. He read Psalm 96 and Revelation 7:9-17. G. E. Scrimger led in prayer.

Journal—The Journal of Saturday and Sunday was read and approved.

Publication of Minutes—Report on the publication received and adopted. (See Reports.)

Change of Relation—The relation of G. E. Burton was changed from supernumerary to effective; that of T. F. Hartman from effective to supernumerary, and H. F. Cusic was continued in the effective relation.

Counsel—On motion of R. W. Ennis L. G. Adams was elected counsel for the church.

Minutes—On motion of R. W. Ennis the printed minutes were made the Official Journal of the Conference.

Deaconesses—F. A. McCarty read the report of the Board of Deaconesses and it was adopted.

Miss Eva Frields addressed the Conference concerning the work at Chaddock Boys' Home and School.

Question Five—The fifth question, "Who have been received on trial?" was taken up. With proper representation by the District Superintendents, the Board of Examiners and Quarterly Conference recommendation, the following were received: Fred A. Buchholz and Homer Delap (a Deacon), from the Decatur District; Ray L. Ragan, from the Jacksonville District, and Richard J. Wroughton, from the Quincy District.

At School—E. L. Pletcher reported names of men to be left without appointment to attend school. Report adopted. (See appointments.)

Question of Privilege—Hiram Buck Prentice addressed the Conference on his service as Treasurer of the Conference Trustee Fund, Conference Claimants and Preachers' Aid Society, and Trustee of the Illinois Wesleyan University. On motion of A. S. Chapman the following resolution was adopted:

"Whereas, Hiram Buck Prentice has served the Illinois Conference during the past thirty years in various positions of trust; therefore, be it

“Resolved, That we express our appreciation and commendation of his faithfulness and sacrificing service to these interests.”

Report—The Conference Treasurer and Statistician read their reports. The same were adopted and ordered printed in the Minutes.

Asbury—On motion of Peter Kittell the Asbury Monument Fund was referred to the District Superintendents with power to act.

Insurance—On motion of J. C. Nate the Conference requested the Auditing Committees of the various charges to have ample insurance on all church properties.

Boundaries—On motion of H. W. McPherson a commission of twenty-one on boundaries was ordered raised.

Reports—The following reports were read and adopted: Evangelism, Home Mission and Church Extension, Literature.

Church Property—On motion of J. C. Nate the Conference authorized the sale of certain church property; and on motion of B. F. Shipp like authorization was granted. (See reports.) On motion of J. W. Van Cleve the Conference ordered that the sale of all church property be reported to the Conference.

Recess—On motion of S. H. Whitlock the Conference adjourned to meet at 1:00 P. M. Benediction by S. H. Whitlock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Conference assembled at 1:00 P. M., F. A. McCarty in the chair, by appointment of the Bishop. C. R. Morrison offered prayer.

(A) DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS.

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

B. F. Shipp, Superintendent.

The past year has been made notable by many events, not the least among them being the fact that women now have their place beside men in the affairs of state. This may be regarded as epochal. It may be questioned, however, whether this will have a large bearing on any purely political issue, but it does give both the promise and assurance of the triumph of every moral issue.

War is still waging in the world, capital and labor are still clashing, a wave of inflation, extravagance and wild speculation is sweeping over the nation, while the quest of pleasures new is unprecedented, and the mad rush for amusement declares the fact that the nation has lost its poise. Nothing but the grace of God and the spirit of the Christ can steady the world and hold fast the church in these tumultuous days. More sad is the fact that "the fever of the disturbed world is in the veins of the church" of today. The church finds herself in a new world, facing new and perplexing problems, for which is demanded the best equipped ministry, and the most consecrated laity, if the church would follow her Lord and share in His triumphs.

The personnel of the district has changed, and lost no little of its strength, in the departure of Dr. W. H. Wilder. He was a choice soul, a discriminating ecclesiastical statesman, wise in counsel, strong in administration, high in scholarship, beautiful in spirit and attractive in personality. His impress is upon us, and will be in the years to come, while the wisdom and strength of his leadership cannot be forgotten.

Sister Lacey, who for more than forty years, was a true helpmate to the Rev. W. C. Lacey, and with him shared the toils of the itinerant ranks, peacefully and calmly followed him into the clime celestial, from their home in Green Valley, on August 19th of this year.

The year on the district opened auspiciously. Only one charge was left to be supplied, that being DeWitt. The Rev. A. E. Bundon was secured to serve that charge, where he has rendered a most acceptable year's service. The health of the Rev. E. O. England, who was serving the Ebenezer charge, failed during the mid-winter, and he had to be relieved of his charge. The Rev. John Small, of Normal, was secured to succeed Brother England, and has served well, bringing to us a worth-while report from that charge.

Early in the year we addressed ourselves to the task of evangelism, with great earnestness, seeking to harmonize ourselves with the spirit and plans of the great movement of the church. Scarcely a charge on the district failed to thoroughly organize itself for this purpose, and it is fair to say that each pastor sought to do his best, in the face of serious obstacles, in the form of inclement weather, sickness and other difficulties. Yet it can not be said that there was any really outstanding revival, that is public revival, where hundreds were swept into the kingdom, and a wave of evangelistic fervor swept the city or community. Few churches reached the hundred mark, and the exceptions were very few, where the twenty-five per cent increase was secured. But many hearts were "strangely warmed," consecrations renewed, and not a few were added to the Kingdom. About fifteen hundred conversions were reported, and a larger number of accessions. But this was nearly all accomplished in a personal way, and by the personal method. We do not stress figures in this connection, for experience has taught us that figures presented through the conference year are not always identical with those printed in the statistical columns of the Minutes, for the figures printed there are said to be absolutely cold. However, in this part of our task every man wrought faithfully, much of toil, sacrifice and consecration characterizing his efforts.

The Centenary subscriptions have received careful attention. In this whole Centenary movement we are learning much, and were we now to inaugurate such a campaign, it would be carried forward with much greater wisdom, born of experience. The offerings for this fund will not reach the high tide of last year, for many then paid the whole amount they had pledged, intended to cover a period of five years. Many reasons may be assigned for it, if we should fail to reach the goal of last year. Whether wise or unwise, many of the subscriptions in the rural charges were made payable on September 1st, as had been done, for so long, in the regular benevolences. This fact made it difficult to press the payment of the subscriptions before they were due. This left an interim of only a few days from the time the subscriptions were due till this session of our conference opened. Then we all appreciate the present financial situation, which is far from an easy one, when not a few of the banks are loath to make loans on the best of security. It will be appreciated that in this particular our rural communities are suffering the most, due to the car shortage, which has made it impossible for many to dispose of the crops of last season, while scarcely a bushel of the crops of the present season has been marketed. Consequently not a few who are paying their Centenary subscriptions have been compelled to borrow money to do so—which in some instances is difficult to do—in order that they may meet these obligations, which, by this method, I am glad to say several are doing. In spite of these conditions, I am glad to say that the report the district will make on these funds will be highly commendable, and the second year, I think, will see its quota met.

In this period of the high cost of labor and material, little might be hoped for in the matter of new buildings and extensive improvements, yet, much activity has characterized the district in this particular.

The first Sunday of the year was spent with the church at Weldon, which church building had, for some months previously, been undergoing extensive repairs, at a cost of several thousand dollars. On that day a special rededicatory service was held, which was largely attended. This church now has one of the most attractive auditoriums on the district. In addition to this, much improvement was made on the parsonage. The church at Farmer City has been beautified, its Sunday School facilities increased, and the comfort of the worshippers enhanced by an entirely new heating plant being installed. Saybrook has expended some fifteen thousand dollars in an addition to the church, which has modernized, and largely increased the equipment of the Sunday School department, while the social needs of the church are fully met. The payment of this has all been met. Through the aid of the Centenary, a fine modern parsonage has been purchased for the use of the DeWitt charge, approaching six thousand dollars in value. At Hopedale a new modern parsonage has been built and is ready for occupancy. It is most convenient in its appointments, beautiful in appearance and splendidly located. The Grace church at Bloomington and our church at Beason have been redecorated and otherwise improved. Other needed repairs and improvements are being made at First Church, Bloomington, LeRoy and other points, and not a few old debts have been liquidated. I am glad to make special mention of the fact that the great burden of debt, that has been weighing down the Park church, Bloomington, for so many years, is now practically wiped out.

It is gratifying to learn that so many of our charges are appreciating the increased financial strain there is upon us, and are seeking to bring relief to our pastors, by providing a salary more commensurate with their needs. However, none of our pastors have yet received an increase in salary in proportion to the advance in the cost of living, and several of our pastors are underpaid.

It is not difficult to convince the many that the cost of living has increased over one hundred per cent, since the period just prior to the war. But to convince our people that a salary is needed commensurate with that advance is the difficulty. In many callings this has been done, but not in the ministry. Indeed, not a few of our pastors receive a compensation smaller than the unskilled laborer, and in their climb after the cost of living they still find themselves fifty per cent and more behind in the climb. While the cost of living has advanced more than one hundred per cent, during the period mentioned, the advance in the pastor's salary range from five per cent to nearly fifty per cent, giving the two extremes, while the general or average advance which has been made to the pastors is about forty per cent, and yet, for full time effective men, the Bloomington district is paying the largest average salary of the conference. All honor to those charges which are seeking to provide for their pastors a comfortable support, and we are glad to state that these are not few in number. In this connection it affords me pleasure to remark that last June provisions were made for an increase of twenty-five per cent in the salary of nearly every member of the faculty of the Illinois Wesleyan University.

This organization has enjoyed a year of marked success. It has been a vital factor in the development of the devotional life of our youth, and the part it had in our evangelistic campaign was by no means insignificant. There has been a large increase in Study Classes, both in Bible and Missions. The convention held at Atlanta in June was more largely attended than usual. Its results were mostly instructive and inspirational. Not a few took advantage of the helpful features afforded at the conference Institute held at Springfield in August. During the year several new Chapters have been organized, among the stronger of these is the newly reorganized Chapter at Farmer City.

While the enrollment of Sunday Schools may not have largely increased, nor the average attendance advanced, yet the work of the schools is being carried on with greater efficiency. The teacher training classes are multiplying. First Church, Bloomington, has secured as its Director of Religious Education, Miss Hazel Hastings, of Boston, who comes well equipped and bringing a wealth of experience to her task.

The women's organizations never labored more earnestly than this year, nor accomplished larger results. Our Ladies' Aid Societies have not only shared the financial burdens with the men, some of them in the aid rendered exceeding a thousand dollars, but have made thousands of calls upon the sick, and also in personal effort, during the evangelistic campaign, supplementing the pastors' work in a most efficient manner.

The two missionary organizations have surpassed by far the splendid achievement of other years, and have set for themselves a new standard, both in advance in membership and their financial offerings. Not only so, but their zeal in their own department has rebuked our lack of devotion, and inspired us to larger endeavor.

Last year was one of the most successful years in the history of this institution. The commencement occasion was one of unusual interest, it being the seventieth anniversary of the school, at which time hosts of enthusiastic alumni returned and made the occasion eventful. The institution has sustained a great loss among its alumni in the death of Dr. Wilder and Judge Sain Welty.

During the year the College of Music has been thoroughly reorganized, under the direction of Dr. Edward Mason Young. Its new location, in property purchased adjacent to the campus, proves to be very advantageous, making it now a really vital part of the institution. Among the things making for the advance of this department is an increased attendance and the fact that a new pipe organ has been installed in Amie Chapel.

Education has assured the University that it will receive from that source the amount of seven thousand five hundred dollars, to aid in its general expense account for the ensuing year. The Trustees of the Buck Estate have aided in the purchase of several thousand new volumes for the library. Last year the new department, that of Religious Education, made good progress under the direction of Dr. Piersel. Its popularity will be doubtless increased this year, when it is recalled that Dr. Piersel has spent a greater part of the summer at other universities in special work, thus securing a larger preparation for his department, for which he was already so well equipped both by education and richness of experience.

It is to be noted that during the past summer there have been several alterations made in the main building, giving more room for the office force. Prof. Silbert Ferguson has been elected Dean of the Institution, and the duties of Registrar, Bursar and Secretary of the Board of Trustees have been combined, under the direction of Prof. Cliff Guild, who for so many years was at the head of the Department of Mathematics. His entire time will now be devoted to the business affairs of the institution. Several new additions have been made to the faculty, for the ensuing year. These new members of the faculty come highly recommended, and have been most carefully selected because of their fitness to serve in the different departments for which they have been secured, thus insuring a larger and stronger teaching force than ever before. The authorities are greatly encouraged by the excellent prospects of a substantial increase in attendance, in every department for the ensuing year.

Our needs are a new spiritual emphasis everywhere, a clearer God-consciousness, that, at present will turn the thoughts of our people inward rather than outward, upward rather than downward, that will stem the tide of materialism, and make larger room for the Christ. The spiritual vision is dim, the feet tread wearily after things spiritual, while in the pursuit of wealth and pleasure, we run and not weary, walk and faint not. In this age, rife with materialism and steeped in indulgence, when, as Gladstone has said, "the seen is gaining on the unseen," the call never was so loud for a deeper consecration on the part of the ministry and a fuller surrender on the part of the laity. But to another of our number has been assigned the duty of speaking on this and kindred matters.

In the matter of the Methodist social life of the district, a new feature was introduced this conference year. Without any suggestion on the part of the district superintendent, plans were laid for a district picnic, which was held at Miller Park, Bloomington, on September 2nd. All the plans were well executed by the brethren, and resulted in a gathering of several hundreds of people, representing every part of the district. This was the most exclusively social occasion the district has ever enjoyed. It afforded an opportunity for social intercourse among the people from all parts of the district. The arrangements were most desirable, the fellowship was delightful. The unusual expressions of esteem and regard for the district superintendent and his wife are highly appreciated. Great credit is due those who so wisely planned, so skillfully and graciously executed the plans. So splendid was the occasion that a permanent organization was effected, composed of three ministers and two laymen to make provision for a similar occurrence annually.

Our relations, through the year, with the pastors and people, have been most happy. My gratitude is here expressed to the pastors, for their earnest devotion to their tasks, to the people for their hearty co-operation with the pastors in every enterprise undertaken for the enlargement of the Kingdom. I count myself happy to have had the privilege of being associated through the years with such a band of co-laborers. Your courtesies, hospitalities and Christian fellowship have been delightful. Our relations have been so intimate, and so free from any differences or misunderstandings, that I am not a stranger to those finer emotions of soul, that prompted the hymnist to write:

"The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above."

CHAMPAIGN-DANVILLE DISTRICT.

J. C. Nate, Superintendent.

Methodism has decreed that the District Superintendent shall be appointed annually. But in the thought of men under the old regime, at least, the fourth, and fifth, and the sixth years upon a district bring to a Superintendent broad generalities for the work which have not impressed him in his earlier administration. The present report marks the close of the fifth year of the superintendency upon the Champaign district, the last three have been upon the new basis known as the Champaign-Danville territory. It is a small parcel of charges, the fewest in number of any district, located in the extreme northwest corner of our Conference domain, and, though least among the tribes, those who serve the Kingdom over there have taken a fair pride in seeing that the reports we might bring up year by year were not unworthy.

May I confess to the change in myself, that whereas in the earliest years the emphasis of one's thoughts as superintendent is more individual and specific, charge by charge and pastor by pastor, it comes in a few years that the things which stand out are the larger mountain ranges and peaks of the journey, not always easy that the whole column of churches shall find the way across them, but with a fine feeling of exhilaration among us all when those things are done. I would not lose sight of the fact that the victory of the army is, in the end, the achievement of each man in his own charge. But after a while the question which burns into heart and brain is how as a group of men working shoulder to shoulder and associated with our laymen, we shall offer substantial contribution to the great problems and movements of the Kingdom in our day. Such campaigns of the more recent period have included the general evangelistic appeal of a million souls for our Christ and church; the achievement of the Centenary quotas, and their due collection in these first and second years for the building of the fires upon the home altars and to claim the bleeding valleys of this whole world for Christ; and the need that every pastor who for himself and home circle is giving his whole time and life to Kingdom tasks and the leadership of our laymen for the same, shall have a living wage; and the related endeavor that the veterans from these same ranks shall likewise have their claim for a comfortable livelihood when the sun is westering, a right inherent, absolute and supreme. These are our great movements, as we say, or to use the word less magic than once it was, our organized "campaigns" for the Kingdom. But there is another phase of our whole ministry which is more immediate and equally potent. It is the problem of making the church a victorious influence for God and righteousness in times which are troubled; among men tempted to yield to the currents of selfishness which so assert themselves in these days; and to claim for goodness the many who have gone astray. Christ is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption. The outline of the old-time preacher upon that four-fold text was that this world needs to be lighted up, and righted up, and cleaned up, and rounded up. In this age-long "campaign" we have our problems in these fields of Illinois equally with the crowded centers of the land and the more benighted places of the nation. It is not a passing matter but a tremendous thing that we ourselves as preachers of the cross in these times and in our places are called to become through the voice and organization of our work, prophets of the Redeemer in towns and cities where sin and selfishness abound; and that equally in the rural regions where the church has tended to become a meager hour of worship, we are called to lead it into the power of a resistless influence for God.

The evangelistic campaign of the past year was a mighty blessing in that it brought us all back to the primary purposes of our whole ministry. With "Salvation in Every Home" as the slogan, we were led to such a year as has marked the best and happiest memories of our ministry. For, however much God may have blessed any of us in material achievements, the building of churches and the accumulation of funds for momentous causes, there is nothing which so cheers the spirit of the preacher as the recollection of the man or the woman, the boy or the girl, whom he was privileged to lead to Jesus Christ. All the futures of the world are in that conquest, and with those victories have always gone the joy of angels and the best music of our own hearts. The total enlistments for Christ and the Kingdom, as reported for the district during the evangelistic year, or to May 1, were 1,400 and the accessions to the church were 1,100. It is not our full quota of an increase of a fourth, as the district full membership is 13,000 people, but it was substantial work everywhere with results of permanent kind. The more marked victories in special meetings were at Henning, Thomasboro, Danville, Lincoln, Paxton and Champaign, with evangelistic movements of important scope and character at numerous other places. But some of the most significant results were where the protracted meetings were less a feature of the year than the steady work of pastors, Sunday School workers, Epworth Leaguers and other personal workers, winning one, and one, and one, until the district total of recruits has exceeded that of any single year in the decade past.

In the Centenary endeavor, the quota of the district was $535,975. The figure was reached on the eighth day of the campaign and the Chicago office gave us the encouragement that we were one of the four districts of the area first over the top on that day. The continuance of the battle throughout the remaining period brought our figures to $572,000. All the charges but five had completed the quota and these had large returns under unusual difficulties. The collections of last year were hardly a real test of the worth of this campaign, because the Conference payments were sufficiently near to the making of the subscriptions seemingly to assure the remittance of the first one-fifth. The total payment of the district upon the Centenary quotas at the last Conference session was officially certified at $104,364, to which sum $3,000 were added in belated reports. It was an increase of $89,493 for the apportioned benevolences over the year before. Brother Barton's apportionment sheets showed the total of 256 star credits for all the benevolences of all the charges out of the possible total of 266 such credits. The total amount was officially listed as 98% of the first year's total due, the delayed $3,000, however, making the full 100%. By the way, what a clear-cut and masterly piece of work our own Charley Barton has done in that difficult apportionment department, and how it fulfills the promise of his accurate, painstaking, and scholarly work as a former preacher in our midst. The Champaign-Danville district shares in the pride taken in Brother Barton's work and not less in the great contribution made to the records of Methodism by his chieftain, Dr. J. W. VanCleve, in these four difficult years of his statesman-like and consecrated leadership as the executive officer of the Commission on Finance. We are anticipating a collection for the district for the second year of the Centenary, as reported to the Conference this week, equal to the showing of last year. But it is already apparent from a close notation of the exact conditions in the charges that there are breakers ahead. Both last year and this, advance payments have been included, against which we have not yet duly fortified the situation for the third, fourth and fifth years. Especially is there no serious thought as yet for the maintenance of all the work when these five years are done. Here is one of the gravest problems of our new Council of Church Boards, and one upon which our work as Conference men while not of a bulk like that of the original campaign, will demand even more of good method, pervasive influence for God and world, and that our programs for prayer and stewardship shall run far deeper than of yore.

The problem of the preachers' salaries in the nature of the case we have always with us. We appreciate that as a District we have by no means mastered it, but rejoice in a degree of success. It was before the war, the days when men were asked by churches to live and support their families upon the pitiful salaries of a thousand and twelve hundred dollars per year while those whom they served and whose lives they blest were everywhere waxing prosperous in this favored land, that we adopted the slogan of a minimum salary of $1500 for every man giving full time to the work of the pastorate. That goal we have realized. But the new conditions produced by the war have brought us to the new standard for such parsonages, still inadequate, of $1800. We were gratified at the report sent out this summer by the Commission on Finance that in the average cash salary of Conference members we were privileged to lead the Districts of the so-called rural Conferences of the church. The average thus stated for last Conference year was $1697. To that status we may report the increases of salary made for the Conference year now brought to its close in the total amount of $7000. The average cash salary of men giving full time to the work is now $1942. The average including student appointments and supply work is $1685. The advances so far reported for the ensuing year amount to $3500, the largest single item being $500 at Paxton, bringing this splendid county seat church to its deserved place in all the relations of its work. The average cash salary of the District for men giving entire time will in the ensuing Conference year considerably exceed $2000.

There has been a special development in this same relation which is well worthy of record. When the campaign was on three years ago for bringing every church claiming full time of a pastor to the minimum of $1500 there were a half-dozen Charges, each composed of a splendid folk who did not then fully realize what Christ our Lord will do for churches which launch out into what they then felt was "the deep." Their communities were felt hardly to be equal to the $1500 proposition. The District program in all such cases was to require a minimum salary of $1200 and, with it, the privilege for one of our younger Conference men to complete his seminary work at Garrett Institute. We all knew that the Conference had a number of younger brethren desiring such an opportunity but no Charges seemingly available for them within fair traveling distance of Evanston. We were within the distance, and what better piece of Kingdom-work could be done than to give at least some of these young men of ours who must lead the Conference and church tomorrow, the opportunity which so many of them coveted. A number of men have thus completed the work at Evanston, and during the past year, among the best pieces of work in the District are the results to be reported for the Garrett men who have served these erstwhile student Charges. At Ogden, Bro. W. G. Pulliam, having finished his seminary work a year ago has remained for the complete remodeling of the parsonage and the building of a beautiful $30,000 church which will be dedicated in November. At Bismarck, Bro. W. E. Keenan has laid the corner stone of a fine $20,000 church whose dedication is expected by the holidays. At Catlin, Bro. W. B. Theobald has plans now complete for the building of a parsonage worthy of this little city of beautiful homes. At the remaining places, McKendree and Fairview, Philo, and Vermillion Heights, there have been property improvements less extensive and the record of victorious work in their fields. The case of St. Joseph is special with a Garrett man on the accustomed full-time salary basis, and a most successful year. Perhaps the most interesting result of this experiment, if it may be called an experiment, is that six of these Charges, the seminary work of their pastors being complete, are advancing salaries to $1600, $1800, and possibly larger amounts, in order to hold their student preachers upon the full-time basis. I am sure that our older ministers and men longer established throughout the District, will rejoice that this special field of achievement should be singled out for mention. And, as their superintendent sees it, when the light burns low in whatever days may lie ahead, no single item of possible administrative result will more warm the heart and brighten the way than this plan for our Garrett Institute boys of these recent years.

One wishes that he could relate in like detail the achievements of all the men, throughout the District, if only as a record of personal and official appreciation for the results attained; Included is the great new movement at Danville, St. James, where Bro. H. W. McPherson rejoices in a year of definite progress toward the fine goals set by his church; the continuing work of Bro. J. H. Singleton at Shiloh, our acknowledged leader in the Rural work, whose laurels for the present year include the building of a beautiful $7000 parsonage matching in its architecture the splendid rural church; and the thirteen years of James C. Baker at Trinity Church, Urbana, now being crowned by the building in enduring stone of the Social Center Building, first unit of the Wesley Foundation program at the University of Illinois, to be followed by the new church. Architecturally, the new Social Center structure promises to be marked and remarkable for its beauty in the midst of edifices all of stately character. No tribute of his District Superintendent need be added of the man who has won his recognition throughout the church as its representative leader in the care and training of our Methodist boys and girls at the tax-supported and similar institutions. It would rather be his own desire that it be recorded, as it is a thing much deserved to say, that in connection with this achievement at the University of Illinois we have a permanent indebtedness to the Board of Education of the church at large, with Dr. A. W. Harris as its administrator, and to the Board of Home Missions of our church under the official direction of Dr. D. D. Forsyth. Because of the relations of the latter Board, especially with our financial interests in the Centenary Dr. Forsyth has been enabled to bring us peculiarly effective support and help in some difficult features of our building program, and has the gratitude therefor of the Trustees and Executive Committee of the Foundation. At the corner-stone laying of the Social Center Building on April 28, 1920, we were favored with the presence of both of our Bishops of the Trustee Board of the Foundation, Bishop Thomas Nicholson the president, and Bishop W. F. McDowell, of Washington, D. C. In many ways throughout the entire enterprise it has had the strength and support of these two men, our Bishop Nicholson as now our chief administrative officer of the Foundation and Bishop McDowell as formerly in that relation, and each of them, aside from all official interest, its faithful friend.

One wishes dearly that conditions permitted a recital of the good work of every man and the good work of our laymen in every Charge. Even the names of those whose Charges are not here reported in deserved and specific ways bring memories of the many visits, of the sturdy work of pastor and people, and of successes for the Kingdom worthy of extended statement. There are two names more to call, because this year the angels called them, and we knew that, elsewhere, was written of their work, "well done." In the winter time there went away from us the veteran loved and honored, William McKendree Gooding. The other name is that of the faithful Mark White who was at Henning. On Saturday morning, March 27, 1920, when seemingly recuperating from his weeks with the influenza, quite suddenly he fell on sleep. May I frankly here express the thought that Bro. White was one of those many earnest workmen among us, not so well known because of the average or even modest relations of their work, and easily possible not fully to appreciate in their quiet, effective work and endless results attained as Conference men. These are, in fact, the great body of our army, who year by year are doing the work. The laborer in places of prominence or special opportunity would, indeed, be the first to say that many of the most satisfactory results of an entire ministry are those which they have known in the former years or in so-called lesser fields of activity. Some pen sufficiently gifted ought some day to write a fitting tribute to "the rank and file" of our ministry who, in relations often unheralded, faithfully achieve and make up that great bulk of work which alone makes possible the District and Conference reports of proud total victories. In these relations of his work Mark White never failed. His victory for the Centenary at McEndree and Fairview was a perfectly noteworthy achievement. The new parsonage there was an evidence of his quiet skill and perseverance. When the call was for tithers, for Advocate subscribers, for the campaign for our Conference Claimants, his lists in proportion to the strength of his Charge stood to his credit equal to the achievements of the strongest churches in the Champaign-Danville District. Upon his removal to Henning a year ago, the immediate call was to our evangelistic year, and in the few brief weeks of his single meeting personally conducted at Jamesburg, there were recruited for the Kingdom thirty-three, old and young, who through all the years will remember dear Mark White with joy and gratitude. "Life's race well run; life's work well done, life's crown well won," he has joined that larger number of old Illinois Conference, all too many for our hearts in this single Conference year, whose spirits seem to mingle with us betimes, and "Bid us forward, breast and back as either should be. Strive and thrive! cry, 'Speed,' fight on, fare ever There as here."

DECATUR DISTRICT.

M. N. English, Superintendent.

At no time in my period of service as Superintendent of the Decatur District has there been a greater desire to mention by name and tell the achievements of individual Pastors and Churches than this. There is not a Church or a Pastor, concerning whom many splendid things could not be recorded. There are differences in achievement, but these are largely due to opportunity and not devotion. There have been few things to disturb or annoy during the year. There are fewer Charges desiring a change in Pastor than at any previous Conference, and while the usual number of changes will be made few will grow out of actual necessity. I am happy to say there is not a Pastor in Decatur District whom I would not gladly see reappointed to his present Charge, or another in the Decatur District.

Four appointments were left to be supplied at the last session of the Conference; Allenville, to which A. M. Sinclair was appointed, Sargent, Decatur, which has been supplied by T. L. Knotts, Boody and Findlay Circuit. Several new names appear on the Conference Roll this year; Gordon Waggoner, was transferred from the North West Kansas Conference, and appointed to La Place; E. E. Mehl, transferred from St. Louis German Conference, and appointed to Tolono; H. G. Markley, a member of the North Dakota Conference, has supplied Findlay Circuit; and L. K. Armentrout, who will come to us by transfer from the Missouri Conference, has supplied Boody; Rev. Joseph Pope, transferred from the Indiana Conference and was stationed at Elwin, was transferred to the Idaho Conference, June 1st, because of a desire to enter Home Missionary work. Fred A. Buchholz, a member on trial in the St. Louis German Conference, has completed the year at Elwin.

Two of the retired members of the Conference, resident in Decatur District, have died during the year, Bros. J. W. Eckman and Elijah Gollogher. Many of the Pastors' homes have been afflicted with serious illness, but without fatality, except that of Brother and Sister G. N. Wilkerson of Atwood, whose son Norman, aged 21, died last Friday after a short illness from double Pneumonia. Funeral services were held at Atwood on Sunday.

Pastors and Laymen heard the challenge of "A Million Souls for Christ" and entered upon their part of the task with an earnestness such as I have never witnessed before. Impetus was given to the Evangelistic campaign in a series of District meetings held in the early fall and again in early spring. A union meeting, for one week, of the Churches of Decatur, under the leadership of Dr. W. H. Neil, of the Centenary Office, proved of great value to our Decatur campaign. The Sub-District Chairman arranged for rallies in practically all Charges. The Charges were organized according to the standard plan.

While we found it was easier to raise money than to win souls, we have abundant cause for rejoicing in the numbers won for Christ and the Church. The District did not reach its quota, but will report about 2200 conversions and reclamations, which is two-thirds of our District goal. Every Charge in the District shared in these results. Several reached their quotas. It is interesting to note that while every effort was made to organize personal workers for continuous Evangelism, the larger part of these results were secured during the revival period. In spite of losses, which in many Charges are unprecedented, I think nearly all Charges will show increases in membership.

We are finishing the second year of the Centenary period. The total reaction is beneficial. This is noted in Pastors and Laity alike. To each there has come new vision and inspiration, increased interest in all forms of Church activity and a new sense of responsibility toward local tasks as well as the world tasks. The greatly increased giving to Benevolences has not in many places affected giving to local interests, though in a few cases some made the Centenary the excuse for not doing what they ought to do for the local budget. Beneficial effects seem to be in proportion to the emphasis which has been laid during the year on the great objectives of the Centenary; Intercession, Stewardship, Life Service, Evangelism, etc. That the Pastors realize the great value of our Church Papers in conserving the Centenary results is indicated in the increased subscription lists that are reported from nearly every Charge. Last year the District paid 96% of a total one-fifth of Centenary pledges. All but five of the 47 Charges were on the Honor Roll, indicating that they had paid the amount necessary on every apportionment to entitle them to this recognition. Two of the five are Mission appointments, and four of the five were paid in full on all but one item. The District received 322 out of the possible 329 star credits. This year we hope to do equally as well. However, the early date of Conference will no doubt result in failure to collect thousands of dollars that would have been collected had Conference been a week later.

Centenary help has been extended to a number of Charges in the item of Ministerial Support. The promise of this made possible rearrangements of Churches, breaking up of some Charges, thereby lessening the number of Churches to be served by one Pastor, and enabling us to give a better type of leadership to these Charges. This has proven a good investment of Centenary money as in nearly every case the Charges have been blessed with a gracious revival and will show increased membership. This demonstrates the theory we have long held, that what many backward Charges need more than anything else is a chance, and that if given proper leadership they will immediately respond and do what they ought to do.

Certain Centenary building projects, which we had hoped would be well under way, have not materialized. The erection of new buildings have been under discussion in several places, committees have been appointed, plans studied and progress made in securing subscriptions, but in several cases the cost under present building conditions seemed either prohibitive or unwise at this time.

Methodist Preachers and Laymen threw themselves into the Inter-Church movement, co-operated heartily in the educational campaign, making of surveys, and in many places in the financial drive. Lack of greater success is no fault of our Pastors and Laymen; indeed, in many places results would not have been anything like as great had it not been for leadership of our people.

Last year we were able to report that Decatur District had over-subscribed its quota in the campaign for Endowment funds for our Conference Claimant, and that all but four Charges had reached their quota. Additions have been made during the year in some cases. We are very happy to report a special gift, in addition to previous liberal subscriptions, of $5,000 to this fund, by that elect lady, Mrs. D. L. Shellebarger, of Grace Church, Decatur.

The year has witnessed the wiping out of debts on Church or Parsonage property in a number of the Charges, notably at Assumption, Sadorus and Findlay. So far as I know there are only three Churches in the District whose property is encumbered, and in none of these cases in a way to annoy or hinder the work.

New Parsonages have been completed at Cisco and at Maroa. The following Charges have by purchase secured new homes for their Pastors: Grace Church, Decatur; St. Paul's Church, Decatur; Monticello and Windsor. In every case these houses are strictly modern and represent valuation of from $10,000 to $15,000. At Cowden, a lot adjoining the Church has been purchased for parsonage purposes. A modest house will serve until a new parsonage can be erected. Extensive improvements have been made in the parsonages at Atwood, Moweaqua, and Sullivan. In a number of other cases added conveniences in the form of electric equipment, new heating plants, etc. have been made.

Early in the year a beautiful country church was dedicated at Macedonia, on the Atwood Charge, taking the place of the one destroyed by fire last year. It cost approximately $8,000, nearly all of which has been provided for in advance of the day of dedication, and it was more than covered on that day.

Brother H. F. Powell, at Lovington, has done a heroic piece of work in bringing to a consummation the much delayed plans of our Church at that place to build a thoroughly modern Church, to replace the one which was destroyed by fire eighteen months ago. Our friends at Lovington found, as many another Church would find, that the amount of insurance placed upon their property years ago, and carried at the same figure in spite of greatly increased valuation, was wholly inadequate. The building they need will cost not less than $60,000. It has been a year of most pains-taking work on the part of the Pastor and members, but we are glad to report that sufficient pledges are now in hand to justify immediate beginning of the work of construction.

St. Paul's Church, Decatur, has taken another forward step. They have purchased lots in a more centrally located place upon which during the coming year they expect to begin the erection of a $100,000 plant. The parsonage property, noted above, adjoins this new site. Improvements have been made in a number of the other churches of the District. I do not have the exact figures covering these material improvements, but they will run into tens of thousands of dollars. Our church at Cerro Gordo had a close call from fire, but insurance was sufficient to make repairs deemed necessary by the board.

I am glad to report substantial advances in salaries the past year. The total advance for the year is $9,500 in cash. For the four years ending at this time there has been an advance of $21,584 which is a little more than 46%. Advances which have either been agreed to or in prospect for next year will total $4,500, bringing the percentage of increase to full 57% in the four years. While the pastors have not shared equally in the advance, every Charge and every pastor has shared substantially in it. Even this, which in the other years would have been considered large, does not in these times equal the cost of living or the ability of the church to pay. The preacher is still underpaid and no reduction in cost of living will justify reduction in Ministerial Support.

The Board of District Stewards at their fall meeting adopted a resolution requesting the Charges to pay into a District expense fund an amount equal to 1% of the cash salary of the pastor, out of which certain District expenses should be met, such as District meetings, Expenses of Sub-district Chairman, certain items of printing, etc. Payment was entirely optional with the charges. Many have responded and others would have done so had the opportunity not to respond been less easy. This is a step in the right direction. Efficiency in organization and justice to the District Superintendent demands that such a policy be followed. While the receipts of the District Superintendent are much larger than that of most pastors, the net income after operating expenses are deducted is not only less than leading Charges pay, but is less than these men would receive in the Pastorate.

Aside from the city of Decatur, and our county seat towns, Monticello, Sullivan and Shelbyville, Decatur District would be classed as rural, and in these places many of the problems of the Rural Districts are confronted. We rejoice in this. The day of the rural church is not past, but is in its dawn. Many readjustments have been made in order to strengthen and make possible better work. While losses by removal have weakened a number of our churches, others have made great progress. No doubt each year will mark the discontinuance of one or more of our smaller churches due to removals, better roads which make the larger centers more accessible, and other economic conditions. This is not a condition to be regretted, but will in each case accrue to the general interest of the Kingdom. A number of our pastors, by private study and attendance on Rural Conferences, are fitting themselves for Rural Leadership. It is a matter of regret that in so many places the laymen, especially our older laymen, refuse to catch the vision, and that there are so many who still insist that what was good enough for them forty or fifty years ago is good enough for the present generation, and that the influence of these is such that they can defeat the thoroughly modern methods which our pastors and progressive laymen have introduced. The upbuilding of the Rural Church calls not only for Ministerial leadership, but for Lay Fellowship. My concern is not so much for young men who will dedicate themselves to a Rural Ministry, as it is for a Rural Laity which will respond to real leadership.

Our Epworth League and Sunday Schools are recovering the losses sustained during the war period. Nearly all are reporting increases in enrollment and attendance. Emphasis upon other necessary programs for the past years has lessened the emphasis that should be continually placed upon these organizations. We finally hope that the newly created Committees in Religious Education and Recreation and Social Life, with their respective directors will function in a real and constructive way.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and the Woman's Home Missionary Society make the same kind of a report, in substance that comes to us each year, "This has been the best year we ever had." Membership, subscriptions to periodicals, interest in the work and collections have greatly increased. The Ladies' Aid Society in many places did phenomenal work and in all places are contributing to the social and material welfare of the Church.

The Unit System is being used to good advantage in a number of places. It should be in operation in all. It can be adapted to each type of charge and the pastor who fails to use it is neglecting one of the most effective methods of modern church work. In a number of places the Unit Leaders have been made members of the Quarterly Conference.

The men who composed the sub-district organization, especially the Ministerial and Lay Chairman of the sub-districts, have been very helpful in the work of the year, and much of the credit of our work is due to these sub-district leaders.

Other items of interest will be treated in another report which is to be presented to the Conference.

I want at this time to acknowledge my obligation to the pastors and laymen, and give expression to the deep gratitude which I have for the fine spirit of co-operation which they have shown during the period of my Superintendency. We have not done all that should have been done. Our vision has always exceeded our realization, but we rejoice in the fellowship we have had together during these years.

As already announced, with the close of this Conference my membership will be transferred to the rolls of another Conference. I hope, however, that it will not be erased from the tablets of your hearts. It is no easy matter for one whose relations have been so pleasant to leave his Conference. I have not sought the opportunity that has come. I go to it with a real reluctance and only because in the judgment of others it seems to be an opportunity that should not be passed by. The ties that bind to the old Illinois Conference are many, and run back through the years. In 1898, when I was not yet twenty-one, the Conference opened its doors to me and Dr. S. H. Whitlock (and may God continue to bless us with his presence) found a place for me. In 1868 my father was likewise admitted to the Illinois Conference and served it until his death. In still earlier days my grandfathers, on both sides, were local preachers. This was a day when local preachers were largely used in the work of the Church. Such ties are not easily broken. The conference has been good to me, better than I deserve. You have given me your best, and have honored me in many ways. At no time have I ever felt I was entitled to anything better than I had. I have tried to serve the Church in a way worthy of what the Church has done for me. I welcome the opportunity to be a pastor again. While I have the highest regard for all other forms of service there is nothing greater in Methodism than the Pastorate. The soil of Illinois Conference is precious. My father and mother sleep beneath the trees in the cemetery at Paris. I love you, I love the Illinois Conference, I love its soil. May the Father's Blessing be upon us all!

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

E. L. Pletcher, Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Brethren:

The Conference year is gone, and we are met here to render an account of our Stewardship. We cannot go back and live this year again but perhaps by recounting its labors and victories we may be able to enter another year with a better understanding and a more devoted purpose. We trust that some foundations have been laid in the past year which will serve that we may build upon them for a better and grander structure of the future.

At the close of Conference a year ago, the Jacksonville District entered upon its year's work with a personnel of thirty-one members of the Conference, ten supplies and five undergraduates, making forty-six preachers in all and one charge to be supplied. Very shortly after Conference one of the supplies dropped out and one of the other preachers was transferred to other work and from then until the close of the year we have been short from two to six pastors. This has made the work difficult and the Charges without pastors have as a result suffered and have not been kept up as they should have been.

But we have made advances even in the face of difficulties. Three years ago the total salaries, including house rent, amounted to $45,438. The past year they have amounted to $63,890 and now an addition of some $4,000 is promised making an increase during the past three years of $28,000.

Though last was the Centenary year we have felt that this great work did not end then but rather it was a call to advance all along the line. Our churches entered into the Inter-Church movement as far as possible and many of our pastors rendered valuable assistance in this campaign. It has been our purpose to see that the Centenary spirit is maintained, and that not only shall all the churches be urged to bring up their full quota, but that all collections for this year shall be carefully made and all accounts be kept in order and up to date.

We have not lost sight of the Conference Claimants campaign and in a number of cases this fund has been added to and plans are now on foot to attempt to complete our portion of this fund during the coming year. We find that there is no appeal which meets a more ready response from the Laymen than the appeal for an adequate support for the retired minister.

We have sought primarily to make this year, one of Revivals and Spiritual life. Not a mechanical revival but a real heart-felt, soul-saving effort which shall quicken the whole life of the Church. We began the year with this thought and in every gathering of the ministers this has been the dominate note. We have prayed with the Quarterly Conference and sought to lay upon the laymen the deep concern for souls without which no real awakening can come to the Church. As directed by our leaders we attempted to carry on an intensive campaign during the weeks preceding Easter. I am quite sure that both laymen and ministers entered into this work with a most earnest purpose but many things came to hinder and in some cases almost entirely stop the work. First in the early part of the winter and continuing for many weeks we again experienced an epidemic of the Flu which in many rural localities was more severe than the previous year. Our churches were closed, Sunday Schools almost destroyed and the people so scattered that in some cases the work has not yet fully recovered. But with great devotion the pastors began to plan and work for the Easter day of joy and victory. Easter morning broke dark and stormy and the worst blizzard of the year swept through the country. The District Superintendent of the Jacksonville District spent the whole forenoon struggling in mud and snow drifts and failed to reach his appointment. Such was the experience of many other circuit riders. In place of a great day of ingathering the results were practically nil. But the preachers of the Jacksonville District are of such fiber and purpose that they did not hesitate but pushed right on and on the Sabbath following Easter many churches witnessed the harvest that had been delayed. The reports after that day showed that we had up to the middle of April had some eleven hundred conversions and some seven hundred and fifty accessions to the Church.

We have always felt that a real revival effort cannot be measured always by time and place, so it was decided to continue the revival all through the year. To this end in the early spring the District secured a new tent which will accommodate five hundred people and a committee was appointed to take charge of a series of summer tent meetings. The committee was D. V. Gowdy, F. E. Smith and C. W. Ivie. There were soon more calls for meetings than there was time to allot. Meetings have been held in Roodhouse, Berdan, Franklin and Forest City. This latter meeting closing the day before Conference. In every place we have had numerous conversions and the whole community has been greatly revived. We have in all cases sought to make the meetings reach the whole community and have not confined our efforts to our Church alone, but have sought to strengthen all Christians and build up the Kingdom in every way. The most notable results were obtained at Berdan, where, from the very first service, there were conversions. The total number reached sixty-three in the two weeks. As a result of our tent meetings we can now report twelve hundred and fifty conversions during the year, and a thousand accessions to the Church. Arrangements are complete for another tent meeting immediately after Conference on the Linnville work, the new pastor here will find the laymen have everything arranged to start the meeting as soon as he arrives.

There have not been any great building projects carried on this year but in nearly all charges there has been a spirit of improvement and a desire to see the preacher better housed and the Church made more attractive and comfortable. As a result many minor improvements have been made on both churches and parsonages. We have a fine new rural church ready for dedication immediately after Conference on the Berdan Circuit at Richwoods. This church was destroyed by fire about a year ago, but having insurance and with the loyal support of the community the new church, which has arisen on the ruins of the old, is much larger and better in every way, and with basement and Sunday School room it will be well fitted to minister to the new community program.

At Bluff Springs a new parsonage has literally arisen, for they have raised the old parsonage and built a first floor and when completed this will be one of the modern and best arranged parsonages of the District. Pastor F. T. Peters deserves much commendation for the labor and devotion he has shown to this enterprise. Both at Ashland and Petersburg the parsonages have received much attention and show great improvement. Out Church known as Garner Chapel on the Ashland Circuit has been decorated and made attractive as all rural churches should be, and is becoming stronger and more efficient as a result of this effort of the members to meet community needs. At Havana substantial improvements are being made on the parsonage.

If one is conscientious, he cannot look back upon the work he has attempted for his Master without regrets that it has not been done better and that the results have not been more apparent. It is the regret of our heart that the days have flown so fast and the results have been so tardy. But there is one who will not wait and he demands an accounting of our Stewardship without asking permission of our convenience. The Reaper has been amid the grain in the District during the past year and "He reaps the bearded grain at a breath and the flowers that grow between." Our preachers, young and middle-aged and old have fallen before his sickle. Two of the sweet voices which sang the songs of the King are hushed and the lips of one of the fathers are also still. With hushed voice we call the names of N. M. Rigg the saintly and devout, A. E. Pepping the hopeful and sincere and A. Orr the aged and helpful. All these died in the faith and their works do follow them. The Sunday following Easter was a great day in our church at Virginia and after the service of the evening was over the pastor, Rev. N. M. Rigg said it was one of the finest of his ministry. Many of the young people had come forward that day confessing their Christ. Little did any one dream that before another day had passed their beloved pastor would be in the presence of his Lord, but such was the case. Mrs. Rigg took up the work of her husband and no higher honor could have been paid to the memory of this beloved pastor than that his work should so go on to the end of the year. A large class of Preparatory members and others was received by the District Superintendent June 6th, as a result of her faithful labors and the whole Church has prospered and been blessed as this devoted but stricken woman remained with her husband's work and carried the year to a successful conclusion.

One of our most promising young preachers was Alvin Pepping, who was stationed at Roodhouse. For some time he had been in frail health but such was his devotion to his work and so undaunted his spirit, that few suspected how serious was his condition. Tuesday, August 10th, we held his Fourth Quarterly Conference and as he reported the work of the year he remarked that he was so much improved that he would be fully able for whatever the Conference might give him to do in the year to come. He spoke to a union Prayer Meeting with deep feeling and power on Wednesday night and by four o'clock the next Saturday morning he was with the great company of the Church triumphant.

Residing in Roodhouse for many years was one of the beloved veterans of the Conference. He had been a man of power and a noted evangelist in his day. In his early ministry he was Peter Cartwright's pastor and was with that noted pioneer preacher when he died. Having retired from active work he spent his closing days in the little home in Roodhouse loved by all, honored by the Church, and always helpful to his pastor. Such a man was the Rev. A. Orr. He, too, in the early summer heard the call and was ready. Not only has the District lost these ministers but a number of noble and devoted laymen have been called from our midst during the year. Our hearts are saddened but we serve him who said "I am the resurrection and the life," and in this hope we press forward to the morning of that day which shall never end.

We feel that the institutions of the Church which have to do with our young life must have the most careful attention and support. With this in view we have felt that no time is too precious to be denied the Sunday School and Epworth League. Every Sabbath of the year your Superintendent has made it a point to attend both Sunday School and Epworth League services and render whatever assistance possible. We believe that in nearly every charge the Sunday School is improving and the reports show a better attendance.

The Epworth Leagues of the District held a fine convention, June 10th and 11th, at Petersburg, with some 125 Epworthians in attendance. We are planning some very aggressive work among our young people in the coming year. Miss Nina McCarter, a high school teacher, who has prepared herself for special Christian work, has been secured and she will devote part of her time as First Vice President of the District League in visiting all the Leagues and doing whatever she can to build up the spiritual life of this arm of the Church.

Miss McCarter has given her time during the past year to special work among the large Italian settlements south of Springfield making her headquarters at Virden. Also we have employed Miss Ruth Smith who has acted as a pastor's assistant, in a number of charges giving help during the revival campaign, in visiting and doing personal work. Both of these ladies have been very successful and justify the Centenary in making it possible for us to secure their services.

This has been a good year both for the W. F. M. S. and the W. H. M. S. and we appreciate the faithful work of these splendid women. A number of new auxiliaries have been formed and wherever the women are organized and doing this line of work the whole Church seems to have new strength and vision.

There is another institution located in the Jacksonville District, but which belongs to the whole Conference and sheds blessings upon all of Methodism, and not only Methodism but all those who believe in and appreciate a strong and noble womanhood. We almost fear that our words may seem extravagant when we speak of the Illinois Woman's College. Any correct report of this institution must always be in the superlative. There has never been a day since that autumn day seventy-four years ago when that school was founded that has been as bright with prospects for the future as the present day of the Woman's College. The attendance of the past year has been large and taken all together this has been the best year of its whole history. It was long ago found impossible to conduct such a school without a deficit unless there is a very ample endowment, so it was not unexpected that the year should show a deficit, but owing to the generosity of friends, it was possible to meet this and also make some very needed improvements in the library and in the placing of hard floors in a large number of rooms.

The outstanding event of the year in connection with the Woman's College was the recognition of this school by the General Educational Board in its high standard as a College and its permanent place among the standard colleges of the country. This was shown by a gift of $7500 towards teachers' salaries for the current year and the promise of $6000 for a similar purpose next year. This recognition was further shown by the generous offer of $133,333 towards a permanent endowment of $400,000 to be used for increases in teachers' salaries. For the current year $1100 has already been added to the salaries of the teachers and $20,000 will be needed to equal the salaries of Colleges of equal grade.

It will be a cause of gratification to the Conference to learn that W. J. Weber of the Oregon Conference has been secured as Professor of Bible and Religious Education and will enter upon his duties with the opening of the college year. This is a new step in Religious Education and President Harker should be congratulated and it is with great hopes we look forward to the development of this department.

As we have made this hasty review of the year's work, we realize how inadequate and insufficient words are to express or portray the joys and sorrows or the struggles and victories of the year. He alone who seeth all things and fully understands can really measure and appreciate its true worth, and into His hands we commit judgment of the task.

MATTOON DISTRICT.

W. D. Fairchild, Superintendent.

Bishop Nicholson and Members of the Illinois Conference:

The past year on the Mattoon District has been but another of the years crowded full of incessant toil. Through the efforts of industrious and faithful pastors and laymen I am able to report a year marked by a good degree of worth-while achievement.

At the close of the last session of Conference seven charges in the Mattoon District were left to be supplied. Almost immediately after the adjournment of Conference Rev. C. E. Hogue and Rev. S. H. Hoar were transferred from the Southern Illinois Conference, the former being appointed to the Etna charge and the latter to Kansas Circuit. Rev. W. A. Schell, who had asked for a year's leave of absence, concluded to take work and was assigned to the Vermilion charge. In May the Rev. L. F. Green of the Nebraska Conference was appointed to the Grandview-Redmon charge, and in May the Rev. A. M. Sinclair of Decatur was appointed to half-time service at Brocton. Greenup has been compelled to remain without a pastor throughout the year, except for an occasional service, and West Union has been supplied only during the summer months, Rev. D. T. Black of Marshall having charge. In July Rev. H. V. Wilhelm of Westfield was compelled on account of ill health to seek the Colorado climate and took charge of the work at Bayfield, Colorado, August first. The Rev. B. M. Petty of Liberty Center, Indiana, was secured for the Westfield charge.

The outstanding feature of the year has been the Evangelistic Campaign. Immediately after the adjournment of Conference plans were laid for the intensive Evangelistic work. Pastors recognized the impossibility of securing much outside help. Hence they accepted the challenge thrown down and went to the task, and with few exceptions were their own evangelists. Some of the most successful meetings from the standpoint of enthusiasm and ingathering were Charleston, Villa Grove, Sidell, Casey, Hume, Etna, Marshall, Martinsville, Martinsville Circuit and Mattoon. There were many other meetings of less prominence but of no less value to the churches, and almost every church in the District reports additions in membership. The total number of conversions and reclamations reported is a few more than 1500 and about the same number of accessions.

However, the value of the campaign is not to be measured merely by the numbers converted and enrolled. There has come a certain renewed sense of moral responsibility, an enlarged interest in the Church, and added spiritual life and activity in the general church body.

A full year has elapsed since the intensive Centenary campaign ended and we have had opportunity to view its work under changed conditions.

In the heat of enthusiasm and under the influence of a simultaneous campaign the sum of over $410,000 was subscribed in the District. One year afterward, subscribers are paying their pledges as cold matter-of-fact business. It would naturally be expected that some would default and some pay reluctantly. But this number is exceedingly small. A few have died and death cancelled their pledges. A few have no sense of moral obligation, but it is an exceptional few. For the most part subscribers have met their obligations gladly, many paying their entire five-year pledge in a single payment. In many instances new vision has come to subscribers and they are following their gifts and gathering new inspiration, which in many instances will lead to the acceptance of still larger responsibility. Quite a number of new pledges have been added during the year in charges in which the campaign had been completed.

The second year of collecting and reporting makes it very clear that careful steps must be taken to conserve the full interests of this great movement. To write a subscription is one thing, to collect it is often quite another. Many pledges will lapse unless followed up closely. The transfer of members is sure to lose thousands of dollars, unless the matter is properly handled. There will yet need to be devised better methods of caring for this enterprise in order that the maximum amount of subscriptions shall be collected. We are seeking to have this matter carefully looked after in the Mattoon District.

The percentage of payment of the annual quota varies in different charges, but reports up to this time indicate that the showing will be very satisfactory. A number of the charges have reached 100 per cent. and some have gone beyond that amount, while few have fallen below 75 per cent. Of 43 charges reporting last year 36 of these were on the honor roll in the star sheet, having paid their first year's requirement in full. Of the seven not reaching the goal four did not put on the campaign, being for the most part supply charges or charges having no pastors. Within the past three months over $8,000 has been subscribed to the Centenary in these charges and over half of this amount paid in cash. We mean to follow up the work of the Centenary in a way that will, if possible, enable us to realize the total task in the five year period.

The Conference Claimant Endowment campaign, which has been in large measure set aside on account of more pressing demands, has received some attention. Among the churches clearing up this requirement are Charleston, Chrisman, Cherry Point, Ashmore and Isabel on the Kansas Circuit; Marshall, St. Paul, Wesley and Washington on the Martinsville Circuit; Metcalf, Murdock, Trilla and West Union churches. In addition to these several other churches have raised part of their apportionment. The total raised for the year is something over $6,000, and the remaining amount of the apportionment to be secured is in round numbers, $6,000. But for the Centenary, which last year consumed all our energy and time, this campaign would have been completed. We hope to see the whole apportionment provided for in the next few months.

On account of the excessive cost of labor and materials little has been undertaken in the way of material improvements. Some proposed enterprises have been temporarily abandoned. For the most part church boards have been content with keeping up the present conditions of property rather than attempting new things. A number of parsonages have had added improvements in the way of paint, interior decorations, hardwood floors, furnaces, etc. The splendid new parsonage at Sidell costing over $8,000 has come into use this year. A new parsonage at Brocton is ready for occupancy. Several of our churches have also received substantial repairs in the way of paint, decoration of interior, basement improvements, furnaces, etc. Chief among these are our Mattoon and Newman churches. Mattoon has enlarged its basement, giving more ample room for the large and growing Sunday School, and added a new heating plant at a total cost of something over $15,000. Newman has completely overhauled and put in order the church basement at a cost of about $2500. At Farmington on the Lerna charge, money is being subscribed for a new church to be built in the immediate future, and the new church enterprise at Longview on the Broadlands charge will now go forward to completion. The church indebtedness on the District of nearly $15,000, reported last year, has been reduced to about $9,000. The remaining indebtedness does not rest heavily on any one property, and will be cared for entirely within a short time. Pleasant Grove church on the Murdock charge was reopened Sept. 5 after two years of inactivity. The cost of improvements amounted to about $1200.

The Methodist Memorial Hospital at Mattoon has passed another very prosperous and useful year. This institution has come to take high rank among the hospitals of its class. The equipment and service are of the highest efficiency and it is doing a splendid work for the surrounding territory. More than 800 patients have received treatment during the year. During the past year valuable improvements have been added. A new X-Ray outfit of the highest class has been installed and the work done in this line is of a superior type. A new water filter system has been added and an enlarged hot-water system completed.

This institution is chiefly self-supporting. It has no agent in the field, but is maintained by income from patients, and from the generous citizens in and about Mattoon. It is fully entitled to enlarge its patronizing territory. An invitation is extended to the benevolently minded good people of the Illinois Conference to remember this institution in a tangible way. One of the great needs at the present time is a home for nurses, and the hospital board is looking toward securing such a home soon. The business-like and efficient management of the hospital is to be commended in highest terms. During the past year substantial gifts have become available by will and otherwise.

I take delight in saying that during the year new and added life has come to our Sunday School work. A careful comparison by quarters through the year indicates an increased attendance, a growth in the efficiency of the teaching force, and marked improvement in re-organization. Our schools are loyal to our church plans and with rare exception are using the high-grade supplies published by our own church.

It is not possible to speak of the Epworth League work in the same terms as a dozen years ago. We are all familiar with conditions that prevail. But I am glad to say that in many places the League has shown a revival of interest. In some places new Leagues have been organized, in some the League has been re-organized. A splendid convention was held in June at Charleston with a large attendance and a fine spirit. The coming year promises better things yet in this important organization of our church.

We believe thoroughly in the circulation of the church papers. It is still true that the people perish for lack of vision. It becomes every devout believer in the church to keep abreast the rapidly growing army of world events. Our Advocates team with matter vital to the life of the church. In this day of Centenary movement the home cannot afford to be without this means of information and inspiration.

Pastors have done splendid work the past year in pushing the campaign for new subscriptions, resulting in the largest increase in the Conference. The District now stands second only in total number of Northwesterns taken in the Conference. Mattoon leads the list of churches in the District with 101 subscribers.

Three years ago when I came to the Mattoon District I found the salaries very low in many places. I believe the workman is worthy of his hire, but I also believe the compensation ought to be worthy the workman. With the thought of a proper compensation in mind I sought to increase the salaries. The churches responded in fine order and several thousand dollars was added. The second year a like substantial increase prevailed to meet the increasing cost of living. And the third year shows still further increases available for the coming year. Approximately $20,000 has been added to salaries in three years, and yet some churches are not meeting the requirements of sufficient salary for the support of a pastor. The average salary for effective men the past year was about $1725. But if we are to maintain the standing of our churches, and keep them supplied with efficient men, something more must yet be done in a number of charges.

If the statistics furnished are correct I am able to report again the payment of every dollar in full of ministerial support. This is not an easy thing to do in this District, but it is a possible thing. We accept the added responsibilities in ministerial support for the coming year and will hope that we may report again in full. We have as fine a class of loyal laymen as can be found in the Illinois Conference, and we believe they can be counted on to meet any obligation, once it is set clearly before them.

Both the W. F. M. Society and the W. H. M. Society have enjoyed a prosperous year. There has been a large increase in members in both auxiliaries and in the various societies of young people connected with the auxiliaries. The financial reports will exceed those of any previous year by substantial increases. While the financial reports are gratifying, yet to me, the educational work of the organization with all it means for the future growth of interest in world-movements and added financial endeavor is most important.

Three times this year death has entered the parsonages of the District. In May the wife of Rev. George H. Neff of Lerna passed to her eternal home after a few months of illness. She was a splendid Christian character and added grace and charm to the parsonage life. In July Rev. J. H. Pence of the Camargo charge met with a slight accident which a little later resulted in an infection that took his life after but a week's illness. And one month later, Martha Louise, the 12 year old daughter of Brother and Sister Pence followed the father in death. Bro. Pence was a noble workman, who dignified his calling, a workman that needed not to be ashamed.

Following my own inclinations I would desire to speak a word concerning every man. But that possibly would be beyond the limits of time and outside the bounds of strict propriety. May I say, therefore, concerning the fine body of men who have labored with me during the year, that they have wrought well. I think without exception every man has tried to be loyal to the purposes and plans of our great church and has done his best, and I am justly proud of the work they have done. My personal relations have been of the most pleasant type. I have appreciated, too, the fine hospitality of the splendid wives who preside in the parsonage homes. It has been a joy to be associated with such a splendid band of workmen, to be in their homes, and to share with them in the labors that have made for a year of success in the work of the Kingdom. To these faithful laborers belongs the credit for the year's achievements.

QUINCY DISTRICT.

C. M. Duncan, Superintendent.

Dear Bishop Nicholson and Brethren:

Since hearing the reports of the other District Superintendents we feel that, speaking figuratively, we have come to the close of a "Perfect Day." It has now been one year since we received our appointment to the Quincy District to follow one of the most popular and successful leaders in our Conference. Dr. Flanigan embedded his life into the District and he has a host of the warmest friends who rise up and greet him throughout the area.

I have searched hard and long to find words with which to describe the wonders of the Quincy District, with all of its splendor and beauty, and it is only in the language of Gillilan in his description of a by-gone pastor that I can express my feelings concerning same. The pastor was talking about the infinite care that the Creator had given to things that to us seem such trifles and to be almost negligible. He said, "The same hand that made the mighty mountains that lift their snow-clad and unsullied sierras into the overarching blue of the sky, made the tiniest grain of sand that lies at the range's base; the same hand that made the marvelous ocean that thunders ceaselessly and restlessly across the golden sands, made the tiniest drop of dew that glistens like a first-water gem upon every grass blade at the dawning; and the hand that made me, (throwing out his chest like a pouter pigeon), made a 'daisy'."

In this, we, on the western border of the Illinois Conference agree, that the cabinet that made the Quincy District, made a "daisy." The Quincy District comprises forty-three pastoral charges with ninety-four charges; all of which, with the exception of two appointments, have been occupied by fellow pastors for a greater part of the time. Rev. Gross, a most excellent young pastor, was compelled to ask for a year's leave of absence, moving into the mountainous regions of West Virginia. This was due to the serious illness of his little son. Rev. J. M. Nash failed to report at Warsaw, having resumed work in his old Conference in Indiana. These two charges were later filled with supplies, and the work is reported with progress.

We have every reason to thank God for His kind, beneficent care over the ministerial homes during this year. Death has not come into the home of a single parsonage; and those who have been called upon to endure afflictions, have done so in the sweet spirit of a Christ-filled life. However, the summons was not unheard as Mrs. T. J. Bryant of Versailles, the widow of the late Rev. T. J. Bryant, answered the call to come and enjoy that larger and better life with loved ones and the redeemed. It is a great comfort to know that when we can no longer keep our loved ones with us here, that God will take care of them for us over there.

It is impossible to make mention of all the activities and worthy deeds done in the District during the past year. I want to assure this Conference that whatever degree of success has been attained, is the result of influences from sources that cannot be mentioned here.

The organization of the entire District into eight units with ministers and laymen as leaders, has made it possible to touch all of the churches in a definite way, encouraging them to do the work of the Kingdom. The units within each individual charge have tied up every layman to the task of the church. The many units functioning in the real campaign of the District, and the church at large, give every reason to believe that we are only at the very beginning of greater things for the advancement of the Kingdom of God.

The fall meeting for the pastors and District Stewards was a most helpful gathering in laying plans for the year's work, the Evangelistic campaign and renewing the Conference claimants campaign. The laymen entered most heartily in recommending that pastors be released for two weeks to give themselves to definite evangelistic work in near-by fields. The pastors responded to the challenge of the laymen; and though they were not able to take every trench, yet with the valor of real heroes, they went out into "No Man's Land" and through winter and storm, strikes and coal famine, flu and contagion, captured over 1700 souls for our Master and Lord, and almost 1500 members have been added to our church records.

Some of the most outstanding of these evangelistic meetings during the year were held at the Vermont Street Grace, Plymouth, Pittsfield, Griggsville, Rushville, Naples, Pleasant Hill, Payson and other churches.

Nowhere did the blessings exceed those of the old tent meeting at Huntsville, where one hundred fifteen (115) men, women, young men and young women, knelt at the altar and wept their way to God. Brethren, I think the pastors and laymen of Quincy District fully believe in the possibility of saving people from their sins through the Gospel of our Lord, Jesus Christ, and they have already shown their faith by their works.

The missionary zeal has been quickened during the year by the activities and services of our missionary societies, and especially through the splendid efforts of Miss Mabel Allen, a most excellent, consecrated young woman of Bayliss, Illinois. To know her is to become more personally acquainted with her Lord. Her work through the W. F. M. S. has had a most telling effect upon the entire church life of the District. Through her influence in the group meetings of the Third Quarterly Conferences, thirty-four young people responded to definite life service, and the spirit of the entire young life of the church has been quickened and elevated. On the first day of August she was commissioned to go to China as a representative of the W. F. M. S. of Quincy District. She has just recently sailed for China and with her go the good wishes of Methodism throughout the entire Quincy District.

The pastors have done well in making their regular reports concerning the activities of the charges. The District Bulletin, made possible by our enthusiastic layman, D. L. Musselman, has kept the pastors in sympathetic touch with the plans and activities of the entire District. The publicity given to the work throughout the District has greatly assisted in propagating the plans of the church.

The Conference Claimant Endowment Fund has received consideration during this year. We are all conscious of the fact that the spirit of giving is not at high tide, but our pastors with the assistance of Dr. H. C. Gibbs, report added subscriptions to the amount of $15,000, and it is believed before the winter months have come, that Quincy District will be in the 100% list of the Conference.

No doubt each superintendent has been handicapped in the building program of the District. Our new church enterprise at Grace, is now most encouraging. The new lot has been purchased, the old building on the same is being removed, and in a very few weeks the workmen will begin the long hoped for new building, with an approximate cost of $40,000. Too much cannot be said in behalf of the untiring efforts of our brother, Rev. G. L. Losh.

Two remodeled churches were re-dedicated on the Loraine charge. The building in Loraine is one of the most recently planned structures for modern service in the church life. It is fully equipped for departmental work in Sunday School and also has every feature for social activities. A new picture machine has been installed, and the future of the young people is full of expectancy. Dr. Jos. VanCleve dedicated the church, with pledges fully covering all encumbrances.

The Centennial is a most beautiful country church and was remodeled and re-dedicated with every facility for modern educational and social work. These people are now prepared to carry on real rural church activities. They have dedicated their new building free of all debt.

Much credit and praise is to be given to Rev. J. C. Ewing for the successful building program of the past year.

It is well to note that Mt. Sterling makes a report this year with no indebtedness upon their new church, which was built a few years ago. Bro. Enninger, who has been one of our faithful brethren of this Conference, has done most excellent work. He leaves the charge free of debt. He comes to the close of his ministerial work in the Conference with a work well done.

Rushville has made large payments during the year upon the new church debt. Bro. Adams has done an unusual piece of work in looking after the Centenary and church activities.

New Canton reports the purchase of a new parsonage and will have same ready for the pastor at beginning of year's work. Bluffs paid the debt on its parsonage.

There are forty-three pastoral charges—with seventeen pulling up for next year, three pulling down and twenty-three on a dead level, ready to go up or down. As a whole the work is most encouraging. About $6000 increase in salaries for next year is pledged.

There is no doubt concerning the future of this institution. Men of mental acumen and spiritual intuition have declared her to be of infinite value and a right to a large place in the plan and purpose of our church. Preparations are now being made to care for this institution in a substantial manner. It is the hope of our District that the entire Conference will have a sympathetic ear and a responsive heart to the great needy call in this day.

The work done in this school is of very high grade and cannot be duplicated by any other institution in our church. It cares for our own orphans and gives them a chance to come to their best.

Almost every child in this institution is converted and belongs to our Vermont Street Church. Chaddock is a credit to our city, a blessing to our church, and a benediction to those unfortunate little fellows who have had no chance for a home.

We are certainly in the day that calls for our best, the call for four-square men. The intellectual man, the physically strong man, the splendid social man, but above all the spirit-filled man. Never has it been my privilege to associate with pastors as during this year; never have I appreciated the pastors' homes as in these past twelve months, nor have I ever fully realized the intense interest manifest upon the part of these consecrated servants of God. These are they who bear the burden of a people who would forget God. In the language of that splendid young athlete who was overwhelmed in the presence of that master picture, "The Man of Galilee," may we be heard to say, "O, Man of Galilee, count on me—count on me."

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

E. M. Antrim, Superintendent.

A District Superintendent is expected to tell the truth and nothing but the truth, but if he were to attempt to tell the whole truth he might not be believed. The facts hereinafter chronicled are only shadows of the spiritual achievements, the agonizing prayers, the mid-night wrestlings and the holy endeavors that have characterized the work by faithful ministers and loyal laymen during the year just past. Much must be omitted but the whole record is written on high. I wish I might be able to specify in detail the splendid work done by each man. But time forbids.

Undoubtedly the great evangelistic campaign waged during the year has resulted in the largest total ingathering in our history. Converts won numbered 1700. Of these 1300 joined our own church. In addition 610 came into our fellowship by letter, making a total ingathering of 1910. A considerable quota was furnished to other denominations and some fell by the wayside. In this campaign practically every charge was represented by a considerable number of converts. Time would fail to tell of all, but special mention should perhaps be made of the campaign at Nokomis where Brother Tobie, assisted by Brother Towle, secured 119; at Pana where Brother Peck won 119, with 16 joining by letter; at Kumler where Brother Dowson assisted by Evangelist Loose won 102 with 23 joining by letter; at Douglas Ave., where Brother Boyd unassisted except by his devoted laymen secured 130 converts and new members by intensive personal work in the Sunday School or Parish; at First Church Springfield, where Brother Ewing assisted by Harry Maxwell won 56 converts, 100 additional joining by letter; at Raymond and Blue Mound, where pastors Lockridge and Simmons, assisted by Evangelist Mitchell secured 125 and 91 converts respectively; at Illiopolis, where Brother Theobald assisted by a Gospel singer secured 57 converts, some 23 joining by letter; at Dawson where Brother Hartman rejoiced over 111 won; at Kincaid, where Brother Maxey entirely unassisted conducted a 6 weeks meeting and secured 62 converts, including the chief of police and other town officials which resulted in a fine moral improvement in the community; at Pawnee where Brother Adams began a revival campaign before he had unpacked his goods, making some 85 converts and remaking the church itself. Many others not mentioned here deserve as much or more credit for the spirit manifested and the results attained under far more difficult circumstances.

But the most important gains were not the converts perhaps but the new life that pervades the church work. The joy of battle came again to many a minister and layman who thought he had lost the secret of soul-winning. Moreover nearly every Sunday School on the District is having an increased average attendance amounting on the whole to 25%, while several Epworth Leagues have undergone a wonderful rejuvenation. Such Leagues as those at Morrisonville, Pana, Kumler, Douglas Ave. Laurel and First have had a splendid year.

We must "go on or go under" with our evangelistic campaign, for 5 years and then possibly we may change the spiritual atmosphere of the church and the times. We have had a battle. Now for a real campaign.

We have been giving old High Cost of Living and Ministerial Efficiency a spirited race. The increase of salaries has been notable, amounting to over $9000 this year or a 16% increase, and to $21,293 in three years or 48%. In this matter every charge on the District has been represented to a greater or less extent. The advances have been due to two factors, real vision on the part of the laymen of the needs of the men who serve the churches so faithfully but secondly to a demand for higher efficiency on the part of the ministry. We will have other notable salary advances to record for the new year. The minister has a right to expect a sufficient compensation to supply his growing needs and the layman has a right to expect better service for the support rendered.

The great achievement of the Conference this year in the matter of church building is undoubtedly the new church at Taylorville, now nearing completion. Beginning with a purpose to repair the roof, it has eventuated in a church costing $100,000, which will be dedicated some time this fall. The highest credit is to be given to Brother G. W. Flagge and his people for this accomplishment. The subscription paper has been passed three times and at length bonds have been issued to finance the project. Simple but symmetrical in design it will be up-to-date in every way. In addition to a fine auditorium with gallery and pipe organ it will have a Sunday School annex perfectly appointed, together with gymnasium, banquet room, kitchen, ladies' parlors, pastor's study and other equipment. It ought to serve amply the interests of Methodism in a large and efficient way for miles around, in a community where we have a great and growing responsibility.

In spite of the high cost of labor and material other improvements in church and parsonage property have been made at a total cost of $26,705. Pawnee has remodeled and repaired its church plant at a cost of $5500, every dollar of which is subscribed; Kumler has replaced the old opera chairs with some new and handsome pews and made other improvements at a cost of $3000. Illiopolis has made extensive repairs on both church and parsonage at a cost of $4500, providing spacious banquet and social rooms in the former and making the latter strictly modern, with new furnace, bath room fixtures and water supply. The people of Buckeye church on the Millersville charge under the constructive leadership of Brother Clyde C. Pearce (whom we are to lose to his old home Conference in Indiana this year) is spending $2500 in remodeling their church into a community center, where they may carry on an up-to-date rural church program. Would that other rural churches might catch the same vision! This seems to be the only hope of their salvation from gradual decline and death.

Douglas Ave. Springfield, where Brother Boyd has had a great year, has put the finishing touch to its splendid material equipment by the purchase and remodeling of a parsonage valued at $6000. Kincaid has added to its long record of heroism by building a new parsonage valued at $6000. Brother Maxey the pastor lived for the first three months of the Conference year in the basement of the church and worked on the parsonage with his own hands, putting in fully 60 days, time, meanwhile carrying on his work in the pulpit to the satisfaction of all. Over $6000 in bankable pledges has been secured by Pastor Wright for a new parsonage at Divernon where substantial improvements to the church plant are also planned for the coming year, to provide for the insistent needs of Sunday School and church. Linked with Glenarm this charge has made marked progress the past year. Springfield First has $9000 on hand for improvements.

Incomplete returns indicate that the District will report over $70,000 of Centenary money this year. In most cases the pledges are being promptly met, although some mistakes and misunderstandings have had to be adjusted. We must keep the people informed of the wonders wrought by and through the Centenary to sustain their continued interest during the 5 year period.

Fear that the Centenary campaign might embarrass the work of the Women's Missionary Societies has proven groundless. In every instance both the W. F. M. Society and the W. H. M. Society auxiliaries are reporting an advance over last year which up to that time had been a banner year. Likewise the Ladies Aid Societies continue to perform their annual miracles. This year they have raised not less than $20,000 by various unique and self-sacrificing ways.

Perhaps the most unique and distinctive work the District is doing is the program being inaugurated under the auspices and impulse of the Centenary in the attempt to reach the neglected foreign groups scattered here and there about mines and other industries in the Corn-belt. There are at least 10,000 foreigners in Springfield itself where we are planning to found a Church of Good-Will. Rev. J. Philip Armand, a special worker, is already on the field and has begun his labors. For six months or more we have had special women workers at Kincaid, Hillsboro and Witt, where we are trying to pioneer a path into the hearts of these needy and long neglected people. Our Kincaid representative, Miss Roberts, has already done some unique work in inaugurating cooking and sewing classes, starting branch libraries and a Sunday School and conducting a six weeks Daily Vacation Bible School. The results have been gratifying. A good start has also been made at Witt and Hillsboro. We are still in the experimental stage and it is difficult to secure workers who are trained for such service but we shall continue until we discover the best methods of approach to the people sought. We must Christianize these strangers among us or they will paganize us. The dastardly plot recently unearthed at Springfield to wreck a train and shoot down its passengers in cold blood serves anew to emphasize the need of work among such mis-guided people.

The most interesting local Quarterly Conference of the year was recently held at Kincaid. After listening to the reports of the local work we heard the story of the founding of the new Tovey Methodist Episcopal Church. It ought to be put down in the New Acts of the Apostles. For several years a faithful few have attempted to conduct a Sunday School in Tovey, a mining town near Kincaid. The only meeting place was the Miners' Hall. Once the Sunday School session was interfered with because a prize fight was being staged there and at another time a dog-fight attended by numerous fans prevented a Sunday School session. But certain godly women did not lose heart. By means of sales they made enough to purchase recently a brick building which had been damaged by fire and the lot on which it stood for $400. Since then the women have been cleaning and scraping with their own hands the 45,000 brick contained in their purchase. They have spent morning after morning in doing this drudgery. They have already scraped and piled up more than 30,000 bricks from which the new Tovey Methodist Church is to be constructed. They have also hauled the sand and gravel which is dumped from coal cars along the track used for such purpose during the summer. Brother Maxey saw what they were striving after, so heroically and assisted them in organizing the Tovey Methodist Episcopal Church, with 17 members. Such devotion must and will be rewarded. We plan to secure some substantial assistance from the Centenary to encourage this new enterprise in a most interesting field. Do you wonder that we called that Quarterly Conference the most interesting of the year when the story was told and the warranty deed to the property purchased by those devoted women was turned over to the District Superintendent by the officials of the infant church?

As a part of our District building program for the new year the Mt. Auburn church has definitely voted to erect a new church building to cost about $30,000 complete and well-appointed in every way to meet the needs of the times. Pastor C. J. Lotz, who is doing an outstanding piece of work here, has led and is still leading in the enterprise.

The expansion of our work in the Capital City calls for a new church in that section of the city now occupied by the Eighteenth Street Church, where Brother Marsden had done such effective service for six years. A new location must be found and an adequate church plant erected.

The most ambitious building project on foot is the new Laurel Church, to cost not less than $150,000. It will be located on the most strategic site in the finest residence section of Springfield and is to be one of the best equipped and modern churches anywhere in Methodism. With no competing church of any denomination near-by, and with a large group of active and progressive laymen backing the proposition, it is one of the commanding opportunities of the entire Conference and will undoubtedly go forward in a large way. Brother P. P. Carson has done yeoman service in laying deep the foundations for this splendid project.

We have as loyal, efficient, zealous and up-standing a group of ministers on the Springfield District as can be found anywhere. They are "digging in." They are bringing things to pass. They are winning souls. They are preaching the great themes of the Gospel. They are shepherding the flock of God. We rejoice over their achievement, their spirit and their vision. Our laymen, too, are for the most part men of liberality, loyalty and progressiveness. We rejoice over the record of the year. To Him be all praise.

God has spared the parsonage homes from death this year. But Brother Oscar Jones of Mechanicsburg has had a year full of trouble. First the whole family was stricken with the influenza. Mastoid affections followed the influenza, necessitating operations. Then scarlet fever kept the family quarantined for a time. Now Brother Jones and his little boy are just leaving the hospital after a siege of typhoid fever. But you will not hear them complain. They are bearing up with cheerfulness and faith. Brother Jones will not be able to attend Conference this year.

The District Superintendent has had his troubles and still has. Mud, rains, roads, influenza, travel amounting to about 15,000 miles, besides not a few administrative problems have served to keep him humble. But he has been treated in parsonage homes and elsewhere like a king and he thanks God for the exalted privilege of being a member of the finest fraternity on earth in the greatest Protestant Church in the world. To Christ be all the praise and glory.

(B) STANDING COMMITTEES AND BOARDS.

BENEVOLENCES.

Resolved, that we hail with pleasure the action of the late General Conference in unifying our Benevolent work and promoting its efficiency by the organization of the Council of Boards of Benevolence with its committee on conservation and advance. That we congratulate the Church on the election of Dr. R. J. Wade, as the Corresponding Secretary of the Committee of Conservation and Advance and of Dr. Morris W. Ehnes as its Treasurer and we pledge to these officials and to our own Trusted and Efficient leader, Bishop Nicholson and his helpers in this Episcopal Area, our hearts and steadfast co-operation until we realize one hundred percent of all the items of the Centenary and Benevolence program.

C. GALEENER,
J. W. VAN CLEVE.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

When many of the periodicals of our country are yielding their pages to the service of the tobacco trust; in these days of the profiteer, the I. W. W. and the Bolshevik; when brewers and liquor dealers are doing their utmost to regain their power and practice their nefarious business; in this age of kaleidoscopic change in the religion, commerce and politics of the world, and with such intricate and far reaching issues as our relation to Mexico, Armenia and the League of Nations, there is a vital need of keeping the Church well informed. And that the Centenary movement, so ably begun, may be most wisely conserved, developed and directed, we pledge our hearty support to the literature of our Church.

We will observe Good Literature Day, October 24th, by pressing upon our people these needs and encouraging them to patronize our book concern and subscribe for the Methodist Review our Advocates and the Epworth Herald, and to use our own literature in the Sunday Schools. We are happy to learn that the World Outlook, that most excellent missionary magazine, has found friends willing to assure its future publication and we recommend it and the Woman's Missionary Friend and Woman's Home Missions, to our people.

In all these they will find the most reliable information dealing with the great problems of sin and salvation, with the issues of our nation and the movements of the world. Furthermore they will find that our books and all these publications rank with the best in literary product and mechanical finish. None are more readable, reliable and attractive.

COMMISSION ON CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' CAMPAIGN FOR ENDOWMENT FUNDS.

(A) Recommendations.

Resolved: First—That the Conference Claimants' Commission with the powers conferred by the Conference in 1916 and re-affirmed in 1917, 1918 and 1919, be and is hereby continued, and that the Commission for the ensuing Conference Year be composed of the District Superintendents, and one member from each of the following organizations: The Board of Stewards, the Board of Trustees, and The Preachers' Aid Society, and also one Layman from each District, to be named by the District Superintendents and confirmed by the Conference;

Second—That the Commission shall provide for all necessary expenses incident to the most efficient prosecution of its work;

Third—It is the judgment of the Commission that until the campaign is completed and the pledges collected, that the work will require the full time of an executive officer, whose duties will include such matters as the directing of the campaign in the several Districts, the supervision of the collection of all pledges made, the securing of additional gifts, and the transaction of any business connected with the Endowment Fund. We, therefore, recommend that Henry C. Gibbs be appointed as the Field Secretary, who shall work under the direction of the Commission and be ex-officio member of the Commission;

Fourth—That Veterans' Day shall be observed in each of our Congregations early in the Conference Year, the date to be determined by the Commission, when special efforts shall be made to secure intelligent and hearty co-operation on the part of each Congregation, Sunday School, and Epworth League in (a)—Setting before our young men the claims of the Christian Ministry as a life work.

(b)—Securing the standard amount in pledges wherever that standard amount has not been subscribed.

(c)—The prompt payment of the pledges made, and at as early a date as possible, the full payment of all installments on the pledges.

(d)—In raising not less than $500,000 over and above the standard amount which is absolutely necessary to furnish an adequate support for our Conference Claimants, which has long been overdue them by the Church; and

(e)—To keep the fact before all the people that at least an additional sum of $500,000 must be raised before there can be a considerable decrease in the amount appropriated annually to the Pastoral Charges for collection. For this purpose both the Ministers and Laymen should seek out persons who can be induced to make large gifts and bequests for our Endowment Funds, calling especial attention to our Annuity plan and the schedule of rates as published in the By-Laws of The Preachers' Aid Society;

(f)—Stimulating the prompt payment quarterly of the amount apportioned to the Charges for the support of the Conference Claimants.

Fifth—That the campaign for endowment funds be continued until every Charge has paid the standard apportionment.

Sixth—In order to conserve the Endowment Funds and to protect the Conference and the Church from unfaithful and inefficient men that

(a)—Great care should be exercised in admitting men into the conference.

(b)—Members of the Conference who become inefficient because of entanglements in secular affairs should be denied the Supernumerary Relation, but rather should be given a certificate of location at least until such disabilities have been removed.

(c)—That the District Superintendents and the Committee on Conference Relations be and are hereby requested to give the fullest examination of all requests for placing any brother upon the Retired list, and be ready to give to the Conference upon each request the grounds upon which any recommendation for this honorary relation may be made.

Seventh—That the Conference Board of Stewards be and are hereby directed to observe the annuity principle as primary in the distribution of funds available for Conference Claimants.

(B) Plan For Payment of Conference Claimants 1920-21.

M. N. English, Secretary of Commission on Conference Claimant Endowment Campaign, presented a plan for the payment of Conference Claimants in 1920-21, printed copies of which were distributed at the Conference. This plan had been recommended by a joint meeting of the Commission on Conference Claimant Endowment Campaign, the Board of Trustees, the Board of Stewards and the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society, these organizations having complied with the necessary requirements to make the plan effective.

After a careful study it was found that if the recommendations concerning Special Claims, Relinquishments, Preachers' Aid Dues and Accrued Interest, were adopted, the claims for 1920-21 could be paid, if in addition to the present sources of income a special fund of $18,000 could be secured, a sum equivalent to four per cent of the estimated cash salary of the pastors.

The essential parts of the proposed plan are as follows:

The Proposed Plan.SPECIAL CLAIMS—

Except by special action of the Annual Conference:

(1) The total allowance for any Claimant, who makes a special claim for 1920-21 shall not be greater than the total amount granted in 1919.

(2) The amount paid an individual Claimant on the grounds of necessity in addition to his Annuity claim, shall not be greater than his Annuity claim.

(3) The total amount reserved for special cases for 1920-21 shall not exceed $1,500.

RELINQUISHMENTS—

(1) In view of the great number of Claimants, and the large budget necessary to meet these claims, we respectfully request that all Claimants who find it possible to relinquish their claims either as a whole or in part for 1920-21 do so.

(2) No apportionment shall be made for claims in excess of 35 years of service in the effective relation in 1920-21.

Unpaid Dues to The Preachers' Aid Society—From the cash allowance of any Claimant whose years of service upon which this claim is based are not covered by dues previously paid to The Preachers' Aid Society, shall be deducted an amount equal to one-fifth of the delinquent dues necessary to recover his or her claim with interest added at 7% and same shall be credited as a part payment of the dues assessed against said delinquent claim.

Distribution of the Accrued Interest of the Special Fund—We respectfully request that The Preachers' Aid Society and all other parties to the contract of 1916 consent to the distribution of the interest which has been paid in and placed to the credit of the "Special Fund" on the books of the Treasurer of The Preachers' Aid Society.

Funds from the Churches—In order to provide for the additional $18,000 necessary to pay the claims in full as allowed under this plan we recommend that an amount equal to 4% of the cash salary of the pastors be indicated to each district in addition to the present 6%, the same to be apportioned on an equitable basis among all the charges.

Quarterly Payments—Beginning with the Annual Conference Session of 1920 each claimant shall receive his or her full claim in four quarterly

*To cover cases of persons to whom the amount paid on the basis of years of service was so small that it was wholly inadequate to their needs, an additional amount has formerly been granted, called special or necessitous claims.

installments as follows: The first installment to be paid October 1, 1920; the other three to be paid severally on the first day of the months of January, April and July.

Collections from the Churches—Each District Superintendent is instructed to report to the Treasurer of the Conference the several amounts apportioned the Charges of his District for the Conference Claimants at the end of the first quarter and the Treasurer of the Conference is instructed to make record of same and attend to the collection of all amounts due and transmit the amount collected quarterly to the Treasurer of the Board of Stewards.

Special Resolutions.

For the sake of greater accuracy of the records, for the protection of the Conference and our people, and that more perfect justice may be rendered all claimants of the Conference Funds, resolved:

1st. A Committee of nine shall be appointed to investigate the grounds and claims of all claimants. The said Committee shall have power to sit in the interim of the Conference sessions, and is requested to report to the Conference in writing, not later than the second day of the Conference session. This Committee is authorized to present to the Treasurer or the Board of Stewards all bills for expenses incurred in investigating claims and in attending meetings called by the Chairman.

2nd. An Honor Roll shall be kept upon which shall be placed the names of all claimants who have rendered 35 years or more of service in the effective relation.

3rd. That all members of the Conference be required to file with the Secretary of the Conference, who shall transmit same to Secretary of Board of Stewards, a complete pastoral record of all items which may affect the annuity rights of present or future claimants. And that no claim shall be allowed until such record has been filed and approved by the Committee of nine for printing in the minutes.

4th. All ministers who are received into the Conference, whether from probation or by transfer, or in any other way, shall be required to file a similar record with the Secretary of the Conference for approval and printing. A similar record shall be filed covering the years of service of ministers' wives.

5th. When a minister is transferred out of the Conference, the Secretary of the Conference shall forward to the Secretary of the Conference to which the Brother has been transferred his complete record, and also that of his wife.

6th. A claimant on the funds of the Annual Conference may draw his first quarterly benefits at the session of the Conference at which he or she may become a claimant. But such claimant must first file a claim with the Secretary of the Board of Stewards not later than August 1st, preceding the annual conference session, and in the event that no such claim is filed by the Claimant, the Claimant will forfeit his expectation for that year.

Supplementary Resolutions.

Resolved (1). That every candidate for admission into membership of the Illinois Conference, before he is admitted into the Conference, shall be asked to pledge himself to become a member of and pay his annual dues to The Preachers' Aid Society.

2. That with every member of the Illinois Conference it is a matter of good faith that he become an active member of, and pay his annual dues to The Preachers' Aid Society, in the benefit of whose funds he is sure to share; and,

3. That each member of the Conference who shall be appointed to service other than that of the Pastor or District Superintendent shall furnish the Secretary of the Conference the name of the position held and the amount of salary or income received from said position.

4. The Statistical Secretary is instructed to prepare suitable blanks for the reports and records required.

Failure in any of the foregoing the members failing so to do shall be referred to the Committee of nine otherwise provided for.

Respectfully submitted,

B. F. SHIPP, Chairman.

M. N. ENGLISH, Secretary.

The report was adopted.

Report of Field Secretary.

The Decatur District has subscribed $46,211, its quota to the Conference Claimants' Endowment Fund with a small margin above the standard. Almost all the charges of the District have met their apportionment in full and the greater part of the remainder will probably make pledges covering the balance later on.

Bloomington District has made pledges to the amount of $42,314, leaving a deficiency of $3,536, which could easily be wiped out if these churches of the District could be persuaded to put on the campaign. To date Bloomington District has turned in more cash than any other District of the Conference.

Springfield District has secured $40,752 in pledges, leaving a deficiency of only $4,353, and Mattoon District has secured pledges to the amount of $39,770, leaving a deficiency of $6,328. A little co-operation upon the part of pastor and people will make the task of finishing the campaign a comparatively easy one in these two Districts. The Superintendent of the Mattoon has given especial attention to the campaign in his District during the past year and has secured new pledges for more than $6,000.

The Champaign-Danville District has pledges to the amount of $33,914, leaving a deficiency of $11,596; and the Quincy District has pledges to the amount of $32,898, leaving a deficiency of $12,066. The District Superintendent of the Quincy District has pushed his campaign with vigor and has increased the pledges in his District by the amount of $14,501, leading all the districts of the Conference in the amount of new pledges secured this year.

The Jacksonville District has pledged $27,503, leaving a deficiency of $18,277.

The total amount of new pledges secured this year from all the districts is $22,935. To this amount may be added gifts received by The Preachers' Aid Society as follows: $5,000 from Mrs. Shellbarger, $1,000 from Rev. T. L. Hancock, and $500 each from both Mr. J. J. Friend and Mrs. Mary J. Friend—two faithful and true friends of the Retired Ministers. In all a total for the year from all sources of $29,935.

The collections upon pledges during the year have amounted to $36,005.06, and for The Preachers' Aid Society, there has come in $7,000, making a total of $43,005.06.

The resources of the several organizations having to do with the Conference Claimants' Endowment Funds are as follows:

The Preachers' Aid Society, $350,000; The Board of Trustees, $23,229; in the hands of the Treasurer of the Commission, $9,562; total, $382,791; to which may be added $100,000 in unpaid pledges, making a grand total of $482,791; leaving an apparent balance of $18,000 yet to be secured in pledges, but which should be increased to $35,000 to cover the possible shrinkage which may occur in the collecting of unpaid pledges.

However, it should be kept in mind that not all of the income from the resources of the organizations above named are available for distribution to the claimants at this time. For of these there are $124,192 in Annuity Funds, $15,200 Life Estate Notes, and $100,000 uncollected pledges, making a total of $239,392, to which add $18,000 in pledges yet to be secured, and you have $257,392 of the $500,000 which is not yet productive.

The coming Conference year should be a prosperous one for the Endowment Fund, for with proper effort upon the part of the pastors and the churches, the pledges can all be secured. Many subscribers from the best churches of the Conference will be paying the last installments on their pledges made four years ago; so that the collections should be good. The coming year ought to be a cleaning-up year—a year of victory.

Respectfully submitted,

H. G. GIBBS, Field Secretary.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF DEACONESSSES.

The annual meeting of the Conference Deaconess Board convened in First Church, Decatur, at 5 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, September 9, 1920. Those present were: B. F. Shipp, C. R. Morrison, M. G. Coleman, Mrs. E. C. Frields, Miss Bertha Barber, as visitor, M. N. English, E. M. Antrim, E. L. Pletcher, C. M. Duncan, J. C. Nate. The Bishop in the chair.

On motion the Board was organized as follows:

President, F. A. McCarty.

First Vice-President, E. L. Pletcher.

Second Vice-President, Mrs. Eva C. Frields.

Secretary, A. K. Byrns.

Treasurer, E. V. Moorman.

The Chaddock Boys' School, a Deaconess institution, reported the selection of E. V. Moorman and M. N. English as representatives of that institution.

On motion the officers of the Board were made the Executive Committee, and were empowered to nominate committees as follows: Transfers, Admission, Relations, Work of Deaconesses, Charters, Deeds and Insurance, Reports, Annual Conference, Examinations.

The Bishop called the Disciplinary questions as follows:

1. Has the standing of each deaconess been approved?

Answer. It has.

2. Who have been received by transfer and from what conference?

Answer. Miss Catherine Masten from the New Jersey Conference.

3. Who have been transferred and to what Conference?

Answer. Miss Mary L. Bruer to the Central Illinois Conference.

12. Who have been granted leave of absence?

Answer. Anna L. Logan, ill health, San Diego, Cal.

Emma S. Heverly, ill health, Cedar Point, Iowa.

Mabel Millard, caring for aged parents, Appleton, Wis.

Corinne Calvert, Griggsville, Ill.

All other Disciplinary questions were answered in the negative.

On motion it was decided that we ask the Executive Committee at an early date to investigate and make a complete list of all deaconesses and associate deaconesses working anywhere within the bounds of the Illinois Conference and to certify such list to Doctor Howell, the General Secretary of the Deaconess Board, in Buffalo, and to have the list for the record of this Board.

On motion the Executive Committee was made a Program Committee to prepare suitable program for the annual meeting next year.

On motion the Executive Committee was empowered to call the Board together in the intervals between the Annual Conference sessions, if for any reason it should become necessary.

M. G. Coleman was asked to see to the proper filling out of the required certificates of the General Deaconess Board, one copy to go to the General

Deaconess Board, one to the secretary of the Annual Conference, and one for the permanent record of this Board.

On motion it was decided that the report of the Superintendent of Chaddock Boys' School, Mrs. Eva C. Fields, be received and filed, and the accompanying financial statement, or an abstract of the same, be printed in the Conference minutes.

On motion it was decided that a committee of three be appointed by the Chair to draw up a suitable resolution concerning Chaddock Boys' School and to bring back the same for action at an adjourned session of this particular conference to meet at the call of the president. Committee: C. M. Duncan, C. R. Morrison, and F. A. McCarty.

On motion the same committee was instructed to arrange for the presentation of the Chaddock matter to the Annual Conference.

Adjourned.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.

We, your Committee on Conference Relations, recommend that the relation of:

W. F. Gilmore, J. C. Enninger, M. F. Ault, J. E. Artz be changed from effective to retired.

W. D. McIntosh, T. L. Hancock, Wiley Johnson be continued Supernumerary.

T. F. Hartman and A. J. Jockish be changed from effective to supernumerary.

We recommend that H. J. Floreth, C. S. Jupin, W. M. Hailey, F. T. Peters be allowed to locate at their own request.

We recommend that F. J. Talbot be granted the supernumerary relation.

F. A. Enslow, having met the conditions imposed last year, we recommend that the minutes show he was located at his own request.

We recommend that Curtis A. Lawrence be discontinued without prejudice.

We recommend that the request of A. B. Fry for re-admission upon a certificate of location from this Conference be not granted.

We recommend that the request of S. C. Williams for one year's leave of absence be not granted, as his length of service in the Conference does not entitle him to same.

We recommend that J. P. Hillerby be re-admitted upon a certificate of location from this Conference, and that he be granted a retired relation, he relinquishing all claim upon Conference funds.

We recommend that Ira S. Haverfield be continued as a supernumerary and the Secretary of the Conference notify him that the Conference will take action looking toward location at the next session.

W. F. Hunter be changed from supernumerary to effective.

We request the Bishop to transfer J. M. Nash to another Conference.

H. F. Cusic be continued effective.

G. E. Burton be changed from supernumerary to effective.

A. M. WELLS, Chairman.

ROYAL W. ENNIS, Secretary.

CHADDOCK BOYS' SCHOOL.

We greatly rejoice in the splendid record of Chaddock Boys' School during the past year. Not only that the year shows an increased attendance, but we rejoice especially in the fact that every unconverted boy gave his heart to God.

We view with deep concern the fact that the number of applications for admission are four times the number that can be accommodated.

We recommend that the Conference continue the present arrangement for the sustentation fund for Chaddock, and that the proposed Campaign for the School be commended to the favor of our people.

F. A. McCARTY, President.

C. R. MORRISON.

A. K. BYRNS, Secretary.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS.

We recommend the following new By-Laws, (XI) for adoption by the annual meeting of the Domestic Missionary Society.

The annual meeting shall approve a form of application blanks for all applications for funds of the Society under Article II of the Constitution. Such applications if for the founding and maintaining of Missions and Mission Sunday Schools, shall be signed by the District Superintendent and by any pastor or Sunday School Superintendent of the proposed work. If for financial aid to charges they shall be signed by the District Superintendent, the pastor and at least two-thirds of the Trustees of the Charge. If for the supplementing of salaries, such application blanks shall be signed by the District Superintendent, and in no case may provide a total, with the cash salary exceeding $1500.

In consideration of the splendid achievements of this Society we desire to express our most hearty thanks to Dr. John A. Kumler for his vision and wisdom in founding this Society and likewise we desire to thank Brother Lee Matheny for his loyal and splendid service as Treasurer of this Society.

J. D. KRUEWEL, Chairman.

J. C. BROWN, Secretary.

EDUCATIONAL REPORT.

The Committee on Education presents the following report:

The year that has just past has been one of great encouragement to all our educational institutions and yet because of the increase in students and the high cost of living it has also been one of perplexity.

Wesley Foundation at the University of Illinois.

The New Social Centre Building is rapidly nearing completion. It is a beautiful English Gothic building, 210 feet long and 150 feet in its greatest depth, and will accommodate the work in religious education, both non-credit and credit courses, and all of the other student activities. From the rapid growth of student interest and participation, it is evident that the capacity of the new building will be taxed to its utmost from the date of its opening.

The attendance at the University of Illinois in 1919-20 was 9200. Of this number about 8500 were in the departments at Urbana-Champaign, and 700 in the Chicago departments. Of the 8500 at Urbana-Champaign 1860 expressed a preference for the Methodist Episcopal Church. The geographical distribution of these students is as follows:

Illinois Conference	689
Rock River Conference	417
Central Illinois Conference	210
Southern Illinois Conference	214

Total From Illinois	1530

Total Methodist Students1860

At the last Annual Conference session Rev. George V. Metzel was appointed Associate Minister of Trinity Church. The appointment has been abundantly justified by the results of the year's work. Seven hundred and seventy-eight students are now affiliated members of Trinity. One hundred and thirty additional students are enlisted in the Sunday School, the Epworth League, etc. A Student Council has been organized and an extensive Unit System is already in operation. A Life Recruiting Conference was held during the year, with the result that 55 students indicated a purpose to go into some specialized form of Christian service.

As reported last year, the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension has made possible the organization of credit courses in Rural Leadership and Religious Education. Prof. E. S. Boyer was appointed to this new work and the first year's work has been such as to win the approval of the authorities of the University of Illinois and the granting of credit toward graduation by the University for these courses. The inauguration of this work in Religious Education is a most significant and far-reaching development.

There is very great need of a new church plant. It is nothing short of tragic to be obliged to turn students away from the services of public worship, which happens again and again from the present limited plant.

At the request of the Conference, Rev. E. K. Towle was appointed last year as Field Secretary for the Foundation for the purpose of pursuing a quiet search for the funds needed for the new church, and the endowment needed to maintain the rapidly expanding program of The Wesley Foundation. By his enthusiasm, tact and competent handling of his task, he added many interested friends to the constituency of the Foundation in addition to increasing substantially the funds of the Institution. We rejoice in the work Brother Towle has been able to do this year, and recommend that the Conference request his re-appointment in order to complete this important task.

Illinois Woman's College Report to Illinois Conference Sept., 1920—For Year 1919-1920.

The year 1919-20 for the Illinois Woman's College has been one of continued advancement. For the coming year the dormitories are full to overflowing, and the largest attendance in the history of the school is assured. This is the more significant in that all academy classes have been discontinued, and the college accepts only students fully prepared for college, graduates of four years' high school.

The College emphasizes its opportunity not only to educate its students, but also to prepare them for definite Christian service. It is endeavoring to make its work efficient, not only academically, but religiously, and to discover and train leaders for every department of church activity. The department of Bible and Religious Education has been enlarged and the Trustees have appointed to this work Rev. W. J. Weber, of the Oregon Conference. He comes with the highest recommendations from all who have known him, and will serve to connect the college more closely with all the churches, and especially in the Sunday Schools, Epworth Leagues and other young peoples' societies.

The outstanding event of the year is the recognition given the college by the General Education Board of the Rockefeller Foundation. This Board after thorough investigation of the standards of the college, its place among the fully established colleges of the country, and its needs, has fully approved it, and shows its approval by generous offerings of current aid, and of help toward endowment. It is giving $7,500 for increases of teachers' salaries this year, 1919-21, and will give $6,000 for the following year. If the College will endeavor to secure at least $400,000 of additional endowment for increase of teachers' salaries, the Board will give one third of that amount, or $133,333, provided the endowment is secured in about two years.

The Trustees feel that this generous offer is the greatest opportunity that has ever come to the college and with the approval of the Conference visitors, they have accepted the offer with thanks, and have planned to enter at once into a campaign to make the offer effective by personal solicitation of friends. They respectfully request the Illinois Conference to approve their plans.

The increasing cost of college administration results necessarily in a larger budget deficit each year. The recent movement to increase salaries of college teachers greatly augments this deficit and requires an increase of expense of more than $20,000 a year from now on. Increases already made this year call for more than $11,000 additional for teachers' salaries and similar increases must be made next year. The generous offer of the General Education Board will provide about one-third of these increases for the two years, the balance must be secured in current gifts from friends. But after these two years, unless the additional endowment of at least $400,000 is secured, the college will be hopelessly involved in debt. The additional endowment is therefore an imperative necessity, and the offer of $133,333 an unparalleled and most timely opportunity, which will surely be met by hosts of friends in generous and hearty co-operation.

We rejoice therefore in the recognition of the task and needs of the Woman's College by the General Education Board, and we heartily commend the plans of the Trustees for a quiet search for friends who will contribute the amount necessary to meet this offer.

September, 1921, will be the 75th or Diamond Anniversary of the founding of the Illinois Woman's College by the Illinois Conference. Plans are being made for an appropriate celebration, in which the Trustees request the active participation of the Conference. It is sincerely hoped that by the time of this Anniversary a year hence a large part of the additional endowment will have been secured.

Deficit Coller Account		$ 3,076.62
Total Deficit—1919-20	$ 4,271.19
Deficit for Year 1918-19		$ 1,521.71

By special solicitation of friends for current gifts, funds were secured to provide for these deficits, and also to make some greatly needed repairs and improvements to the extent of several thousand dollars, so that the year closed without indebtedness of any kind.

It is the fixed policy of the Trustees to keep the College up to a high degree of efficiency. But it is also their policy not to permit the accumulation of current deficits. It will therefore be necessary for friends to contribute from ten to twenty thousand dollars a year until the college secures at least $400,000 additional endowment.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

The institution suffered a severe loss in the death of two of its distinguished sons, Judge Sain Welty and Dr. William H. Wilder. Judge Welty was for many years a Trustee of Illinois Wesleyan and had been for several years President of the Board of Trustees. Dr. Wilder for many years served as President of the institution, and for several years as Trustee and visitor of the institution. He was, prior to his death, for several years Professor of the English Bible in the school. Both of these were Christian men whose services were valuable to the institution, and especially, at many times when the school needed capable leadership.

The new Department of Religious Education under Dr. A. C. Piersel has prospered and has proved its value many times to the institution. For the coming year the Department of Bible and Religious Education will be combined under Dr. Piersel. The College of Music under the capable leadership of Dr. Edward Young Mason, the Director, has greatly prospered in its new quarters adjoining the college campus. Late in the year an excellent pipe organ was purchased and placed in the College Chapel for the use of the college and for the College of Music. It is now possible for students to pursue a four-year course in music, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Music and also to have a certain amount of credit for work in the College of Music which may be applied toward a college degree. Recognizing the excellent scholastic standards of the school, the General Education Board of New York has appropriated Seventy-five Hundred Dollars the coming year toward a fund for increasing the salaries of the teachers. A year ago a twenty-five per cent. increase in salary was voted by the Board of Trustees to practically all the teachers of the school. Last June the Board of Trustees voted for the coming year, another increase of twenty-five per cent. toward the salaries of most the teachers. The religious life of the school was quite helpful and manifest during the year. In the number of young men preparing for the ministry and in other lines of distinctive Christian service the past good record of the school has been sustained, but in the number of Student Volunteers who were pledged to give their lives to the foreign Missionary fields, there has been a decided increase, inasmuch as practically one out of twelve of all the college students dedicated themselves for work in the foreign fields.

A series of most helpful addresses and lectures by Bishops and leading men in the Methodist Church, as well as representatives from other Churches, are being arranged for the coming year. In the number of new teachers who have been engaged for the coming school year, some have been employed who will give particular attention to training and developing the religious life of the students. One of the notable advances for the school the past year has been the securing by the Bloomington Association of Commerce of several additional tracts of ground adjoining the campus for its enlargement called for by the new plans and building scheme worked out by the Board of Trustees for the University. Plans for a new modern gymnasium to cost perhaps One Hundred and Seventy-five Thousand Dollars have been drawn, and at the earliest possible time a contract will be let, and the actual building will begin. This will give the institution one of the best buildings for gymnasium and social purposes among the colleges of the State. The Bloomington Association of Commerce has plans under way for carrying out their program to raise Five Hundred Thousand Dollars towards the erection of new buildings for the University. The approval of the Illinois Conference of the General plans of the Board of Trustees for the upbuilding of Illinois Wesleyan and the pledge of the Conference to co-operate in such plans for the future, has added new encouragement and hope for the carrying out of the excellent and wide-reaching plans for a greater Wesleyan.

The building of the new gymnasium, and the action of the Conference which will warrant the early erection of the Library, so handsomely provided for by that elect lady, Mrs. Martha Buck, gives promise of an increase of new students and quickened enthusiasm among the hosts of friends of the Institution.

Kemp Hall, the woman's dormitory, was filled before commencement. From present prospects, it looks as if the student body might show an increase of fully thirty per cent for the coming year. Ninety-nine young people were given help last year by means of scholarship provided by generous friends of the school. By the co-operation of business men many places were open for students desiring to earn money toward self-support. The generous gift of fifteen hundred dollars has been received from the Trustees of the Mrs. Martha A. Buck estate towards a fund for much needed books in the college library. Several friends have contributed books and other articles of value toward the school. Professor Wilbert Ferguson, for many years the beloved teacher in the college has been made Dean of the College of Liberal Arts. Professor Cliff Guild, professor of Mathematics and Bursar has been relieved of all teaching and is to give his entire time to the work of Bursar Registrar and Business Agent for the University.

Theological Schools.

The turning of a young life toward the colleges in unprecedented numbers, emphasizes the need of our equipped ministry as nothing else can do.

The preacher must not be a follower, but a leader, and the equipment of the minister of tomorrow must outstrip that of our minister of today. We rejoice therefore in the fact that our Theological schools are prepared to offer to our young men the highest possibilities of training, and we urge our ministers, especially our District Superintendents, to urge our young ministers to avail themselves of the opportunity offered in their institutions.

Increase of Quotas.

The success of the Centenary has greatly increased the responsibilities, obligations, and liabilities of our Educational Institutions.

The Illinois Conference clearly recognizes the absolute need of our schools for increased sustentation funds, and strongly urges upon the Council of Benevolent Boards the importance of devising some plan by which our Public Educational Collection may be greatly increased.

Because of the fundamental work of our schools in training for leadership, we feel that this urgent need of the Board of Education should be given special consideration.

Religious Education.

Possibly no more important action was taken by the last General Conference than that on Religious Education in relation to the life of the Sunday School and Church.

At this time we particularly urge the pastors of the Methodist Church that they make a study of Religious Education as relates to the possibilities of Teacher Training, Com. Training, School on Religious Education, and in larger communities the vacation Religious School, and Week Day Religious Training.

We have reached the time of our greatest problems and possibilities in our Church and in American life. The fundamental solution is in the direction of Religious Education.

We would call attention to the happy fact that Religious Education is to be the theme for the next meeting of the Post Graduate Association, with Dr. Norman E. Richardson of Northwestern University as Instructor-Lecturer.

The Board of Education.

We record our appreciation of the interest of the Board of Education in the Educational interests of the Conference, as shown during the year in the active co-operation of Secretary Harris in all plans for advance.

We especially appreciate the visit of the President of the Board, Bishop W. F. McDowell, and his inspiring address at the Educational Anniversary. We pledge our hearty co-operation to the Board of Education, particularly in their plans for the promotion of the Children's Day fund, the Educational Collection and the Enlistment of our young people for life service in the Church.

Banquet Committee.

The Banquet Committee for 1921 shall be Rev. E. G. Sandemyer, W. R. Leslie and A. R. Gummon.

H. A. KECK, Chairman.

A. S. CHAPMAN, Secretary.

EVANGELISM.

We congratulate the Conference on the splendid spirit of Evangelism and Soul winning activities of the past year, and we believe it is only a beginning of much greater things to come during the remaining years of the Centenary. The success of the past year will inspire courage, for greater conquests for our Christ in the coming year.

Our District Superintendents have proven themselves leaders in Evangelism as well as leaders in finance.

We believe the world needs an outstanding conviction of God in these restless troubled days. Never was the opportunity and responsibility of the Church greater than now to step forward with a revitalized message of faith in God and the fundamental truth of Christianity, that the world might be held to the great program of the Kingdom. We believe a courageous preaching of the Doctrines of Christ's Gospel is the one saving element for the whole world. Materialism has been visited with the judgment of God. Now, God alone can heal the torn and bleeding soul of the world.

The very few men who are coming into the ranks of the ministry is so alarming as to demand the prayerful attention of the entire Church. An apologetic, passionless ministry will only tend to further deplete our ranks. Our Centenary Evangelism should issue a tremendous challenge to the youth of the Church, calling them to heroism and sacrifice for God and the Kingdom. If our Evangelism does not reach this vital problem it will be in a large way a failure even though many are added to the Church.

We, therefore, make the following recommendations for the continuation of the Centenary Evangelistic program in the Illinois Conference.

I.—Goal.

1. A 100% co-operation of the Church membership with appointed means of Grace.

2. It shall be the aim of every charge to reach at least a 10% increase of persons won to Christ and the Church.

3. Prayer activities:—

a. We urge the preachers to a more devoted prayer life. God has only be revealed by men of great prayer.

b. That family worship be urged in every home. The preachers should present this great matter both publicly and privately.

c. That we seek to increase the number of intercessors and then incite them all to prayer tasks.

4. An Evangelistic meeting of some description should be held in every Church, supplemented by such special days or seasons as may seem wise. The Church needs the special meeting for its own sake.

5. That the effort should still be made to reach the entire constituency for Christ and to enlarge the present known constituency.

6. That some month of the year, as directed by the District Superintendent be observed as Stewardship month, in which life service, Tithing and intercession are urged in the most faithful and aggressive manner.

II.—Organization.

1. We urge that each pastor shall at the earliest opportunity appoint an Evangelistic Commission for each Church on his charge, whose business it shall be to ascertain the complete constituency and assist the pastor to formulate plans to reach the entire responsibility roll with the Gospel message either publicly or personally.

2. We recommend the Sub-district grouping of the charges for Evangelistic purposes to the end that every charge get the assistance needed either in the matter of special meetings or otherwise. Evangelistic pastors should be willing to help their brothers and the District Superintendents are urged to plan for such needed assistance among their men.

3. We urge that coal be secured early if possible. If not then the meeting should be held before cold weather.

4. It is the sense of this Committee that Evangelism is the fundamental work on every charge. We do also heartily believe that the success of Evangelism depends upon the pastor. So we would urge every pastor to enter this new year upon his knees. A prayerless ministry cannot hope for a harvest of souls. Neither can a ministry without the heart passion of the Christ become partakers in the Evangelism of our Lord. The path to a successful Evangelistic year leads through Gethsemane to Calvary.

May we my Dear Brothers be willing to tread this road.

E. K. TOWLE, Chairman.

C. F. JUVINALL, Secretary.

THE STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

I.—Since

1. The liquor forces are attempting to make the 18th Amendment "forever inoperative" and thus to jeopardize constitutional government;

2. The personal purity of both sexes is the primary essential of the American home the source of our country's scope and character;

3. The gambling spirit manifested in raffles, lotteries and other schemes of chance inculcating the fallacy that something may be gained for nothing is epidemic;

4. The use of tobacco is physically and morally damaging to youth and adult life alike;

5. The greed of a black-hearted profiteer is quite as atheistic and antagonistic to good government as that of the red-handed Bolshevik whose misleading and destructive philosophy is felt through our entire industrial life manifested in outlaw strikes and similar illegal actions;

6. Many of our citizenry are but fractionally Americanized in state loyalty and in the English language;

7. The first day of the week should be the Lord's own time symbolic of His risen personality and power sufficient to raise the national life into His own likeness;

8. The American negro, in many localities, South and North, does not receive a wage equitable to his work, nor fair administration of justice nor the educational opportunity due every citizen; and

9. The Bible is the only text book affording the reliable letter and the real spirit of civic righteousness;

II.—Let us

1. Elect a Congress favorable to a bone dry regime excluding liquor of any alcoholic content, "withdrawing our flag and consular service from the protection of those who do in other lands what has been outlawed in our own";

2. Maintain the high ideal of the Christian home not to be sundered save on Scriptural grounds as the standard for the home typically American despite the opposite example of some prominent citizens suppliant for fame, specifically, enforcing the Red Light Abatement laws;

3. Urge Congress to pass the measure now pending intended to "suppress race track gambling, its ticket issues and the transportation of its betting chances";

4. Advise our membership of the value of avoiding the use of tobacco in all forms as suggested by the Stockwell resolution of the 1916 General Conference;

5. Invite the fullest investigation of the material cost connected with the production, collection and distribution of such commodities as are essential to the standard necessary for wholesome living;

6. Emphasize the country-wide use of the English language in public speech, in newspapers and in all public schools;

7. Enthroned the American rather than the continental Sabbath on its civic foundations as a day of rest, re-creation, Scriptural study and worship of Almighty God, our Heavenly Father;

8. Encourage every honest effort intended to formulate and fairly apply a program devoted to the complete nationalization of the American Negro; and

9. Place and keep the Bible in the public school so that our citizens most open to its character-forming power may permit the United States to be really Christian and so truly American in practice as in privilege;

III.—Furthermore

We deplore the untimely death of the lamented Governor Hanly our successful advocate in the Amendment and Volstead Act cases before the bar of the United States Supreme Court.

We rejoice in the enfranchisement of womanhood whose vote will make the operation of good government increasingly popular and effective.

We recommend the work of the National Reform Association.

We urge every pastor to hearty participation in the plan of our Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals to erect a Methodist home and headquarters in the city of Washington where every Protestant and every worthy civic reformer may find a gathering place common to all.

We shall continue to regard the Anti-Saloon League as the leader of the federated churches moving in triumphant action against the defeated and expiring liquor traffic and, gladly, to welcome them to our pulpits.

Above all as voters and publicists let us elect a Congress and a State Assembly favorable to moral reform and to the righteousness that exalts a nation.

AUBREY L. CASELEY, Chairman

A. A. HEINLEIN, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We rejoice at the recovery of lost ground and the gaining of new territory by our Sunday Schools. We crave an equal advance in the efficiency of their work. To this end we pledge our co-operation with the program of the Board of Sunday Schools.

We recognize the imperative need of work with and by our young people and we register our conviction that the Epworth League has yet a great mission. We recommend the formation of a Conference Cabinet consisting of a President, a Secretary and the District Presidents. This Cabinet shall have general supervision of Conference Epworth League interests. We nominate for President C. R. Booth, for Secretary, Howard Leach.

We commend to pastors and young people the Conference Institute to be held this year at Shelbyville, July 18-28. The sending of choice young people to our League Institutes has transformed many Chapters. We nominate the following persons as the Institute Commission for this year: C. R. Booth, C. S. Boyd, W. G. Pulliam, H. L. Thrall, H. M. Hoewing, E. J. Campbell, T. H. Tull, C. W. Monson, J. D. Butler, A. A. Luce, H. A. Keck, W. R. Leslie, T. N. Ewing, A. R. Grummon and E. V. Young.

TRUSTEES—CONFERENCE BOARD.

The Board of Trustees of the Illinois Conference met at Decatur, Illinois, September 8, 1920.

Present: W. A. Smith, H. C. Gibbs, S. H. Whitlock, T. N. Ewing, C. F. Buker and J. F. Wohlfarth. J. F. Wohlfarth was elected Secretary pro tem.

Rev. H. C. Gibbs, Financial Secretary, made his report, which was received and ordered to be placed on file with the Secretary for publication in the Minutes of the Conference.

It was moved by T. N. Ewing and seconded by J. F. Wohlfarth that we declare a dividend of Thirteen Hundred Dollars ($1300) and the same to be paid to the Board of Stewards for distribution. The motion carried.

Dr. A. C. Piersel was elected to preach the Strawbridge sermon this year and Dr. F. A. McCarty was selected as the alternate.

The report of Lee Matheny for the Strawbridge Trustees, was received and filed.

J. F. WOHLFARTH, Secretary.

W. A. SMITH, President.

Board of Trustees,
Illinois Conference.

Brethren:—

The undersigned Trustees of what is known as the Strawbridge Sermon Fund, beg to report that this fund, consisting of One Thousand Dollars, bequeathed to the Illinois Conference on certain conditions, by the late Thomas Strawbridge, is invested in a first mortgage loan, and this loan is secured by property in Springfield, Illinois, described as follows:

Lot 9, Spaulding's Holmes Place Addition.

The estimated value of this property is $6000.

Respectfully Submitted,

Called Meetings.

Meeting of the Board of Conference Trustees, held at Springfield Feb. 18, 1920.

Those present: W. A. Smith, S. H. Whitlock, H. C. Gibbs, T. N. Ewing and C. S. Buker.

A motion was made that Rev. F. B. Madden report to the Trustees, details of the claims of the man against the Green Valley Church.

A recommendation was made to the Conference, desiring that the Secretarial Fund be kept intact for Secretarial expenses.

A motion was made that H. C. Gibbs prepare a form for bequests.

W. A. SMITH, Chairman.

C. F. BUKER, Secretary, Pro Tem.

The Trustees of the Illinois Conference met in a called meeting at 1 p. m., Tuesday, April 13, 1920, in the I. W. U. at Bloomington.

Present: W. A. Smith, President; F. B. Madden, Secretary; H. C. Gibbs, Treasurer; S. H. Whitlock, T. B. Ewing, B. F. Shipp.

Prayer was offered by H. C. Gibbs.

H. C. Gibbs stated that Mr. Amaziah Pollock, of Clinton, held a judgment for $160 and costs of $18.50 against the Board of Trustees of the Green Valley Methodist Episcopal Church; that said Trustees had deeded said church to the Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference and they, through their attorney, J. J. Rolofson, of Clinton, had sold and deeded said church and lot to Mr. Ira Pollock for $705 and that Mr. Rolofson held Mr. Ira Pollock's check for the same until such time as the Judgment should be settled.

After a statement by B. F. Shipp and F. B. Madden, in regard to the claim for which said judgment had been granted, on motion of H. C. Gibbs, seconded by T. B. Ewing, the claim was ordered settled and H. C. Gibbs and F. B. Madden were authorized to make the settlement.

Following the statement by T. B. Ewing in regard to a Contract, through T. B. Wright, with the Illinois State Register, to publish the Minutes of the Illinois Conference, S. H. Whitlock moved that W. A. Smith, Ewing and Madden be a committee to let the contract for publishing of said Minutes and that Wright be required to submit the contract in writing and publish in the Minutes an audited, annual statement of his account as publisher.

On motion of H. C. Gibbs it was ordered that the amount for Secretarial expense should be one-tenth of one per cent of the cash salary of each effective member of the Conference and that said fund should be used only to pay Secretarial expenses.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

W. A. SMITH, President.

F. B. MADDEN, Secretary.

CABINET MESSAGE

LOOKING FORWARD—ILLINOIS ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

A Special Message from the District Superintendents.

(M. N. English presented at the joint session of Laymen and Ministers, Saturday morning, September 11, a paper of which the following is a very condensed summary.)

The history of Illinois cannot be written without the story of Methodism, and no roll of illustrious sons is complete that leaves out the names of that long list of men whose names are familiar to all who know even a little of the history of this great Conference. * * * They laid the foundation of the religious, educational and material prosperity of these days. They were builders of empire. The question we raise is whether or not we, as sons of these men, will be counted builders of empire by forthcoming generations; or whether our kingdom shall have passed into other hands and we be found to have failed because we refused to think and act in terms worthy of our inheritance.

It is the conviction of many that the time has come for the great Illinois Conference to lay out a program which will be in keeping with the needs of the day and the resources in men and money and strategy of a great church. * * * We are nearing the one hundredth anniversary of the Conference. We need the complete spirit of co-operation and consciousness of mutual program which characterizes all the programs at all worth while in this day of the world. As to the matter of these programs they must be mutual, each recognizing the importance of the other and they must be large enough to measure against the great needs and looking fairly forward to a decade at a minimum. * * * Our talk of these programs should not leave the impression of just some more campaigns and campaigning. We are leaders, every man of us, not so much in the management of movements, though we have much of that to do, but in speaking to the hundred thousand folk of our Conference for God. We wish that in the next decade we might all consecrate ourselves to a new ambassadorship.

I.

We call attention first to the primary need of increased efficiency, both in ministry and laity. We ourselves, fall far too short of the ideal. The ranks of the ministry must be recruited with the best and most virile young men of the times. We must produce these men from our own soil. The entrants gates to the Conference must be more carefully guarded. Laymen are willing to pay a living salary to the men who can do an outstanding piece of work. Most preachers set their salary by the daily impression which they make upon the community. We are all agreed that the abilities of men cannot be tabulated or card indexed. There are some things, however, that must be taken into account in judging the efficiency of any man and every man. What is needed is a standard of personal efficiency.

Our laymen must assume the tasks of organization and ministration which have been borne in recent years chiefly by the pastor. No minister can devote the larger part of his time to the "serving of tables" and preach with prophetic vision and power and minister to the personal needs of his people as he should. Instead of becoming more and more an executive as he has in the past decade, the minister must become more and more a prophet and shepherd. Our laity should give greater attention to the service assigned to the various Conference Boards to which they are appointed. If we are to have an intelligent and loyal laity, they must be informed concerning the great program of the church and that is possible only through careful reading of the church press.

II.

Our second word is concerning the District Superintendency and the organization of the Conference. The conviction grows that the District Superintendency is essential to the largest success. The greatest efficiency, however, requires certain modifications in our system, chief of which is that the Superintendent be loosed from so much routine that he may be given greater freedom for real constructive leadership. Sooner or later the number of Districts should be reduced to five or six. In the re-arrangement, district boundaries should follow county lines so that our counties would not be divided among different districts. The county should be made the unit of organization and work. A sub-district chairman, who in many cases, would be the pastor of the church in that county seat, can, without being unduly burdened, give direction under the Superintendent, to work in the county, in many routine matters. Emphasis should be laid on the fact that a man selected for the Superintendency is to serve not merely a given district but the entire Conference. The Superintendents under such a system, would constitute a Board of Strategy, meeting with frequency for discussion of Conference matters, thus giving the Conference the benefit of the combined leadership of those Superintendents. Provision should also be made for the operating expenses of the district in a way separated from the income of the superintendent.

III.

Ours is a connectional system. Methodism at large must know that in every world-wide enterprise, the Illinois Conference can be counted upon to do its full duty. We must conserve every result of the Centenary; its great objectives, Intercession, Stewardship of Possession, Life Service, Education and Evangelism must be emphasized. The Centenary scale of giving must become the normal standard when the Centenary period is ended. To drop back to the old level will not only defeat the success of the enterprises now beginning but will blight the spiritual life of our membership.

IV.

Surveys reveal some startling conditions in Central Illinois. Places where once we were strong we are now weak. Whole sections of the richest farming community are destitute of any kind of religious propaganda. We have sections where the foreign born population far out-numbers American born. We have city industrial and other groups we are failing utterly to reach. These conditions call for a survey and program that will meet the needs. What the Centenary did on a world-wide scale must be done by this Conference in an intensive and detailed way. A budget adequate to meet such a program should be provided. The Board of Home Missions has been generous to us but we must have for our own use an additional amount not less than the total Centenary askings for our entire Conference. This may be in the form of a steady annual income from collections or from endowment administered by our own domestic Missionary Society or Conference Board of Home Missions.

V.

There is no more vital question than the attitude we assume toward our Conference institutions. In these we are rich. They are of two kinds: philanthropic and educational. Too many of us have regarded these institutions as burdens to be borne rather than as agencies through which we may serve the world in a way impossible to other Conferences. We have allowed the number of our institutions to prevent our doing for all of them in total what many Conferences have done for a single institution. Our philanthropic institutions include Cunningham Orphanage at Urbana, the Methodist Memorial Hospital at Mattoon and Chaddock Boys' Home and School at Quincy. Toward each we have a definite responsibility. What this is should be sympathetically, determinedly and adequately met. The Conference has yet to keep faith with Chaddock in the matter of providing it with adequate funds.

The church never had a greater mission in the field of education than now. In the Illinois Wesleyan, the Illinois Woman's College and Wesley Foundation we have the means of making a contribution for the enrichment of the world second to no other Conference in Methodism. The action of this Conference by which the location of the Illinois Wesleyan is permanently settled at Bloomington, opens the way for the settlement of our other educational problems. We have demonstrated that the Conference will not be broken or divided into factions. We have strong men with strong convictions. We do not always agree but when we face a crisis in the life of any great Conference institution, we know how to forget our differences in the zeal for the future. In spite of the fact that we must deal with the unwillingness of many to endorse a campaign of any kind, all these institutions come to us with greater and more imperative needs than ever before. The total needs of these institutions will run into millions. This Conference has the millions and must not close without making plans adequate to the needs of her institutions.

VI.

That some readjustments of the boundary lines between the Conferences of the state must in time be made, is evident. This matter must be carefully studied. Arguments hitherto stressed we now find have little real value. There are no other arguments that have not been fully considered that must be heard. The Illinois Conference and the Central Illinois Conference have so much in common, their tasks are so nearly the same and their problems so overlap that a united Conference may prove necessary to the achievement of the task each is trying to accomplish independently of the other.

VII.

The shame of inadequate support and unkept pledges to our Conference claimants must be wiped out and the sheet forever kept clean. We must not only complete immediately the present campaign for five hundred thousand dollars but changed conditions make imperative a fund of one million dollars. The general Conference has made it obligatory for every Conference to provide income sufficient to pay the claims of its claimants in full. Until this can be done through endowment income, we must provide for it through additional collections in the churches. A plan will be proposed by which this can be done.

There is more involved than merely providing money with which to pay claims. We have the more delicate question as to who are to be our claimants and on what conditions * * *.

VIII.

The program of local church should be standardized. What constitutes an efficient church? Surely not the mere holding of public worship and the maintenance of certain organizations. A program of the church must relate itself to the entire life of the community. We must do all that must be done in the past and infinitely more * * *.

IX.

Adequate provision must be made for the training in leadership, lay and ministerial. Our colleges have a definite responsibility in this. The Conference may well consider the establishment of a great training school, where for several weeks each summer its youth, its laity and ministry may receive instructions touching every phase of church life and work. A good beginning has been made in the Conference Epworth League Institute which should have the church endorsement and co-operation of the Conference. Somewhere there should be a place dedicated to the training of leaders—a great Illinois Conference Geneva or Winona.

X.

We have not lost sight of the fact that in the work of the church one thing is supreme, the building of the Kingdom, and this is possible only through the regeneration of men, one by one. The only value other things have is the value which is found in the contribution that makes it the great end and aim of all our endeavor. For the things themselves as ends we have little interest, but as means for the accomplishment of the supreme thing we have a real passion. The problem of the proper balance in our activities between what we call the spiritual and material is ever with us. We must learn to do more than one thing at a time. We must do at least two. We must be able while carrying on campaigns in the interest of the great causes of the church, to maintain such a passion for the souls of men and such skill in capturing them for the Christ that the latter will ever be the supreme achievement of our lives.

Ours is the task of inspiring and leading the hundred thousand Methodists within the bounds of our Conference in a Holy adventure, the like of which we have never before undertaken. If our program is big enough and proper care is taken in launching it, ministers and laymen will respond. We must be men of high ideals, deep consecration, undaunted faith; men of Calvary vision and Gethsemane passion; men who will in the crucial hour—

“Leap forward into the deepening fight
 ’Twixt darkness and eternal light,
 ’Till longing races catch the sight
 Christ crucified.”

Men, Brothers beloved, carry on—carry on.

CONFERENCE PROGRAM

Whereas: The joint session of the Illinois Annual Conference and the Lay Electoral Conference has heard with profound interest the Conference program as suggested by the Board of District Superintendents, and outlined in the splendid paper read by Dr. M. N. English, September 11, 1920.

Resolved: That we commend this program to the thoughtful and prayerful consideration of our preachers and people.

Resolved: That Dr. English be requested to prepare a brief outline of the paper covering over two pages in the minutes; Also that a committee consisting of Bishop Nicholson, Dr. Van Cleve and Dr. English be asked to condense the paper and have it printed in the Northwestern Christian Advocate, and that it be printed as it is in pamphlet form in sufficient number to place before our membership, and a fund for this purpose be raised.

Resolved: That the Annual Conference, and the adjourned Lay Electoral Conference, pursuant to the action of the General Conference of 1920, meet in joint session at the time of the Session of the Illinois Annual Conference in 1921.

Resolved: That a Joint Committee composed of five ministers appointed by the Bishop, and five laymen appointed by the President of the Lay Electoral Conference with Bishop Nicholson as chairman, be appointed to prepare a docket and program for the proposed joint session. That the said committee be further empowered to decide what committees should be required to prepare the business for the proposed joint session; that they appoint such committees, one minister and one layman from each of the districts of the Conference, notifying each member of his appointment, and calling the committees to meet Thursday afternoon of the Conference session for the purpose of preparing their reports.

Resolved: That the action of the joint session be made the official action of the Conference, by its confirmation of the same, and its approval of the minutes of the joint session as part of the official Journal of the Annual Conference.

COMMISSION ON BOUNDARIES

Report of the Joint Committee of Nine and Five of the Commission on Boundaries.

Your committee found upon meeting that we could not proceed under the paragraph of the Discipline contemplated, consequently we joined with that Conference in asking the General Conference for an enabling act which may be made effective at any time during the quadrennium.

On consultation with the commission it has been agreed that a vote taken this fall would find many facts in an uncertain or undetermined status, while a year of study, we may believe, will enable the clearing up of the same.

We recommend therefore the creation of a commission of 21 from each conference, to be appointed by the District Superintendents, two from each district, of whom, three shall be District Superintendents, and seven at large, to further study the problems of education boundaries, hospitals, Conference Claimants, charters and other matters involved; said commission to have power to formulate and submit to the sessions of 1921 a complete plan of union of the Conferences if they shall so determine, or other plans of Conference co-operation.

The commissions are further empowered to invite, should such action be deemed advisable, a similar commission from the Rock River Conference for the same purposes.

We further recommend that when this Conference adjourns that we ad-journal to meet at the call of the chair for a joint session of the two Conferences should such action be deemed advisable after consultation with Bishop.

H. W. McPherson, Chairman.

Arthur S. Chapman, Secy.

EWING PETITION.

"Whereas, the last General Conference passed legislation providing that District Superintendents be appointed annually, thus practically removing the time limit; and

"Whereas, the oft repeated expression of this Conference has been to the effect that a period of service limited to six years in twelve in that capacity is, in the judgment of the Conference, better adapted to impartial and successful administration; and

"Whereas, the high character and excellent service of our District Superintendents during these years have, we think, amply justified our judgment in this matter;

"Therefore, we respectfully request our resident Bishop during this quadrennium to have regard for our judgment; and

"We desire to state further that this request does not grow out of any prejudice in any respect against any present or former District Superintendent."

Signed by ninety members of the Conference.

ILLINOIS WOMAN'S COLLEGE.

Whereas, the School Committees of Bloomington, Champaign, Urbana and Quincy are entering heartily by way of co-operation in the proposed financial campaigns of their respective institutions; be it

Resolved, That the Illinois Conference respectfully call the attention of the Jacksonville community to the needs of the Woman's College, in view of the proposition of the General Education Board, and the necessity of doing for the college as other communities have done for their institutions, and suggest that they indicate their thought and plan in the premises as has been their custom at such times, as a matter of encouragement to the Conference at large.

Resolved, That we request Superintendent E. L. Flecher, of the Jacksonville District and Councillor J. W. Hancher of the Board of Education to represent us in any possible negotiations with the Jacksonville community.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY.

Report of Executive Committee.

By special request of the Conference Board of Education, M. N. English presented to the Conference the main features of the report of the Executive Committee of the Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors of Illinois Wesleyan University which had been previously presented to the Conference Board of Education.

The Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors, of Illinois Wesleyan University, through its Executive Committee, submit the following report with reference to the progress made in the matter of Campus Enlargement, and for the program for Illinois Wesleyan University since the last Annual Conference.

The Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors found itself confronted with the responsibility of taking immediate action with reference to the site and development of the University, or allow the future of the University to be impelled through uncertainty occasioned by the prolonged agitation with reference to the permanent location, and the fact that actions taken by the Illinois Conference and the Central Illinois Conference were not in agreement on this matter. Further delay would have resulted in the loss of Faculty Students, Constituency, Financial Support and a general demoralization of University affairs.

Under the circumstances there was no alternative but to proceed with plans for the permanent upbuilding of the University at Bloomington, Illinois.

We submit the following statement of the actions taken:

I.

At the request of the Executive Committee—in accordance with the judgment of the Joint Board that the present site of the University was preferable to any other provided sufficient enlargements could be secured—the Association of Commerce of Bloomington, expressed its willingness to make the funds promised for purchase of site available for the purchase of such additions to the present campus as the Joint Board considered necessary.

II.

The Executive Committee, acting under instructions of the Joint Board, made a careful study of the needs of the University covering Campus Enlargements, Buildings and Endowments and submitted the results of this study to a special meeting of the Joint Board held April 13th, 1920.

This report traced the steps taken in securing options on the properties desired; the number and character of buildings needed, estimated cost of which would be $1,100,000, exclusive of the Buck Memorial Library; and the additional endowment necessary to maintain the enlarged plant and increased student body, estimated at $1,320,000. The proposed program was based upon the standard requirements established by the various educational bodies. The completed program will give the University a Campus equal in area and attractiveness to that of many leading institutions, a plant valued at nearly $2,000,000, and an endowment of $2,250,000.

The Joint Board, after careful consideration, approved the report of the Executive Committee, and took action making effective the suggestions contained therein, formally requesting the Association of Commerce of Bloomington, to purchase certain indicated properties to the extent of $100,000 for Campus Enlargements.

III.

We are able to report the following progress in these matters:

1. In pursuance of its proposal to provide a sustentation fund of $10,000 annually for a period of five years; to expend for site $100,000; and provide $500,000 for buildings and equipment, the Association of Commerce of Bloomington, secured the services of Rev. A. G. Carnine as Wesleyan Secretary to organize its campaign for these funds and otherwise co-operate in carrying out its agreement with the Joint Board. Mr. Carnine has given most of his time to this work, the sustentation fund has been paid the past two years and the preliminary work for the total campaign is being done.

2. The Association of Commerce has purchased the properties indicated by the Joint Board for Campus Enlargement. These properties are to be turned over to the University whenever needed for buildings or Campus development. These enlargements will provide the University with ample room for buildings and campus and under the general scheme adopted will give the University a Campus that is fully equal to that of many of our leading Colleges and Universities.

3. Realizing the imperative need of a Gymnasium, the Executive Committee took up with the Association of Commerce, of Bloomington, the question of providing funds for the erection of same, as soon as plans could be prepared and construction begun. We are pleased to report that the Association of Commerce has interested a group of friends of Illinois Wesleyan in this project. These friends have agreed to sign notes to the amount of $160,000 and upon which we are informed the Banks of Bloomington have agreed to furnish $160,000. The terms of this agreement are indicated in the attached statement from the Association of Commerce.

This arrangement will not only provide funds for the erection of the Gymnasium, but indicates a willingness on the part of the Association of Commerce and local friends of the University, to waive that part of the original proposition which made action dependent on a concurrent campaign outside of Bloomington and McLean county.

4. The Trustees of the Buck Estate do not feel that they are justified in proceeding with the erection of the Library until possibility of a change of location of the university is eliminated, but have agreed to an advancement of $1,500 for purchase of Library Books. Until the estate is liquidated into cash the estate will not be able to go forward with the library building.

IV.

We believe that this statement of what has been done will commend itself to the Board of Education, and the Illinois Conference, as evidence that the citizens of Bloomington, and McLean county, intend to do their part in providing for the needs of the University.

The reorganization of the Board of Trustees, the method of constituting the Executive Committee, and the proposals of Bloomington and McLean county fully meet the wishes of the Illinois Conference as expressed in the resolution adopted at the session of the Conference in Quincy, 1918, and the conditions imposed by the Educational Commission raised to consider the whole matter.

We believe that all that is now needed to insure the fulfilment of the obligation of Bloomington and McLean county is that the Illinois Conference and Central Illinois Conference take such action as will assure the citizens of Bloomington, and McLean county, and the Joint Board of Trustees and Visitors that their plans have the approval of the Conferences, and that the Conferences will in turn bear their share of the responsibility each and all have in the upbuilding of the University.

Sketches showing campus enlargements, suggested location of various buildings and bird's eye views of the campus and buildings when completed were exhibited.

M. N. ENGLISH,

Report of Conference Committee.

We have heard with pleasure the plans of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees and Visitors for the enlargement of the campus and buildings of the Illinois Wesleyan.

We not with gratification the energy and enthusiasm the business men of Bloomington are putting into the College enterprise. Therefore believing this to be a satisfactory solution of the problem, be it

Resolved, That we express our approval in their general outlines of the plans as presented to the Conference, and be it further

Resolved, That we pledge our hearty co-operation and practical support to the School, provided the city of Bloomington and McLean county go forward immediately and raise the entire $600,000.00 toward the carrying out of the proposed plans within the next three years.

C. GALEENER, Chairman
W. R. LESLIE, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS OF APPRECIATION

Transfer of Dr. English.

In the proposed transfer of Brother M. N. English, at the close of this session, the Illinois Conference will lose one of its beloved and most effective members.

The relations of Dr. English, to the Illinois Conference have been such that we cannot permit him to leave us without voicing our regret, and expressing our deep sense of appreciation of his valued services in all the lines of our Conference work. He is a son of the Illinois Conference and we remember gratefully the long and faithful service of his honored father.

Dr. English, has an enviable record as a pastor and District Superintendent. Churches have prospered, men have been won to Christ, and Kingdom enterprises have been greatly furthered under the inspiration of his leadership.

He was the first President of our Conference Board of Education and served in that relation during the four intensive years of our Educational Forward Movement. As a member of the Wesleyan Board of Trustees and Visitors his sympathetic insight into the problems of the institution has been most helpful. His work on the Chaddock Board has been no less conspicuous—himself a graduate of Old Chaddock College, his interest in and enthusiasm for the Boys' School have never waned.

As a member of the Commission of Conference Claimants he rendered valued assistance in the Campaign for the Endowment Fund. His presentation and leadership of all these causes under their special bearings at this Conference session call for our thanks. He ably represented us in the General Conference of 1920, and his election there as a member of the Council of Benevolent Boards gave great satisfaction to his Conference Brethren.

We would not overlook Brother English's activities as a patriotic citizen in every community where he has served. Often the exigencies of an itinerant life make it almost impossible for a Methodist Preacher to enter into the life of a community fully as he would, were his sojourn longer. But Dr. English has always effectively touched the civic life of the community where his ministry has been.

We are sorry to lose Dr. English from among us, but we most heartily congratulate the Rock River Conference and the Oak Park Church.

We desire Brother English to remember that we shall always consider him one of us, and he will always find a welcome at our Conference sessions, and at all our Conference and District Meetings.

Respectfully submitted

F. A. McCARTY.
JOSEPH C. NATE.

Courtesies.

Recognizing the repeated hospitality of the people of Decatur shown in the entertainment of the Illinois Conference for the sixth time during its history.

We express our sincere appreciation for the hospitable manner in which the people have opened their homes to us.

For the courteous attentions of our brother pastors: F. A. Havighurst, A. M. Wells and Clyde R. Booth.

For the co-operative Christian spirit exhibited by the sister Churches of the city and to the pastors of the same for their cordial brotherliness.

We also make special acknowledgment of the liberal space devoted to the proceedings of the Conference in the columns of the city dailies, The Decatur Review and the Decatur Herald, and to the National Bank of Decatur for privileges accorded the Conference during the week.

We desire to express our high appreciation of our presiding officer, Bishop Thomas Nicholson, L.L.D. We rejoice in his personal interest in and devotion to the enterprises of our Conferences, and his fair and straight forward administration of this session of our Conference. Doubtless the area system brings added burdens and vexations to our Bishop, but it means much to us to have a Bishop who knows our churches and our men.

The addresses of Dr. Edmund D. Soper have been most helpful and inspiring. They have been especially fitting and fearless in facing the present day conditions. Dr. Soper will find a warm welcome whenever he comes to us.

We rejoice in the visit of our former Bishop, W. F. McDowell and record our hearty sympathy with the high and unselfish purpose of his mission.

We have been glad to welcome our own workers and Secretaries, Dr. Chas. M. Stuart, Dr. Chas. E. Gustine, Dr. C. C. Gage, R. H. M. Augustine, Geo. B. Dean, R. J. Wade, Clarence Tim Wilson, W. S. Boyard, Benson Baker and Merton V. Rice.

We add our acknowledgment of the excellent service rendered in the musical part of our Conference program of Brother W. S. Phillips and his assistant I. A. Betcher.

A. B. PECK, Chairman,
F. A. McCARTY, Secretary

SALE OF CHURCH PROPERTY.

That the Trustees of the Catlin charge be authorized to dispose of either or both of two pieces of parsonage property in which the church has an interest, the proceeds to be applied to a new parsonage enterprise.

That the Trustees of Bethel Church on the Catlin work be authorized to dispose of the church property, the proceeds to be devoted to the property interests of the charge.

That in case of a readjustment of the appointments on the Collison charge, the Trustees of Embury church be authorized to make such disposition of the church property as may be authorized by the Quarterly Conference, and approved by the District Superintendent, and any proceeds to be applied to the property interests of the charge.

That the Trustees of the Bellflower charge, Bloomington District, be, and are hereby instructed and authorized to sell the property of our church at Glenn Avon, which property was formerly a part of the said charge, and deposit the proceeds from such sale with the Trustees of this Annual Conference, in harmony with paragraph 362 of the Discipline of 1916.

B. F. SHIPP,
J. C. NATE.

PUBLISHING OF MINUTES.

Resolved, That the secretary of the Conference, F. B. Madden and E. G. Sandmeyer are instructed to edit, with sole responsibility, the copy for the Conference minutes. Be it also Resolved, That the editors be instructed to go to press with copy at the expiration of fifteen days after the adjournment of the Conference.

Resolved further, That to every pastoral charge a number of minutes be apportioned of one copy for every $100 of salary, including house rent and that the price to the members of the Conference be twenty cents per copy.

Resolved, That the publisher of the minutes be instructed to send C. O. D. the assigned quota of minutes to each active member, including the district Superintendents, and supplies within the bounds of the Conference.

For school and general purposes	8,585.00
Estimated one-half interest in live stock, machinery, etc., on farm	1,400.00

Total$13,174.66

The last three amounts named are not taken into consideration in the Resources at this time.

Total Resources$154,959.44

LIABILITIES.

Liability Account:

Indebtedness on real estate purchased from T. C. Poling—balance	$ 8,000.00
Notes to the Illinois State Bank of Quincy, money borrowed to complete building, equip farm and other purposes	10,000.00
Note to E. V. Moorman, money borrowed for buildings	4,500.00
Note to the Ricker National Bank, Quincy, Illinois, against unpaid pledges not listed in the Resources above	900.00
Note to the State Savings Loan & Trust Company, Quincy, against unpaid pledges not listed in the Resources above	1,000.00
Notes given in payment of bills on building	5,667.30
Outstanding unpaid bills on building	3,611.73
Current bills for conduct of School unpaid	3,437.49

Total Liabilities37,116.52

Excess in Resources over Liabilities.....$117,842.92

This does not include the unpaid pledges above referred to and the one-half interest in live stock and equipment on the farm and the Trustees have reason to believe there is quite a large equity in the Asay farm above what it is appraised and carried at in this statement.

Plan of Conference Examinations.

CONFERENCE STUDIES.

BOARD OF EXAMINERS

Chairman—C. D. Robertson, Homer.

Registrar—R. L. Steed, Saybrook.

Examiners—C. M. Barton, A. K. Byrns, A. C. Piersel, F. A. Havighurst, E. A. Hedges, E. H. Lugg, R. F. McDaniel, W. A. Smith, R. L. Steed, W. R. Leslie, P. C. Sommerville, E. L. Tobie, H. W. McPherson, C. F. Juvinall, G. V. Metzel, E. G. Sandmeyer, C. W. Hamand, A. L. Caseley, J. E. Evans, H. A. Keck, J. A. Biddle, H. S. Jackson.

RULES OF THE BOARD.

With Plan of Examinations for 1917-18.

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners by the chairman. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District, as may be determined by the chairman. They shall be in charge of District Supervisors designated by the chairman, and, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the chairman shall arrange with a member of the conference as special supervisor for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed supervisor, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

As early in the conference year as possible all applicants for admission on trial shall send to the chairman of the board for application blanks, which are to be filled out with all care and returned to the chairman. All such candidates may take their examinations as above.

4. The examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Registrar of the Board three different sets of questions, 90 days or more before the examinations take place in June. The Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time in the hands of the district supervisors for all examinations, both regular and special. Set No. 1 shall be used in the first examination; set No. 2 for all who fail at the first trial; and set No. 3, "doubly difficult," for all who postpone the examinations until the day before the Conference session.

5. Before the examination in June the Registrar will supply the supervisors with questions on the entire course of study.

6. Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study, or to appear for examination, shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time of examination. And in case of such failure to pass, the registrar of the board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the board.

7. Examiners shall report grades on all papers to the registrar within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the conference to the chairman of the board. Such appeals shall be decided by the board at their annual conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for prepayment.

8. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

9. The examination questions shall conform to the requirements of the Commission on Conference Courses of Study and the markings on both examinations and collateral reading shall be upon the scale and according to the method established by the Commission, and no mark below 70 per cent shall pass.

10. All credits from Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the chairman of the board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the annual conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. All grades from whatsoever source, other than those given by the conference examiners, shall be designated by the letter "P", as an indication of passing grade, which neither adds to nor detracts from the general average of the undergraduate.

11. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, including the applicants for admission on trial, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the board. This fee shall be paid to the registrar of the board within thirty days after the adjournment of the conference session, for which the registrar shall furnish receipt. District supervisors are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. The financial accounts of the Registrar shall be audited by the board at their annual conference meeting.

12. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the chairman and registrar of the board.

13. It shall be the duty of the chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the board of examiners; and it shall be the duty of the board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant. District superintendents are requested to report to the chairman of the board of examiners, all candidates for admission on trial or from other churches, and candidates for admission into full membership, and for recognition of orders, at least thirty days before Conference, or as soon thereafter as possible, concerning the applicants, with references, that the chairman may have ample time to investigate.

14. It shall be the duty of district superintendents to report to the chairman of the board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

15. The annual meeting of the board of examiners shall be held at the seat of the annual conference at 2 o'clock p. m., on the day preceding the opening of the session, to consider matters involved in Rule 14, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the ensuing year. Examinations for those who are eligible shall be conducted on the same day, beginning at 9 o'clock a. m., and closing at 6:00 p. m.

16. "Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success, will be conferred at each annual conference upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively; but no one can be "Honor Man" who shall not have done at least 50 per cent of his work under this board, or whose standing in the course of study is irregular.

Examinations deferred to the day before Conference will be doubly rigid, and no examination will be given after 6 p. m. on day preceding Conference.

17. All examination papers shall be sent to the examiners by registered mail, and the receipt for the same shall be brought to the chairman at the seat of the Conference.

18. The Board will deduct 10 per cent or less on each paper in which the spelling, grammar, writing or general execution is slovenly, deductions being made on each of these points. On all written work not in before August 15th, a reduction of 5 per cent, and after September 1st, 10 per cent, will be made from the grades. All written work must be within the required limits, or deductions will be made.

Undergraduates will give especial attention to paragraph 599, Sec. 1, of the Discipline of 1916.

COURSE OF STUDY

Assignment of Studies for the year 1917-18.

Of the following studies, those having the letter "J" prefixed are the subjects for examination at the first mid-year district period, the first Tuesday in June. The written work is to be sent in before that time.

The studies and written work having the letter "A" prefixed are assigned to the second period, the first Tuesday in August.

Memoirs.

W. D. BEST.

William Dudley Best was born in Germantown, W. Va., March 31, 1845. He was a son of the Rev. Joseph Best, an itinerant Methodist minister. At the age of three he with his family moved to Stevenson County, Illinois. His youth was mostly spent in or near Freeport, Illinois. He was converted at the age of thirteen in a schoolhouse near Freeport, the call to preach came to him then and never left him a moment. In 1863 he began his college life in the Rock River Seminary, Mount Morris, Illinois. In the spring of 1865 he went to Evanston, Illinois and entered both the Northwestern University and the Garrett Biblical Institute and received his degrees from both institutes in 1870. In September the same year he, with two of his intimate classmates, Dr. W. H. H. Adams and Ira B. Henry, joined the Illinois Conference held in Shelbyville and presided over by Bishop Simpson. On November 1, 1870, he was married to Fannie J. Stout at Byron, Illinois, by the Rev. W. C. Willing. His first appointment was in Arcola. During his constant service of thirty-five years in this Conference, he was in charge of many important churches, among which were Quincy, Decatur, Champaign and Jacksonville. After a three-year service in Centenary Church, Jacksonville, where he raised $8,500 to remodel the church, he left one of the finest church buildings in the Conference to take up the work of persiding elder in the Jacksonville District. In no pulpit was there ever a truer, purer, more sincere, more reliable Christian minister than was Mr. Best. His word was never doubted, his trust in others implicit, and his morals unimpeachable. In 1905 his fast-falling eyesight compelled him to retire from active service. In 1909 he with his wife went to California, lived at Long Beach, Cal., two years. The remaining eleven years have been spent in Los Angeles. He did supply work in both Minnesota and California; in Minnesota under his brother-in-law, Rev. Dr. J. F. Stout. Because of an acute heart attack on September 6, at the Methodist Hospital, he left for his coronation. His wife and daughter, Mrs. Lunetta Best Buckley, were with him. One of the last words he said to his wife was, "Heaven will not be quite heaven, Fannie, till you come." Mr. Best left a wife with whom he had lived nearly fifty years. Funeral services were held at the Garvanza Methodist Church, September 9, in charge of the pastor, the Rev. Guy M. McBride, assisted by the Rev. Robert Coyne, D. D., a friend of the deceased, pastor of the Vernon-avenue Methodist Church of Los Angeles, and the Rev. H. H. Stranberg, D. D., a former pastor of Mr. Best and pastor of the Melrose-avenue Methodist Church, Los Angeles. Burial took place in the Forest Lawn Cenetery, Glendale.

A. M. CAMPBELL.

Alexander M. Campbell was born in Sistersville, West Virginia, March 6, 1853, and entered into the life eternal December 9, 1919. His parents were strict Presbyterians and he was early taught the doctrines of the church. On July 20, 1867, he was converted at Ramelton, Ind., and united with the Methodist Episcopal church. His father having been a school teacher, he for a time, followed the same profession. During this time he moved to Weldon, Illinois. Here he met and later married the woman who was to be his mate until death—Lida M. Ludington.

Having felt the call to preach the gospel he did supply work for three or four years, and in the fall of 1884, in the Illinois Conference he was received on trial. He remained a faithful member of this conference for thirty-five years until he was called to the celestial world.

He served pastorates at Gifford, Mason City circuit, Lerna, Neoga, Stewardson, Tower Hill, Rosemond, Warrensburg, Hammond, Le Roy circuit, Girard, Carlinville Circuit, Camden, Rushville Circuit, and Plymouth and Scotts.

In 1903 he took a super-annuate relation, but for some time he did supply work in the Southern Illinois Conference.

His health gradually failed but though he was weak in the flesh, he was strong in the spirit, and when his hearing became so poor that he had great difficulty in carrying on a conversation, his greatest companionship was in his Bible and church papers.

The last three months of his life were passed in the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium, and although passing through great bodily distress his mind was clear until the end. He placed great trust in the Savior and often remarked to his wife, "This old Gospel which I have preached is indeed true."

On Sunday afternoon before he passed away, at his request, all his family gathered with him and the Sacrament was administered.

The funeral services were held from the Maplewood M. E. church, Rev. Webb officiating, assisted by several ministers of the St. Louis District. His Widow survives him; also two sons, J. Oscar, and Ralph O. Campbell, and one daughter, Mrs. Theodore G. Browne, and six grandchildren.

JOSEPH COOMBE

With the passing of Joseph Coombe a strong unassuming soul has gone to his reward. His release from suffering came, October 19, 1919. He had been in very frail health for several years and contracted pneumonia, which, in his weakened condition, he was unable to combat.

He was born in Torquay, England, January 11, 1850, and came to America with his parents in his infancy. When he was ten years old the family settled in Illinois.

Recognizing early the call to the Christian ministry, he set about preparing himself for his work, and in due time received his degree as Master of Arts from the Northwestern University.

Brother Coombe was received on trial in the Illinois Conference in 1880 and had useful pastorates in the following charges: Buffalo, Petersburg, Arcola and Christman; 1885-1889, Southwest Kansas Conference; in 1890 he returned to the Illinois Conference, taking a supernumerary relation; and in 1904, the Retired relation.

He was married to Miss Mary Agnes VanVechten, June 26, 1879. They have one son, Harry, who lives near Arcola, Illinois.

Since his retirement Brother Coombe has lived in Arcola. He became the manager of a number of farms belonging to an uncle, and during the period of his managership the property has been transformed from an almost worthless tract to fertile and profitable farms. His success brought him a competence, and he never forgot the source of his material blessings. Much of the money he made is in the treasuries of the two missionary societies of the Methodist Episcopal Church on the annuity plan, and will pass to them at the death of his wife, who survives him.

For thirty years he has been a member of the Quarterly Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Arcola, a former charge. He was an earnest, humble Christian and churchman. No one will be more sorely missed in the church than he. Always in his place until sickness prevented, eager to be of service, and that in activities that most men regard as unattractive, wise in counsel, modest in personality, in love with the Lord and his Church, a friend to his pastor, a saint in his life, his presence was a benison, and his going is an irreparable sorrow to those who knew him.

The funeral was private and was held at his late residence at Arcola, October 21, 1919, conducted by C. D. Robertson and A. H. Flagge, the retiring and present pastors of the church.

J. W. ECKMAN

John W. Eckman passed to his eternal reward at Decatur, Illinois, October 8, 1919. He had been in declining health for several years, his serious illness being of six or seven weeks' duration.

John W. Eckman was born in Lancaster county, Pa., March 7, 1844. His parents, Baltzer D. and Susan Eckman, were godly people who looked after his religious training. He loved to tell of his conversion as a child at his mother's knee, and of his reception into the Methodist Church. His early education was received in the country schools of his native county. At the age of nineteen, he enlisted in the Union army. He contracted typhoid fever, and all hope of his recovery being abandoned, he was sent home. But he recovered and returned to the service. However, his health was not sufficiently rugged to endure the hardships of army life, and he was soon afterwards discharged. He came to Quincy, Illinois where he attended an academy. He then became a teacher and taught school in the neighborhood of Quincy.

In 1867 he was admitted on trial in the Illinois conference. His first appointment was to the Jacksonville Circuit as Junior Preacher with George Rutledge. His other appointments were as follows: Ashland, North Jacksonville, Topeka, Greenfield Circuit, Athens, Pleasant Plains, Sidney, Ridge Farm, Nokomis, Macon, Lincoln Circuit, Bement, Arcola, New Salem. For thirty-three years he was in the effective ranks. In 1900 he took the Supernumerary relation, and in 1909 the Retired relation. After his retirement he made his home in Decatur.

At Quincy, Illinois, December 5, 1868, Brother Eckman was married to Miss Sarah Donley who was a faithful co-worker with him through the years of his ministry. The Golden Anniversary of their wedding celebrated in their home was an especially happy event for him. All of the eight children were present.

In all the years of his ministry Brother Eckman faithfully and earnestly did the work of a Methodist minister. He was not ambitious for large churches, but from the beginning he was eager for success as a winner of souls. In this he was not disappointed. In almost every charge he served his labors were blessed with fruitful revivals of religion, especially at Nokomis, Macon and Mt. Zion on the Jacksonville Circuit. More than two thousand persons were converted under his labors. The parishioners at Ashland were so attached to their pastor that after a great revival in which there were more than seventy conversions, they named the new church, Eckman Chapel.

In the years immediately preceding his death he served the Men's Class of the First Methodist church at Decatur most effectively as a teacher. Only a few weeks before his death he was compelled to give up this class.

Brother Eckman as a preacher was thoughtful, logical and possessed a forceful delivery. While his early education was somewhat limited he supplemented it by diligent reading and study. Systematic Theology and History were his favorite lines of study. He was a thorough student of the Bible and a fine sermonizer. His sermons were characterized by great evangelistic fervor. He was a successful administrator and faithful pastor. The churches he served were strengthened spiritually and materially. He was one of the pioneer advocates of Prohibition in the days when it required courage to stand fearlessly for the cause. As a man he was of strong and tenacious conviction, yet kindly and gracious in disposition.

Brother Eckman is survived by his wife, Sarah, of Decatur, and by eight children, E. S., M. H., W. R. and Anna Eckman and Mrs. Beulah Zetterlind, all of Decatur. Dr. J. W. Eckman, Winchester, Illinois; Mrs. W. E. Walker, Bloomington, Illinois; W. D. Eckman, of Elkhart, Illinois. There are four grandchildren. He also leaves one sister and three brothers.

The funeral services were held in First Church, Decatur, and were in charge of the pastor, Dr. Freeman A. Havighurst, assisted by Dr. M. N. English, Dr. W. H. Webster, A. M. Wells, C. R. Booth and John W. Crane. Members of his Sunday School class acted as pall-bearers. Interment was made in Fairlawn Cemetery at Decatur.

ELIJAH GOLLOGHER

Elijah Gollogher was born in Shelby County, Illinois, March 21, 1841, and died in Stewardson, April 15, 1920, aged seventy-nine years. He was one of ten children of Wesley and Sarah Gollogher. Mrs. Smith, of Shelbyville, and Mrs. Gay, of Quincy, are all that are left of this family.

In the year 1862, he was united in marriage to Rebecca Elizabeth Young, who journeyed with him through life for more than fifty-seven years. During the first few years of their married life they lived on the farm.

He was converted in early life and united with the Methodist Episcopal church. Feeling a definite call to the ministry, he began at once to discharge his duties along this line. After serving as a Local Deacon for a few years he was admitted to the Illinois Conference in 1876 and ordained Elder by Bishop Harris at Danville, 1880. He served faithfully the following charges: Oconee, Lovington, Stewardson, Bismark, Murdock and Lerna. His health would not permit his continuing in the traveling connection and he was compelled to retire. He built the church at Mode and strengthened the charges wherever he went. Although retired, he was not idle, but very active in religious work, often filling the pulpit, leading devotional meetings and rendering valuable service wherever opportunity presented itself. He was superintendent of the Stewardson Sunday School for years, and also taught the Men's Bible class for several years.

A more saintly man could scarcely be found, and none have meant more to the spiritual life of the church and community than Brother Gollogher. He was indeed a saint ready for the heavenly world. After an illness lasting almost two months, the spirit took its flight. He leaves his devoted wife and a host of friends.

Funeral services were conducted at the Methodist church by Thomas H. Tull, assisted by the pastor, D. O. McRoberts. The body was then laid to rest in his old home cemetery at Mt. Carmel, near Shelbyville, Illinois.

WILLIAM McKENDREE GOODING

William McKendree Gooding was born July 15, 1836, at Payson, Illinois, and died March 5, 1920, in Champaign. All his early life was spent near Quincy, where he grew to manhood and served Adams county as surveyor, until he entered the ministry of the Illinois Methodist Episcopal Conference, September 21, 1859. Bishop Simpson sent him to Girard as junior preacher. Brother Gooding was baptized by Peter Cartwright and through his influence was brought into the Illinois Conference.

With the outbreak of the Civil War he resigned his pastorate and enlisted in the Federal army. Because of a successful military training, he was made Captain of Co. C, 50th Regiment, Illinois Volunteers. Captain Gooding married Elizabeth Hewes, of Quincy, and the "honeymoon" was spent in camp at St. Joseph, Missouri.

Dr. Gooding was one of the pioneer preachers of Central Illinois. He blazed the way for all that is to follow. His life has been one of unusual activity, his field of labor extended to the Conference boundaries, east, west, north and south. He was a straightforward preacher of the word, a devoted pastor, faithful in the cure of souls. He was an especially close student of the Epistle to the Romans, and could repeat whole chapters of the Bible from memory. He has been a spiritual father to many of the young men of the Conference.

Brother Gooding had a record that few ministers could equal—forty-nine years a regular minister of the Methodist church and nearly fifty-nine years of preaching. He attended nearly every session of the Conference for almost half a century.

Shortly after leaving the active pastorate, Dr. Gooding was appointed Chaplain of the Illinois State Soldiers' and Sailors' Home at Quincy, serving there four years. Because of failing health he resigned and for the past seven years lived at his home in Champaign, venerated by all, a veritable saint of Christ. His life has been a benediction and his memory will linger with us as a sweet fragrance through all the years.

Mrs. Gooding died one year ago, and Brother Gooding's health failed rapidly since his great loss. Besides a host of friends, he leaves three children, Mrs. J. T. Watters of Potomac, Charles W. and Jessie of Champaign, seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

The funeral service was held in the First Methodist Episcopal church of Champaign, and was in charge of the pastor, Dr. Herbert Keck, who was assisted by L. F. Walden, S. H. Huber and M. P. Wilkins. The interment was in Mount Hope Cemetery.

ANDERSON ORR.

Anderson Orr, who died at his home in Roodhouse, Illinois, May 19, 1920, in his eighty-seventh year, was the son of Harrison and Isabella Orr. He was born in Cadiz, Ohio, October 19, 1833. That same year his father was drowned in the Ohio river. Later his mother came to Illinois, and went to her reward from Roodhouse, in 1882. Anderson was reared in Pike county by his uncle, Alexander Taylor. He was educated in the common schools and in the High School at Griggsville. After teaching school for some years, he entered the Illinois Conference on trial in 1855, and was discontinued after one year's service at Hardin. He returned to the work in 1863, and continued in the active ranks till 1896, serving the following charges: Tolono, Pawnee, Sangamon, Beardstown, Chatham, Nilwood, Taylorville, Roodhouse, two terms, White Hall Circuit, two terms and Pleasant Hill. He retired in 1896, and has made Roodhouse his home ever since, where he was faithful and loyal to the church until the last.

He was married three times. First to Nancy L. Dean, October 30, 1856. One daughter was born to them. After his wife's death, he married her sister Susanah Dean, March 18, 1862. Twin sons came to their home, both of whom, with their mother, passed away, and were all buried in the same grave. On March 17, 1865, he and Catherine McCaskill were united in marriage. Three daughters and one son came of this union, Laura Belle, now deceased; Luella Mellen, of Jacksonville, James M. and Katherine Orr, of Roodhouse. One half-sister, sixteen grandchildren, and fourteen great grandchildren survive him. His townspeople, and the people generally, wherever he was known, speak highly of him as neighbor, friend, citizen and Christian. He leaves a fine record, and by that, being dead, yet lives and speaks. Funeral services were held in the Methodist church, May 20, with a sermon by D. V. Gowdy, of Jacksonville, assisted by A. E. Pepping, his pastor. Interment was in the Mausoleum in Fernwood Cemetery.

J. H. PENCE.

John Henry Pence, son of Elisha and Sarah Pence, was born in Garrard county, Kentucky, January 6, 1877, and died in the Methodist Parsonage at Camargo, Illinois, July 30, 1920.

At the age of sixteen the young man felt called to the ministry, and at once began active Christian work, teaching in the Sunday School, and preaching in the school houses. The circle of his labors gradually enlarged and he was soon traveling on horseback for miles into the foothills of Kentucky, carrying the Gospel to the people there. Even then he had remarkable success in his evangelistic labors.

Feeling the need of preparation for his life work he entered Wilmore Academy at Wilmore, Kentucky, where he completed his training for the ministry. After having finished his school work he set about his calling, giving himself to the ministry in his own state. In 1906 he came to the Illinois Conference, his first charge being Westfield. He served also, Cowden, New Holland, Wapella, Minier, San Jose, Downs, Clayton and Camargo.

Brother Pence had a definite call to the ministry. With him there was never a doubt as to his mission. With him it was always, "this one thing I do." The sense of duty and fidelity to his calling were written large in his life. He was conscientious and serious. To him the work of the ministry was a supreme undertaking, and he took his task always as a matter of deep concern. He was a diligent toiler. He never shirked any task, nor performed any labor with the spirit of disinterest. He was optimistic, broad in his sympathies, and, had a large grasp of the great work of the church. He believed things could be done and always set about his task in full confidence. He impressed all with his deep sincerity, and yet his religious expression was of the wholesome kind. This accounted, in large measure, for his success in leading others to Christ. His going at the early age of forty-three is a distinct loss to the church, now in such sore need of consecrated men who are willing to hear the call and to pass their lives in the work of the ministry.

Brother Pence leaves a father and mother residing at Stanford, Kentucky; one sister, Mrs. W. R. Sears of Summerset, Kentucky; two sons by a former marriage, Lyman and Edwin; and his wife, Grace, and their three children, Martha, Louise, John and Gertrude.

Funeral services were conducted in the Camargo church by W. D. Fairchild, assisted by Rev. E. S. Combs, of Tuscola. About twenty-five ministers from neighboring charges and adjoining districts were in attendance. The body was laid to rest in the cemetery at Charleston, Illinois.

ALVA EDISON PEPPING.

"Death is the crown of life; Were death denied, poor man would live in vain. Death wounds to cure; we fall; we rise; we reign."

So truly it was when from our midst was taken our beloved, genial brother, sweet singer and never failing friend, Alva Edison Pepping, for whom the messenger came on August 14, last, and when death came it found him ready.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Pepping, who, at the time of his birth, June 18, 1889, were living at Eureka, California, but at the age of four years, his parents moved to Sacriston, England, where he grew to manhood. While there, brother Pepping was converted, and at the early age of sixteen, he began his ministry in the Primitive Methodist church.

Coming to this country at the age of twenty, he united with the Methodist Episcopal church in Danville, Illinois. In 1911 he joined the Illinois Conference, and became pastor at Warsaw. He moved from there to Stillwell. Soon after, he entered the Illinois Wesleyan University, where he remained for five years, helping himself through college by preaching at Forest City, Bloomington circuit, Forsythe and Mt. Olive.

On his birthday in 1918, he was married to Miss Gladys Helton of Bloomington, and that fall he and his talented and estimable wife moved to Roodhouse, and here they began keeping house.

Brother Pepping leaves to mourn their loss his wife, of Roodhouse; his father, George H. Pepping; three brothers, James, Ira and Rex, all of Danville, Illinois; two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Clark and Evaline Pepping, both of Mokena, Illinois. His mother preceded him in death.

Brother Pepping has not been in rugged health for more than a year but with the exception of a few weeks spent in Eureka Springs, Arkansas, last Summer, he has been able to perform the duties of pastor, and lately seemed, so far as we could see, to be greatly improved. On August 11, he complained of not feeling well, but got up from his bed and attended prayer meeting. After going home at the close, he was taken worse, and continued to suffer intensely till near the time of his death, Saturday morning.

Earth is poorer but Heaven is richer because of the death of this kind and gentle man of God, and through our tears we are made to say:

"Ah! It is sad when one thus linked departs!
When Death, that mighty sev'rer of true hearts,
Sweeps through the halls so lately loud with mirth,
And leaves pale Sorrow weeping by the hearth!"

NORTON M. RIGG.

To few ministers of our Conference has been given a more triumphant Sabbath than that which N. M. Rigg experienced in his church at Virginia on the Sabbath just succeeding Easter. All his plans had been laid for a great Easter service, but the severe storm of that day hindered his work as it did that of many other earnest Pastors; but undaunted he continued to plan, and on Sunday, the 11th of April, he found his church crowded, and the services of the day were especially helpful. To the great joy of the Pastor a number of young people of the Sunday School came forward and crowned the day with their confession of a living faith in their risen Lord. Rev. Rigg came to the pulpit a sick man that day, but no one suspected how near he was walking on the verge of life's river except those who noted a spirit and sweetness in his message of unusual fervor. He closed the service at night with a solo, and many remarked that "his face was as the face of an angel," as he ceased to sing, and the people were dismissed. This was his last service on earth, for on Monday morning, the 12th of April, he fell asleep to awake in the presence of his Lord whom he served and adored.

N. M. Rigg was born in Lovington, Illinois, February 6, 1867. He early decided for the ministry, and as a stepping stone taught school for several terms, and later attended the Illinois Wesleyan University. After his graduation he joined the Illinois conference in 1895, and served the following charges: Warsaw, 1895-7; Mt. Sterling, 1898-1905; Clinton, 1906; Shelbyville, First, 1907-10; Beardstown, 1911-12; Quincy, Vermont St., 1913-15. Decatur, Grace, 1916-18; Virginia, 1919.

His ministry was always marked with that deeply spiritual note which was a characteristic of all his life. He was constantly seeking and bringing people into the Kingdom. Not only was he loved by his own church people, but he found a warm place in the love and esteem of the whole community. He felt he was a pastor to all the flock and he never neglected his duty. Even after his departure there remained a large class to be taken into the church, and no more beautiful testimony to the memory of Brother Rigg could have been given than the day in early summer when the altar of the church at Virginia was crowded with both old and young, coming into the church as fruit of his ministry, and truly it could be said of him, "Being dead, he yet speaketh."

A large number of the Ministers of the Jacksonville District gathered with a great host of friends and former parishioners at Virginia, on April 14, to pay the last tribute of love to his memory. The following day a like service was held at Shelbyville, where he rests by the side of two little sons who have gone on before. He is survived by his wife and one daughter, and a great number now look to him as their spiritual brother and friend, and we are sure only eternity can number the host who have been and will be turned to the light and life by his life and ministry.

D. H. TRIMBLE

Delmer H. Trimble was born in North Gore, Ontario, Canada, May 10, 1871, and died April 25, 1920, in Los Angeles, California. He grew up in a Christian home. Several members of his family and near relatives served in the ministry and in missionary work, including Dr. J. M. Trimble, Field-Secretary of Missions; and Lydia A. Trimble, President Woman's College, Foochow, China. Delmer was converted at seventeen, largely through his mother's influence. At twenty-one, he felt called to the ministry. He graduated from Toronto University, and later from Victoria College, in 1901. He was ordained a Methodist minister at St. Thomas, and received his Doctor of Divinity degree at Willamette University. He at once transferred to Northwest Iowa Conference, and in 1902 he married the daughter of John W. Walker of that Conference. In 1905 he transferred to Southern California Conference, and labored on the Pacific coast till near the close of his career, where, in twelve years he made about 3,000 additions to the church besides building it up in both its material and spiritual interests, in a very large way. The chief note of his ministry was evangelistic. His charges were West Adams, Los Angeles; Eugene and Portland, Oregon; and Tacoma, Washington. In 1918 he was transferred to the Illinois Conference, but was able to render service at First Church, Champaign, for only two Sundays. Two years earlier severe hemorrhages of the lungs began, and he fought the White Plague with success the first year, but his decline was rapid the last year, and recognizing the inevitable, several days before the end came, he said, "Everything is all right. I am glad to go to the better land." Surviving are his widow, Ethel May, and three children, Margaret, Glen and Kathryn, with his father and step-mother, William Trimble and wife of Amherstburg, Canada. They, with his sister, Mrs. S. B. Collins, were with him at the last. Wm. Trimble, Jr., also lives at Amherstburg. Funeral services were held April 27, last, Dr. Merl Smith in charge, assisted by Rev. Frank Leak of Canada, and Rev. George Steed.

MARK WHITE.

Mark White, who was for twenty-seven years a minister of Jesus Christ, was born in Baylis, Illinois, January 21, 1872. He died on March 27, 1920, in Henning, Illinois, where he was pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church. His parents were John and Jane White, devoted members of the United Brethren Church. Besides Mark, there were two brothers and one sister.

Bro. White was converted at the age of sixteen and joined the United Brethren Church, and almost immediately came the call to the ministry. In order to prepare himself for his life work, he attended the College at Westfield, Illinois, for two years. Later he attended the Taylor University at Upland, Indiana, and was graduated from the Enterprise College, in Kansas.

He was married to Miss Anna J. Schuhardt at Camp Point, Illinois, on December 27th, 1893. The same year he entered the ministry of the United Brethren Church and served the following charges: Beloit and Enterprise, Kansas; Larchland and London Mills, Illinois. In 1898 he transferred to the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was appointed to Quincy Circuit. Besides this work, he has served the following charges: Bismarck, Grand View, Rankin, Auburn, Chesterfield, Curran, Perry, Plymouth, Detroit, Littleton, Manchester, McKendree-Fairview, and Henning.

Bro. White was decidedly evangelistic in his work, and was privileged to lead about 1,000 souls into fellowship with Christ and the church. Mrs. White speaks of their ministry as "Twenty-seven pleasant and well spent years."

Mark White was preeminently a pastor and spent much of his time in the homes of his people, giving special attention to the sick and the shut-ins, and to the comradeship of young people in his daily ministries. He was especially tender and sympathetic in times of sickness and bereavement. Notwithstanding the fact that he emphasized evangelism, he accomplished much in the organization and building up of the material interests of the church. The church building at Alvin was constructed under his leadership; also the reconstruction of the church at Chesterfield and the purchase of the parsonage at McKendree-Fairview. Besides this, he conducted various debt paying campaigns. He was active in the war work, Liberty Loan drives and other campaigns of community interest. During the Centenary campaign he raised $1,000 more than the Centenary allotment.

Last fall he received his last appointment to Henning, and at once plunged into a revival meeting at the Jamesburg church, thoroughly reviving and building up that point. This was followed by a successful meeting at Henning in January and February, and he had already planned another for March, which was prevented only by his untimely death. Truly, he died in the harness. Brother White was a most earnest and loyal minister of Jesus Christ. During the twenty-seven years of his ministry he has made warm friendships in all the charges where he served.

Funeral services were conducted at Henning, March 29, 1920, in charge of J. C. Nate, assisted by Brothers Flanigan, Wolfarth, Wakefield, McPherson, McConkey, McIntosh, Smith, Shouse, Simmons, Illk. From here his body was taken to the family burial ground at Baylis, Illinois, where interment was made. The services there were in charge of C. M. Duncan, assisted by E. S. Borton and A. M. Rigney. The last rites were performed by the Masonic fraternity of which he was a member.

Besides his bereaved wife, he leaves his father and mother, two brothers: George White, in Chicago; Charles White, in Baylis; and one sister, Mrs. Mary J. Irick, of Pittsfield, Illinois; and a host of relatives and friends.

Henceforth there is laid up for Mark White the crown of righteousness.

WILLIAM H. WILDER.

William H. Wilder was born near Greenfield, Illinois, July 7th, 1849; died at his home, Bloomington, Illinois, March 1st, 1920. His parents were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wilder, pioneer residents of Illinois. On Sept. 1st, 1874, at Selma, Illinois, he was married to Sallie Smith, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Frank Smith, of the Centralia Illinois Conference. In 1873 he graduated from the Illinois Wesleyan University, receiving his degree of A. B., and his degree of A. M., 1876. In 1888 he was honored with the degree of D. D.; in 1898, with the degree of L.L.D., all bestowed upon him by his Alma Mater. He entered the Illinois conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1873, and from that date until 1884 served the following charges: Savor, Tolono, Bement, Tuscola and Paxton. From 1884 to 1888, he was Presiding Elder of Decatur district; from 1888 to 1897, President of Illinois Wesleyan; 1897 to 1898 Presiding Elder of Quincy district, and 1898 to 1904, of Champaign district, 1904 to 1906 pastor of Centenary Church, Jacksonville, Illinois; 1906 to 1907, Secretary of the Conference Claimants Fund; 1907 to 1908, pastor at Pana, Illinois; 1908 to 1914, President of Lucy Webb Hayes National Training School of the Woman's Home Missionary Society, Washington, D. C.; from 1914 to March, 1920, Professor of English Bible and Religions in the Illinois Wesleyan. Five times his conference honored him by sending him as one of its representatives to General Conference. Seven years after graduation he was a trustee of Illinois Wesleyan; fifteen year after, when but thirty-nine years of age, was called to be its president. His brethren say of him, "Wesleyan can never adequately give honor to Dr. Wilder for what he has done for that school. From the day he entered that institution to his last he was its active friend, whether student, trustee, president, pastor in the conference, or teacher in the school." His ability as a man of action and as an executive placed him in many positions of responsibility. In 1900 he was chairman of a commission on consolidation of benevolent societies. In 1901, he was delegate from the Illinois Conference, to the Ecumenical Conference held in London, England. For four years he was secretary of the General Conference Commission of Conference Claimants. From 1908 to 1912 he was vice-president of the General Deaconess Board. As late as February 18th, 1920, at First Church Springfield, he presided over a very important meeting of the Preachers' Aid Society, which handles about $400,000 in the interest of the superannuate preachers of the conference. On the same day he took part in formulating the plan adopted by the Conference Claimant and Preachers' Aid Society, whereby each claimant is to receive the full amount of his annuity. This marked the accomplishment of an ambition which Dr. Wilder had sought for years. Let it become a matter of record that it was due to his brain as the product of his statesmanship that the present law of the Methodist Episcopal Church, relative to the support of Conference Claimants, has a place in the Discipline. He was a member of the National Religious Educational Association, also of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. In recent years his affiliations were with the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Bloomington, Ill. Dr. Wilder lived an active and vigorous life, taking care of his class work at the Wesleyan up to within a few days of his death, missing but two recitations, for one of which he dictated work. His happiest hours were those at home with his family and his books. He was an almost omnivorous reader, keeping abreast of the times in all departments of life, and while not a politician, he kept himself well informed of what was going on in the political world, both at home and abroad.

A widow and three children remain. The children are Frank S. Wilder, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Paul B. Wilder, of Decatur, Illinois, and Mrs. C. M. Hubbard, of St. Louis Mo. There also survive two brothers and three sisters; J. M. Wilder of Baldwin, Kan.; Oscar S. Wilder of Bloomington, Ill.; Mrs.

Sarah Boring of Damascus, Ore.; Mrs. F. A. Baker, of Chanute, Kan., and Mrs. Jennie Bay of Richmond, Missouri.

The funeral services were held at the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Bloomington, Illinois, March 3d, 1920, and were conducted by his pastor, Rev. A. K. Byrns, in the presence of a large audience composed of students and faculty of the Wesleyan, ministers from the Illinois and Central Illinois Conferences, and Bloomington friends. Following the opening prayer the pastor gave an admirable sketch of the life of Dr. Wilder. Beautiful and eloquent words of appreciation and love were uttered by a number of his much loved brethren of the Conference, Rev. Messrs. H. C. Gibbs of Decatur, Illinois; W. A. Smith of Springfield, Illinois; George E. Scrimger of Oakwood, Illinois, (the latter two were students with Doctor wilder at the Wesleyan in the seventies); F. A. McCarty of Quincy, Illinois; James C. Baker of Urbana, Illinois (the last two being students at the Wesleyan while Dr. Wilder was president of that Institution); B. F. Shipp, superintendent of Bloomington District, and Theodore Kemp, President Illinois Wesleyan. The closing tribute to Dr. Wilder's memory and ability was a beautiful and most comprehensive telegram from the highly esteemed friend of the family, Dr. John A. Kumler of Hamilton, Ohio, and was read by the pastor. Because of Dr. Wilder's great love and appreciation for the hymns of our church, the entire congregation was requested to join in the singing of the closing hymn—

"How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in his excellent word."

The body was laid to rest in the Park Hill Cemetery, Bloomington, Illinois.

MRS. C. P. BALDWIN

Betsy, daughter of Obadiah and Electa (Post) Ware, was born August 18, 1838, on the old Ware homestead, the first settlement in Ware's Grove, near Butler, Illinois, where W. A. Young now resides. She died at the Hillsboro Hospital, January 29, 1920, aged 81 years, 5 months and 11 days. She was one of ten children.

December 12, 1861 she was united in marriage to Charles M. Westcott. To this union four children were born. Thomas K., Eliza, Lillie and Mary Grace. Mr. Westcott died March 9, 1889.

In the year 1890 she married Rev. C. P. Baldwin, with whom she lived in Pana, Illinois, until his death, April 14, 1897, when she came to dwell with her daughter, Mrs. Grace Grantham, where she lived until her last illness.

All her near relatives, except nine grandchildren and one great-grand-child, have preceded her in death.

She was converted in early life and united with the Ware's Grove Lutheran church, being one of the charter members. After her marriage to Mr. Westcott they moved to Rhode Island, where they lived for four years, and with him, there, she joined the Baptist church. On her return to Butler she united with the Methodist Episcopal church, of which she was always a loyal and devoted member, giving liberally of her time and means.

Her acts of charity were many, and not all are known to the world, for her modest nature did not crave applause.

Her life was a model of unselfishness, charitableness and devotion to God and her church. Her remains rest in Ware's Grove Cemetery.

MRS. T. J. BRYANT.

Margaret Ann Brady was born March 24, 1831, and went hence in 1920, in her 90th year. She was the daughter of James and Honour Brady, deeply religious people, who led her to the Savior in early life. There was the old-fashioned home, so much needed in these last days. They banished the wine-cup, so common in those days, from their home. In 1837 they moved to Hannibal, Mo., then composed of log cabins, and a log school house, with primitive furnishings. They and the Clemens family, with "Mark Twain", were close friends, and Mr. Brady was twice mayor of Hannibal. In 1849 he and two sons went to California, but during the years that followed, the fervent religious life of the family was maintained. Their home was the home of Methodist preachers, including several Bishops. Margaret gave her heart to God under the ministry of Asa M'Coy. November, 1853, she was married to T. J. Bryant, and was an itinerant's wife for thirty-seven years. During that time they served seventeen charges, Moweaqua being the first, and Harristown, the last. In 1892, Brother Bryant, in failing health, retired, and settled in Versailles, a former charge, and departed this life, March, 1893. His wife was a widow for twenty-seven years. Of her father's family of fourteen brothers and sisters, only one survives, Nowel Brady, of Hannibal. Five of her eight children still live, Mrs. W. H. Ravenscroft and Mrs. C. S. Trone, of Versailles; Thomas of Denver, Colorado; Dr. John R., of West Point, Illinois; and James R. Brady, of Watertown, South Dakota. Several grandchildren also remain. As a church worker, she was enthusiastic and efficient, and up to old age a regular attendant on its services. Thus her influence was large and blessed, and only eternity can reveal its extent. "Beautiful toiler, thy work is done; Beautiful soul, into glory gone; Beautiful life, with its crown now won; God giveth thee rest." Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Samuel Linde, assisted by O. Y. Meyer, of Golden; Elmer Palmer, of Bluffs and Frank Read, of Chambersburg. The body was laid to rest beside that of her husband, in West Cemetery, at Versailles.

MRS. GEORGE M. CRAYS.

Maria C. Crays, daughter of Richard and Margaret Cortney, and wife of George M. Crays, was born in Vermillion county, Illinois, January 27, 1841; and died at Rossville, Illinois, February 2, 1920, aged 79 years.

She was left without a mother at the age of five years, and lived with her aunt (Maria Jane Starr) until the age of eighteen, at which time she was married to Rev. George M. Crays, at Lafayette, Ind., September 14, 1859, by W. H. H. Moore.

For seventeen years she was in the itineraries of a Methodist preacher's life, serving with him in the following charges: Lima, Nilwood, Mt. Sterling, Petersburg, Chandlerville, Topeka, Mason, Catlin, Ridgefarm, Bismarck, Gifford and Penfield. In all these fields of hard ministerial toil she was ever a bright, cheerful and self-sacrificing Christian woman. Her devotion to God and His cause never flagged. In the path of duty there was no sacrifice too great for her to undertake. Her faith in the wisdom and goodness of God was unbounded.

Her husband died in 1887, and since then she has heroically battled on with the help of her devoted children. She had been in poor health for some time, but bedfast for only about two weeks from a stroke of paralysis from which she died. She talked of death as one would talk of ordinary things, because she was prepared for the great event.

She was an ideal mother. Her affection was quiet but intense. She drew her children and their wives and husbands to herself as with cords of steel, but the more truly, by cords of love. Because of this, few children, if any, are more devoted to a parent, than hers. The same was true of her grandchildren. Six of them were in the country's forces during the world war, and she never failed to remember them in her prayers. She ever kept up the family altar in her home, and this had a salutary influence on her children. They will rise up to call her blessed.

She has gone to be with loved ones and the innumerable company which have gone up from the tribulations of earth, and "have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb," which text she selected for her funeral sermon.

Funeral services were held February 4, from the Methodist Episcopal church, J. F. Wohlfarth officiating, and interment was in the Partlow cemetery at Armstrong beside her husband.

MRS. WILEY JOHNSON.

Mrs. Malinda A. Johnson, wife of the Rev. Wiley Johnson, died in Springfield, Illinois, November 22, 1919, after an illness of more than two years. Thirty-eight years ago they were married. To this union four children were born. She is survived by the husband, one son, Lloyd, and one daughter, Hazel. Mrs. Johnson was truly a Methodist pastor's wife, serving various charges of the Illinois Conference, with a loyal spirit. As she afterward said, "we should be willing to serve in the Master's vineyard, wherever in the judgement of the bishop the assignment was made." When at last the appointment was made for Girard she unhesitatingly said her health would not admit of serving another charge or another year. Accordingly permission was given by the conference for a leave of absence of one year. The family moved to Springfield where the best medical attention and the kindest nursing could be given, but the end, after much suffering, came peacefully. She left us for loved ones on the other side. Funeral services were conducted by Presley P. Carson, assisted by the Methodist ministers of the city, and C. M. Corrie of Chatham. Interment occurred at Chatham.

MRS. W. C. LACY.

A true mother in Israel has gone to her reward. After much suffering for more than a year, death claimed his prey August 19, 1920, when she was one day less than seventy-five years of age. Sarah, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Bradshaw, was born in a Methodist parsonage in Georgetown, Illinois, August 20, 1845. Her early training and religious life were such as are found in ministers' homes, and were above the average of her day. Of her father's large family, only two remain, Mrs. Alice Pitts of Tacoma, Wash., and Mrs. Anna Hampshire of Delavan, Illinois.

On September 8, 1862, while on a furlough from the army, Chaplain W. C. Lacy married Sarah Elizabeth Bradshaw, in Decatur, Illinois, where she lived till his return from the war. Then they began life together in the Methodist ministry. Delavan was their first charge, and Green Valley, their last. After three years' service there, he retired from the active ranks, and they moved into their own cottage in Green Valley, where they lived until he departed this life in November, 1916. Mrs. Lacy was a member of this community for fifteen years, made a fine record, and was loyal to her church to the last. Even down to old age, often beyond her strength, she gave her time and talent to the upbuilding of the Master's cause. She was the mother of eleven children, three of whom went before their parents to the upper home. The survivors are: Mrs. Mary Moore and Paul, St Louis, Missouri; Mrs. Anna Pollard and Charles, Chicago; Mrs. Alice Turner, Decatur; Mrs. Grace Parker of Champalgn, Mrs. Margaret Hoffman of Warrensburg, Missouri and Robert Lacy of Canada. There are also six grandchildren

All of these she carried in her warm, mother heart, and they will rise up and call her blessed, while she, in the company of her loved ones gone before, awaits the coming of those who remain on this side of the border line. Funeral services in the M. E. church, August 21, with W. F. Pitner, pastor, in charge. Sermon by T. H. Tull, Jacksonville, assisted by R. L. Steed, Saybrook, and Rev. Waldrop, Green Valley. Interment was in Decatur Cemetery.

MRS. N. E. PARSONS.

Clara J. Williams, daughter of Z. B. and Mary Williams, was born near Kingston, Ohio, December 8, 1853, where she lived until 1865, when she moved with her father's family to Champaign county, Illinois, where she finished her education and taught school for several years. On October 1, 1874, she was united in marriage to the Rev. N. E. Parsons, who was at this time a missionary to the Chickasaw Indians, in what was then the Indian Territory. She proved to be a brave woman and was a great blessing and helpmate in this strange and difficult field of labor.

After a few years the task of this new and heavy charge was undermining the health of this faithful family, and they were compelled to seek a new location.

But during the years of this service her husband was able to organize some schools and to build the first Christian church in the Chickasaw nation.

For a few years they resided in Texas, and later returned to the old home of Sister Parsons at Homer, Illinois.

In 1882 she went with her husband and family to join the Columbia river Conference, at that time embracing the three states, Oregon, Washington and Idaho.

For sixteen years she and her faithful husband labored in this great field and laid the foundation for the Kingdom of God. It was under their pastorate that the first Epworth League was organized in this Northwest Territory.

In 1897 they transferred back to the Illinois Conference, and retired in the year 1907, again returning to the home at Homer, Illinois. Here she suffered a great loss in the death of her husband, on July 3, 1915.

She went to live with one of her daughters, Mrs. Earl Barton, near Elwood, Indiana, where in November, 1919, she answered the death angel's call and went to join her husband, where parting is no more.

The remarkable success of their ministry was due not only to the untiring efforts of brother Parsons, but along with his passion for souls were the prayers of his faithful wife.

To this father and mother there were born seven children. One is deceased; the others are Mrs. Margaret McCarthy, of Bremerton, Washington; Miss Anne Pearl Parsons, of Chicago, Illinois; Mrs. Earl Barton, of Elwood, Indiana; Wilbur E. Parsons, of Houston, Texas; John Ray Parsons, of Goshen, Indiana; and Mrs. Lorena Hebert, of Houston, Texas.

Short services were held at the home of her daughter near Elwood, Indiana, and later the funeral services were conducted in the Methodist Episcopal church at Homer, Illinois, and the burial made in G. A. R. Cemetery. S. H. Whitlock was in charge, assisted by C. D. Robertson.

MRS. P. L. TURNER.

Adeline E. Green was born in the state of New York, September 5th, 1834, where she grew to young womanhood, when she moved to southwestern Missouri with her father's family. Here she met and married P. L. Turner on September 5th, 1854, he being a member of the Missouri Conference.

In this new country they experienced many of the hardships incident to the life of the itinerant ministry of that early day. During the Civil War they moved to the state of Michigan, and Rev. Turner was transferred to the Detroit Conference, where he served faithfully and with great acceptability a number of important charges, transferring to the Illinois Conference in the year 1871, where he sustained an active and superannuated relation until the time of his death, December 8th, 1907. His active ministry ended in 1892.

Thus for nearly fifty years this good woman shared the joys and sorrows, opportunities and privileges, of the Methodist Ministry, with her faithful and devoted husband.

She was of a retiring disposition, not particularly given to public activities, but rather to quiet service in her home and to those about her who were sick or in need of comfort.

Her death occurred in Springfield, Ill., at the home of her son, C. B. Turner, who with his faithful wife did everything that love could do to make the last days of their mother peaceful and happy. She passed to her reward after a short illness December 28th, 1919. A brief funeral service was conducted by C. S. Boyd, and the remains were laid to rest in Oak Ridge cemetery on New Year's day, 1920.

She died in the faith which had sustained her through the years, and entered into that rest that remaineth for the people of God.

RESOLUTIONS.Auditing Committee

Resolved, That the Conference elect at this session the Treasurer, the Statistician and the Auditor for next year's session and that hereafter at each session of the Conference the Treasurer be elected for the succeeding session.

Resolved, That within ninety days after the adjournment of this session of the Conference the Treasurer submit to the Auditor his report as presented to the Conference together with his receipts from the benevolent Board for the sums due them severally and a statement of the funds remaining in his hands, if any. The Auditor shall thereupon audit the Report and Receipts, and if they are found to be correct he shall deliver the accounts and funds (if any) to the Treasurer elect.

Resolved, That Pastors be required to see that their reports for the Conference Treasurer be placed in his hands properly made out not later than the first day of the Conference session.

Resolved, That the Treasurer give bond as required by the Discipline in the sum of $5,000 Dollars.

Resolved, That we request that no causes be reported under the head of Other Collections, except such as have been duly approved by the Annual Conference Commission on Finance.

Resolved, That the reports of Pastors as presented to the Treasurer shall be correct in the following particulars:

1. They shall be presented on TIME.
2. Properly designated—showing in proper places the names of the Conference, the District, the Charge and the Pastor.
3. The figures shall be clear and legible.
4. They shall be correctly entered. The correct amounts shall be entered in their proper places, and the figures shall be in the proper digit column.
5. They shall be in agreement. The amounts as entered in A shall agree with the sum of the cash and the vouchers as entered in B.
6. They shall be accompanied by proper vouchers. They must be official vouchers and where they are in duplicate must not be torn apart.
7. They must contain no extraneous matter, that is matter which is not properly contained in the Treasurer's report.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' STANDARD TOTAL

That when a charge has raised a total amount equal to or above the standard total, but the standard due from any apportionment has not been reached, then the standard of such apportionment may be reduced as agreed by the Secretary of the Conference Claimants' Campaign, the District Superintendent and the Pastor of the Charge. Any such reduction shall be for the just cause shown.

SALARIES—DETACHED SERVICE.

Resolved, That each member of the Conference in detached service be, and hereby is, required to furnish to the statistician a statement as to the name of the position held and of the amount of salary received and that the Secretary of the Conference shall notify each of said members and that such report shall be printed in the Conference Minutes in connection with Statistical table number 1.

XVI.

Conference Rules.

"1. The Conference shall meet at 8:15 o'clock a. m. and adjourn at 12 o'clock, noon, but may alter the time either of meeting or of adjournment at its pleasure. A recess of ten minutes shall be taken at 10:30 o'clock unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

"2. When a member is about to speak in debate or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the president, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

"3. No member shall be interrupted when speaking, except by the president, to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the president to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

"4. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the president shall have decided it a question of privilege. Questions of privilege are matters relating to the rights and welfare of the individual as a member of the whole body, and of such an imperative character as to justify the interruption of the regular order.

"It shall be the imperative duty of the president to require the member to state his question of privilege. This having been done the president shall decide whether it shall be allowed; and, if so, shall hold him closely to the subject.

"5. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question or more than ten minutes at one time without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

"Provided, however, that a committee making a report shall, through its chairman, or in case the chairman shall not be in harmony with the report, through one of its members selected by the committee or by the chairman, be entitled to ten minutes to close the debate, either to oppose the motion to lay the report on the table, or, this permission not having been used, to close the debate on the motion to adopt. The committee shall not be deprived of its right to close the debate even after the previous question has been ordered, and, when a report consisting of two or more propositions has a serious consideration, the chairman or representative of the committee shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges on each proposition thus decided separately as he would have if the report was considered as a unit.

"6. No effective member of the Conference shall absent himself from the sessions of a Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

"7. Resolutions shall be written and presented in duplicate by the mover. All motions shall be reduced to writing if the president, secretary or any member request it.

"8. All written motions, reports and communications to the Conference shall be passed to the secretary to be read by him to the Conference.

"9. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the secretary or stated by the president it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover at any time before amendment or decision.

"10. The following motions shall be taken without debate: (1) To adjourn. (2) To suspend the rules. (3) To lay on the table. (4) To take from the table. (5) The call for the previous question.

"11. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, but one or more of the following motions may be made, and they shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely: (1) To fix the time to which the conference shall adjourn. (2) To adjourn. (3) To take a recess. (4) To lay on the table. (5) For the previous question. (6) To postpone to a given time. (7) To refer. (8) To substitute. (9) To amend. (10) To postpone indefinitely. The motion for the previous question can not be laid on the table.

"12. Only one amendment to an amendment shall be in order but it shall then be in order to move a substitute for the main question, and one amendment to the substitute, and if a substitute is accepted, it shall replace the original proposition.

"13. It shall be in order to move the previous question on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved; and, if sustained by a vote of two-thirds of those present and voting the question shall be taken; nevertheless, it shall be in order under this rule to move to refer, to recommit, to divide or to lay on the table after the previous question has been ordered, the vote being taken in every case without debate. It shall not be in order to move the previous question or to move to lay on the table at the close of a speech in which the pending question has been discussed.

"14. On the call of a member a question shall be divided if it is divisible into distinct propositions.

"15. The motion to adjourn shall be always in order except (1) when a member has the floor, (2) when a question is actually put or a vote is being taken, until finally decided, (3) when a question is pending on sustaining the demand for the previous question, (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained and action under it is still pending, (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

"16. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

"17. The mover of any question or resolution, that shall in any way place a financial obligation on the Conference or any member of the Conference or any church in the territory of the Conference, shall introduce the same before the Conference at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote on the same, and he shall post a duplicate typewritten copy of the same in a conspicuous place at least twenty-four hours before a call for vote.

"18. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall vote, unless the Conference for special reasons excuses him. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when the question shall be put by the president, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

"19. Voting shall be by the uplifted hand, but, on a division of the house, a count vote shall be taken, the members rising in their places and standing until counted. Votes may also be taken by ballot and by ayes and noes.

"20. It shall be in order for any member to call for the ayes and noes on any question before the Conference, and if the call be sustained by ——— members the vote shall be taken by ayes and noes. If not sustained, members, voting in the minority, if said minority is less than ———, may have their votes recorded by name.

"21. The District Superintendents shall be a committee to prepare nominations for the standing committees of the Conference in advance of the Conference Session and present their nominations immediately following the organization of the Conference."

"22. Vacancies in the Conference Board of Trustees, the Conference Board of Stewards and the Conference Deaconess Board shall be filled by election of the Conference on nomination by the District Superintendents.

"23. All requests for special appointment shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

"24. The report of the committee on education shall be the order of the day at 10 o'clock a. m. on Saturday of each session of the Conference and all representations of educational institutions shall be made at that time.

"25. The Statistical Secretary at each session shall appoint a person for each district whose duty it shall be to collect the statistical reports in the districts severally before the opening of the ensuing session and to report under the call for statistics the names of those charges in the several districts which have not presented their statistical reports. The call for statistics shall be made at the opening meeting of the Conference Session immediately following the organization of the Conference.

"26. Each pastor in effective work shall contribute a sum equal to the amount of 1-10 of 1 per cent of his and to be applied as necessity requires to the purpose of securing expert accountants, or stenographers, or assistants to the Conference in any way. as Secretarial Expense Fund, such funnual salary each year to a fund known

"27. In all matters not herein specified the proceedings of the Conference shall be governed by common parliamentary law.

"28. These rules shall not be suspended except by a majority of all the members of the Conference."

MINUTES

—OF—

THE THIRTEENTH ANNUAL SESSION OF THE LAYMEN'S ASSOCIATION OF THE ILLINOIS CONFERENCE

Held in Decatur, Illinois, September 10 and 11, 1920.

Session called to order by President Kagey, who lead a short devotional service, in absence of Miss Buck. Dr. I. H. Neece, of Decatur, Ill., delivered the address of welcome to the city, by the Association; Mr. W. F. Engle, of Bloomington, responded in a very impressive manner.

The following Committees were appointed by the President:

Resolutions:

F. M. Austin, Bloomington, Ill.
Thomas E. Orr, Buffalo, Ill.
R. B. Smedley, Waverly, Ill.

Nominations:

B. F. Huff, Cerro Gordo, Ill.
James Edgar, Arcola, Ill.
Mrs. Ellen Rupert, Rockport, Ill.

Motion made and carried that all members elected as delegates to the Lay-Electoral Conference of 1919 and 1920, also those appointed to attend the Layman's Association Meeting be accorded the privilege of the floor and a vote at this session of the Laymen's Association.

Moved and carried that upon adjournment of the morning session, we adjourn to meet again in afternoon immediately following the special session of the Lay Electoral Conference.

Telegram announcing the death of Rev. W. D. Best, September 6th, in Los Angeles, Calif., was announced by the President. Brother T. E. Orr, and Dr. Joseph R. Harker, spoke in very kind words of the tender memories of Rev. Best. President asked Dr. Harker to lead in a prayer of sympathy for Mrs. Best and the family, which was done.

Moved by T. E. Orr and seconded by Dr. J. R. Harker, that Secretary send a telegram of sympathy to Mrs. Best and the family, and accordingly a Night Letter was sent.

Rev. Peter Kettel was introduced and spoke in the interest of the "World Outlook." Also Miss Jennings representing the Boarding School for Girls at Arcola, Ill. Likewise Mrs. Love for the Cunningham Children's Home, Urbana. And Miss Tempa Asher the Baby Fold, Normal.

Dr. Harker needing no introduction to an Illinois Conference Delegation of Ministers and Laymen, spoke of the past, present and future of the Illinois Woman's College, and as in the past still prays for friends for the College.

A motion prevailed to adjourn, to meet again in afternoon immediately following the special session of the Lay-Electoral Conf., closing with prayer by J. U. Surface.

3:00 p. m.—The Laymen's Association reconvened for a shop session, and Rev. E. K. Towle was accorded the floor and spoke of the Conference Evangelistic Interests and the Wesley Foundation.

Committee on Nominations reported as follows:

President, Benjamin F. Kagy, Tuscola, Ill.; Secretary-Treasurer, C. C. Grimmett, Palmyra, Ill.; Vice-Presidents—Bloomington District, W. F. Engle, Bloomington, Ill.; Champaign District, S. A. Murduck, Champaign, Ill.; Decatur District, Isaac L. Long, Assumption, Ill.; Jacksonville District, Thomas V. Hopper, Jacksonville, Ill.; Mattoon District, H. R. Snaveley, Marshall, Ill.; Quincy District, C. W. Caughlin, Pittsfield, Ill.; Springfield District, I. B. Blackstock, Springfield, Ill.

Executive Committee:—

President and Secretary.

Judge H. R. Snaveley, Marshall, Ill.; F. M. Austin, Bloomington, Ill.; Mrs. Emma Jerman, Havana, Ill.

On motion report was accepted as read.

The remainder of the Vice-Presidents' reports were heard, after which meeting stood adjourned, closing with prayer by F. M. Austin.

SATURDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 11, 1920.

8:45 a. m.—Class meeting, lead by J. W. Breckon, of Jacksonville, Ill. A taste of the fellowship enjoyed by our Fathers of other days.

The address of the morning, by Charles Wesley Neitz, Peoria, Ill., President Laymen's Association, Central Illinois Conference.

Business Session:—

Secretary read his report and it was adopted.

Report of Committee on Resolutions read and adopted as read. Resolutions favored a continuance of the Evangelistic program adopted last year; asked for the encouragement of the youthful minds toward high religious ideals and deep spiritual consecration; rejoiced in the adoption of the eighteenth amendment of the Constitution; and opposed any act of law tending to repeal the Volstead Act, or in any way to modify the strict enforcement of the present laws in favor of the eighteenth amendment; rejoiced in the complete enfranchisement of women; pledged to assist Chaddock Boys' School, The Cunningham Children's Home, and the Baby Fold by word and financial aid whenever possible; also Institutions of Higher Education, especially the Illinois Woman's College and the Illinois Wesleyan, and rejoiced in the final settlement of the question relative to the location of the Wesleyan University.

After some timely remarks by the President, and Prayer by Henry Jenne, a motion to adjourn was entertained, which prevailed; thus the session of 1920 came to a happy close.
